

AYER'S Ague Cure

contains an antidote for all malarial disorders which, so far as known, is used in no other remedy. It contains no Quinine, nor any mineral or deleterious substance whatever, and consequently produces no injurious effect upon the constitution, but leaves the system as healthy as it was before the attack.

WE WARRANT AYER'S AGUE CURE to cure every case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Malarial Ague, Bilious Fever, and Liver Complaint caused by malaria. In case of failure, after due trial, dealers are authorized, by our circular dated July 1st, 1882, to refund the money.

THE JOURNAL.

NEW BERNE, N. C., OCT. 3, 1884.

The Temper.

If people generally knew what an advantage to them it was to be cheerful, there would be fewer sour faces in the world and infinitely less ill-temper. A man never gains anything by exhibiting his annoyance by his face, much less by bursting into passion. As it is neither manly nor wise to yield like a child pettishly to every cross, so it is alike foolish and absurd to allow feelings of anger to deprive us of self-control. There never was a man in any controversy who lost his temper who did not come near losing his cause in consequence. If ever a person plays the game of his enemies it is when he is in a passion. Acquaintances shun men of proverbially ill-temper; friends drop away from them; even wives and children gradually learn to fear them more than to love. Thousands of men owe their want of success in life to neglecting the control of their temper. Nor have they the excuse that is an infirmity which cannot be restrained; for Washington, though naturally of a most passionate disposition, disciplined himself until he passed for a person utterly impassive. No man who neglects his temper can be happy any more than he can make those happy around. Good temper is gold, is beyond price. Bad temper is a curse to the possessor and to society.

Developing His Muscle.

"What is that drab object hanging from the lower limb of that apple tree?" asked a dude of a freckled country boy.
"That," said the boy, "is a sort of foot-ball that we strike to make our 'muscle' big."
"May I try it?" asked the dude.
"I guess so," replied the boy, as he moved off a good distance.
So the dude drew back and drove his fist right into an old-fashioned hornets' nest, and got his sleeves full.—Judge.

What Grows on Waterloo.

On the two fields of Waterloo and Linden, splendid crops of crimson poppies appear every year. The ground which nourishes these is packed with the remains of soldiers. The preparations of opium derived from the poppy have been used in the form of laudanum and paregoric. So, pain has been stilled by the remains of pain and death, and babies put to sleep by the dead bodies of men who fell in the deadly onslaught.—New York Sunday Mercury.

To any body who has disease of throat or lungs, we will send proof that Piso's Cure for Consumption has cured the same complaints in other cases. Address, E. T. HAZELTINE, Warren, Pa.
