LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

REV. M. L. WOOD—Trinity College.
Geo. GREEN—Notice.
NEWS AND OBSERVER.

Journal Miniature Almanac.

Sun rises, 4:53 | Length of day,
Sun sets, 7:17 | 14 hours, 36 minutes.
Moon rises at 9:50 p. m.

Watermelons are coming in pretty plentiful, but prices are fancy yet.

Rev. I. M. Rose, of Goldsboro, will occupy the Presbyterian Church pulpit on Sunday next at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m.

One of our sportsmen went out on Thursday, fired ten shots and returned with eight ducks and a water moccasin.

The advertisement of Trinity College appears in this issue. Trinity maintains its former reputation as the place for the education of young men.

The bulletin board was crowded all day yesterday until the nomination was announced. Bayard seemed to have the sympathy of the Democrats, while the Republicans hoped that it would be Cleveland.

Two men went reeling down Middle street yesterday, each trying to hold the other up. Finally they both reeled one way, lost their balance and came down in a promiscuous heap. They scrambled up, however, and one propped himself against the other and they managed to keep in position until they reached a place where they could complete the job.

The steamer Trent will positively leave her wharf to night at 8 o'clock for Portsmouth. All wishing to go will be promptly on hand at that time. Fare for round trip two dollars. Board can be obtained on board of the steamer, or on shore, as passengers may desire. The steamer will leave the island Tuesday morning for New Berne. A delightful time is anticipated.

Cleveland and Hendricks.

The above is the ticket placed in nomination yesterday by the National Convention. The late hour when it was completed prevents an extended notice of the men, but must say we are highly pleased and believe it is the ticket to win.

News and Observer.

We call attention to the campaign rates of the News and Observer published elsewhere in this issue. It is a staunch Democratic paper and its owners and managers are showing more enterprise than ever; thus constantly improving it both in editorial matter, and in general and State news.

Our European Letter.

We give in this issue the third letter from Rev. L. C. Vass since he left New Berne. It is the most interesting yet, and now since he has reached the country we expect to hear from him once a week. His letters will be interesting reading to those who want to know something of the habits and customs of the old world.

The Big Fish.

Capt. James Nelson, colored, caught at South river on Thursday, two of the largest sunfish probably ever brought to this market. They weighed 27 and 30 pounds, respectively. They were 24 feet long, 14 inches wide, about 5 inches thick. Capt. T. M. Southgate, of the Shenandoah, became the purchaser of these extra specimens of this very superior fish.

National Convention.

From the assembling of the Convention on Tuesday up to the adjournment, we have kept the proceedings before our readers, quite well connected and very full indeed.

In the matter of taking the telegrams we are under obligation to Mr. Tillery the operator and also to Messrs. Justin Jones and Joseph Watson for courtesies. Mr. Tillery, although suffering from a severe boil on his arm, sat patiently at the keys, with slight intermissions, until he had received and bulletined over 325 messages.

Shooting Affray.

Quite an excitement prevailed on Middle street, yesterday morning, at Watson & Daniel's ice-house, caused by an attack of V. A. Crawford, col., on C. T. Watson. After the parties were separated by Major Harvey and Mr. Thos. Daniels several shots were fired, one ball striking Major Harvey, making a flesh wound in the breast, and one striking a colored man from James City in the calf of the leg. A warrant was issued by Justice Brinson and executed by the Sheriff, who brought the parties before the Justice at the court house, Crawford being represented by Hon. C. C. Clark and Geo. H. White, Esq., and Watson by Messrs. Simmons & Manly. Both parties waived examination and the Justice recognized them in the sum of one thousand dollars each for their appearance at the next term of the Superior Court, and to keep the peace towards all citizens of the State, especially towards one another.

THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.

By Telegraph.
FOURTH DAY.

CHICAGO, July 11, 10 A. M.—Succeeding ballots, the changes and totals only will be given. While it seems to be pretty generally believed Cleveland will be nominated, it is intended, that if he is not successful after a few ballots, an effort will be made to turn the convention to Hendricks. Cleveland's friends claim that he will be nominated on the third ballot.

10:20 A. M.—Hendricks just entered; tremendous cheering.

10:42 A. M.—Reliably stated that Colorado will change its vote to Cleveland on first ballot this morning. Convention now assembling.

10:44 A. M.—It is said that Randall's influence will be turned to Cleveland this morning. McDonald, Rosecrans and Vilas are names most prominent for Vice-President.

