Attempted Suicide—A Desperate Figh for Death.

Yesterday about noon a young man named "Toby" Hanff, who had been working at the machinist's trade. made a desperate attempt to commit suicide at his boarding house on North rescue the prisoners said to be in the Person street. He had been drinking hands of the Arabs. The steamer Nasiin the morning, and had asked his fapier, forming a part of the Nile expe-mother to take him back with her to dition, has arrived at Dongola. No Goldsboro. She refused, whereupon he became very angry, and grasping a bot-tle containing a mixture of quicksilver and muriatic acid, which he had prepared for cleaning silver, he flung the contents into his mouth. With a shriek his mother caught his teeth with her hands and forced some of the fluid out upon the floor, which it burnt as it fell. He bit one of her fingers to the bone, but she held on till she had got all out that was possible. A doctor was hurriedly sent for, but before he arrived Hanff became violent and flung himself around the room in a fearful manner Mr. Richards, one of the boarders, came in at that moment, but was unable to hold him and was flung to the side of the house three times. When the doctor arrived the two managed with the aid of a strap to match his violence, and some oil and emetics were forced into his mouth, but so desperate was his the last century is now about to open purpose to end his life that he caught and that every Cleveland or Blaine man the spoon in his teeth and held it so may take an active part in this great firmly that the two gentlemen had a hard task to get it out. The doctors arthat he should commence at once to lay rived, and after a hard struggle got in his supplies of Groceries and Dry Hanff into a better condition, but he Goods at the Great Cheap Cash Store of was considered still in danger last night. He said he felt as if he were burning up inside. His lips and mouth were badly burned and disfigured. He will be taken to New Berne to-day if he is sufficiently recovered. He is about to the lowest county offices.
