Regular meeting of Eureka Lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., to-morrow night.

Grapes are pouring in abundantly. They were down to fifty cents per bushel last Friday.

Fifteen prisoners in Craven county jail. Seven awaiting trial and seven serving out sentences.

The steamer Trent arrived from Trenton yesterday evening with eight bales of cotton and several passengers.

The Republicans advertise a grand mass meeting at the junction of Queen and Pollock streets on Monday night.

Capt. Gates predicted rain yesterday morning within twenty-four hours. At this writing we think he made a mistake in his calculation.

Our street pump at last yields a supply of water. Superintendent H. S. Tooker put it in running order yesterday morning and he has our thanks.

Yesterday our Hebrew citizens observed the festival of Rosh Hashana. Their stores were closed and the day celebrated in accordance with Israelitish customs.

We learn that Col. Jacobs, formerly of Maryland, but recently living on Goose Creek Island, Beaufort county, died on Friday and his remains will be taken to his former home in Maryland for burial. Col. Jacobs was in the city about a month ago and in seeming good health.

The mayor had four cases of fast driving before him yesterday. Three submitted and were fined one dollar each and cost. One went to trial and was fined two dollars and cost. It were better for the city if they all stand trial. One case of allowing horse to run at large was fined one dollar and cost.

Our merchants returning from New York report the Cleveland boom away above par. Monied men offer to bet three to one on Cleveland's election. Business houses employing from eighty to one hundred and twenty men, and who claim to be Republicans have no hesitancy in declaring for Cleveland and Hendricks. The indications now are that these gentlemen will be elected by a large majority.

Personal.

Mrs. Jno. D. Howard, Mr. Harry Cress and Miss Lizzie Neal arrived on the steamer Trent yesterday evening.

Mr. Thos. Daniels was up from Morehead City yesterday and reports that the mullets are beginning to come in.

Miss Ida Christmas arrived from Durham last night and was greeted at the depot by a large number of the school girls. She will take charge of her class in the Graded School to-morrow.

Joint Canvass.

Donnell Gilliam, Democratic Elector, and Walter P. Williamson, Republican Elector, held a discussion at Kinston on yesterday. They will continue their canvass at the following times and places: Trenton, Tuesday, 23rd; New Berne, Wednesday, (at night) 24th; La Grange, Thursday, 25th; Snow Hill, Friday, 26th.

Still They Come.

Mr. Wm. Bell killed a rattlesnake having nine rattles yesterday and mended him over to Mr. T. P. Clarke for preparation for the Exposition.

Mr. John Thorp also furnished the skin of a flying squirrel for the same purpose, and an old colored man had succeeded in capturing a pair of partridges for Mrs. Morgan and brought them in.

Brick Stores.

Mr. W. P. Burrus and Mrs. J. W. Moore have closed a contract for six brick stores on the old market house site. Mr. E. M. Pavia is the contractor and will begin work in a few days. Now let the city build a decent market house in the place of the burned one, and the foot of Middle street will again be the busy center of the grocery and market produce trade.

The First Tax Payer.

Mrs. Cella Cathrol, of this city, is the first to pay her State and county taxes this year. We remember that for many years while we lived in Lenoir county this honor was claimed and borne by Mr. Henry Cunningham, of Trent township. He kept a standing order with the sheriff to inform him as soon as the tax list was computed, and the money was forthcoming. He followed strictly the scriptural injunction, "Owe no man anything." He has passed over the river, but has left behind him good examples of obedience to law, and just and upright dealings with his fellow men.

Church Services To-Day.

M. E. Church, South—Rev. Dr. Burkhead will preach in the Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m.

Sunday school at the Theatre at 4 p. m.
Baptist Church—Rev. C. A. Jenkins Pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. Seats free and the public cordially invited to attend.

Christ Church—V. W. Shields, Rector. St. Matthew the Apostle. Fifteenth Sunday after Trinity. 8 a. m. Holy Communion. 11 a. m. morning prayer and sermon. 4:50 p. m., Sunday School. 5:30 p. m., evening prayer. The public are always invited to attend the services of this church.

Club Organized.

Clement Manly, Esq., and Philemon Holland, jr., our candidate for the Senate, went out to Brock's Store yesterday evening and addressed the Democrats on the issues of the day and organized a Cleveland and Scales Club with the following officers:

President, W. B. Lane; Vice-Presidents, I. G. Smith, M. W. Carman, J. C. Moore, Brice Ippock, E. Z. Davis, R. J. Brock and Alonzo Avery; Secretary A. E. Wadsworth; Treasurer, W. W. Prescott.

A good number joined, among whom was one colored man who made a speech. The Democrats in that precinct will do their duty in November.

Unlisted Taxables.

Since publishing the statement of taxables listed and calling attention to the diminished amount of aggregate taxable property in the county, we are gratified to find that much of the deficit is accounted for as appearing on the delinquent list. This list we did not examine, as it was the abstract of "listed taxables" that we had before us, and that abstract would be better called "unlisted taxables." Upon that list we learn one item of deficit, that is the $18,000 on city lots, is almost wiped out by a $15,000 entry in one item, and a trimming up of odds and ends will very likely show an increase of property which would seem to be more in accordance with the true state of the case.

We have had it intimated to us that such publications, as the one above alluded to, was calculated to injure us as a community. But the truth will injure no person or community, we think, and if by publishing these matters, we cause one dollar more taxable property to go on the list, we are defended.

Religious Meeting in Onslow County.

September 18, 1884.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—Will you be kind enough to grant space in your columns for a few lines in regard to a meeting held at Emma's Chapel, Onslow county, commencing on Saturday before the 1st Sunday in September and lasting until Thursday before the 2nd, at which time the rains interfered and the meetings closed, at least I did not get out again. It may be that Bro. Bryan did, however, until Friday night, when he was to leave. I preached Saturday and Sunday morning, and praying for Bro. Bryan in the first prayer, to make his appearance, he did so during the morning sermon; preaching at night, and then morning and night until the meetings closed. From the time Bro. Bryan came, the meeting was somewhat remarkable; first, for the large and attentive congregations to close of meeting. Seldom do we see congregations more attentive and listen better, even if the good old Welch preacher, Evans, was preaching at the present day. In the second place, it was simply delightful to see Christians of other persuasions present, and so feasting upon the sermons preached by the brother, as much so, I think, as the members of Emma's Chapel. In the third place remarkable, because there was not one lady friend from first to last, who came forward for prayer, while a number of men did, from time to time, four of whom made applications for baptism before I left for Masonboro. Others may have done so after I left. In the fourth place, remarkable for the good sermons the Bro. gave us during the meetings; all of them seeming to be well planned, though digested and delivered in sympathy and love, as though much of Christ's love was in his own heart.

Seldom have I seen preaching more relished and entertaining than that which Bro. E. T. Bryan gave us at Emma's Chapel. I trust the Lord will be very precious to him in his own country, and in China, should he live to get there. May God bless each and every convert made at Emma's Chapel, to the honoring of his own name, in the salvation of many souls and the strengthening of this church at Richlands, is my prayer.

Truly,
GEO. S. BEST,
Biblical Recorder please copy.

Sensations in the Blaine Libel.

CHICAGO, Sept. 5.—Ex-Congressman John V. Lemoyne, of this city, will be an important witness in the Blaine-Sensational libel suit, and is preparing his statement. He was a classmate of Mr. Blaine's for five years in Washington college, Pa., and was a witness at the Blaine-Stanwood wedding at Pittsburg, March 29, 1861, all records of which have been destroyed. Lemoyne is a Democrat and opposed to Blaine, and his testimony, it is said, will create the most profound sensation throughout the entire country.

"Blood food" is the suggestive name often given to Ayer's Sarsaparilla, because of its blood-purifying qualities.

La Grange Items.

C. C. Taylor, the JOURNAL's traveling agent, was in town Thursday.

J. P. Joyner has commenced work on his buildings on North R. R. street.

White, of the revenue service, was here Thursday interviewing F. B. Fields' distillery.

Cotton 92c. for the best. But little coming in, and farmers hesitate before taking the price offered.

We regret to learn that Allen, J. S. Wooten's oldest son, is much worse. His condition is considered very critical.

Dr. Wills left here Thursday, and news reached here Friday morning that he was partially paralyzed during Thursday night.

La Grange is at last asserting her rights. We see that D. M. Stanton is chairman of the Republican executive committee of the county.

J. C. Carter, the La Grange Republican candidate for the Legislature, is still in the field and will enter the county canvass on the 13th October with the other candidates.

The joint canvass for Lenoir will commence Oct. 13th. The citizens of La Grange will be visited Saturday, Oct. 18th. Let the people turn out and hear the claims of the candidates.

