The schooner Melvin was towed up yesterday by the Revenue cutter Stevens.

Dr. Wm. Peli Blanche started for New York by the Shenandoah for the purchase of his fall stock.

Mr. T. A. Green has commenced tearing down the walls of his brick store for the purpose of rebuilding.

Dr. J. T. House brings us a couple of fine fall apples. Samples of all such should be sent to the Exposition.

U. S. Mace has opened again at the market wharf next door to his old stand, and is offering damaged goods very cheap.

Mr. James Redmond is building an additional brick room to his place of business so as to give more room for his work of beer bottling.

The agent of the Neuse and Trent River Steamboat Company, at Jolly Old Field has been changed from S. Quinley to J. P. Quinley & Co. Mr. J. B. Banks has been appointed agent at Quaker Bridge, on Trent river.

We call attention to the new advertisement of Taylor & Smith, which appears in this morning's issue. A new firm of clever young men, and we speak for them a liberal share of the patronage that they are entitled to.

Mr. John T. Dawson has brought us a few heads of very fine rice. He has fifty acres growing and has promised to bring us samples for the Exposition. Everything intended for the Exposition should be brought in without delay.

Mr. W. H. Hugo, Business Manager for Prof. Pharezyn's Great Gift Carnival, was in town yesterday. The Professor will reach the city on Friday next and entertain our people on that night and the next. See adv. in another column.

Thos. G. Skinner and J. B. Reppas, candidates for Congress, addressed a large crowd at Greenville last Monday. Skinner, as his name implies, is peeling his opponent, so much so that by the time the campaign is over Mr. Reppas will be skinned from head to heel.

Our agent, Mr. C. C. Taylor, while at Snow Hill last Saturday secured the skin of a white squirrel from W. D. Spence, of Speight's Bridge, Greene county. Mr. Spence saw the squirrel wild in the woods and endeavored to catch it alive, but was unable to do so and was compelled to shoot it. He skinned the curiosity and stuffed the skin, which Mr. Taylor brought to the city and turned over to the firm of Clarke & Morgan to prepare for the exposition, but we fear that they have received it too late to do much with it.

A Mean Falsehood.

"Mr. Latham was formerly a Democrat and when he went over to the Republicans, two years ago, he was repudiated by his family."

We cannot imagine how such an untruthful report as the above crept into the report of Mr. Latham's death. We feel it our duty to condemn it because, first, it is not true and is a reflection upon his near relatives in this city and section, and second, such a report is calculated to materially injure the prospects of developing the resources of our section of the State.

We are of the opinion that "an enemy hath done this." The Republican papers have charged time and again that there was no freedom of opinion in North Carolina in politics, and it seems to us that this report that Mr. Latham had been repudiated by his family because he went over to the Republicans was gotten up for the purpose of verifying these assertions.

North Carolina is spending considerable money this year for a great exposition. It is done for the purpose of showing to capitalists what we possess in natural resources and induce them to invest their money with us and help us to develop the wealth of our State. But would any capitalist invest his money in a community where a man is repudiated by his own family simply for changing his politics, especially when it is charged that such is the practice in the community? We think not. But we know we can safely say that if any man brings capital to this section to invest, no question will be asked about his politics.

Not only is it not true that Mr. Latham's family repudiated him, but it is also true that his friends, so far as we know, while they did not agree with him in his course, still regarded him as a friend. Such misrepresentations as the above are calculated to do harm.

Democratic County Convention.

The Democrats of Craven county assembled in convention on Friday, at 12 o'clock, when the convention was called to order by the chairman of the executive committee, A. W. Wood, Esq. H. S. Nunn was chosen temporary secretary.