10:45 A. M.—Cleveland's men claim that Illinois will cast solid vote for Cleveland on coming ballot, that Pennsylvania will give him 40 votes, a gain of 35, and that Cleveland will poll at least 450 on first ballot.

11:11 A. M.—Number of telegrams from various parts of the country suggesting proper persons to be nominated laid on table.

11:17 A. M.—Motion that vote of States shall not be changed until succeeding ballot. Lost.

11:20 A. M.—Pennsylvania withdraws Randall. Good deal of consultation going on among delegates.

Roll of States for Second Ballot.

11:22 A. M.—Alabama, Cleveland gains 1 from Thurman.

11:23 A. M.—Cleveland gains 6 from Florida. Cleveland loses two; Bayard's gain.

11:25 A. M.—Cleveland gains 4; Bayard loses 2.

Illinois cast 1 vote for Hendricks. [Great cheering.]

11:27 A. M.—Applause and cheers increasing; many delegates and most of the audience on their feet; chairman trying to restore order.

11:28 A. M.—Cheering and applause continue, and are most demonstrative since the convention met.

11:31 A. M.—Cheering continues; hats, handkerchiefs and umbrellas waving; band has struck up but can't be heard for cheers.

11:33 A. M.—Tammany men are standing up on the seats, cheering and waving handkerchiefs.

11:34 A. M.—The chairman is vainly endeavoring to restore order.

11:35 A. M.—Applause has broken out afresh.

11:37 A. M.—Tammany men call for three cheers for Hendricks. [Renewed applause and hisses.]

11:40 A. M.—The tumult is somewhat subsiding through the efforts of the chairman and delegates.

11:41 A. M.—Vorhees has taken the stand. [Renewed cheering.]

11:43 P. M.—Band has struck up again.

11:44 A. M.—Vorhees is trying to be heard.

11:46 A. M.—Order restored.

11:46 A. M.—Vorhees withdraws Mc. Donald, and will go for Hendricks.

11:47 A. M.—The tumult has broken out again. Delegates are struggling to be heard. Many consulting with other delegates.

11:50 A. M.—Illinois cast 38 votes for Cleveland, a gain of 10. [Great cheering.]

11:51 A. M.—About half the delegates are on their feet and loud demonstrations all over the house. If Cleveland holds what he had on first ballot this change will give him a majority of the convention.

11:55 A. M.—Considerably more demonstration is made by delegates and less in the audience on Hendricks's name.

11:56 A. M.—Order restored.

11:58 A. M.—Illinois, Bayard gains 1. Indiana cast 30 votes for Hendricks. [Renewed cheering.]

12 M.—Cleveland loses 1, and Hendricks gains 4 votes in Iowa.

12:01 P. M.—Pennsylvania retires for consultation.

12:06 P. M.—Kansas, Cleveland gains 1; Bayard's loss.

12:08 P. M.—Kentucky withdraws Carlisle and cast 1 vote for Thurman, Cleveland 3, Bayard 7, Hendricks 15.

12:09 P. M.—Louisiana, Cleveland gains 3; Thurman 3.

12:10 P. M.—Maryland, Cleveland gains 4; Bayard's loss.

12:11 P. M.—Massachusetts cast 13 votes for Hendricks and 8 for Cleveland, a gain of 8.

12:12 P. M.—Michigan cast 13 votes for Hendricks; Cleveland loses 1.

Missouri, Cleveland gains 6; cast 6 for Hendricks.

12:14 P. M.—Mississippi, Cleveland gains 1, Hendricks 2.

Nebraska, Cleveland gains 1.

12:14 P. M.—Nevada casts her 5 votes for Hendricks.

12:15 P. M.—New Jersey Cleveland gains 1; casts 11 for Hendricks.

12:28 P. M.—Ohio, Tilden 1; Hendricks 1; only changes. Oregon, Cleveland gains 2 from Bayard; Hendricks gains 2. South Carolina, Hendricks gains 1; Bayard's loss.

12:32 P. M.—Tennessee, Thurman gains 2; Bayard's loss; Hendricks gains 1 vote.

12:33 P. M.—Cleveland gains 2 in Texas; Thurman's loss.

12:35 P. M.—Virginia, Hendricks gains 2; West Virginia, Cleveland loses 1.

12:37 P. M.—Hendricks gains 2; Cleveland gains 8.

12:38 P. M.—District of Columbia gives Hendricks 2.

12:38 P. M.—On this ballot Cleveland has 433 without Pennsylvania, which is just coming in. Pennsylvania gives Cleveland 42, making his total on this ballot 475.

