Politics quiet.
The tide still keeps full.
Northerly winds continue.
Six weeks to the Exposition.
Good trolling off Morehead now.
Scales and York meet at Lenoir today.
Republican "wash day" at Kinston today.

Freeman Ernul has ripe scuppernong—so he says.

Electric lights are to be experimented with in Raleigh in a few weeks.

Together with other freight, the steamer Goldboro took out 4,300 watermelons yesterday.

Mr. U. S. Mace left for Morehead City last night to take a hand in the fine sport—trolling—there now.

Maj. C. M. Stedman enters the campaign today at Hendersonville. His opponent, Hon. W. T. Faircloth, has been invited to meet him.

The steamer Snow Hill left yesterday for Trenton with a cargo of general merchandise. On Tuesday of next week she will go to Snow Hill.

A large crowd went through for Morehead City last night. They were from the Western portion of the State. The next twenty days will afford fine sport at the seaside in blue fishing.

Rev. Dr. Burkhead will preach at 6 o'clock Sabbath evening at the corner of Pollock and Fleet streets, in front of Mrs. Hargett's. Everybody invited to attend this service.

We regret to hear that Mr. Stephen G. Roberts, of Roberts Bros., was seriously hurt by a fall through the hatchway of a boat a few days since and is now confined at home from that cause.

We have received a pound can of Elgin butter from Mr. J. R. Wagner, who is agent for the sale of it in this city. It is handsomely put up by the Elgin company, of Illinois, and is very good indeed.

Philemon Holland, jr., A. W. Wood and Robert Mallett addressed the voters at Cronan school house yesterday in the interest of the Democratic ticket. There was a good crowd out to hear them and enthusiasm evidenced.

The government inspectors for this district were in the city yesterday and passed upon the boiler of Mr. Gerat Vyne's steam yacht. It was pronounced O. K. and Mr. Vyne sailed in it for his farm at Havelock last night.

Joined the Episcopal Church.

At the earnest request of a friend we publish the item below which has been going the rounds of the press and we presume it is true. The Disciples in North Carolina will regret to part with Bro. Foy, but we presume he has good and sufficient grounds—enough to satisfy his own mind—for the course he has taken:

Rev. Dr. Jos. H. Foy, formerly a prominent minister of the Christian Church in this State, but now of Missouri, has connected himself with the Episcopal Church. He received the degree of D. D. from the University two years ago, and LL. D. recently from the University of Mississippi.

The Maine Campaign Opened.

It was on the shores of Lake Maranocook that the campaign in Maine was formally opened on Tuesday of this week. Ten thousand people assembled to see Blaine, and join in the exercises of the day. Nothing unusual occurred further than the first appearance of the "tattooed man" who came forth in a suit of dark iron gray, a white beaver hat, and robust health. He, in response to loud calls, spoke a few moments, and only such words as mere courtesy demanded. He was accompanied, from Augusta to Winthrop, by Col. Snowden, director of the Mint; not altogether an undesirable attendant in an opening campaign.

Herpetology.

The story of fifty-two young snakes found in one snake is eclipsed by Mr. T. P. Clarke and Mrs. Morgan who obtained a "swamp lion" snake of very large size on Thursday, and in preparing it on yesterday found sixty-one young snakes in a fetal state in the specimen. The young snakes are at our office, on exhibition, and we shall be pleased to have our friends call and see them.

This snake was undoubtedly viviparous. Each of the young was in a coiled, and very strangely the fetus were in different periods of development. It was about ten inches in circumference and had swallowed a cat fish nearly a foot long. The specimen will be on exhibition at the "office" of Clarke & Morgan next week.

One Ahead.

Several years ago it was told as a good joke that the members of the Michigan Legislature were sworn in on Watt's Hymn Book, supposing it to be the Bible; but that was beaten when the pious gentleman in an adjoining State not many years since handed a visiting clergyman what he supposed to be the Bible, requesting that he conduct family worship, and was surprised to have the reverend gentleman return the book for him to select the chapter, and still more surprised to find that instead of the Bible, he had furnished him with Mark Twain's "Innocence Abroad."

