No police court yesterday.

Democrats, don't fail to register.

The circus will be here the day after the election.

The street sprinkler is still in demand and doing good service.

W. G. Burkhead and F. M. Simmons at Collins' store to-night.

A brass band will be in attendance at the mass meeting at Collins' to-night.

"Well, except a bad cold," is the fashionable answer now as to one's health.

It threatened and threatened to rain yesterday; but all signs fail in dry weather.

The syren notes of the chimney sweep were warbling from the marine hospital roof yesterday.

Bets on the election are often offered but seldom taken. Good cents are better than bad dollars.

Dullest day of the season at the Exchange yesterday. Farmers waiting for the election and circus.

The caanto, or revolving lights were again set at work in the show window of Bell's jewelry store yesterday.

Our New Berne attorneys returned from Carteret court on yesterday morning. They report a short docket and small fees.

Hon. C. C. Clark will address the Cleveland and Scales Club at their Club room to-morrow (Friday) night. Turn out and hear him.

The young members of the Democratic Club of this city have done yeoman service for the Democratic party of this county during this campaign.

Prayer-meeting to-night at 7 o'clock at the residence of John Suter, on Metcalf street, between Pollok and South Front, conducted by Dr. Burkhead.

Clement Manly, Esq., took the oath required by law on yesterday before His Honor Judge Seymour, and was admitted to practice in the U. S. Court.

A big barbecue at Russell's to-morrow. Messrs. Jas. A. Bryan, Clement Manly, Phil. Holland, jr., W. G. Burkhead and Maj. Hughes are the speakers.

Eight brick stores at the foot of Middle street are nearing completion, and when done and occupied will add materially to the looks of that portion of the city.

Carteret court adjourned on Tuesday evening. Judge Avery passed up on yesterday morning on his way home. He will spend a few days at the Exposition at Raleigh.

U. S. District Court met yesterday morning according to adjournment. There being no business of special importance, court adjourned to meet this morning at 11 o'clock.

The last bale of cotton was on yesterday removed from the burnt steamer Defiance. The Underwriters' sale will take place to-day. About 300 bales of damaged cotton will be sold at auction. See adv. elsewhere.

A private letter from Snow Hill brings the following news from Greene county: Democrats are gaining ground every day. Wm. A. Darden, for the House, will be elected by a sure majority, and that Luby Harper will defeat his man by at least 200 majority.

Gen. Scales and Gov. Jarvis were met in Beaufort Monday morning by a large crowd of citizens of Carteret and adjoining counties, who were eager listeners to the words of wisdom that fell from the speakers' lips. It was a grand day for Carteret county, and what was said and done will help to pile up higher the tremendous majority for the Democrats in the banner county of the First district.

A. W. Wood, Esq., will to-day distribute 50,000 circulars contradicting the absurd lie that has been circulated charging Governor Cleveland with favoring mixed schools. We would have supposed that the Republicans would have said nothing about Cleveland's being in favor of mixed schools, if they had really believed he was, for they declare for Civil Rights in their platform, and if they are in earnest about this matter it ought not to be objectionable to them.

Personal.
Dr. W. A. J. Pollock, of Kinston, is in the city selling his valuable No. 7.

Wm. Cleve, Esq., of Vanceboro, is in the city.

Will. B. Rodmand, jr., Esq., of Washington, is in the city.

The editor of the JOURNAL was off yesterday to visit the Exposition. He will tell us all about it when he returns.

The Last Lie Told.

A. W. Wood, Esq., telegraphed Chairman Gorman of the National Democratic Executive Committee, in regard to the document that has been circulated through the State charging Gov. Cleveland with favoring mixed schools, received the following answer by telegraph, last evening:

NEW YORK, Oct. 29th, 1884.
In reply to your telegram of inquiry about charges that Cleveland favors "Mixed Schools," I can state that the report is totally false. It is the last report of a desperate enemy, whose only hope is to divide our friends in North Carolina, while they attempt to purchase others. Holding our own in Democratic States, Blaine is defeated. Our people should be prepared for any report. This one is an absurd falsification.
A. P. GORMAN,
Chm. National Dem. Ex. Com.

Where to Register.

The registration books of the city can be found at the following places:

1st Ward, at the store of Thos. Gates & Co., B. M. Gates, Registrar.

2nd Ward, at the City Clerk's office, J. H. Bell, Registrar.

3rd Ward, at the store of J. J. Tolson & Co., on Broad street, J. J. Tolson, Registrar.

4th Ward, at J. C. Whitty's store, on Craven street, below express office, J. C. Whitty, Registrar.

5th Ward, St. Phillips precinct, at E. G. Hill's office on Broad street, E. G. Hill, Registrar.

6th Ward, South of Queen street, at Samuel Cook's shop, Samuel Cook, Registrar.

Every voter should examine the book and see that his name is properly registered.

Dots from Onslow.

E. L. Francks, jr., is said to be the champion fox squirrel hunter in Onslow county. There are certain grounds through which he delights to hunt and through which he does hunt, but it is a good day for squirrels or not.

