Regular meeting of St. John's Lodge No. 3, A. F. & A. M., to-night.

The steamer Snow Hill left yesterday for Snow Hill with a full cargo.

A dash by a dray horse yesterday was about all the excitement on Pollock street.

We had a reporter at the indignation meeting last night. Full particulars tomorrow.

Hollowell & Peterson's excursion passed down yesterday with quite a large crowd along.

Watermelons are down. Fifty cents per hundred were considered high figures yesterday. "Too cool."

The schooner Melvin, Capt. Sabiston, sailed for Broad creek yesterday, where she will load lumber for Philadelphia.

Howard & Jones were opening new goods yesterday. They will need a great many this fall to supply their increasing trade.

The schooner J. B. Anderson, Fleming, sailed for Stocombs creek yesterday, where she will load lumber for Philadelphia.

The schooner W. P. Davis, Geo. W. Moore, arrived yesterday from Philadelphia with a cargo of coal for Watson & Daniels.

According to Dr. York's published appointments, the gubernatorial candidates will remain in the West for sometime yet.

The funeral of Mr. James McGregor took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Mr. Bull officiating.

The County Commissioners heard complaints of tax listers from the 1st township yesterday. Thus far but few complaints have been made.

Mr. Alex Miller left yesterday for the North to buy his stock. He keeps a select stock and says he will tell all about it through the JOURNAL when he gets back.

The Republicans of Lenoir hold their county convention on Saturday next; from accounts of the primary meetings given by our itemizer, there will be quite a lively time.

A grand trolling party from the New Berne House at Morehead City on Monday had brilliant success. This is the beginning of the trolling season and the sport will now go on with vigor.

Some of our citizens yielded to the powers that be and keep the ditches in front of their residences cleaned out. But others throw themselves upon their sacred rights and the taxes that they claim they have paid for this purpose and declined to allow the ordinance to be enforced.

Gen. R. D. Hancock received a telegram stating that his nephew, David Ryan, aged 19 years, died yesterday at St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Ryan, his mother, left Monday in response to a telegram calling her to his bedside, but not in time for her to reach there before the sad occurrence.

Mrs. Morgan and Mr. Clarke would like to procure a rattlesnake for preparation to exhibit at the Exposition. It is desirable that it should not be shot or mutilated. We take the liberty of calling upon James Hunter, Esq., to procure the serpent; that is if his snake crop did not fall this year.

Some of our merchants continue the plan of advertising exclusively by posting bills on the walls and corner posts about the city. So if a man from the country wants to know what they have for sale he must stop and read all the bills posted. Those in the city who have money to spend of course have plenty of time to stop at every post and trap door to read. They never read a live paper.

The Curlew Bug.
Mr. John Miller of Swift Creek has invented or discovered an antidote for curlew bugs, which he says cleans them right out. He does not say what it is, but will if another year's experiment should prove a success. We think it would be well to let out the secret and have others experiment too, that is, if the bugs have no objection.

Nominations.
At the Democratic convention held on the first Monday in August, at Jacksonville, Onslow county, the following nominations were made: For the House of Representatives, Hill E. King; for sheriff, E. Murrill; for register of deeds, Jacob Ellis. Dr. Cyrus Thompson was recommended to the Senatorial convention of the three counties of Onslow, Wayne and Jones, for the Senate.

North Carolina Hay.

Rev. G. W. Sanderlin called to see us on Tuesday and entertained us for a while on rice culture and hay raising. He had on the Old Dominion wharf a couple of bales of hay brought in by the steamer Shenandoah from his farm in Pasquotank. They were sample bales of a lot of 80 tons, the first cutting from his farm this summer, and dealers here pronounce it as good as any Northern hay ever brought here. It is timothy and red top, and one thing which adds greatly to its market value is the manner in which it is put up—nice, square bales, bound with wire, and weighing from one hundred and twenty-five to one hundred and fifty.

Mr. Sanderlin informs us that his first cutting, notwithstanding there was no rain from the 1st of April to the 18th of May, yielded a ton and a half to the acre. The second cutting, which will be in September, while it will not bring so much in the market as the first yet will yield as much profit by being fed to stock on the farm. We wish to figure a little right here for the benefit of some of our farmers. Let it be remembered that to prepare an acre for timothy cost no more than to prepare one for cotton. With an outlay of two dollars for seed the first year he will get from an acre in hay, for the first cutting, $30.00 at retail or $25.00 wholesale, and the second cutting, worth at least $25.00 when fed to stock, will make the total yield at the lowest figure $50.00. From an acre of cotton, with an outlay of at least $5.00 for fertilizers and good seasons an average yield of two hundred and fifty pounds of lint cotton will probably be the result which would bring 25.00. The cost of cultivating the hay is nothing; the cost of cultivating the cotton is considerable; the cost of gathering and marketing the cotton is considerable more than cutting and saving the hay. We will leave the reader to make up the balance sheet.

