Will you go to Asheville now?
New sweet potatoes are now plentiful in our market at 50 to 60 cents per bushel.

First bale of new cotton has been received at Wilmington. It was from Columbia, S. C.

S. H. Scott is beautifying the front of his store on Commercial Row with ornamental sign painting.

On Sunday night there was a heavy frost in New York, Connecticut, Vermont and New Hampshire.

Gov. Jarvis will speak at Kinston on Saturday, September 6th and we expect for him a large audience.

Cotton bagging furnishes seats at the "corner" now. This is bagging on a corner, not a corner on bagging.

There is a general feeling, McCawber-like, for something to turn up, but cotton will soon turn up.

The steamer Shenandoah was behind her usual time yesterday morning owing to making a stop at Nag's Head as she came down.

The schooner S. L. Myra, Capt. B. M. Payne, from Far creek, arrived yesterday with seven hundred bushels oats consigned to W. F. Burrus & Co.

The messenger man has found eleven ears of corn growing on a single stalk belonging to Mr. Rufus Uzzell. Mr. Uzzell had better save the seed, for that is what we would call prolific.

The base ball clubs of Raleigh, Goldsboro, Wilmington, Wilson and other places are having a good time this summer beating and getting beat. Couldn't the old Elm City's of New Berne be revived and beat the lot?

The woods are on fire in the West; the fire of eloquence, Scales and York, Stedman and Faircloth, Kitchen and Trull to say nothing of congressional and county candidates, are fanning the flames of patriotism to a glowing heat.

F. W. Hancock is meeting good success with his Pile Remedy. He has shipped eighteen dozens in the past few days to various parts of the State. He finds it is making a reputation for itself wherever tried and orders are coming in almost constantly for it.

The Democratic convention of Duplin county, which convened at Jacksonville on Wednesday, August 20th, nominated E. J. Hill for the Senate, W. D. Stanford for the House, W. M. Huret for Sheriff, H. C. Moore for Register, Jno. R. Nells for Treasurer, J. N. Hall for Coroner and J. R. Miller for Surveyor.

Notes on railroads, steamboats and such assemblages are now in order, and we shall see many of these unerring evidences of public sentiment announced by the sanguine party press; but with the remarkable coincidence that the results are always favorable to the candidate favored by the paper publishing the vote.

By a private letter received here yesterday we learn that the store of Mr. G. W. Blake, near Jacksonville, Onslow county, was destroyed by fire on last Sunday night, about 10 o'clock, together with a large quantity of goods. The property, we understand, was partially insured. Origin of the fire unknown.

The Democrats of Johnson county, at their convention last Saturday, nominated the following ticket: Senate, Ashly Horne; House, Jas. H. Pou and J. W. Perry; Sheriff, W. Hinman; Register, H. D. Lunceford; Treasurer, S. R. Morgan; Coroner, Dr. L. L. Sasser; Surveyor, Romulus Lambert. The messenger says the ticket is safe for 300 to 500.

Returning from Morehead.
Mr. E. K. Bryan and family, Miss Mary L. Bryan, Miss Florence Bryan, Rev. C. A. Jenkins and family have all come up from the seaside.

F. G. Simmons and family have returned from Morehead City.

The Right Thing.
Mr. L. H. Cutler has done the right thing in having his dwelling, on Pollock between Craven and East Front, nicely painted. The blinds are of a brilliant red, which contrasts finely with the other colors used, and is the work of our tasty townsman Wm. Hay, Esq.

An Outrage.
The people of Onslow county in the Richlands, Catharine Lake, Gum Branch and Jacksonville sections are entitled to a daily mail. The post office department has let out a contract for carrying a daily mail from Magnolia on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad to Jacksonville and other intermediate points. The original contractor sub-let it to another, but the mail has not been carried with any regularity whatever for several weeks past. Indeed it has been carried in such a manner that the daily route is an absolute injury to the people, because most of their mail is sent by this route and delayed, while by the semi-weekly route from Kinston or Trenton they would get their mail at least once a week. So negligent has been the carrier on this daily route that parties at Jacksonville, so we are informed, by reliable gentlemen, absolutely had to ride to Richlands to get their mail.

We are further informed that when the postmaster at Richlands was asked why the contractor had not been reported the reply was, "It had been reported to Mr. Clemens, the original contractor." Now Mr. Clemens will probably inform the department that he is not entitled to pay for this service, and he will undoubtedly refuse to pay the sub-contractor for services not rendered, but this does not repair the injury done the people by delaying their mail. If the contractor for carrying this route cannot comply with it and give the people their mails some one ought to be employed who can.

Personal.
C. E. Foy and family returned from New York by the steamer Shenandoah.

Leva W. Dawson, of Kinston, came in from New York on the Shenandoah and took the steamer Kinston for home.

Miss Mollie Herring, who was a teacher in the graded school here during the last session, has located in Goldsboro and will engage in teaching music.

Miss Herring made many warm friends, although a stranger among us, who wish her abundant success.

John W. Wooten, of Jones, was in the city yesterday.

