Strange lack of names of streets strikes a stranger unfavorably. Limeade is the refreshing drink now dispensed at John Dunn's, with other 'coolers.'

Quite a good list of passengers left yesterday by the Shenandoah for Nag's Head and points further North.

Owing to the late hour at which the speaking closed last night we are unable to give an extended notice of the speeches. Will notice them in the future.

The committee on elections for the fifth ward, appointed by the Cleveland and Scales Campaign Club, are J. H. Haekburn, John Collins and A. M. Hanff. A good team.

Mr. Neilson, of Baltimore, the architect who drew the designs for the Episcopal Church spire, was in the city yesterday to view the work. He came and left on the Shenandoah.

Improvements going on around colored Graded School—new residences, new fences, repairs to houses and front yards. This is one result from locating a nice school building.

Good breathing place during the heated term in the Academy Green. Always some air stirring—grateful shade—green grass. This place might be turned into a public park, and, with little labor and expense, be made a "thing of beauty." Good water is near at hand, to refresh the heated inner man.

No Harms to be Feared.

We trust that the terrible scourge now raging in France, which is pronounced epidemic, the Asiatic cholera, may not reach our shores. But as we do not know but it may, every precaution should be taken to prevent it. We print on our editorial page this morning a set of rules put forth by the board of health of Philadelphia, which we think worthy of careful study by our citizens. An ounce of preventative equals a pound of cure and an observance of these rules would be generally beneficial, whether the cholera should visit America or not.

Personal.

Col. John H. Anderson, of New York, is in the city. He speaks encouragingly of Cleveland's prospects in that State.

Dr. H. G. Bates returned by the Shenandoah yesterday from a trip North. He says things are gay about Coney Island.

Mr. M. K. King, president and manager of the Norfolk Southern Railroad, came in by the Shenandoah.

Miss Evans of Reidsville is in the city visiting relatives. She is the daughter of Capt. Thomas C. Evans, editor of the Reidsville Times, and her mother is the daughter of the late Jas. C. Steyenson, of this city.

Mr. Nash, of Hillsboro, is visiting the city.

Wm. M. Watson and family are at Morehead.

Dr. J. D. Shackelford, Messrs. Asa Jones, Harry Stevenson, Jas. A. Bryan and Washington Bryan came up from the seaside yesterday.

Mr. J. F. Congdon and lady left on the Shenandoah for Newport, R. I.

Rev. S. B. Hunter, colored, left yesterday on the Shenandoah for Norfolk, Philadelphia, Brooklyn and New York, on an Evangelist visit.

Friends in Office.

If there is one politician who is beloved above another, it is the one who will push his friends forward to the spot when government pay is flowing. The fellow not one of the friends and not shoved forward calls it nepotism; but the fellow shoved forward is satisfied that it is patriotism, and so the quarrel goes on ad infinitum.

The Democratic press has opened on Logan for this remembrance of friends and relatives; they say there are more persons in office now upon his recommendation than upon any other two men.

Now is this an objection to Logan? Did not the cry of nepotism against Grant secure him a second term and 906 votes in a National Convention for the third?

This charge against Logan will not injure his prospects, for it is reasonable to suppose that the elevation of him to the Vice-Presidency would simply enlarge his field of usefulness to his friends, and find soft places for a still greater number, and just that much the more desirable candidate. But seriously, the objections to Gen. Logan are of so much more gravity, that it will hardly pay to press this as one.

If the existence of worms in the intestines darkens the complexion, it is not reasonable to suppose that their presence will ruin health? Shirner's Indian Vermifuge will destroy and expel them from the body.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC RALLY.

Under the Auspices of the Cleveland and Scales Central Club of Craven County—Governor Jarvis and Senator Vance both Present and Spoke.

At about 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon the special train from Morehead rolled in at the station bringing Senator Vance and an escort of citizens from this city, together with quite a number of persons from Morehead City and other points along the line of the road. Quickly following this came in the regular eastern bound train from Goldsboro, having on board His Excellency Gov. T. J. Jarvis, and Private Secretary Dudley. The distinguished guest were taken in charge by the proper committee of the Central Club and escorted to quarters at the Gaston House. Among the distinguished visitors up from Morehead were Mr. Harry Skinner, of Pitt, and Mr. Pace, of Raleigh. These preliminaries were all to culminate in the grandest rally of the old fire-tried Democracy of Craven that has taken place since the memorable days of 1876. Stanley Hall had been festooned with flags, filled with benches and every available space in readiness for the great rush to hear these two favorite speakers whose very names seemed to send a thrill of enthusiasm through the crowds of citizens knotted together on the side walks and street corners. It was so near the old 1876 slogan.

Vance and Jarvis, Cleveland and Hendricks seemed to re-ignite the patriotic fires of that memorable campaign.

At eight o'clock the crowd began to assemble in the hall. Democrats from Craven, Pamlico, Jones, Carteret and Lenoir were here eager to listen again to the able speakers who were to address them. The New Berne Silver Cornet Band was on hand, in good tune and discoursed sweet and enlivening music.

At 8:30 Mr. Clement Manly called the mass to order (it ran out of the boundaries of a club) and in a neat and appropriate little speech introduced the Hon. Z. B. Vance who, for about two hours, held his audience in breathless attention—breathless from two causes, eagerness to hear, and laughed out of wind.

At the close of this excellent address M. DeW. Stevenson arose and in appropriate remarks introduced His Excellency T. J. Jarvis.

The Governor delivered one of his pointed speeches in which every word went to the spot and will tell in the approaching election. The Governor says we have 40,000 majority in the State and the way to get it is to organize and see that every man votes.

A Friendly Word.

Our friend Daniels of the Kinston Free Press assuming that we were allowing our columns to be used to further the interest of the Republican party of Lenoir county, offers "a friendly word." We would be willing to take it as a "friendly word," but when we know that we pay our correspondent to write us the news, without trying to further the ends of any political party; and when we know, and have reason to believe that Bro. Daniels knows, that our Kinston correspondent has ridiculed the Republican party of Lenoir county ten times where he has the Democratic once, we are bound to conclude that the assumption is false, but, we hope, not wilfully so.

In writing up the Democratic ratification meeting, to which friend Daniels alludes, our itemizer did throw in considerable humor, which some may take as ridicule, but this is his style, and we believe it is enjoyed by nine-tenths of our Democratic readers as well as Republicans. But after all of his humor, ridicule if you wish to call it, he pronounced the meeting a grand success, and we cannot for the life of us, see how it advances the interest of the Republican party of Lenoir county or detracts one iota from the chances of Democratic success.

Now let us extend a friendly word to Bro. Daniels. Blind partisanship has never accomplished any good in this country but has done a great deal of harm. The Democrats have put up a good ticket for State officers—no better could have been selected—and they can successfully defend the record of the party in the administration of the State affairs for the past eight years against any and all assaults from the combined Coalition, Liberal Republican party. As for the National ticket, while the Republicans have placed at the head a man that represents the extreme sectional element of his party, one whose political record is under a cloud, the Democrats have nominated a man who commands the respect, not only of his own party, but the conservative element of the opposite party. He has shown his ability to rise above party feeling while administering the affairs of the great State of New York and insist on reform in his own party as well as in the Republican. In this he but followed the steps of Samuel J. Tilden and all other great Statesmen.

Now Bro. Daniels let us admit that "the king can do wrong;" insist on electing our ticket upon its merits and not by abusing the Radicals.

Trip to Morehead.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Wishing a little recreation, and knowing of no more suitable place than at Morehead, I boarded the excursion train run by Messrs. Kirkman, Oliver and Ives from Smithfield last Thursday en route. Aboard was a pretty large crowd, principally from Johnson county, among whom were some on their first visit to the big ocean. Capt. Powell, recognizing the fact that dinner time was nearing, put us through in double quick.