W. G. Brinson, M. DeW. Stevenson and Geo. D. Connors were appointed as a committee on credentials, who reported the townships represented as follows:

No. 1 township, Ed. Whitford; No. 2, Jas. A. Ernul, S. W. Latham, Alford Gaskins and J. E. Arthur; No. 3, Joel Kinsey, Harrison Palmer, Maj. Gordon and J. W. Lane; No. 4, Samuel W. Willis; No. 5, T. H. Mallison and John Dillard; No. 6, G. D. Connors, James Tippet and G. L. Hardison; No. 7, Nathan Tisdale; 1st ward, T. A. Green, Jas. Hill, G. L. Shackelford, E. E. Harper and O. H. Guion; 2d ward, Clement Manly, W. B. Boyd, H. S. Nunn, and C. K. Hancock; Mr. Hancock being absent, Mr. S. W. Smallwood, his alternate, filled the place; 3d ward, M. DeW. Stevenson, W. G. Brinson, Alex. Miller and J. W. Moore; 4th ward, W. S. Phillips and H. B. Lane; 5th ward, W. L. Ervin, B. H. Brinson, Rufus Hearne, E. J. Piver and J. H. Hackburn; 9th township, W. B. Lane, A. E. Wadsworth, W. W. Prescott and J. G. Smith.

The report of the committee was adopted.

Messrs. C. Manly, T. H. Mallison and G. L. Hardison were appointed a committee on permanent organization.

The committee reported for permanent chairman W. B. Lane, for Secretary H. S. Nunn.

The report was adopted.

Mr. Lane took the chair, and announced that nominations for the Legislature and for county officers were in order.

W. G. Brinson nominated M. DeW. Stevenson for the Senate.

Mr. Stevenson nominated Philemon Holland, Jr.

Mr. Clement Manly seconded the nomination of Mr. Holland.

Mr. Stevenson advocated the nomination of Mr. Holland and asked that his own name be withdrawn.

Mr. Brinson withdrew the name of M. DeW. Stevenson, when on motion of Mr. Stevenson Philemon Holland, Jr., was nominated by acclamation as the Democratic candidate for the Senate.

Nominations for the House were declared in order.

Mr. Ed. Whitford nominated Enoch Wadsworth.

Nathan Tisdale nominated R. A. Russell.

A. E. Wadsworth nominated Joel Kinsey.

The first ballot resulted, 20 for Russell, 10 for Wadsworth and 17 for Kinsey.

While the second ballot was being taken, Mr. Kinsey earnestly requested that his name be withdrawn. His request was granted and R. A. Russell received the entire vote of the convention as the candidate for the House of Representatives in the next General Assembly of North Carolina.

Mr. Ed. Whitford moved that Mr. Freeman Ernul be nominated for sheriff.

Mr. C. Manly moved to amend the motion of Mr. Whitford by making no nomination at all. He spoke to the amendment, giving his reasons for offering it.

The amendment was adopted.

T. A. Green was unanimously nominated for Treasurer.

Enoch Wadsworth was unanimously nominated for Register of Deeds.

Dr. Frank Duffy was unanimously nominated for Coroner.

Daniel Lane was unanimously nominated for Surveyor.

M. DeW. Stevenson was unanimously nominated Sub-elect for the county.

On motion, a committee of three, consisting of O. H. Guion, A. E. Wadsworth and R. G. Mallett, was appointed to inform the nominees of the action of the convention and ask their presence.

While the committee retired to perform that duty, short, pointed speeches were made by M. DeW. Stevenson and James A. Bryan.

The committee returned with Mr. Holland who ascended the stage and accepted the nomination and promised a thorough canvass of the county.

On motion, the thanks of the convention were tendered the chairman and the secretary for the manner in which they had discharged their duties.

The convention adjourned.

W. B. LANE, Chairman.

H. S. NUNN, Secretary.

Horse Shoeing.

Mr. Dan Kelley has opened a horse shoeing and shipsmith shop at J. G. Cuthbert's machine shops and solicits patronage in his line of business, as will be seen by reference to our advertising columns. He has been in the business all his life and claims to understand it.

The Nominations.

The Democrats did well in their convention on yesterday. Every township in the county was represented and a good ticket was put in the field.

PHILEMON HOLLAND, JR., the candidate for the Senate, is a young man of fine talent; graduated with honors at Trinity College in 1881, carrying off the Wiley Gray medal, studied law under Simmons & Manly and was granted license by the Supreme Court in the early part of 1883 and is now practicing law in copartnership with O. H. Guion, Esq., who was licensed at the same time. He is a bold, fearless, eloquent speaker and would be worth something to his county and section if elected.

