The Melvin in Distress.

Mr. E. K. Bryan received a telegram from Nag's Head yesterday morning announcing that the schooner Melvin had put in there with her sails blown away. The Baker Wrecking Co. was telegraphed to go to her assistance.

Good Corn.

Mr. W. S. Phillips was recently in Hyde county and comes back with a regular Swansboro alligator story about corn. He saw some growing on Mr. B. G. Credle's place in rows two feet apart; fills ten inches apart, two stalks in a hill and two good ears to the stalk. Mr. Credle is keeping a boarding house in this city and will surely be able to supply the table with good corn bread.

Mr. James M. Benson of Lake Comfort, Hyde county, is in the city.

Miss Mamie Ellis returned last night from a trip to the mountains.

Mr. H. B. Duffy, of the firm of Duffy & Co., returned from the North last night with his accomplished bride.

Matthew Banks, colored, answered to the charge of disorderly conduct and was fined $1.00 and cost.

Geo. T. Phillips, colored, was found guilty of disorderly conduct and was fined $5.00.

Three gentlemen were asked to hand over $5.00 cash for fast driving which they did without murmuring. Such were the proceedings in His Honor's, Mayor Meadows', court yesterday morning.

Democratic Nominations in Greene.

The Democrats of Greene county assembled at Snow Hill last Saturday and nominated the following strong ticket:

For the House, Capt. W. A. Darden; for Sheriff, Luby Harper; for Treasurer, T. W. Carr; for Register of Deeds, Y. T. Ormand; for Surveyor, Charles Lassiter; for Coroner, Dr. W. C. Galloway.

A large crowd was present to hear the speeches of Hon. Daniel C. Fowle and F. A. Woodard, Esq. The ticket nominated is regarded as a very strong one and will bring out a full Democratic vote. The Republicans hold their convention next Saturday.

No Grumbling.

The shutting off of the city lights will probably cause some grumbling among the citizens, but any one at all acquainted with the expense of running the government will see at once that our city Fathers are bound to curtail expenses somewhere. With a levy of 33 cents on the hundred dollars of property and $1.00 on the poll the city will realize about $4,500, and the tax on dogs, and the license tax will amount to about as much more making in round numbers $9,000. Of this sum $3,000 will be required for the fire department, and when the collector's commissions, mayor's salary and policemen's wages are paid there will be less than four thousand dollars to apply to streets and pumps. Over five thousand dollars were expended last year on streets and pumps; not an unreasonable sum when we remember that there are over eighteen miles of street with pumps innumerable to look after and six horses to feed.

It is an easy matter for one to stand off and grumble and say so and so ought to be done, but the doing of it is something else. Now where would those who are disposed to grumble at the shutting off of the lights begin to curtail expenses. Would they cut down the fire department? Would they abolish the police force? Would they allow the streets to grow up in weeds, and be blocked up with the filth and rubbish from the back yards? We have already been told about the dirty, filthy appearance of our city. Shall we verify the slanders of our enemies? The truth of the matter is New Berne collects less money for city purposes, in proportion to its population, than any town in the State. Our taxes are very burdensome it is true, but it is because of the heavy county tax and not on account of excessive city taxes. It is very nice to have the city lighted up and to have good shelled roads, but if we are not able to pay for them we ought not to have them. It was this grumbling about this thing's not being and that thing's not being done that caused the council to spend more money than they were collecting, but now they should confine themselves strictly within their means and let the grumblers growl.

Seven Springs Items.

The farmers say the weather has been fine for sowing fodder.

W. E. Simmons is absent buying his fall and winter stock of dry goods and groceries.

Mr. J. M. Hardy shipped the first bale of cotton during the season from this place. It was sold in Goldsboro.

A few guests yet linger around the Springs as if loth to abandon the water. Those who leave carry it away by the bottle, the jug and the barrel.

Joe Allen is collecting lumber for his new store. We think Joe will succeed, for he says he is going to do right about that clock business, and he can do it when he will. Joe beats the emporium trading.