You do not have to wait to get to Morehead before you begin to feel and see the grand inspiration presented by the broad waters. The long inlet projecting up from Bogue sound is off to our right, across which we see a range of immense sand banks to break the force of the huge billows beyond. We arrive at the New Berne House and disperse with a portion of the crowd to join others that were here formerly. A little further on and we are at the mammoth Atlantic Hotel, where we, including others, come to a halt. The balance of the passengers move on down to the railroad wharf and take boats for Beaufort. After registering, the next on docket was a little important business in the dining hall. After dinner, for an hour or more, loafing, smoking, chatting and enjoying the breeze is engaged in. Little later, when evening has grown cooler, parties are made up to go sailing. Some try their skill with the flimsy tribe, but the majority, including ourselves, were off for the surf. After landing we were conveyed across the banks with team run by Mr. Stewart to the elegant pavilion lately erected. At one end of the building our young townsman, Mr. Willie Boyd, is located to furnish bathing suits for all that desired to be salted. The dressing rooms are arranged on each side of the pavilion; those on the right for gentlemen, on the left for ladies. After getting into the scanty, and might be called immodest little suit, all made a rush for the water. Then came the splashing, jumping and turning summersaults, the latter of which Mr. A. W. Wood was the champion. A foot race down the beach was won by Mr. Charley Bryan in a hundred yards dash.

The bathing was enjoyed very much with the exception of two incidents. One of the gentlemen while exercising himself under a too sudden strain, had the misfortune to have his suit fall him. That man had to stay in the water a long time. The other came near being of a serious nature. Two young men from Reidsville were venturing out too far, and from the strong under-current, found it difficult to swim back. Capt. Piver espied them and made for them hurriedly. When reached, one had regained the shore, but the other was over his head and almost completely exhausted. Capt. Piver, after hard work landed him safely.

After coming out and dressing we all gather at the pavilion and pass away the time pleasantly until all can be taken across to the boats. Senator Vance (he was along with us, though he did not try the surf) was among the first to get passage. He was seated in a buggy and held the strings behind a North Carolina mule—they were not coffee sacks.

Shortly, and all the boats are bound for Morehead. Soon we are landed, and finding supper ready, all repair to the hall for a repast. When tea is over beautiful strains of music greet the ear and bring the dancers upon the floor. The german is engaged in and under the leadership of Mr. Charley Bryan is nicely conducted until a late hour at night whence all retire to dream of the many pleasures at the sea shore. H.

L. A. Sugg for Elector in First District.

GREENVILLE, N. C., July 21, 1884. EDITOR JOURNAL:—At the Congressional Convention to convene at Plymouth on the 14th of August, the Democrats of the First district cannot be too careful in selecting standard-bearers for the coming campaign. This is an election of vital importance to every Democrat in the State, for upon this district largely depends the success of the State ticket and a representation to the 49th Congress of the United States is elected. During the last few elections in this district the contest has been close, the result frequently favoring the Republican candidate. To avoid this seeming carelessness in the ranks of the Democratic masses, it is necessary to place men before the convention that can arouse enthusiasm, that will give full and free expression to the wishes of the people, that all packing and rings should be studiously avoided and that the nominees be men of pure and stainless reputation, irreproachable in character and such as will represent the public interest of the district and State, regardless of fear or favor.

The success of the candidate for Congress depends largely upon the Elector selected at this convention. We should look well to this choice. Let us select a man of large public spirit, full of push and enterprise, of acknowledged mental ability and a fluent speaker that can stir men's souls. As such, I would offer to the Democrats of the First district the name of Col. Isaac A. Sugg. As a speaker, he has few superiors, presenting arguments in a clear, logical, incisive and convincing manner—possessing strong determination and ambition, he would thoroughly rout his opponents and sweep the district like a cyclone. Delighting in labor, indefatigable in undertakings, faithful to duty, courteous to all, generous, of sterling integrity, a fine canvasser, he would command the esteem and confidence of his constituency and carry conviction in the camps of his enemy. Possessing wonderful personal magnetism, he would attract as well as convince. A staunch Democrat, his coolness, intrepidity and sound judgment would lead him victoriously over the district with that winning grace and easy manner which makes his popularity wherever known. Thoroughly practical, his business relations have specially fitted him to deal successfully with men; a prominent lawyer, he is able to meet and refute the fallacious arguments presented by the Republican adversary.

The nomination of Col. Sugg would be but a fit recognition of his acknowledged ability and the convention could not make a wiser, safer and better choice; hence it is with becoming pride and confidence that I recommend him to the consideration of every Democratic voter in the first district. T.

Pollocksville Items.

It is very dry and hot—crops are suffering. There are many cases of malarial fever in this vicinity now.

Miss Henrietta Jarman, one of Onslow's fairest daughters, has been visiting our town.

