The campaigners all seem to be bent on canvassing the West. We think the speakers had better divide. It will be a hard matter to get a man from his farm in October, when cotton is open, to hear a political speech, and yet, judging from the appointments made by the candidates for Governor and Lieutenant-Governor, it will be October before they reach the East.

The Henderson Gold Leaf agrees with the Star that a joint canvass between YORK and SCALES will prove detrimental to the Democratic party. Such an admission is neither complimentary to the Democratic cause nor to its standard bearer. Past experience proves that the party gained by a joint canvass, and why not in the present campaign.

Democratic County Convention in Onslow.

In pursuance to the call of the County Executive Committee, issued June 17th, 1884, the Democratic County Convention of Onslow assembled at Jacksonville on Monday, the 4th of August, inst., for the purpose of nominating legislative and county candidates. At 12 o'clock m. the convention was called to order by Dr. C. Thompson, chairman of the County Executive Committee, who named A. C. Huggins, Esq., as temporary chairman. After a brief address to the convention, Mr. Huggins called Messrs. E. L. Franck, jr., and S. L. Gerock to act as secretaries.

On motion, a committee on credentials, consisting of one from each precinct, was raised, each precinct delegation naming its committee. This committee reported every precinct properly represented by duly appointed delegates, and its report was adopted by acclamation.

In like manner, a committee on permanent organization was appointed. The report of this committee, making the temporary organization permanent, was unanimously adopted.

Next, in the same way, was selected a committee on rules. This committee made its report, recommending the adoption of the majority rule in nominations. On a motion to adopt the report, some discussion followed; but the vote being taken by precincts, the report was adopted by a vote of 667 25-88 to 371 63-83.

The convention then took a recess of half an hour, at the expiration of which time, on account of the immense crowd present and the excessive heat in the court room, the convention reassembled in the court yard.

Nominations being now in order, Dr. E. W. Ward and Dr. C. Thompson were put in nomination for the Senate. The first ballot stood, Ward 592 1-3, Thompson 725 2-3; whereupon Dr. C. Thompson was declared Onslow's choice for the Senate, and his nomination was made unanimous.

Messrs. Hill E. King, S. B. Taylor, C. B. Hewitt and J. W. Spicer were put in nomination for the House. The first ballot stood, King 511 1-2, Taylor 420 1-2, Hewitt 72, Spicer 83. On the second ballot Mr. King received 557 votes and was declared the nominee for the House.

E. Murrill, Esq., "the old sheriff," was renominated by acclamation. For Register of Deeds, Messrs. J. F. Giles, D. E. Humphrey, Chas. Gerock, jr., Geo. W. Blake, jr., and Geo. Farnell were put in nomination. The first ballot showed 336 for Giles, 270 for Humphrey, 205 for Gerock, 164 for Blake, 22 1-2 for Farnell. On the third ballot Mr.

Giles received 589 votes, and was declared the nominee for Register. Messrs. L. W. Everett and Sam'l R. King were put in nomination for Coroner. Mr. King was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 683 votes.

The following County Executive Committee was chosen for the ensuing two years: A. C. Huggins, R. W. Ward, M. Russell, Charles Gerock, jr., and Jno. F. Cox.

Swansboro was named as the place for the holding the Senatorial Convention; and the chair, on motion, appointed the following gentlemen as Senatorial delegates: Jno. F. Cox, E. L. Franck, jr., Geo. W. Blake, sr., Robert J. Williams, John R. Sawyer, M. Russell, D. J. Sanders, D. S. Amau, Charles Gerock, jr.

The convention, having completed its labors, then adjourned sine die.

Does Farming Pay?