12:39 P. M.—Second ballot closed: Cleveland, 475; Hendricks, 124; Bayard, 150; Thurman, 60; Randall, 5; McDonald, 2; Tilden, 2.

12:37 P. M.—Illinois changed from Cleveland to Bayard.

12:30 P. M.—Kansas changes, giving Cleveland a gain of 1.

12:31 P. M.—North Carolina changes 23 from Bayard to Cleveland.

12:34 P. M.—Ohio is trying to change her vote amidst great confusion. Cleveland's friends claim that there will be changes enough to give him the nomination. Virginia changes, giving Cleveland a gain of 10.

12:37 P. M.—Georgia changes to Cleveland; a gain of 8. Cleveland's nomination is conceded; numbers of delegates are struggling to be heard to change the vote.

12:38 P. M.—Cleveland nominated on second ballot.

12:41 P. M.—Great cheering; bands playing; waving of hands and handkerchiefs. A large floral piece with an eagle on top and the name of Cleveland has just been brought in.

12:45 P. M.—John Kelly has withdrawn from the hall; guns are being fired outside.

12:48 P. M.—The report that Kelly had withdrawn from the hall is erroneous. He is still here.

12:51 P. M.—Hendricks requested that the nomination of Cleveland be made unanimous.

12:59 P. M.—A large portrait of Cleveland has just been brought in the hall. [Fresh applause.]

Official Second Ballot:—Cleveland, 689; Bayard, 81; Hendricks, 45; Thurman, 47; McDonald, 2; Randall, 4.

The nomination of Cleveland was made unanimous.

1:18 P. M.—Cleveland's portrait is being placed in front of the platform amidst much applause.

Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania, moved for a recess till 5 o'clock p. m. in order to give time for consideration on candidates for Vice-President. Carried.

EVENING SESSION.

6:21 P. M.—Convention assembled at 5:15. Gen. Black, of Illinois, is mentioned for Vice-Presidency.

It is said neither Hendricks nor McDonald would accept.

Vilas and Rosecrans seem to have good many supporters.

It is said strong efforts are being made to induce Hendricks to accept nomination for Vice-President, in which case he will be nominated by acclamation.

Convention called to order.

Vilas selected as chairman of committee to notify candidates.

Resolution to endorse Morrison's bill for reduction of duties referred to committee on resolutions.

Roll call of States for presentation of candidates for Vice-President ordered.

Speeches to be confined to 5 minutes and only one second to be allowed.

None of the Tammany men are present this evening.

California presents Rosecrans. Colorado presents McDonald.

Georgia presents Gen. Black, of Illinois. [Cheers.]

Gen. Black arose and said he declined in favor of McDonald.

Illinois presents Gen. Black. Kansas presents Gov. Glyok, of Kansas.

Maryland seconds McDonald. Oregon seconds Rosecrans.

Wallace, of Pennsylvania, presents Hendricks. [Great applause.]

Connecticut seconds Hendricks. Senator Menza, of Indiana, is trying to be heard but cannot for cheers.

Hubbard, of Texas, seconds Hendricks.

California withdraws Rosecrans. Kansas withdraws Glyok and seconds Hendricks.

Georgia withdraws Black and seconds Hendricks.

New York asked for a call of the roll, as she believed that every delegate favored the nomination of Hendricks.

Call of States began.

States all voted solidly for Hendricks. The roll call resulted in the unanimous vote for Hendricks with the exception of one from Mississippi for McDonald, Indiana not voting.

Mississippi changed one to Hendricks and Indiana voted solidly for him which gave him the entire vote of the convention.

The delegates have seized the State Banners and are waving them and marching up and down the aisles and the audience are cheering loudly.

T. A. Hendricks, of Indiana, was unanimously nominated for Vice-President, and the convention adjourned sine die.

Church To-Day.

Rev. James E. Mann, Presiding Elder, will preach in the M. E. Church South to-day at 11 o'clock, this being the third quarterly meeting for New Berne station.

Personal.

Miss Lizzie Gaskins, who has been visiting relatives in the city, left yesterday on the steamer Kinston for her home, in Pitt county.

Mrs. J. M. White also left for her home, in Kinston.

Mr. and Mrs. Cosby have returned from a trip to Virginia. They arrived in Goldsboro an hour or two after the train had left for New Berne and had to wait over twenty-two hours.

Serious Accident.