The Adam of the Oyster Family.

Among the specimens of marl sent in to Mr. Geo. Allen for the Exposition, there are a great variety of kinds, but the most remarkable specimen of all is some oyster shells, one of which measures fifteen inches in length and the half shell weighs nine pounds and a half.

This huge bivalve vegetated on the farm of A. P. Barrow, Esq., of Jones county, and must have been the Adam of the oyster family; certain it is that among oysters "there were giants in those days."

Killed by a Derrick.

Mr. P. W. B. Gordon, of Hillsboro, was for years widely known as a building contractor and constructed many buildings of importance, factories, etc. Wednesday while superintending the erection of a building at Rockingham, a derrick used to lift beams and brick fell and struck him, killing him instantly. Mr. Gordon's age was sixty-two. His remains were to-day brought to Cary and taken thence to Hillsboro. He leaves a wife and several children.—News and Observer.

Mr. Gordon, whose death is announced above, was the contractor for the brick work on the new academy building at this place. He had only a few days previous finished his work on this building. While here few men have in so short a space of time gained the esteem of so many of our people. A man more faithful in the performance of his duty was seldom met with. We have heard frequent expressions of sorrow from the lips of many, and we extend our sincere condolence to his afflicted family.

The Closing Lecture.

Dr. R. H. Lewis, of Kinston College, closed his lectures before the colored Normal School in this city yesterday with a lecture on "The moral responsibility of the teacher." The subject was well chosen and handled with skill, ability and simplicity. At the close of the lecture Prof. Savage made a brief statement of what had been done during this session of the Normal and High School and requested those who felt that they had been benefitted by the lectures of Dr. Lewis and Miss Corinne Harrison to raise their right hands. A large majority of the teachers responded with uplifted hands. He also stated that ninety pupils had been in attendance during the session and that more real work had been done than at any previous session of the Normal and High School.

The Doctor's services as a lecturer are highly appreciated in the State and his reputation is extending beyond the State. He had charge of one of the departments in the State Normal School at Chapel Hill this summer; worked here in the colored Normal for four weeks, and will assist Capt. Byrd, Superintendent of Lenoir county, in the Teachers' Institute which opens at Kinston next Monday.

Personal.

Mr. Wm. Lorch and family have returned from a trip North.

J. T. Hall has returned from New York.

Dr. J. A. Guion, Cashier of the National Bank here, is sojourning at the Warm Springs for a few days, resting and refreshing himself preparatory to the coming fall business.

Geo. B. Guion and Owen H. Guion, Esq., are also at the Warm Springs.

Mr. A. Nicol was in the city yesterday.

Mr. T. B. Henderson, of Norfolk, called in yesterday to see us. He is going down in Onslow to see relatives and friends for a few days before returning to Norfolk for the fall business.

Dr. R. H. Lewis, Principal of Kinston College, left yesterday for his home, in Kinston. The Doctor has finished his lectures here; his presence among us has been gratifying to a high degree, and we note his departure with regret.

Prof. S. Calvin, of the University of Iowa, left yesterday on the Shenandoah.

Mrs. B. A. Bell has returned home. Cool weather, she says, hurried her back.

Miss Irene Radcliffe and Mr. Rom Hammond returned from a trip up the country yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Lewis left for Morehead City last night.

Flashes.

The Democratic Senatorial Convention at Plymouth on the 14th nominated P. H. Simmons, of Hyde, and Theodore Poole, of Martin, for the Senate from the seven counties of that district. The Congressional Convention of the First district, at the same time and place, nominated Thomas G. Skinner by acclamation.

In Lewis county, Tennessee, on Sunday, a masked party of enraged citizens raided a Mormon meeting and killed three or four elders, the man at whose house the meeting was held, and severely wounded his wife. One of the masked men was killed.

The re-union of ex-Confederates at Reidsville on the 14th was largely attended, and a fine time had. It was estimated that 1000 wearers of the gray were present and addresses were delivered by Hon. J. W. Reid, Senator Ransom, Gen'l Seales, Col. W. F. Beasley, C. B. Watson and Col. J. R. Winston.

Here and There.

DEAR JOURNAL:—When one leaves New Bern in the midst of a rain shower like unto that of the deluge, he has timely warning that the trip from there to New York by sea is to be a watery one. The run across the sound to Elizabeth City is sometimes just rolling enough to lead to a cultivation of a steady habit of standing and a cautious holding on to the hat with one hand while the other braces you by some friendly support of wood or rope. At Elizabeth City, too, you catch a glimpse of the necessity of attention to a change of lines and careful thought in looking out for your luggage, but it is at Norfolk that the fact begins to stare you in the face that you are hastening to a maelstrom of humanity, into which you will be in despite of yourself an anxious participant in the giddy whirl. But it is on the fine steamship of the Old Dominion line that you feel that there is a calm in the hurricane which is impelling you on, and time is given for reflection and preparation for the coveted dive into the New York vortex of life and activity. Your reveries, however, may be fearfully disturbed by an attack of sea-sickness and an ardent desire betake you, as it did Paul in Baba, to get out and walk.

"Hack, sir! carriage, sir! baggage, sir!" ringing in your ears are unmistakable signs that you are at the Metropolis, and that the people are glad to see you and eager to aid you in your purposes whatever they may be. To the old visitor you can tell but little that is new, while to the new visitor everything is new; and to him who has never visited the city you run some risk of being suspected of yarning if you attempt to tell him what you have seen that strikes you as strange. The Brooklyn bridge, the elevated railways, Coney Island, Central Park, are all worthy of extended notice, but then the readers of the JOURNAL might say they would not give a cent to see them, but I wish to admonish all such that you may not have to give a cent to see the great bridge, but you will be sure to have to give one to cross it.

Curiosity is whetted by what you see, and you are impelled by a magic influence to see more. Thus we find that a trip on the great artery of the State to the great wonder of the world, Niagara, is imperatively demanded and we are there.

Taking notes of travel on a palace car whizzing through villages, cities and picturesque country at the rate of fifty miles an hour is a job much more easily imagined than described; but of one thing you may be certain, no description of the roar of the mighty falls will be attempted. It must be heard to be appreciated, and the great torrents must be seen to be correctly and adequately admired. Arriving here on the very day that a human being chose this as a short route to the other world, adds but little to the excitement attending it or to the impression it makes upon the novice. Since the two political parties have begun mud slinging, I may conclude to leave this marshy country and cross over the river and breathe a few whiffs of the pure air said to pervade the dominions over which the potent government of the crinoline sways its beneficent influence, although situated three thousand miles away.

Pearl Items.

The crops on the Reepass road are looking very fine.

Mr. Samuel H. Bennett is building a large store near Pearl.

Mr. A. D. Bennett and Mr. Fenner Guilford have the finest looking cotton in this county.

The white population of this township is crying out "hurrah for Grover Cleveland, he is the man for us."

One of the tenant houses on Mr. W. R. Ross's place was burned recently. It is supposed to have been the work of a colored woman.

The big rains seem to be abating and it is now estimated that the crops are not damaged as much as was expected. Corn and rice crops are good.

Mr. Josephus Edwards is proceeding in hog raising. He has a lot of the finest Berkshire pigs that has ever been produced in Richland township.

The people of this vicinity are talking about appointing an itinerator for the JOURNAL.—[Would be glad to have one that will give us the news.—Ed.]

Mr. A. O. Warren, a few days ago, killed a very strange bird; it was pronounced to be a "hawkins" bird, from Ostralia. It has never been seen about here before.

La Grange Items.

Miss Nannie Measley died at the residence of her husband, in this township, on the 11th instant.

I omitted in my last item to say that J. D. Walters was nominated for constable at the Democratic meeting here the 9th inst.