W. S. Wooten, of Pitt, was in the city yesterday and left on the Kinston.

Mr. E. H. Morrison—not the tariff bill Morrison—left yesterday on the Shenandoah.

H. B. Duffy has left for the North to buy fall stock.

F. M. Harper, a former typo in the JOURNAL office, arrived from Kinston last night, looking well and pleasing.

Geo. E. Pittman, Esq., is in town, called by the sad event of the death of his father-in-law.

Reduced Rates to the Mountains.
There will be an excursion from Morehead to Asheville on the first of September. Fare for round trip: From Morehead and Newport, $8.85; From New Berne, 7.05; From Kinston, 7.45; La Grange, 7.30.

The excursion will be on regular passenger train Monday, September 1st, 1884.

Tickets good to return on ANY TRAIN within TEN DAYS.

This extraordinary low rate will furnish an opportunity to visit the mountains, and watering places of the western part of the State, at a cost so small that it must induce a large number of persons all along the line of the road to take advantage of it. Asheville is in itself a place worth the expense to see, to say nothing of the other points of interest in the vicinity.

Preparing for Fall Work.
Our absent citizens are beginning to return. We called to see F. M. Simmons, Esq., yesterday evening, who has just returned from a trip to the mountains after spending several weeks at Morehead City. He is looking fresh and vigorous and is preparing his docket for the fall courts with his usual zeal and earnestness. It gives us pleasure to note the success of any of our young men, but we deem a special notice in this instance not amiss. Mr. Simmons has gradually risen in his profession until he now stands in the very front rank in Eastern North Carolina; and the large practice which he and his partner, Mr. Manly, now commands in this and adjoining counties is evidence of the confidence he has won from all. We are pleased to learn from him that the season at Morehead City this summer has been fairly successful and when we drop in again we hope he will tell us something about his success in the mountains.

Is Cleveland Really Losing Ground.
The first passenger vote taken on any Railroad that we have seen reported Cleveland received 117 and Blaine 7 or about 16 for Cleveland to one for Blaine. Now the second report of a similar vote was from Old Fort, N. C., and stood about 3 for Cleveland to one for Blaine, a heavy falling off, but then the first was a regular train up North and the latter an excursion train down South. May be that's the difference.

Kinston Items.

A Florida man reports that he recently killed an alligator in which he found a hen sitting on a dozen eggs. That man must have emigrated from Swansboro.

Mrs. Sarah Quinley, wife of Samuel Quinley, of Johnson's Mills, Pitt county, died of child birth on the night of the 23d instant. She was the daughter of the late Calvin Tucker, of Pitt county.

It is said that Daniel G. Taylor's supreme opposition to the stock law of the last Legislature will compel him to declare his independent candidacy for the House of Representatives from Lenoir county on that issue alone.

There are four candidates in the race for the House of Representatives from Lenoir county. Jas. G. Cox and J. W. Grainger, regular nominees of the Republican and Democratic parties and J. C. Carter and Daniel G. Taylor, "go as you please" candidates. The stock law will be the main issue in the campaign.

Kinston College was thronged last Friday night to hear the address of N. J. Rouse, Esq., before the Teachers' Institute. It was a finished and well delivered oration, evincing much original talent and elaborate thought. The occasion was as gay and crowded as a commencement night week.

Every man believes himself superior, in one way or another, to every other man; yet every man knows that he is imperfect, and many will own it. At the same time every man expects other men to be perfect and is angry with them if they exhibit any imperfection. This is one of the strange inconsistencies of human nature.

"Who's this Mullid of Dongola that the papers are talking about?" asked a local Democratic politician last Saturday. "Oh he's a grand Turk in Asia" was the reply. "You don't say," exclaimed the astonished Statesman. "Why I thought he was some new fellow that Dan Taylor had got to work up his campaign. Let's have a drink."

A bad boy broke up a camp meeting by stirring up a hornets nest which hung about the congregation. It was remarked afterward by a thoughtful deacon that if the sinners and sinners had showed half the anxiety to escape perdition and reach heaven that they did to get away from the horns and reach that boy there would soon be no further use for revival meetings.

The Democratic county convention at Kinston last Saturday was unusually large and harmonious. The party appears to be thoroughly organized. The following ticket was nominated: James D. Sutton for Sheriff, George L. Hodges for Register of Deeds, John T. Gray for County Treasurer, Elijah P. Loftin for Surveyor and Dr. J. M. Kirkpatrick for Coroner. J. Q. Jackson was nominated for the House of Representatives, but declined. John F. Wooten was then nominated by acclamation, who also declined. This honor was then tendered to Jesse W. Grainger, Esq., who appeared in the convention and accepted. It is a "fearful team," calling on the Republicans to work together for good, if they expect to "see the glory of the Lord."

La Grange Items.
John Reid had his hand badly hurt while playing a game of base ball last week.

Shade Wooten, E. W. Bizzell and K. E. Bizzell left for Baltimore this (Monday) morning.

Rev. J. D. Cavanaugh preached at Hickory Grove last Saturday and Sunday, his regular appointment.

Miss Addie M. Kirkpatrick, teacher in primary department La Grange Collegiate Institute returned here last Saturday.