"Well but," says one "if every farmer goes to raising hay it will soon be worth nothing." But we do not advocate raising hay alone. Diversify, diversify, diversify is our theory. There are several thousand tons of hay sold in this section alone and the money sent to Maine makes us poorer; while if the hay was raised here it would not only keep the money here but would be the cause of better beef in our market; better mules and horses on our farms, and less mortgaging and bankruptcy.

Mr. Sanderlin, by an exhaustive communication in the JOURNAL several years ago, gave highland rice culture a boom which has caused hundreds of thousands of bushels of that grain to be grown in Eastern Carolina; in fact it has been a blessing to many farmers when cotton crops were failures and prices poor, and now we hope he will give hay making a send off and if he can succeed in getting our farmers at it they will rise up and call him blessed.

Important Sale.

There will be an important sale of groceries, dry goods, etc., at the store of W. F. Rountree this morning by Watson & Street, auctioneers. See advertisement.

Invited to Come at Will.

The Atlantic Steam Fire Engine Company, of this city, has received a handsomely printed card of invitation from the Wilmington Steam Fire Engine Company, which reads:

"We extend to you individually and as a company a most cordial and earnest invitation to visit us at your convenience. W. C. CRAFT, Sec'y."

Centreville Academy.

We call attention to the notice of this school which appears in this issue. Johnson's Mills are situated in a wealthy, healthy and highly cultivated neighborhood—a splendid location for a high school—and the two schools from which the teachers hale—the State University and Salem Academy—is a sufficient guarantee of competency.

Bishop Watson.

This distinguished divine, who has been spending a day or two among his old parishioners and friends here, left yesterday on the Shenandoah for Nag's Head. He has been a few days at Beaufort and Morehead and now goes to Nag's Head, where many of his parishioners of former days, and many friends and acquaintances congregate during the summer.

The Bishop expects to be here on official visitation sometime in October.

A Musical Prodigy.

One of our typos has mastered a flute and is now trying to master the use of it. He puts in most of his leisure time on it. The other day he was blowing away to his own gratification up stairs while the boys below were enjoying a "set up" of watermelon; some one suggested to call "Ross" to come and have some, when another suggested: "Never mind! he had rather eat a flute than blow watermelon any time."

The North Carolina State Musical Association.

At the late Musical Convention at Goldsboro, which was held at the Opera House during the Fruit Fair, it was determined by those present to form a State Musical Association under the name above mentioned. The membership published, which was only the charter members, we notice includes but two of our citizens, Miss K. M. Daniels and Miss M. H. Harrison; which, while it may be enough for the charter members, should not by any means be sufficient for the increased membership that is sure to follow this beginning. New Berne ought to have at least a score of members, and likely will at no distant day.

We think the idea a good one and the organization a needed institution in our State. We have an abundance of talent but heretofore we have had nothing but individual effort to cultivate and perfect it, and nothing but individual ambition to stimulate the students; but under an organized association, much will be accomplished in furtherance of the study and cultivation of the science, and cause a more general interest in the subject to be taken.

While writing this it has occurred to us to ask why New Berne cannot have a branch or subordinate association of her own? Why cannot the many talented performers here resolve themselves into a society for mutual pleasure and improvement?

Personal.

Rev. G. W. Sanderlin was in the city yesterday and took the train last night for Morehead City.

Miss Rachel Simmons, of Pollockville, one of Jones county's fairest and most accomplished daughters, is in the city on a visit to Miss Nettie Harrison.

A. F. Farnel and Micajah Farnel, of Onslow, are in the city.

U. S. Mace, Esq., returned from a trip to Morehead yesterday.

Miss Carrie Richardson left Monday to visit her aunt, Mrs. Kirkpatrick, at her summer residence, Edge Water, New Jersey.

Kinston Items.

After the primary meetings of the Republicans last Saturday, ex-Sheriff Grady ran away with a mule and buggy in search of Sirius, that distant star.

In the midst of the awful desolation among the candidates last Saturday, it is supposed that farmer Fields felt like Jonah when the Lord smote his gourd.

The county commissioners were in session last Monday, revising the tax lists. There were but very few complaints and not many changes in the valuations returned by the tax-listers.

There was a model Sunday school picnic in Woodington township last Friday where everybody walked away with their baskets. The ruling spirit got too spiritual and the picnic closed without dinner.

The bad example of the Sunday school picnic the day previous had its effect on the Republican primary meeting last Saturday at Woodington. Almost a row took place, but it did not do as bad as the Sunday school picnic.

There are signs here and there, since the primary Republican meetings last Saturday, that the black flag of abuse and misrepresentation is neither an inspiring banner to fight under, nor a glorious one to be wrapped in after the fight is over.

A Michigander went to Dakota, got sick of the new country, traded his homestead for a dog, a gun and $50 in money; killed the first, lost the second and reached his old place with fifty cents in pocket. Some of the candidates for sheriff in this county did about as well as that Michigander and perhaps are in a mood sincerely to sympathize with him.

