His ideas are certainly illustrated in an unique and novel way and will doubtless attract MOTHERS the attention of Northern people. The map will be handsomely lithographed.

Asheville Citizen: The Reems creek boys, Sam Hemphill, Sam Ballard, Greg Chambers, jr., Hardy Chambers, Milton Kever, John Kelly and Robert Chambers, took their excellent pack of ten dogs and went to Craggy a few days ago to hunt for a bear. After a hunt of about four hours they got one "on the run," but soon the faithful dogs made him take to a tree. Greg Chambers fired a charge into him. which brought him to the ground; he then gave him the benefit of another, both of which only wounded him. The bear arose, caught one of the dogs in his embrace, and just as he was about to give the fatal hug, Greg ran up and caught him by the ears and held him until Milton Kever could cut his throat.
