The Methodist Advance,
 (VOLUME V.)

An unofficial organ of the Southern Methodist, edited by Rev. W. M. Robey, D. D., of the North Carolina Conference.

In order better to meet the wants of the people and to enlarge its sphere of usefulness, the price of the ADVANCE has been

Reduced to One Dollar and Fifty Cents

A YEAR, (or eight months for one dollar)—payable always in advance—making it one of the cheapest papers in the South.

The ADVANCE is an Independent Journal, acknowledging allegiance only to Southern Methodism, but depending for favor entirely on its merits. It is in harmony with all the official Journals of the Church and is indebted to them for many courtesies. It antagonizes none of them, but seeks to co-operate with them in giving to the people an inexpensive and useful paper.

Sample copies furnished free on application. Address

THE JOURNAL.
 NEW-BERNE, N. C. SEPT. 10, 1884.

Seven Springs Items.
 The cool nights and hot days makes the festive mosquito get around.
 Cotton picking has commenced and Sambo and Dinah are supremely happy.
 When you buy a postage stamp don't wait till you write your letter to pay for it.
 The attendance at the Springs this summer has been greater than that of any previous season.
 Henry Spence is making brick to aid in the future building operations of this rustic burg. Long may he wave.
 The Democrats of Indian Springs township met on Saturday and elected eight delegates to the county convention.

Mr. Eugene Tucker and lady and Miss Maggie Booser, from New Bern, are among the guests at the Seawall House.

Col. Charlotte, of Beaufort, and T. R. Cherry, of Geesville, have been rusticiating in the Saponia Hills, sketching, fishing, etc. The former gentleman was called away on Saturday on business in New York.

Goose Creek Items.
 H. A. Reel is having a dwelling-house erected.
 The Primitive Baptists will dedicate their new church at Grantsboro next Saturday and Sunday.
 Crops very good. Fine weather for sowing fodder, and farmers are making good use of it. Getting rather dry for potatoes.
 No marriages. One young lady says hard times causes it—wait till times get better. She intends to be some one's bride, I think.
 Very sickly about here. Mr. Lewis Jones's little girl, aged two years, died Thursday of congestive fever. Mr. Lester's wife died last week. Mr. Noah Dixon is very sick; also six members of Mr. Asa Moore's family.

That Much was Certain.
 "Ma," whispered Pinder Fitzgoober, after the funeral of a friend, "do you know where he went?"
 "Hush, child," cautioned the mother, who saw that the question had been overheard, "of course I don't, and no one else does."
 "He do," yelled the boy, brightly, "he went to the cemetery."—Atlanta Constitution.

 Your poor wearied wife losing sleep night after night nursing the little ones suffering from that night fiend to children and horror to parents, CROUP, should have a bottle of Taylor's Cherokee Remedy of Sweet Gum and Mullein, an undoubted croup preventive, and cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Consumption, and all lung and bronchial troubles. Price 25cts. and $1.00. This with Dr. Biggers' Southern Remedy, an equally efficacious remedy for Cramp, Colic, Diarrhea, Dysentery, and children suffering from the effects of teething, presents a little Medicine Chest no household should be without, for the speedy relief of sudden and dangerous attacks of the lungs and bowels. Ask your druggist for them. Manufactured by Walter A. Taylor, Atlanta, Ga., proprietor of Taylor's Premium Cologne. aug15-dwim

WARI WARI WARI
 The greatest political war perhaps for the last century is now about to open, and that every Cleveland or Blaine man may take an active part in this great political fight, it is of great importance that he should commence at once to lay in his supplies of Groceries and Dry Goods at the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHEYS & HOWARD'S, that he may give the necessary time to achieve the greatest victory ever gained in these United States. The war has actually begun from the Presidential Chair down to the lowest county offices. Come your cry peace, peace, but there will be no peace until every man shoulders his pocket-book and goes down to the Great Cheap Cash Store of HUMPHEYS & HOWARD'S, and buys a supply of Dry Goods, Groceries, Boots and Shoes, etc. Sold at the lowest living prices. dw

By taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla many a poor sufferer who submits to the surgeon's knife because of malignant sores and scrofulous swellings, might be saved, sound and whole. This will purge out the corruptions which pollute the blood, and by which such complaints are originated and fed.

THE CENTURY.
 Programme for 1883-'84.

The programme for the fourteenth year of this magazine, and the third under the new management, is a most interesting and popular than ever. With every season THE CENTURY shows a decided gain in circulation. The new volume begins with November, and will contain the following articles, some of the features of the coming year:

A New Novel, by George W. Cable, author of "The Creole Days," etc., entitled "Dr. Sayer," a story of New Orleans life, the time being the era of the late Civil War.

"Life in the Thirteen Colonies," by Edward Everett, separate United States on subjects connected with the early history of this country.

Three Stories by Henry James, of varying lengths, to appear through the year.

The New Astronomy, untechnical articles by Prof. F. Lauey, describing the most interesting of recent discoveries in the sun and stars.

Concluded by H. H. Boyesen, author of "Gunnar," etc. a vivid and sparkling story.

The New Era in American Architecture, a series of papers descriptive of the best work in American architecture in Public Buildings, City and Country Houses, etc. To be profusely illustrated.

A Novellet by Robert Grant, author of "Conjugal Love," etc., entitled "An Average Man," a story of New York.

The Bread-winners, one of the most remarkable novels of the day, to be completed in January.

"Christianity and Wealth," with other essays, by the author of "The Christian League," etc., on the application of Christian morals to the present phases of modern life.

Essays about the Gulf of St. Lawrence, a series of entertaining articles, profusely illustrated.

Scenes from the Novelists, Hawthorne, George Eliot, and Cable, with authentic drawings.

O the Track of Ulysses, the record of a yacht-cruise in the Mediterranean, identifying the route of Ulysses on his return from the Trojan war.

"Garfield in England," extracts from his private journal kept during his trip to Europe in 1881.

"The Silverado Squatters," by Robert Louis Stevenson, author of "New Arabian Nights."

There will be papers on outdoor England by John Burroughs and others, a beautifully illustrated series on Dante, a number of papers by the eminent French novelist, Alphonse Daudet, articles on art and archeology by Charles Dudley Warner and others, illustrated reading on sport and adventure, short stories by the leading writers, essays on literary subjects, etc., etc.

Subscription price $1.00 a year, single number 5 cents. Orders for the magazine should be made direct to the publishers by postal or express order, registered letter, bank check or draft.

SPECIAL OFFERS.
 To enable new subscribers to begin with the first volume under THE CENTURY name, we make the following special offers:
