THE DAILY JOURNAL, a 54 column paper published daily except on Monday, at $4.00 per year, $1.00 for six months. Delivered to city subscribers at 50 cents per month.

THE JOURNAL.

H. S. NUNN, Editor. NEW BERNE, N. C., AUG. 17 1884. Entered at the Post office at New Berne, N. C. as second-class matter.

LET IT CONTINUE.

The joint canvass between Seales and York is doing great good for the Democratic cause, and we hope it will be continued as long as possible.

This is sound sense. The Democratic party ought not to fear the result if its standard bearer is the equal of the candidate of the opposite party, because the vantage ground, in having the truth on their side, would be with their candidate.

WASTING TIME.

In his charge to the Grand Jury of Wake county this week, Judge Gudger spoke with some emphasis of punishing the road-overseers who have neglected their duty.

We have heard judges, time again, "speak with emphasis," on this very subject and we have long been of the opinion that it was time wasted. Now when Judge GUDGER was speaking with some emphasis about this matter to the Grand Jury of Wake he was, in all probability, speaking to some of the very men whom he thought should be punished; and if not to them, most assuredly to those who have to work the road under them.

But the sooner we put the whole subject on another and better and more modern basis, the happier people we shall be.

If all our people were taxpayers there would be no time lost in introducing a better system. But the trouble is we have a large number who pay nothing for the administration of the government under which they live, while they enjoy its privileges.

But after all would it not be better for the tax payers, who have more use for public roads than the non-tax payer, to have better roads no matter at what cost, or under what system? We agree with the Chronicle that the present necessity of paying tribute to mud-holes is worse than the protective tariff.

From the Detroit Free Press. THE LIME-KILN CLUB.

Delegates to the annual election and picnic of the Lime-Kiln Club began to arrive Friday morning, and were received by local members stationed at different points. Nearly all delegates from the West came in on the dirt roads, having their shoes in one hand and a satchel in the other.

Canada sent three delegates, Halifax two, California one, and nearly every State and Territory were represented. The actual number was 521, and quite a large number brought their wives along.

All delegates reported at Paradise Hall as soon as possible, and there met Brother Gardner, and were given a slice of watermelon and assigned lodgings.

SATURDAY MORNING

The members were again at the hall, and after a short address by Brother Gardner, in which he advised everybody to work up a feeling of perfect tranquillity and pay no attention to cholera reports, the statesmen formed in procession and marched to the foot of Russell street, where a sand barge and a tug were in waiting to convey them down the river to Fighting Island.

Mississippi—"Hitch along an' gin us room to spell out de big words."

Arkansas—"It has bin a dry time, but de co'n am comin' up."

The procession was headed by a string band composed of local members, and many compliments were received for the manner in which it rendered spirited music along the route.

THE GAMES.

The island was reached about 10:30 a. m., and from that until 3 p. m. the crowd was busy with the programme of games and sports laid out for the occasion. The following is a list of the principal prizes and the names of the winners:

Standing jump—Prize, a white plug hat; won by the Hon. Erastus Snowball, of South Carolina, who covered nine feet and seven inches and sprained his back for life.

Running jump—A two-story rope-ladder fire-escape; won by Judge X. B. Greene, of Arkansas, who covered twelve feet and blew his ears back tight to his head.

High jump—Prize, a hand-painted sawbuck, built after the Grecian style; won by Waydown Beebe, who sailed over a stick held five feet high and came down on his head with such vigor as to jar the whole island.

Foot race—Prize, a pair of 20c suspenders, warranted not to contract in a thunder-storm; won by Pickles Smith, who brought up in the water and won't dry out for a week.

Lifting—Prize, a bottle of sure cure for corns; won by Judge Cadaver, who raised 320 lbs off the ground, but broke both suspenders and lengthened his legs three inches apiece.

Knocking out—Prize, a music box capable of playing one tune a whole week; won by Giveadam Jones, who knocked three champions so far into the middle of next week that they missed the picnic dinner.

THE DINNER

Was a very complete affair, and reflected great credit on the committee in charge. The menu consisted of:

- Buttermilk. Water. Lemonade. Onions. Lettuce. Greens. Turnips. Soup. More onions. Mustard. Onions. Vinegar. Crackers. Greens. Vinegar. Buttermilk. Water. Mustard on ice. Ice on mustard.

Vinegar on greens, Buttermilk on onions, Greens on vinegar. Soup a la Langtry. Onions de Napoleon. DESSERT: About the same, but a little weaker. TOASTS.

The following toasts were given and responded to:

"The Watermelon—May he Grow as big as a House." Response by Gen. Spikeroot Smith, of North Carolina, who said he admired the faith that sent the Pilgrim Fathers of these shores.

"Our Country—May It Never Be Divided." Response by the Rev. Tuckabout Jones, of Virginia, who described the Pyramids of Egypt in a very entertaining way.

"Our motto—'Onward.'" Response by Trustee Pullback, who thought every colored family should carry onions in their pockets to keep off the cholera.

At 8 o'clock sharp Paradise Hall was thrown open to the crowd and the meeting called to order. Brother Gardner announced the following solemn facts:

The Lime-Kiln Club has over 4,000 members. It has over $300 cash on hand. Its library has 1,800 almanacs and other valuable works on the shelves. Its museum has over 1,000 valuable relics and specimens, ranging from Napoleon's family ice-box down to the written confession of Ben Butler. It affiliates with Congress and every State Legislature. It is on good terms with 600 literary and scientific societies, and has thirty-two branch clubs which are doing all possible to aid in the moral elevation of the colored race.

THE ELECTION.

The old man sat down amidst a storm of applause, and the Hon. Augustus Walkback, of New York, moved that Brother Gardner be retained as President for the ensuing year by acclamation. The Rev. Penstock opposed this, and moved for an informal ballot to bring out candidates, but some one hit him in the head with a harvest apple and the previous motion prevailed. A ballot was then taken for the several other offices, with the following result:

Vice-President—Professor Ginger Lemington, of Massachusetts.

Grand Secretary—Hon. Thomas Biggs, of Nova Scotia.

Grand Treasurer—Gen. Standdown Greene, of Georgia.

Grand Janitor—Rev. Rapwell Hopkins, of Nebraska.

Brother Gardner returned his thanks in a speech which brought tears to a hundred eyes and three policemen to the alley door, and announced that the local offices and committees would be announced at the next meeting. At about midnight, after one of the most successful gatherings ever held on earth, the meeting adjourned and the various honorary members began making preparations to start for home.
