The staling of the spire on Christ Church is progressing slowly.

New Berne Lodge, No. 443, Knights of Honor, will meet to-night.

Corner stone of the school building to be laid on Tuesday, the 17th.

The Baptist Sunday school will picnic at Morehead City to-day. The train will leave at 7 o'clock, sharp.

The Old Dominion wharf had a large lot Irish potatoes yesterday evening which is an indication of a heavy shipment to-day.

Wild turkey was on the bill of fare at the Gaston House yesterday, the landlord having captured an eighteen pounder, fat and nice.

The citizens of Greensboro propose to celebrate the completion of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad to that point on Thursday, June 19th. We are in receipt of an invitation to attend, for which the committee will accept thanks.

Rev. Maj. N. M. Jurney, of Beaufort, N. C., claims to have the largest water melons and cantaloupes in the State. He says that they are as large as his fist and that he expects to have the first ripe melons in North Carolina. Some of his friends may not know that he is a military man, but he was commissioned by the Governor some years ago as Chaplain with the rank of Major.

In our notice yesterday our printer made us say trustees instead of teachers as written. In order to correct the error we re-produce the notice:

All the teachers and every pupil connected with the Graded School are requested to meet at their respective rooms on Tuesday, June 17, to participate in the ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the new school building.

An Extraordinary Hon Egg.

Mr. Jno. Gilman, of Onslow county, vouches for the following egg story: "Owen Henderson had in his possession an egg about the size of a goose egg which when broken open was found to contain an ordinary sized hen egg that was perfect in every particular. The egg, or eggs, were laid by a small hen."

Personal.

Messrs. M. DeW. Stevenson and F. M. Simmons have returned from Raleigh, whither they had been attending the circuit court of the United States.

Capt. E. R. Page, of Trenton, is in the city. Says Arthur and Lincoln is his ticket; hasn't heard of the Chicago Convention yet.

Ready to Come.

The steamship Regulator arrived from New York last evening with some parts of the machinery of the steamer "Little Giant," which were sent North to be overhauled. The hose reel has been newly painted and everything is about ready for the trip to New Berne next week.—Wilmington Star.

Our firemen here are preparing for them, and we hope will give them a pleasant reception.

Officers Elected.

At a regular meeting of St. John Lodge No. 3, A. F. & A. M., held on Wednesday night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year:

T. A. Green, W. M.; J. H. Hackburn, S. W.; Sam B. Waters, J. W.; Isaac Patterson, Treasurer; E. G. Hill, Secretary.

The present W. M., A. W. Wood, was delegated to lay the corner stone of the graded school building on Tuesday, the 17th.

The Plank Walk at Morehead.

The Mayor of Morehead City sends us the following telegram:

"The raised wooden promenade of nearly half a mile, connecting the New Berne House and Atlantic Hotel, was finally completed to-day, affording the most pleasant promenade at any watering place South. It is joint work of the corporation and the hotels."

Blaine and Logan Club.

A portion of the Republicans met at the court house last night for the purpose of organizing a Blaine and Logan Club. Virgil A. Crawford was called to the chair and speeches made by him, L. B. Abbott and E. R. Dudley. It was claimed by some that it was a Stinson meeting and local politics seemed to enter into the deliberations more or less. Daniel Stinson was elected President of the Club and a long list of Vice-Presidents were elected from both the Blaine and Stinson factions. A substitute offered by Jno. S. Maniz, selecting Hon. O. Hobbs for President, Mayer Hahn, Daniel Stinson and E. R. Dudley Vice Presidents was tabled. Abbott made the point that tabling the substitute carried the original motion with it, and the chairman put the original and a Fire Test.

L. D. Mott's Patent Fire and Water-proof Paint will be tested at the corner of Broad and Middle streets this evening at 8 o'clock by Mills & Walker, the proprietors. This paint is said to be fire proof and the proprietors propose to prove it by actual test.

Mode of Baptism.

We have received a copy of a little book recently published by Rev. Dr. Burkhead of this city with the above title. The "mode of baptism" is one of the questions that always has divided and probably always will divide christians, notwithstanding the many controversies and the very clear and unmistakable proofs each side produce to sustain their position. In this book Dr. Burkhead does not offer any new argument on the subject, and while the reading of it may not convert any one who has been trained in the Baptist's doctrine, yet the arguments are so arranged, and so tersely put that believers in the "modes" of baptism will be strengthened in their faith by reading it. For sale by H. L. Hall.

Tilden Heard From.

Hon. Samuel J. Tilden, in a public letter addressed to the chairman of the Democratic State Committee, closes as follows:

"At present the considerations which induced my action in 1880 have become imperative. I ought not to assume a task which I have not the physical strength to carry through. To reform the administration of the Federal Government, to realize my own ideal, and to fulfill the just expectations of the people would indeed warrant (as they could alone compensate) the sacrifices which the undertaking would involve. But in my condition of advancing years and declining strength I feel no assurance of my ability to accomplish these objects. I am therefore constrained to say definitely that I cannot now assume the labors of the administration or of the canvass.