R. A. RUSSELL, the nominee for the House, is one of the sturdy old farmers of the county. He represented the county in the Legislature before the war, is a good farmer, a man of intelligence and good judgment and would make a good representative.

T. A. GREEN, the nominee for Treasurer, is one of the most successful business men of our city. He started in the world a poor boy, was apprenticed to a carpenter to learn the trade. After the war he engaged in the mercantile business in this city and by economy and strict attention to business has amassed considerable property. He is a good financier and his interest is sufficiently identified with that of the county so that its finances might be safely entrusted to his hands.

ENOCH WADSWORTH, the nominee for Register of Deeds, is a very successful farmer and would make a most excellent officer; but it is a pity to make officers of our best farmers; we need more farmers like Mr. Wadsworth. For Coroner we have that excellent and polite gentleman

DR. FRANK DUFFY.

He is learned in his profession, and if elected will fill the office with ability.

MR. DANIEL LANE, the nominee for Surveyor, is another one of the best farmers of Craven, but the duties of his office will not materially interfere with his farm operations. He is skilled in his profession and a clever, Christian gentleman.

M. DE W. STEVENSON, the sub-elect for the county, is well known in the county. He has always worked for the success of the party, and never fails when called upon. He discusses the issues of the party in a clear and forcible manner.

Nothing but devotion to principle and a desire to secure good government could have induced these men to accept these nominations, and it is to be hoped that the Democrats all over the county will make an extra effort to bring out a full vote. The prospects are good for the election of both the State and National Democratic tickets, and we desire to see Craven do her part manfully.

Another Straw.

Mr. Elias Grout, of Ashland, Massachusetts, well known at Kinston where he has bought cotton for the last ten or twelve years, writes us from Ashland on business and adds the following postscript: "I hope you will do your best to elect Cleveland and Hendricks." "Mr. Grout, we believe, is a staunch Republican, lives in a manufacturing town and if we are not mistaken, owns an interest in a cotton mill. This, in addition to the fact that the manufacturing towns in Vermont gave a Democratic gain will show that the manufacturers are not, as they have generally been heretofore, a unit for the Republican candidate."

Personal.

Mr. B. F. Mayo has returned from Baltimore where he has completed his commercial course at the business college of Bryant & Stratton.

Mr. B. B. Wooten of Cobton was in the city yesterday.

Miss Nellie Long returned on the Shenandoah yesterday morning from an extended trip North.

A. M. Baker returned from a trip North, on the Shenandoah where he has been to purchase his stock of fancy dry goods. Mr. John Dunn also came in with a full supply of Santalinas and other presents for the little folks.

Miss Jennie Windley has returned from a trip up the country.

Mrs. R. H. Hilton has returned from a visit to her relatives in Baltimore.

Mrs. G. H. Roberts and Mrs. J. W. Smallwood left on the Shenandoah for the North to visit relatives.

Messrs. J. L. Tucker and Sam Quinley, of Pitt, are in the city. They report rice a pretty fair crop but cotton not as good as last year.

DEED.

In Brunswick, Ga., on the 21st day of August, 1884, Miss Mary H. Ellis, daughter of the late James Ellis, of this city. Her remains will be brought to this city for re-interment this fall.

Onslow County Items.

No marriages as heard of, but Walter Murrill says he is going to try it next year if not sooner.

Bud Cahaj says he can't get any of the young ladies to come to see him if it is less year. Perhaps your horse is too fast, Cahaj; Arab horses are not fit for this country at all times—get a slower one.

Our farmers are busy picking cotton, and our politicians are busy electioneering. We have had no political speaking of interest as yet in our county but Major C. W. McClammy, Democratic elector for third district, who spoke at Richlands so I heard.

Miss Narey Hurst, daughter of A. J. Hurst, Jr., has gone to Kinston to attend the next session of that school; and Miss Etta Hargett, daughter of Mrs. C. Stephens and sister to Mrs. E. J. Fulford of New Berne, has returned to Salem to continue her studies in that institution.