The days of slavery are not entirely past, as W. G. Humphrey is to be bound out to Mr. J. R. Francks, where he will enter and fill the position as nurse in the family.

Kinston Items.

Our town is very healthy.

Cotton is coming in slowly.

The persimmon crop is a failure.

The iron county bridge is going up.

The baby son of Mr. Joseph Cummings died on Sunday last.

Kinston College has another student from Florida, Mr. James C. B. Koonce.

"The club had a meeting to-night," and Mr. Wm. Burkhead is a fine orator.

Senator F. B. Loftin is out again, after having suffered several days from a bilious attack.

Kinston is the best market in the State for chickens—they sell for seventy cents a pair.

Kinston is supplied this fall with fish of excellent quality, for the first time in many years.

Mr. Henry Archbell gives us genuine New river oysters now—fresh, fat, juicy and digestive.

Mr. S. E. Loftin, familiarly known as Uncle Shady, is recovering from a serious spell of sickness.

Jos. Lasitter's reappearance in Kinston makes things more lively of an evening; and horse talk is again the order of the day.

It has been reserved to Mr. E. F. Cox to discover why a William-goat does not break his skull when he uses his head as a maul. Ask him.

Bishop Watson, of the Episcopal Church of East Carolina, confirmed four persons at the Episcopal church here last Sunday night.

Mr. Logan Walsh, of this place, is now telegraph operator in Danville, Va. Mr. Sam. Chadwick is in the same business in the same place.

Mr. Jas. A. Pridgen went to the Exposition on Monday. Mrs. A. Ostinger, Mrs. E. F. Cox, Mrs. G. E. Miller, Mrs. Richard Green, Miss Carrie Harding, Miss Jennie Patrick and Miss Etta Einstein go up on Wednesday.

Mr. Geo. E. Korngay deserves the thanks of the entire Kinston delegation who visited the Exposition last Wednesday. But for him there would have been a dull old time while the party waited seven hours in Raleigh for the train to start. He who makes two laughs grow where none would have grown, deserves more credit than the two-bladed-of-grass farmers that we read of.

Mr. William Phillips of this place went up to Raleigh on Monday to carry four ex-voters—colored. He goes in the capacity of deputy sheriff, with ex-Mayor Burwell Canady as assistant deputy. The ex-voters have spoken for rooms in the State hotel for several terms of years. It is thought, by the friends of the parties, that they will look into the Exposition before they return. We refer to the deputies, not to the convicts.

Once you catch the flavor and fragrance of a pipe or cigarette of Blackwell's Durham Long Cut, you can appreciate this sentiment from the "Revivifier of a Bachelor":—"That first taste of the new smoke, and of the fragrant leaf is very grateful; it has a bloom about it that you wish might last. It is like your first love—fresh, genial, and captivating."

Address.

DEMOCRATIC STATE EX. COM.
RALEIGH, Oct. 28, 1884.

As at the commencement of the campaign this committee thought proper to issue an address of counsel and cheer to the honest voters of the State, so now that the day of election is near at hand, they would say a few words of encouragement and caution to them.

The State has been canvassed thoroughly from end to end, and from every quarter come the tidings that "all is well," and so we are sure it is if every man will but do his duty. Now that the people have seen and heard the Democratic candidates for Governor and Dr. York, who claims to belong to no party, we cannot think that any of them believe that the State and her great interests will not be safer under Gen. Scales and the good men with him on our ticket than under Dr. York and those associated with him. And after all that has been said and written of the two candidates for the Presidency, no honest seeker after truth can doubt that Cleveland should be preferred to Blaine as the chief magistrate of this great country. Many of his own party have long ago been convinced that Mr. Blaine became rich while occupying high public position by taking rewards for his official action from those who were benefitted by it, and that having before taken bribes he is unfit to be trusted with the vast patronage of the Presidency, while the official conduct of Cleveland as mayor of a great city and Governor of a great State, has convinced them as well as the members of his own party that no man in the country possesses in a greater degree than he, the strength, the firmness, the integrity and the capacity to work the reform in the national administration which all admit to be so much needed. It took a Hercules to clean out the Augean stables, and Grover Cleveland is the Hercules this decade has developed.

We are now assured that Cleveland's State of New York, with her thirty-six electoral votes, will go for him by a large majority. With one or two of several Northern States, which are almost sure for him, and the vote of North Carolina and other Southern States which may be considered certain, he will be elected President. But we hear it whispered that the Republicans are counting on carrying North Carolina. Can this be possible? We have about 200,000 white men of voting age and about 120,000 negroes in the State. Can 40,000 white men be found, including the Revenue officers, to join the 120,000 negroes, to carry the State for Blaine? Surely not! The only possible danger is that some may fail to vote from indifference or overconfidence—each saying "Well, they will not need my vote." To such we would say that no freeman has the right to care nothing about the administration of a government that protects or oppresses him, and that no man of any pride should be willing to owe his political blessings to others. It is a duty every man owes himself, his family and country to vote, and vote right, and not only so but to see that his neighbor votes right, if he can persuade him to do so.