Undervaluing in no wise that best gift that heaven, occasion and power sometimes bestow upon a mere individual, to communicate an impulse for good; grateful beyond all words to my fellow-countrymen who would assign such a beneficent function to me, I am consoled by the reflection that neither the Democratic party nor the Republic—for whose future that party is the best guarantee—is now, or ever can be, dependent upon any one man for their successful progress in the path of noble destiny. Having given to their welfare whatever health and strength I possessed, or could borrow from the future, and having reached the term of my capacity for such labors as their welfare now demands, I but submit to the will of God in deeming my public career forever closed.

SAM'L J. TILDEN.

Kinston Items.

We have had good, refreshing showers every day this week.

Ideas are children of the brain. Like the children of men, they are sometimes brought forth with great travail.

The Raleigh News and Observer has a jingling "pome" about the "old clock," containing thirteen stanzas on "set 'em up again." "Set 'em up again" always was a popular Democratic rallying cry.

Richard L. Parrott, the editor of the Kinston Times, is a candidate for register of deeds in this county. Our young friend has been rather late lately, but he will learn now it is easier to catch flies with molasses than with vinegar.

The examinations and commencement of the many schools in this section are about over. This thing, it looks to us, is overdue. More time than is necessary is wasted on examinations and exhibitions. This seems to be the case with all schools, public and private. An examination teaches nothing and should therefore be sufficiently short not to interfere with the ordinary course of studies. But examinations have, during the last decade, occupied a larger and larger share of attention and time, until now, in too many cases, the sole aim of both teachers and pupils during the entire time is to make a good showing at exhibition time. For several weeks before vacation commences regular lessons are suspended and the time is spent in preparing for examination and exhibition. If the vacations, examinations, reviews, holidays, Saturdays, Sundays and absences through sickness of any twenty pupils were deducted from the year, it is probable that it would be found that the average number of days in which regular lessons were learned would not amount to more than one hundred and fifty. This is a state of things that needs amendment, and one which is to a great extent the cause of the overwork which is crowded into the actual working days. A larger number of working days, fewer studies more perfectly studied, and less time spent on examinations and exhibitions, would form a good prescription for the schools of our section.

OFFICE GRAND SECRETARY.

A. F. & A. M., Raleigh, N. C.
By order of the Grand Master of North Carolina, a special Communication of the Grand Lodge of A. F. & A. M. of North Carolina will be held at New Berne, N. C., on Tuesday, June 17th, 1884, for the purpose of laying the corner stone of the New Berne Graded School building.

Alpheus Fields returned from the State University last Friday.

Dr. Hodges' dwelling is being pushed to completion as rapidly as possible.

The two schools in our place are now vacating. If you don't want a dull time you'll have to vacate too.

Many refreshing showers has caused vegetation to put on a freshness that it knew not of during the cold snap.

Prof. Skinner has gone to his home in Chowan county. He carries with him the best wishes of many friends here.

Prof. Williams attended the annual commencement exercises at Chapel Hill last week, and returned Monday. Prof. White, his associate, will be here this week.

Miss Effie Rouse and Mr. Thomas Rouse, daughter and son of our fellow-citizen Noah Rouse, Esq., returned home last Monday. Miss Effie has just completed her education at Peace Institute, and Mr. Thomas at Chapel Hill.

The self-binder purchased by M. H. Wooten, Esq., from D. M. Stanton, ag't at this place, we learn is doing good work and giving satisfaction. It would have pleased us to see the machine operate, but circumstances would not allow it.

Capt. A. C. Davis' new house, head quarters, is completed, and the Captain, we suppose, is comfortably stored away therein. The building is very beautiful, and we can suggest but one improvement—about this the Captain must ask privately.

We have seen a new separator, or threshing, purchased by Louis Hines from J. W. Grainger of Kinston, which is said to be superior to any ever used in our community before. Mr. O. H. Pearce will operate the machine and when we learn of its work we will say more.

Afflictions in the family of your Itemizer has prevented him from writing for several days. There are times in our lives when words cannot express our feelings of gratitude. The expression of sympathy and the kindness shown us by many friends will not be forgotten while life lasts. To these kind friends, to a kinder Providence, and to the attentiveness of Drs. Hadley and Hodges we will ever feel grateful.

Mr. A. J. Sutton, who went to Florida about three months ago, returned here last Monday. Afflictions in his father's family brought him home. For several years Mr. Sutton was engaged as clerk in the mercantile business in this place, and had won for himself a name second to none here for attentiveness and reliability. But the fancy paintings of the "land of flowers" and the gay descriptions of wealth in the immediate future, caused him to leave home, living and devoted parents, kind and affectionate brothers and sisters, and seek his fortune in that land. Many are the irremediable wrongs that have been imposed on our best young men, who are at certain ages just ready for adventure, by giving to them highly painted and fanciful descriptions of the wealth of distant lands that can never be realized. North Carolina is to all practical purposes a "goodly land," and the sooner our young men, and especially the good ones, learn to discredit the many absurd, unreasonable and selfish accounts of the advantages of other States and remain at home the better for them and our State.

