Harper's Magazine frequently hits a topic of the day, in its illustrated articles, with notable timeliness. The leading paper of the July number will be on "The Nile," a subject in which there is just now a good deal of interest all over the world, with illustrations by Sir Frederick Leighton, P. R. A., and from other sources. The timeliness is all the more remarkable when it is remembered that it is largely a matter of Haskett; No. 8, J. T. What Others Think of Him. Our friend Chase, of the Vermont Union, must have dipped his peu in the gall of bitterness while on his recent trip South, or else he thinks it is comentary to a town or city to show up in shortcomings and exaggerate them n manner that will invite others to lay away. The following item from Was Point (Va.) Star would indinate that he was quite complimentary, after his style, to that town:

THE COUNTY DEMOCRATIC CON-VESTION.

The delegates to the Craven county Democratic Convention assembled at the court house at 12 o'clock on Saturday.

E. H. Meadows, the Chairman of the Executive Committee, called the meeting to order.

On motion, H. R. Bryan, Esq., was lected Chairman of the Convention, J. W. Biddle and H. S. Nunn, Secretaries. Moved and adopted that a committee of five be appointed on credentials. The chair appointed the following as the committee: E. H. Meadows, A. W. Wood, R. D. Hancock, S. W. Latham and A. Gordon.

Hon, C. C. Clark appeared in the Convention and asked the chairman for a Manly. few minutes' time to bring a matter before the Convention which he said was of importance to the people of Craven and to the whole State. After a few forcible remarks in regard to the importance of the people of this county utilizing their home talent to aid in developing the resources, and advancing The Daily JOURNAL will be an illus- the interests of the community, he trated paper every Sunday morning for offered the following resolutions, which the next three months. A motion to appoint a committee to suggest delegates failed.

While the committee on resolutions were preparing their report F. M. Simmons, Esq., was called for and he responded in a very forcible speech. The committee on resolutions made the following report: Resolved, That the Democratic party of Craven county, in convention assem-bled, hereby reaffirms its full faith in the patriotism, wisdom and policy of the Democratic party, both State and National. That it earnestly sympathizes with and endorses the efforts made by the Democratic members of Congress looking to the repeal of the present odious and oppressive Internal Revenue system, and requests that they continue their efforts in that direction until the entire system be abolished. And Resolved further. That the interests of the taxpapers and business men of the State demand the retention of the present system of county government.

Bible Distribution.

Rev. Thaddeus L. Troy, who holds a commission from the American Bible Society, with instructions to visit each and every family in Craven county, and to sell Bibles at cost price to all who wish to purchase them, and to supply any family, who are unable to purchase, with a plain Bible free of cost, will commence on Monday to canvass the memory of our honored Confederate city for this purpose.

This furnishes our citizens a good opportunity to purchase Bibles and Testa-ments at very low prices. Mr. Troy's commission authorizes him to solicit and collect funds for the benevolent work of the society among the destitute. We trust that our citizens will render him all proper assistance in the good
