to-morrow at 12 o'clock. Those who have the blues over the election can go to Robinson's circus today and laughed it off. It is said to be a good place to cure the dry grins. We call attention to the change in the advertisement of Joseph Schwerin. He has a mammoth stock of clothing and has reduced prices to suit the times. "We will have one consolation," said an intelligent colored Republican yesterday evening, "you have beat York but you didn't beat a Republican."

"That must be York's shroud," said a Democrat as he passed A. M. Baker's store yesterday evening and noticed a long narrow box being opened by the "Dese Democrats is hollerin' mightily," said an old darkey last night, "but as follows: Parker, Democrat, for de dun no how de 'lection 's gone. Now sheriff, 156; Dillahunt, Republican, 155; de aint hearn from West Constant. You jest wait till dey hear from Westconstant, an' you'll see whey dey'll be."

So we are now waiting patiently to hear give Republican as a basis this will fair the light of the constant from "Westconstant."

Duffy & Ives, the young, active merchants on Middle street, offer real bargains in the dry goods and notions line. The display of their goods is tasty and neat, giving them a fresh and bran new appearance. We hope our readers from the country, and in the city, will read the "ad" and see what bargains they offer.

The Circus To-day.

It is not often that "Old John Robinson" puts in his appearance in this section of the country, but he will be here to-day and will supply the popular demand for amusements. Besides the amusements, his extensive collection of wild animals, birds, reptiles and tribes of the nations will be exceedingly interesting. No traveling circus is that of "Old John Robinson."

The Election Returns.

It will be seen from our telegrams that the Presidential election is in doubt at the hour of going to press, 5 a. m. The returns from New York, Indiana, New Jersey and Connecticut are conflicting and unsatisfactory, though the latest indicates that they have gone Democratic.

Reports from every direction show large gains for Cleveland and Scales in North Carolina over the vote of 1880. If 22. the gain continues throughout the State in the same proportion to the precincts we have heard from, the Democrats have carried it by 20,000.

Our friends in Lenoir have done nobly but not more so than the noble little band in Craven. The net Democratic gain in this county as far as heard from is 280 and the indications are that it will reach at least 400.