Work has been suspended on Sim. Wooten's brick stores for some time, for want of lumber. We are glad to see lumber coming in and work again going on. We suppose they will be pushed to completion.

W. W. Fuller is considering the propriety of being an independent candidate for the Legislature. His platform is a novelty and one of his own make: "No hunting or fishing of any kind for five years, and burn up the balance of the old rails."

J. W. Grainger, Democratic candidate for the Legislature in this county, and George Hodges, Democratic candidate for register, spent the day in town Friday. We predict that these gentlemen will be elected if the Democrats go to the polls, and we believe they will do it.

There seems to be a great difficulty in getting a meeting of the Cleveland and Scales club here. There has not been a meeting since the organization, and no by-laws have been adopted. We suggest that a little more spirit be put in the matter or that it be abandoned. There is work that might be done by the club if it were thoroughly organized and put in working order, but to have a club that is no club, and to expect work of it when it is not in a condition to render service, does the cause an injury. The township executive committee stands ready for work, and a proper organized and working club would be of much help to this committee, but if no help is to come from this quarter it should be known. We feel justified in saying that the Democrats of this township were never more united and determined than they now are, and that they need no coaxing to do their duty, but at the same time there should be organization.

Carteret County Items.

From the Telephone
About forty barrels of mullets were caught at the Carrott Island fishery on Wednesday last, and small quantities were captured at several other fisheries.

Mr. F. D. Swindell and Mrs. Charles P. Day left on Tuesday morning, the latter to visit relatives in Hyde county, and the former for her present home in Wadesboro.

Col. J. N. Whitford and family have returned home. Their last visit to Beaufort has been the most lengthy they have ever made and we trust they will still continue to lengthen until their residence here is effected.

Large quantities of mullets were caught yesterday and the day before and our fishermen are much encouraged. More than two hundred barrels were landed at Cape Lookout and flags were flying at Mullet Pond and Carrott Island.

We learned since our last issue that the family of Mr. F. B. Chaffee, of the signal office, had left for Washington City on a visit to relatives. We wish them a pleasant visit and a reunion with the husband and trust they may all soon get back to North Carolina.

Through Mr. Daly, the courteous observer at Fort Macon signal office, we learn that the steamer Los Hermanos, which left here on Saturday last, foundered on Frying Pan Shoals and two of the crew were drowned, they being engineers. Seven were saved, and they were rescued by the steam tug Blanche, of Smithville. The steamer was a stern-wheel river boat from some northern port, bound to Mexico, to be used for inland navigation and lay in this harbor several days. She was not a sea boat in any sense of the word and unfit to venture on the ocean at any time, but when she left port on last Saturday while the storm flag was flying at Fort Macon and the barometer indicating a severe storm, every one expressed the same opinion, that the attempt to go to sea was foolhardy and suicidal. The only comment one hears now is, surprise that any were saved or that the steamer got so far south as the Frying Pan Shoals before going to the bottom of the sea.

Kinston Items.

Our town male must be a full blooded Butler mule—he keeps so "hungry and very thirsty."

Our old friend, "Chow Chow," is withering like an autumn leaf—"he knows not man nor woman neither," and in this respect resembles Hamlet.

It will be seen from Dan G. Taylor's card in the JOURNAL, that he now places himself right before the people. Dr. Haskins, the conjurer of Jones, was not sent for in vain.

Parson Bullfinch Cox, Pragmatic Grady and the venerable Doctor Pridden are quite flamboyant over last week's JOURNAL. They don't fancy the idea of being assaulted with a burglar's tool—a "Crow Bar" and threaten to indict your correspondent for cruelty to animals.

The "Big 4" of Kinston were hauled up in Calamity Hall last Thursday, charged with painting the town red a few evenings previously and although they were only singing to some fair Juliet at the up stairs window, the Lord Mayor adjudged them guilty of a "high crime and misdemeanor" and demanded one dollar from each one for his hungry and thirsty mule.

"Are the candidates in Lenoir county for the stock law or against it?" is the question now being asked by the plain people in the country. "Is the earth round or flat?" was once asked of a country school teacher. "Oh! I'm not particular," was the reply. "Some likes it round and some likes it flat. I teach either way." Our candidates are very much in the fix of the school teacher.

DUBLIN, Sept. 19.—The municipal authorities of Limerick have finally resolved not to pay the extra police tax or send a deputation to Earl Spencer, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, whom they denounce as a tyrant. It is this tax that Limerick refuses to pay.