Rev. Mr. Carpenter is carrying on an interesting meeting at Piney Grove church. Much interest is manifested. The rev. gentleman is assisted by his excellent lady, who does not mind speaking a word for the Master. She discourses both eloquently and beautifully, which adds very greatly to the interest of the meeting.

Mr. Levin Price and Mr. Everett Dail killed the monster rattlesnake of the season while fishing in N. E. river. The snake swam across the river to attack Mr. Price, but with the assistance of Mr. Dail he was dispatched with a pole. Mr. Price says he was six feet long and had in his body two rattlesnakes and a loggerhead turtle. He says if he had a few more come in him he would have been a monstrous snake.

Miss MARY C. ROBERTS has opened a Kindergarten School for Small Children on Metcalf street. sep10 d1w

EXPOSITION NOTES.

The Buildings Completed—The County Displays—The List of Special Days.

Interest in the coming State exposition increases as the time of holding it approaches. The buildings are now all ready for the reception of the exhibits, and it behooves the county committees who have charge of this work to hasten their exhibits to Raleigh. Letters have been sent the chairmen of all the county committees asking them to have all of their material in Raleigh by the 20th of September. This plan will enable them to be on hand five days before the railroad running through the main building is closed up, and thus save to the counties the cost of drayage and loss of time. The counties have been given the very best locations in the main building, and it is expected that each county will make its exhibit of the most attractive and interesting character; in fact we know that this feature of distinctive county exhibits will prove most valuable in that it creates a pleasant rivalry in displaying products and in decorating the exhibits. Descriptions of the county exhibits indicate that they will be much more elaborate than was at first contemplated. Handsome lithographs and colored posters have been sent broadcast over the State, from which a fair bird's-eye view of the main building may be had. These have also been distributed in all the States adjoining. The large engines and boilers for running the machinery are now being placed, and rest assured that this exhibit of all kinds of manufacturing machinery in motion is going to prove very entertaining to many people in North Carolina. But the main feature of this article is to impress the people with the importance of having their exhibits in Raleigh on time. The gates to the grounds will be closed on the 15th of September to the public, and only persons connected with county or private exhibits will be admitted. On and after the 25th of September the regular gate fees will be charged, viz: Fifty cents for adults and twenty-five cents for children.

Kinston Items.

A man takes a morning cocktail in order to wet his appetite.

Tammany comes into the Democratic camp this year in the ambulance wagon.

The interest of the people lies in avoiding litigation; that of the lawyer in increasing it.

Between forty and fifty bales of cotton were brought to Kinston last Saturday. It brought from 9 1/4 to 9 1/2 c. a pound.

C. B. Woodley, medical student of this place, left here last Monday for Bellevue Medical College, N. Y., to pursue his medical studies.

A fame which glids the lives and lifts the hearts of a man's children is payment for much labor and sorrow, but beyond that, fame is naught—simply naught.

A new religious body has come to light in Crimes. One of the creeds of its members is to kill all those who differ with them. In a way the same rule holds good the world over.

There is a man in the neighborhood of Shady Grove church, Jones county, who never washes his face and hands and will not allow his wife to wash hers. That man sells nice butter in Kinston.

Einstein has returned from the North and is receiving a big stock of goods; so large that he can sell at a very small profit. He has erected another large brick store to make room for his furniture and carpets and everybody who calls will be treated politely and made happy if he purchases a bill of goods. Read the Weekly JOURNAL and see what he has in stock.

We made a tour in the country last Sunday with Col. Moses, visiting his farm in Jones county, and the surrounding country. The corn crops look like an abundant harvest will be gathered. Cotton is very sick. It was first drowned and afterwards parched, and now it has but very little fruit, though the weed is looking quite green. The Colonel is as energetic and pushing as a farmer as he is a lord mayor.

At his residence, at Juniper Bay, Hyde county, Sept. 12th, Albert Fisher, aged 74 years.

At his residence, at Middleton, Hyde county, on Friday morning, September 12th, William S. Cox, aged about 55.