Our friend from Ward's Mills forgives the editor of the JOURNAL for scaring him about Shriners' Vermifuge, and won't hide any more papers to keep people from reading them. It was only a mistake, probably like it was when a certain sweet pie was eaten some time ago.

Considerable sickness and some deaths lately. Mr. James Woodward, son of the late L. G. Woodward of Richlands, died at his residence Thursday of typhoid fever, aged about 33 years; and Mr. William Wilson, aged about 55 years, died at his home on New river a few days ago. Mr. Wilson leaves a wife and several children.

Big deer hunt Tuesday with us; about sixteen guns were fired at deer and only two killed. Mr. Lee Murrill and father, Edward Murrill, were the lucky ones. A. Lee, J. Holderfield, H. Smith, Ed. Murrill, Frank Melton and George Ward, all good marksmen—especially the latter—shot and missed their game. All had excuses, of course—some too far and some not far enough.

On Wednesday the convict camp, as has been every day lately, was visited by the young ladies of this vicinity; among them were Misses Ida and Laura Sanderlin, accomplished daughters of D. E. Sanderlin, Esq., and I tell you I had not been already married I would have been tempted to steal some of the handsome presents of flowers and "beau catchers" presented to Capt. McVey by these young ladies.

Our schools at present are very scattering; our free schools will commence about the 1st of December in this county, but we have a few good schools, and only a few going on now. At Richlands Mr. Frank Thompson, Jr., has a good school, and at Swansboro Miss Mattie Pearce is teaching. Miss Mattie is an old teacher and a good one. Mr. Lon. Hewett is teaching at Piney Green, and Mr. C. B. Frazelle has a good school in Swamp Sound, which is about all we know of now.

Ed. Franks and Cad Koonce keep on bragging on their crops, but Jack Murrill can beat them fifty per cent on cotton and I expect on anything else but bragging. Cad is a good hand at almost anything, especially watermelons. The other day Lewis Hargett sent a large melon as a present to a certain man, and Cad made a substitute in the shape of a very small one, carried it all right and so did Hargett, and now when Cad carries a present for any one he carries it in his own name.

Fish at Swansboro are getting in their prime. The big seines are all doing something in their line. Browns Inlet, Bogue Inlet, Cedar Point, Hawkins', Shelly Point and Mount Pleasant fisheries are all in full blast, and you can get a mess of fine mullets at either place at any time from now until the 1st of November. The first named fishery is near Mr. R. G. Ward's, the watermelon man who gave Capt. Hancock 2½c. freight on a load of melons and sold them for a cent apiece, some time ago, was as mad as a March hare, and says, "Dod bugget, don't talk to me about melons any more."

GENERAL NEWS.

PARIS, Sept. 18.—Algerian advices report that a mild form of cholera has appeared at Oran in that country. Precautions have been taken to prevent its dissemination.

ROME, Sept. 18.—To-day's bulletin of the ravages of cholera in Italy during the past 24 hours is as follows: Bergamo, new cases 23, deaths 12; Caserta, new cases 5, deaths 5; Cuneo, new cases 17, deaths 5; Genoa, new cases 20, deaths 6; Massa Carrara, new cases 4, deaths 2; Parma, new cases 4, deaths 4; Ragusa, DeMila, new cases 3, deaths 2; Aquilino new cases 5, deaths 3; Naples, new cases 24, deaths 17; Naples (city) new cases 507, deaths 233. Six other provinces, names not given, new cases 8, deaths 3.

The prison at Tangier is crowded with political prisoners who are charged with revolting against the Sultan. The prison is in a deplorable condition and an outbreak of cholera is feared.

PARIS, September 18.—One death from cholera has occurred at St. Ouen, a suburb of Paris. In Perpignan and vicinity yesterday there were 19 deaths reported. At Marseilles two were reported. During the continuance of the epidemic in France there have been 10,000 cases and 5,000 deaths.

NAPLES, September 18.—Excessive heat prevails but the general condition of the city is improving. The gloom and depression which have overhung the city since the epidemic became serious, are beginning to disappear and the streets are regaining their customary activity. Some alarm however is felt at the increase in the number of cases in the suburbs and the municipal authorities have postponed making any change in the present quarantine regulations.