On yesterday morning one of the saws at Mr. Stinson's mill, while cutting a log that had probably been shivered by lightning, was thrown, by the breaking of the log, against the guide, breaking it into several pieces, one of which struck Enoch Roberts, one of the hands on the carriage, crushing his shoulder so badly that the top bone had to be taken out. Doctors Charlie and Frank Duffy attended him, and dressed his wounds which are pronounced quite serious.

Claremont Bridge.

Mr. J. J. Howard having been appointed by the county commissioners to examine Claremont bridge, which has just been completed by Wm. Foy, Esq., has performed that duty and reports that it is the best bridge ever been put there, and furthermore as good as there is in this portion of the State. It has nearly twice as much timber, of the very best material, and twice as much work as was put on the former bridge, and the contractor says he made no money. He also wants to know if the man who wanted a chance to bid on this bridge has completed the Quaker bridge and made it first-class. We will tell him when we take a trip on the road to Onslow. The Claremont bridge has been accepted by the commissioners and travelers made feel secure while passing over it.

Gum Branch Items.

Politics is beginning to rage, only about 75 or 80 candidates for the different offices in this county. Our convention comes off in August.

We had a celebration, that is, a holiday, in the pocsin on the 4th inst., and had it not been for the rainy weather, would have had a good time. Whistling Bill, the celebrated banjo picker, tried himself on that day; it was boss this and boss that, etc. Will give you a good one next week.

We don't have any mails, or as good as none. We would like to know if the mail carriers is paid or not, for carrying the mail from Richlands to Jacksonville; if so, he ought to be paid well, for he carries it regular about once a week when it should be carried daily, according to contract. Hope some one will say something about it and stop the route entirely, unless they go according to contract. We are living in a thickly settled community and Gum Branch is our postoffice and the only one in ten miles of us.

We have but very little funny news so far this week, but we have rain and wind a plenty; too wet for the farmers; the most of them are done their corn crops and they have good ones, too. I don't know which one will take the rag off the bush, but from Cad. Koonce's report he has one of the best. Silas Venters showed me some very fine onions; some of them, I think, were the largest kind, and beat Cad. Koonce's "all hollow," but Cad. has some of the best Irish potatoes in this pocsin. When I speak of the pocsin I mean the one through which our road runs.

Capt. Melvor has just returned from Raleigh with an addition to his force of convicts; he has now on hand 51 of them and if the weather will just permit for a couple of short months, out goes the Quaker Bridge road, done for good, and then you can ride, walk, crawl or run over as pretty a piece of dirt road as ever princes traveled over in by-gone days. Next week, if nothing happens, Mc's party will move away over in Jones county among Johnson's hack berries (a new term for whortle berries). Then the bears will have to get mud turtles and snakes and crawfish with further and tadpoles will keep company for the church of the strangers. We understood Mr. Loftin said one man ought to cut 700 feet 6x4 ditch in one day; if so, he ought to be the man to come over, in a horn.

The leaf of the Golden Belt of North Carolina, of the best of which is made Blackwell's Durham Long Cut, shows by analysis only a trace of nicotine and the nitrates. There is no poison to absorb; and none to injure the system. The absence of nerve-destroying properties, and yet the presence of delicate flavors and delicious aromas, is what gives the Durham Long Cut the topmost place in the favor of all who delight in a savory pipe.

A Question.

I wish to enquire of the Mayor if the law is made for any one man, or is it for all men.

Sweet Gum and Mullein.

Very few realize that in the exudation they see clinging to the Sweet Gum tree there is a powerful stimulating expectorant principle, and in the old field Mullein a mucilaginous one that is very healing to the lungs. These two principles presents in Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein a pleasant and effective cure for Croup, Whooping Cough, Colds and Consumption. Price 25cts. and $1.00. This with Dr. Biggers' Southern Remedy, an equally efficacious remedy for Cramp, Colic, Diarrhea, Dysentery, and children suffering from the effects of teething, presents a little Medicine Chest no household should be without, for the speedy relief of sudden and dangerous attacks of the lungs and bowels. Ask your druggists for them. Manufactured by Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga., proprietor of Taylor's Premium Cologne. je15 d4w1m

Almost every person has some form of scrofulous poison latent in his veins. When this develops in scrofulous sores, ulcers, or eruptions, or takes the form of rheumatism, or organic diseases, the suffering that ensues is terrible beyond description. Hence the gratitude of those who discover, as thousands yearly do, that Ayer's Sarsaparilla will thoroughly eradicate this evil from the system.