The Republican primary meeting in Kinston township last Saturday was unusually harmonious. The selection of delegates was satisfactory to Sheriff Davis. At the night meeting, however, "old Harry broke loose," all the speakers being full of bromine and dynamite, which were freely thrown at each other. No body was hurt so far as ascertained. The general result of the primary elections in the county appear to be considerably mixed. The contest for sheriff seems now to be between John Warters of Falling Creek and Sheriff Davis, with probabilities in favor of Davis. Pink Hill township and Trent township each send two sets of delegates. A stormy time is anticipated next Saturday at the nominating convention. At present it cannot be safely predicted who will walk away with the big ice cake in store for the nominee of the convention.

Notice.

On account of running an excursion to Little Washington, the steamer Elm City will not make her trip to Hyde county until Thursday morning, Aug. 21, at 9 a. m.; returning, leaving Hyde county for New Berne Friday morning, Aug. 23d at 9 a. m.

RALPH GRAY, Agt.

HANOVER, O., Feb. 13, 1884.

After having lung fever and pneumonia I had a dreadful cough and could not sleep at night. The doctors told me I had consumption and would die. I have taken six bottles of Pisco's Cure and my cough is entirely gone, and I am well as ever. BISHOP'S FOND.

La Grange Items.

Dr. Wills preached here last Sunday and Sunday night.

Notwithstanding the fast rising of Neuse last week, that stream is now going down.

It is said that there is more water in the ground in the Bucklesbery section than at one time in ten years.

Rev. Mr. Carpenter will be with Rev. J. D. Cavanaugh on Saturday of his next regular appointment at Hickory Grove.

A difficulty occurred in Bucklesbery last week between Jere Sutton and Bryan Johnson in which Johnson was badly worsted. A judicious use of a hoe upon the forehead felled Johnson, and in the fall his right leg was broken in two places. The difficulty occurred at Sutton's house, the particulars of which I have not learned further than that Johnson was pursuing Sutton with his knife when the blow was given. Johnson is said to be a dangerous man while Sutton is regarded as peaceable.

Late Saturday afternoon Isaac Milican, after taking a quantity of that which develops all the fool that there is in man, got after another colored man with his knife, and when the policeman went to arrest him he resisted, which made it necessary for the policeman to use his cudgel. A number of the colored people gathered around and it is said some of them attempted to release the offender. Be this as it may, a lot of them gathered up, and at one time it looked like a first-class row was brewing, though, we are glad to say, the thing was stopped without serious consequences. A few of the colored men rendered good assistance for which they deserve due credit. Just here I will say that the custom of the colored people gathering around when one of their race is being taken in charge by the proper legal authority is very wrong and ought to be stopped. No good citizen will interfere when the law is being properly executed; those who do so are enemies to good government and deserve to be punished to the fullest extent of the law.

The Republicans and Democrats held their township meetings here last Saturday. The Republicans organized after much confusion, fuss, feeling and voting, by electing D. M. Stanton chairman and W. J. Solomon secretary. A committee, consisting of J. W. Sutton, James Warters, Alex. Joyner, Robert Jones, West Wooten, Hardy Barnes and Robt. Williams was appointed to select delegates to the county convention. The committee recommended James Warters, West Wooten and Alex. Joyner as delegates, with F. M. Sutton, Rich. Wooten and Hardy Barnes as alternates, a square out delegation for Davis. The nomination of constable was by ballot, and resulted in the selection of W. B. Walters, the present incumbent, he receiving 70 votes to Brad. Brown 36 and Alex. Sutton 23. The meeting was uproarious from beginning to the end, the Davis factions trying to obtain the mastery in the organization, in which the Davis men were successful.

The Democrats met in the afternoon and organized by electing J. P. Joyner chairman and O. K. W. Howard secretary. Five committeemen were appointed to select delegates to the county convention, Joe. Sutton, Sim. Wooten, J. D. Walters, Elijah Taylor and W. W. Fuller. They recommended W. W. Wooten, Joe Sutton, O. K. W. Howard, W. S. Uzzell, Levi Hill and S. L. Wooten as delegates and they were duly elected as such, with six alternates whose names are not remembered. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That S. L. Wooten is the preference of the Democrats of this township for nomination for the legislature.

The meeting was entertained by speeches from J. Y. Joyner and N. J. House, Esqrs., who, each of them, fully maintained their former reputation as speakers of a high order. The meeting was harmonious excepting a few "flings" and personalities, which may not have been intended unkindly but which would have been better let alone.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is designed for those who need a medicine to purify their blood, build them up, increase their appetite, and rejuvenate their whole system. No other preparation so well meets this want. It touches the exact spot. Its record of forty years is one of constant triumph over disease.

WAR! WAR! WAR!

The greatest political war perhaps for the last century is now about to open, and that every Cleveland or Blaine man may take an active part in this great political fight, it is of great importance that he should commence at once to lay in his supplies of Groceries and Dry Goods at the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHREY & HOWARD'S, that he may give the necessary time to achieve the greatest victory ever gained in these United States. The war has actually begun from the Presidential Chair down to the lowest county offices. Some may cry peace, peace, but there will be no peace until every man shoulders his pocket-book and goes down to the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHREY & HOWARD'S, and buys a supply of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes, etc. Sold at the lowest living prices. d w