Lucy, daughter of R. J. Auge, died Wednesday at 11 o'clock a. m. of malarial fever, aged 11 years.

John Murphy and Sarah Willis, of the order of Ham, after a three day's siege, succeeded in entering into the bonds of holy wedlock.

The wife of Jack Jones, colored, of the Whitford place, in giving vent to her drowsy feelings, opened her mouth so wide as to dislocate her lower jaw. Jack brought her to Dr. Street who put her mouth in running order and they went on their way rejoicing. The Cleveland and Scales Club met on Saturday, July 19, and effected a permanent organization and elected the following permanent officers: H. C. Foscoe, President; H. A. White and Dr. N. H. Street, Vice-Presidents; P. H. Pelletier, Secretary; J. H. Bell, Treasurer. P. H. Pelletier, Dr. Street, S. Hudson, A. G. Barrus and B. B. Barry were appointed a committee on by-laws. P. H. Pelletier was added to committee on flag. J. H. Bell, P. H. Pelletier and Dr. C. J. Mattocks were appointed to address the Club at its next meeting. Dr. Street and Mr. S. Hudson made rousing speeches upon general politics. Society adjourned to meet first Saturday in August.

Washington Items.

From the Gazette. Grapes have made their appearance in town.

Our physicians say Washington is distressingly healthy.

We learn that Hyde county is one wilderness of beautiful thrifty corn. A well-developed cotton boll has been shown us from the farm of Mr. A. Williams.

How about the Cleveland, Hendricks and Scales Club? Let it be organized at once.

The military departed on Tuesday morning with full ranks for Nag's Head via Elizabeth City.

The magic touch of the painter's brush in the opera house is making it look toney, don't you forget.

Marion, the sharpie owned by Messrs. Frizzle and Buchanan, is said to be the fastest pleasure boat on the river. The Excelsior Band were out serenading on Monday night. Those who are good judges of music commend their proficiency.

The Trustees of Washington Academy have arranged to open a school under the supervision of a first-class teacher about October 1st.

Mr. James H. Harris and his wife left for Philadelphia on Tuesday morning, where the latter is to be treated for some disease of her eyes.

There have been a great many green apples shipped to the Northern markets from this point. The shippers are well pleased with their sales.

The new steps in front of the residence of Mr. B. W. Waters, on Main street, is a decided improvement. He is also having a fresh coat of paint put on.

Several small dwelling houses are going up in different parts of the town. Just what is needed, as our population increases, as it is doing continually, they are much in demand.

The Confederate Monument.

The ladies of the New Berne Memoria Association earnestly desire to complete the monument already begun to the memory of our honored Confederate soldiers. They will need for this purpose $450 and they feel assured that it will only be necessary to let this fact be known, to meet with a generous and ready response from every citizen of Craven county whose heart beats in sympathy with theirs in their work. Any contribution, however small, will be thankfully received and properly used. A box will be placed at the store of Mr. Alex. Miller, who is the authorized agent to receive any money for the purpose; or it may be given to any one of the officers of the Association whose names are here subscribed:

- Mrs. E. B. DAVIS, President. L. C. VASS, Vice-President. GEORGE ALLEN, Treasurer. C. W. MCLEAN, Secretary.

WAR! WAR! WAR!

The greatest political war perhaps for the last century is now about to open, and that every Cleveland or Blaine man may take an active part in this great political fight, it is of great importance that he should commence at once to lay in his supplies of Groceries and Dry Goods at the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHREY & HOWARD'S, that he may give the necessary time to achieve the greatest victory ever gained in these United States. The war has actually begun from the Presidential Chair down to the lowest county offices. Some may cry peace, peace, but there will be no peace until every man shoulders his pocket-book and goes down to the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHREY & HOWARD'S, and buys a supply of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes, etc. Sold at the lowest living prices. dw

Notice.

On account of running an excursion from Washington to New Berne on Tuesday, July 29th, the steamer Elm City will not make her trip to Hyde county until Wednesday morning, July 30th, at 8 o'clock a. m. RALPH GRAY, Ag't.

Not a particle of calomel or any other deleterious substance enters into the composition of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. On the contrary they prove of special service to those who have used calomel and other mineral poisons as medicines, and feel their injurious effects. In such cases Ayer's Pills are invaluable.