Let our friends remember that whether Blaine or Cleveland is to be President, whether corruption or reform is to prevail in the United States, may depend upon North Carolina. And let each man work and vote as if the result in North Carolina depended upon him. Let him not imperil the fate of the State and the country by failing to vote or by trading his vote for the State or National ticket with any one, for a neighbor or friend, however much he may have his election at heart. Being persuaded that Democratic principles should prevail and that our State and National conventions have given us good men to vote for, let nothing prevent our voting straight Democratic tickets for State officers and Presidential electors. And let us all devote the next few days to work as citizens and patriots for the good of our State and country—as if their salvation rested upon each of us individually and solely; and let us not quit working until the sun goes down next Tuesday. If we do this, ours will be a certain and glorious victory.

For the committee:

R. H. BATTLE, Chm'n.

Notice.

The Newbern Cotton and Grain Exchange will be closed on Tuesday, Nov. 4th, it being the day of the State and National election.

By order of the Board of Directors.
JAS. REDMOND, Secretary.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 27.—A collision

on the Wabash road near Taylorsville, Ill., occurred at 2:30 this morning, between two sections of a west bound freight. The first section had a coach filled with Italians attached and when rounding the curve at Clarksville a mile from Taylorsville, the coupling between the engine and first car broke. A flagman was sent back, but was too late to stop the second section, whose engine smashed into the coach containing the immigrants, throwing it down the embankment ten feet. The sides of the car were crushed in and both ends smashed. There were 43 in the car—men, women and children. The wounded were taken back to Taylorsville, where physicians were summoned and everything done to relieve the suffering. Fourteen Italians were injured, but none it is thought fatally.

STATE NEWS.

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Clayton Bud: The female base ballists, of Philadelphia, will play a match game with the Swift Foot club of Raleigh, on the 10th of November next, at Raleigh. Our capital city has had many inducements recently, but this one takes the "old hat" and "rag" too.

Wilmington Star: A comparatively small crowd of negroes gathered last night at the corner of Front and Market streets to listen to the harangue of Internal Revenue Collector Young. All the "ring" leaders of the party were on the platform. Boss Manning presided and "Brother" Foster introduced the speaker.

Raleigh Spirit of the Age: The highest number of visitors to the Exposition on any one day was 20,000, so the dailies say.—The hat worn by old Santa Anna at the battle of Buena Vista is on exhibition in the Warren county department.—Forsythe county has been awarded the $100 prize for making the best county exhibit in the State Exposition.

Durham Reporter: A move is on foot by our citizens to construct a railroad from Durham to Franklinton. The question of building this road was agitated some time ago, but for some cause the matter was hushed up. We hope it is now assuming such shape as will at an early day give us connection with the Raleigh and Augusta Air Line, thus placing within reach a competing line for the benefit of large shippers of freight.

Wilmington Review: The Seaside Park Base Ball Club will play a match game of ball with the Female Base Ball Club of Philadelphia, on Thursday, 13th of Nov. next. The game will be played at the Athletic Grounds in this city. During the match the grounds will be enclosed with a canvass fence nine feet high in order to keep out intruders. An admittance fee will be charged for those who would like to witness the game, which will be used towards defraying the expenses incident to bringing the Philadelphians here.

Smithfield Herald: The barbecue given by the Democrats of the county at Selma, on Saturday, the 18th inst., was a grand success. Stirring speeches were made by Gen. Matt W. Ransom, Capt. J. J. Davis and Gen. W. R. Cox; after the speaking, dinner was announced, and there was a bountiful supply for all present. Gen. Ransom spoke for nearly three hours and made one of the grandest speeches that has ever been made in Johnston county, while those of Capt. Davis and Gen. Cox were equally as good. Much good was accomplished and great praise is due to the citizens of Selma for the clever manner in which everything was carried out.

Arsenic Pills by the Pint.
J. A. Smith, a Gainesville, Ga., merchant, says: "For years I was a victim to the combined effects of Erysipelas and an aggravated type of Eczema, that baffled all medical skill. I consulted the very best physicians in the United States to no good purpose. I gave every patent medicine that was recommended a faithful trial and received no benefit. I took large quantities of potash and a pint cup full of arsenic pills. The patent medicine, pills, and potash mixtures fed instead of curing the disease. They destroyed my appetite and wrecked my system—I lost flesh and energy—I lost three years from my business and spent $2,000 in a fruitless effort to regain my health. At last, when I began to consider my case hopeless, I commenced taking S. S. S., and in a short time I was entirely cured. I waited a year after a cure was effected, and continued to take Swift's Specific off and on as a sort of safeguard, before I was willing to make public this marvelous cure. Being assured beyond the possibility of a doubt that the cure was permanent, I wrote this history of my case for the benefit of my fellow-men.

My skin is now as smooth as it was when a boy. I weigh more than I ever did in my life, and my general health was never better. I passed through last winter (which was an unusually cold one) without losing a single day from my business. For the last twelve months I have had no return of the erysipelas in any shape or form, or any touch of eczema."

Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.