A nine from here will go to Goldsboro next Friday, to play a nine there. We want our boys to beat, but really we feel but little interest in such.

Calvin Hinsen, an aged citizen of the Bucklesberry section of this county, died on the 24th inst. Mrs. Nannie Fields, wife of our townsman, W. S. Fields, died in this place at 7 o'clock this (Monday) morning after an illness of several weeks. Jordan Best, a colored man on the plantation of Josiah Sutton, sr., died on the 25th inst.

Rev. Mr. Hiers and Rev. Mr. Bryan are conducting a series of religious meetings at the Baptist church in this place. Mr. Hiers is an able minister and pastor of the church. Mr. Bryan is a native of Duplin county, now a student at the Louisville Theological Seminary. His discourse Sunday night was one of the most interesting we have heard for many days.

The poem "Amid the Slain," written by Miss Lidia Whitfield and published in the JOURNAL a short time ago, is quite interesting. Miss Whitfield has considerable talent, and has written several pieces that have been published in different papers in our State. She is a Lenoir lady, and lives but a short distance from our town. We wish her success in her new field.

The two parties now have a full ticket in the field in our county, with an independent or so to make the thing lively. James Carter, an independent Republican from here will go before the Republicans claiming to be the regular nominee, and before the people as "anti stock law." We hear that Mr. Cox, the other "regular nominee," was a strong stock law man in the beginning, but has changed his tactics. Mr. Grainger, the Democratic candidate, will, we presume, leave such matters with those interested.

Railroad Celebration.

The commissioners who went to examine the Western N. C. Railroad stopped at Charleston in Swain county. That sounds odd, don't it? The railroad completed to Charleston! But the track was laid nine miles still farther on, and the railroad authorities notified the State that the road would be completed to the mouth of the Nantahala by the 1st day of Sept. On that day then it would be in order for the commissioners to examine the road-bed, etc., but Gov. Jarvis having appointments carrying him to the eastern part of the State, the day for making the final examination has been fixed for the 12th of September.

The 12th of September then will be a memorable day in the annals of North Carolina enterprise and railroad building in this State.

It will mark the opening of the Western North Carolina railroad to the mouth of the Nantahala. The work of so many years, involving the expenditure of so many million dollars, will then be accomplished.

It will be held as a fête day at Charleston, the county town of Swain county, where those old mountaineers who have waited so long for railroad facilities will gather and celebrate the event. There will be a vast assemblage there and the ceremonies will be attended by the commissioners, Senator Vance, Governor Jarvis, Dr. Worth and by Gen. Roberts and perhaps Gen. Scales, and a host of other speakers and eminent citizens. It will be a great day for North Carolinians to rejoice together over the accomplishment of this memorable achievement, which, coming towards the close of Governor Jarvis' administration fitly illustrates the energy with which he has pushed to a happy advancement the material interests of North Carolina.—News and Observer.

Tuscarora Items.
No marriages or deaths this week. A few mild cases of sickness.

Sad times with some of the boys. Miss Katy Cannon left for home yesterday.

Worms are raiding on the crops; Mr. J. C. Moore had a fine crop of rice destroyed by them.

Some of the neighbors want the editor of the JOURNAL to recommend speakers for them; no prohibitionist wanted.

The protracted meeting at Asberry has gained about twenty members to the church; reported William B. and Enoch Lane among the number.

Mr. E. A. Kilpatrick passed through here the other day to take a peep at his farm, and returned well pleased at his prospects. He was accompanied by Mr. W. H. West.

A young man living in Black Swamp, Jones county, says he has a frog that can jump two ridges of potatoes at a hop, and knock down palings. It came down in a rain a few weeks ago.

Some of the stolen property of Mr. Cosby, of your city, was sold to Mr. John Humphrey and Mrs. C. C. Wetherington, which they returned. The next rascal won't make much headway here. Glad he has been captured.

Stonewall Items.
The wet weather has damaged cotton at least one third and peas over half.

There is considerable sickness throughout the county. Dr. Attmore has no rest night or day.

Nathan Cahoon, aged 57 years, died at his residence last Tuesday. Truly a good citizen gone.

The sweet potato crop bids fair to exceed any crop ever made in this county. The acreage is more than doubled and Elder Levi Broughton says his is the best he ever had, and all report as he does.

The army worms are disappearing to the gratification of all who have been troubled with them. They have done an immense amount of damage to young corn, rice and peas, but have not injured cotton much.

Mrs. Jessie Sawyer has returned home from a visit to her acquaintances in Wayne county. She was accompanied by the widow Netty Yelverton who is creating somewhat of a flutter among the young gens of this vicinity.

Mr. Jesse Robison and Mrs. Eliza Alexander were married on the 20th inst. at the residence of the bride, Chas. A. Flowers, J. P., officiating. From appearances to a looker on a widower near Stonewall is casting wishful glances not far from where Jesse succeeded.

HANOVER, O., Feb. 13, 1884.
After having lung fever and pneumonia I had a dreadful cough and could not sleep at night. The doctors told me I had consumption and would die. I have taken six bottles of Pico's Cure and my cough is entirely gone, and I am well as ever.