Dennis Graham, a very old colored man, died on Noah Rouse's place last Tuesday. Rachel Fields, an old colored woman, died on Joshua Herring's place Wednesday.

When a man publicly, purposely, and without cause insults another, and is not noticed, it is evidence that the insulter is a "bully," or that the insulted is too much of a gentleman to take offence at such.

Hardy Barnes and Isaac Millican were before the Mayor, Tuesday, charged with resisting the police. They were convicted and fined twenty-five dollars each and costs. We propose to get the money and then buy the mule.

The report of the cotton crop by the National Cotton Exchange for July has this to say: "It is to be said that while the July growth of the weed has been good over most of the belt, and the lateness to some extent overcome, it is still much behind and therefore subject to damage from an early frost, or even one at average date." Of the crop of North Carolina this is said: "The condition, on the whole, has not improved during the month, only one-third of our correspondence reporting it good, and a majority of them consider it still below an average, as the plant is still small and backward."

R. W. Moore, chairman of the Republican executive committee of this township, called another meeting Wednesday evening at 5 o'clock. About ten colored men and three or four white Republicans were present. Mr. Moore called the meeting to order and announced that it was a continuation of Saturday's meeting, he having been elected chairman at that time, and called for business. Solomon was chosen secretary. A committee of seven was appointed to nominate delegates to the county convention. R. W. Moore, John J. Parker and Joe Williams were recommended and elected, with three alternates whose names I did not understand. The entire delegation are no doubt Fields men. During the absence of the committee Solomon made a speech denouncing the Saturday's proceedings. He closed the meeting as a Republican pow-wow and disgraceful to the party. The committee also recommended Alex. Sutton for constable, and John Fields proposed T. B. Brown for nomination. A vote decided in favor of Sutton. The meeting then adjourned.

If I am allowed to express an opinion this meeting was called entirely for Fields's benefit, he having been completely whipped in Saturday's proceedings. I don't suppose that any one has the remotest idea that the meeting was legal or that the delegates will be recognized. Fields is said to take his set back very hard, nearly every one who sees him remarking about his appearance. John N. Walters says that he heard that he had a case of vomiting after the meeting Saturday, but of course no one will suppose that his defeat caused it.

The Latest.—The meeting reassembled, after a part of the crowd had left, and recommended J. C. Carter for the legislature.

Blue Fishing at Morehead.

MOREHEAD CITY, Aug. 15, 1884.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—Blue fishing is at the height here now, and the sport never was finer. Parties from the New Bern House have been out trolling every day this week, and their catch of blue fish and mackerel was large each day. Yesterday a party consisting of Mrs. E. K. Bryan and Miss Aurora Mace of New Bern, Miss Rebecca Sodon of Rocky Mount, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Green of Trenton, went out trolling from the New Bern House and caught 163 blue fish.

For all who love the sport this is the season for successful trolling. N.P.S.

WAR! WAR!

The greatest political war perhaps for the last century is now about to open, and that every Cleveland or Blaine man may take an active part in this great political fight, it is of great importance that he should commence at once to lay in his supplies of Groceries and Dry Goods at the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHREY & HOWARD'S, that he may give the necessary time to achieve the greatest victory ever gained in these United States. The war has actually begun from the Presidential Chair down to the lowest county offices. Some may cry peace, peace, but there will be no peace until every man shoulders his pocket-book and goes down to the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHREY & HOWARD'S, and buys a supply of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes, etc. Sold at the lowest living prices. dw

For its soothing and grateful influence on the scalp, and for the removal and prevention of dandruff, Ayer's Hair Vigor has no equal. It restores faded or gray hair to its original dark color, stimulates the growth of the hair, and gives it a beautiful, soft, glossy and silken appearance.

Notice.

On account of running an excursion to Little Washington, the steamer Elm City will not make her trip to Hyde county until Thursday morning, Aug. 21, at 9 a. m.; returning, leaving Hyde county for New Bern Friday morning, Aug. 23 at 9 a. m.