Although the Atlanta Constitution says "the farmers of the State have never been more prosperous since the war than they are to-day," Commissioner Henderson and Ex-Commissioner Jones, of the State Agricultural Department, assert that farming in Georgia does not pay, and give many reasons for this assertion. Of the views of Commissioner Henderson, the Atlanta correspondent of the Savannah Times says: My interview with Hon. J. T. Henderson, Commissioner of Agriculture, published in the Daily Times of the 2d, was the subject to-day of a very decided amount of adverse criticism by frequenters of the capitol. The statement that "there is no money in farming in Georgia," did not find a lodgment in the minds of anybody. The Commissioner, so far as I could ascertain, stands alone in his views on that point; as to the demand, however, for improvement of land and the method he suggested, he is in accord with the general verdict. There is no question that much Georgia land needs improvement, and it would be a happy day if the entire farming population could be brought to a realization of the fact. I asked at the Comptroller General's office concerning the manner in which the taxes are paid by the farmers. One of Comptroller General Wright's ablest seconds said: "Out of seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars of taxes there are only eight thousand insolvents. If the farmers did not make anything they could not pay their taxes so readily. The dockets of the rural courts show few suits. If the farmers were not getting along well the situation would be different. I agree with the Commissioner that there is much need for reform and the plan he suggests is a simple and practical one, but I do not agree with him that there is no money in farming in Georgia. Georgia soil is capable of being brought to the highest state of cultivation. I saw gathered and helped to weigh five bales of cotton in 1873, all weighing over 500 pounds, that the Hon. Lee Warthen raised on an acre of land in Jones county. The lightest bale weighed 515 pounds. If you want to know something about farming in Georgia, ask young Jack Henderson, a nephew of the Commissioner. He has done well in spite of numerous misfortunes for which the farm was in no way responsible. He is up by times, goes with his men to work, sees that his stock is fed, locks up everything himself. He is a husbandman. He lives in 250 yards of Alcoy river, and I'll bet he hasn't wet a fish hook in ten years. I know several prominent and successful farmers who I believe would not agree with the Commissioner of Agriculture. Major John A. Cobb, of Americus, is a success. Mr. L. M. Felton, of Marshallville, Mr. W. E. Warren, of Bryan, in Houston county, Mr. James Taylor, of Taylor's Store, Crawford county, Mr. John C. Zoen, of Thomaston, Mr. Geo. W. Jorlan, of Hawkinsville, Mr. David Dickson, of Sparta, Hon. Jas. M. Smith, of Winterville, Oglethorpe county, Mr. J. F. Ross, of Americus, Hon. R. A. Nesbit, of Macon, Mr. Eden Taylor, of Unionville, Monroe county, Dr. John Harde-man, of Haddock, Jones county, and A. F. Woolley, of Kingston, are a few whose names I think of. They represent different parts of the State, and are all prominent and prosperous farmers. I would like to hear what they have to say to Commissioner Henderson's statement."—Southern Cultivator.

WARI WARI WARI

The greatest political war perhaps for the last century is now about to open, and that every Cleveland or Blaine man may take an active part in this great political fight, it is of great importance that he should commence at once to lay in his supplies of Groceries and Dry Goods at the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHREY & HOWARD'S, that he may give the necessary time to achieve the greatest victory ever gained in these United States. The war has actually begun from the Presidential Chair down to the lowest county offices. Some may cry peace, peace, but there will be no peace until every man shoulders his pocket-book and goes down to the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHREY & HOWARD'S, and buys a supply of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes, etc. Sold at the lowest living prices. dw

In His Name.

In 1864 some wounded soldiers lay in a farm house in the Shenandoah Valley. Mrs. B., the mother of one of them, the wife of a neighboring planter, rode ten miles every day to see her boy, bringing with her such little comforts as she could obtain. Her house was burned, and the plantation was in ruins, trampled down by the army. One day, she carried to him a pipkin of beef tea. Every drop was precious, for it was with great difficulty, and at a high price, that she had obtained the beef from which it was made.

As she sat watching her boy sip the steaming, savory broth, her eye caught the eager, hungry eye of a man on the next cot.

She turned away with a quick, savage pleasure in his want. He was a Yankee, perhaps one of the very band who had burned her home.

She was a bitter Secessionist. But she was also a noble-hearted woman, and a servant of Christ. Her eye stole back to the pale, sunken face, and she remembered the words of her Master, "If thine enemy thirst, give him drink."

After a moment's pause, and with pressed lips, for it required all the moral force she could command for her to do it, she filled a bowl with the broth and put it to his lips, repeating to herself the words, "For His sake; for His sake; for His sake I do it."

Then she brought fresh water and bathed the soldier's face and hands as gently as if he too had been her son. The next day, when she returned, he was gone, having been exchanged to the North.

Last winter, the son of a Senator from one of the Northern States brought home, during the Christmas vacation, as his chum, a young engineer from Virginia. He was the only living son of Mrs. B., the boy whom she had nursed having been killed during the later years of the war.

She had struggled for years to educate this boy as a civil engineer, and had done it. But without influence he could not obtain a position, and was now supporting himself by copying.

Senator Blank became much interested in the young Virginian, inquired into his qualifications, and after he had returned home used his influence to procure an appointment for him as chief of the staff of engineers employed to construct an important railway. It would yield him a good income for many years.

Senator Blank enclosed the appointment in one to Mrs. B., reminding her of the farm house on the Shenandoah, adding, "The wounded man with whom you shared that bowl of broth has long wished to thank you for it. Now he has done it."

The Divine principle embodied in the act of the true-hearted Southern mother was never better exemplified,—and the fruits of it, like those of every obedience to Divine law, were a natural result, as well as the fulfillment of the promise that bread cast upon the waters shall be found after many days.—Youths' Companion.
