The Way They Do.

A traveler to Long Branch describes a thing characteristic of the speculative sort of business men who so largely famous seaside resort. A dozen men. lacking room in the smoking car of the crowded train, went to enjoy their cigars in the baggage car. Here was a baby carriage lying on its side, thus bringing one wheel uppermost and horizontal. Not a minute had elapsed before a broker wrapped a bit of paper around a spoke. "Now, gentlemen," he said, "stand around the wheel of fortune while I whirl it thus," and he gave the wheel a turn. "It costs you 25 cents apiece, and the man in front of whom the marked spoke stops takes the pot. Make your game while the wheel is revolving." During the ride of an hour and a half the impromptu game did not of an instant lag.