STATE NEWS.

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Durham Reporter: Work on the cotton factory is progressing rapidly.—J. P. Crowder, a white flagman on the Air Line Railroad, fell from the car at Trade street depot, Charlotte, and was crushed to death by a moving train.

Clayton Bud: The farmers here and yonder are busy harvesting their wheat.—The curlew bugs are getting worse. We heard the other day that a gentleman of Chatham county said that they had stolen his seed corn out of his pocket.

Wilmington Star: A special telegram to the Star from Mr. C. W. Tillet informs us that Rev. J. H. Gwinn, a prominent minister, and pastor of the Methodist Church at Rockingham, Richmond county, died there at 2 o'clock yesterday morning.—Four of the Collectors of this port have died in the past three or four years, viz: Gen. J. C. Abbott, Collector, and Messrs. L. E. Rice, R. C. Myers and R. W. Chadwick, Deputy Collectors; all but the latter having died in office.

Raleigh News and Observer: Oats have been improved considerably by the rains.—The authorities of the Seaboard Air-Line system of railroads have subscribed $1,000 to the funds of the State exposition company, and the Richmond & Danville system has made a donation of $1,000 to the same object. We chronicle these evidences of public spirited generosity with pleasure. They are but in keeping with the reputation these splendid corporations have established.

Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: The attendance at St. Mary's school terminal exhibit, the past two evenings, was very large, and very enjoyable. We have never attended a school exhibition, but long experience in journalism trains the ear to catch the echoes of popular Campaign Rates.

Twenty copies,	7.00
Fifty	15.00

Confederate Monument.

The ladies of the New Berne Memoria Association earnestly desire to complete the monument already begun to the memory of our honored Confederate soldiers. They will need for this purpose $450 and they feel assured that it will only be necessary to let this fact be known, to meet with a generous and ready response from every citizen of Craven county whose heart beats in sympathy with theirs in their work. Any contribution, however small, will be thankfully received and properly used. A box will be placed at the store of Mr. Alex. Miller, who is the authorized agent to receive any money for the purpose; or it may be given to any one of the officers of the Association whose names are here subscribed:

Mrs. E. B. DAVIS, President.
L. C. VASS, Vice-President.
GEORGE ALLEN, Treasurer.
C. W. MCLEAN, Secretary.

speech in tribute to the memory of Governor Jonathan Worth, at Chapel Hill last week, is highly commended. It was made in acknowledgment of an oil portrait of the eminent Quaker, presented to the University by his grandsons, a number of whom were in the audience.

Raleigh Evening Visitor: The crops are looking fine.—Peaches are plentiful in market, but the prices asked are quite high.—At the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Institution of the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind, held at the Institution on yesterday afternoon, Mr. W. J. Young, was unanimously re-elected Principal of that Institution for three years. All of the old teachers were unanimously re-elected for the next session, which begins in September next.

The present session closes to-morrow, when the students will return to their respective homes to enjoy the vacation. The Institution was never in a better or more flourishing condition than at present, which speaks well for the Principal and his corps of teachers.

Asheville Advance: Mrs. Judge Fenner, of New Orleans, has moved to Asheville to spend the summer.—In some parts of the State corn is so scarce and wheat so abundant that the farmers will feed their hogs with the latter.—The troublesome potato bug is doing destructive work on gardens in this section. One gentleman told us that they had literally eaten up his entire crop of potatoes, and that he counted as many as fifty-seven on one vine. It is surprising with what rapidity these bugs can destroy a vine after they attack it.—A serious difficulty took place at a bar room on Cane river in Yancey county on last Saturday, in which Ellis Gardner was shot and mortally wounded by a pistol shot at the hands of William Wilson, a son of the sheriff of that county. The report of the sad occurrence which we have received, is to the effect that the parties to the difficulty were at a bar room when a dispute of some kind arose, when Wilson drew his pistol and shot Gardner, the ball entering the breast and passing through the body lodged near the back bone. It is thought that the wounded man cannot recover.

Statesville American: The wheat harvest will be the largest ever known in Iredell and adjacent counties.—Rev. Mr. Bynum, Evangelist, with the Rector, Mr. Ed. Wooten, has been during the week, holding daily and night services at the Episcopal church, the former of whom has delivered a number of able and interesting sermons.—Quite a number of wheat cutting machines are being sold in this market, which will be needed to harvest the large wheat and other small grain crops, which are more extensive than ever before.

A gentleman from the country had in town on Tuesday a fine specimen of the American Barn Owl for which he only asked the small sum of $10. Strange that all who saw it could not recognize the species, although well acquainted with the owl family. Comparatively tame with the owner, it was somewhat vicious at the near approach of strangers.

The wrapper for Blackwell's Durham Long Cut is unique. The foil, which effectively preserves the freshness and aroma of the tobacco, is stamped into a silken surface. At the top is the triumphant Durham Bull, symmetrical in figure and lordly in proportion. Beneath are the Pyramids, on whose top an ambitious sculptor is carving—not Excalibur, but which is the same thing—Durham. Enjoy the artistic design before passing it over to the children. d
