There was a good advance in the price of cotton yesterday, closing firm.

The regular meeting of Eureka Lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., will be held to-morrow night.

An adjourned meeting of the Board of City Council will be held on Monday night.

A cartload of New river mullets were in the city yesterday. They were small but fat.

The steamer Trent arrived from Trenton yesterday evening with seventy bales of cotton.

Mr. Wm. Cohen is about completing some handsome residences on Hancock and Pollock streets.

Our truck farmers are preparing manure for trucking. The weather has been favorable for farm work all the fall and the farmers who have taken advantage of it have acted wisely.

The regular quarterly meeting of the "Ladies Memorial Association" will be held at the residence of Mrs. Daves on Tuesday afternoon, 11th of November, at 4 o'clock. The members are all invited to attend.

Tax Collector J. H. Bell advertises that city vouchers to the amount of half the taxes for city purposes will be received in payment of taxes paid by the 15th inst. Only one week more remains to get the benefit of this offer.

The steamer Elm City left last night for Hyde county. F. M. Simmons, Esq., Phil. Holland, Esq., Maj. B. W. Cobb, of the Messenger, and B. G. Credle, of this city, were passengers for Hyde court. Several other passengers arrived on the train last night and took passage for Hyde.

Boys have a right to be jubilant over the election of the man of their choice, and we suppose they have the right to parade the streets and blow tin horns, but they have no right to stop at a man's gate and annoy him and his family by singing campaign songs. We hope the Democratic boys of the city have better sense, and a higher regard for the personal feeling and rights of their fellowmen than to engage in such conduct. Rejoice over the election as much as you please, but there is no necessity to insult anyone.

Personal.
Mr. C. M. Little, of Hyde county, was in to see us yesterday. He reports rice crops pretty fair in his section but cotton rather poor.

Change of schedule.
A change in the schedule of the passenger train on the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad goes into effect to-day. By this change the mail arrives here from Goldsboro at 7:40 p. m., about one hour earlier than before. There is no change in the up schedule.

Another Industry.
We have been shown some beautiful jewelry made from fish scales by Mrs. George Hancock, of this city, which is to be exhibited at the Goldsboro Fair. The work is doubtless tedious, but the effect fully repays the pains taken in the execution of the designs.

The Theatre To-morrow Night.
Miss Kittie Rhoades will appear at the theatre to-morrow night in "M'Liss." The troupe is said to be a most excellent one. The Greenville Standard says of it:

Miss Kittie Rhoades is a charming actress and always pleases or amuses her audience. On Monday night we had "Engaged," a very good play with which most persons who can enjoy a good hearty laugh are well pleased. Last night the play, "M'Liss," was better still and to-night we may expect the best that has yet been presented. Miss Kittie Rhoades is well supported and we can truly say that the troupe is one of the best that ever visited Greenville. A very attractive feature of the entertainment last evening was the reading, between the acts, of the latest telegraphic election news.

Tickets for sale at Meadows' drug store, Monday morning at 9 o'clock.

Church Services To-day.
Christ Church—V. W. Shields, Rector. 8:30 Sunday after Trinity. Holy Communion at 8 a. m. Other services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 4 p. m. The public are always invited to attend the services of this Church.

Presbyterian Church—Services by the Pastor, Rev. L. C. Vasa, at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. Sabbath School at 9 a. m. A cordial welcome to all.

Baptist Church—Rev. C. A. Jenkins, Pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. Seats free and the public cordially invited to attend.

M. E. Church, South—L. S. Burkhead, Pastor. Services in the Theatre at 11 a. m. Sunday School at 3 p. m. The service is up and the Theatre will be comfortable.

THE PRESIDENTIAL CONTEST.

Notwithstanding the many private dispatches received here assuring us that Cleveland has carried the State of New York, it appears that the National Republican Committee still claim it for Blaine. We give below what the Sun and Herald of Thursday say on the situation. Also a telegram from the editor of the Messenger giving the positions of the Herald, World, Tribune, Philadelphia Times and other papers of yesterday, which were received on the 8 o'clock train at Goldsboro last night:

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Herald to-day says that New York State is Democratic; that the official returns show it; that these returns and no others will be regarded by the State board of canvassers; and that, although there is a conspiracy to steal the Presidency and Vice-Presidency again for the candidates whom the people have rejected, it cannot possibly succeed.

The Sun says: "Twenty-four hours more have passed and the result in the great State of New York and in the country at large remains undetermined. The returns come in slowly and with conflicting effect, those from sources upon which heretofore we have been accustomed to rely differing wholly from those which our own sources of information supply. We infer from the returns received that Cleveland has a plurality in this State of more than 1,000." The Sun also says there is no cause for alarm or suspicion because of delay in receiving the returns from remote districts, and adds: "The State of New York will be carried by the man who has received the most votes and by nothing else. There is no power that can wrest it from him, and it is an insult to the people of this country to intimate even the possibility that the crime committed against them eight years ago can be repeated."

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The question who has carried New York State is now chiefly a question of the accurate footings of long columns of figures. The footings of the county clerks, with only a few missing, indicate that Cleveland has about 1,000 plurality. The footings of the election districts, made in the Associated Press office, indicate that Blaine has nearly an equal plurality. Twelve districts in the State had not up to this morning reported at all. Some sixty others had reported, but their accuracy was questioned and they will be verified to-day.

GOLDSBORO, N. C., Nov. 8, 1884.
NEW BERNE JOURNAL.—The Herald and World claims the positive election of Cleveland by two hundred and nineteen electoral votes. The Tribune holds that Blaine has the same number, counting the State of New York, which it says cannot give a plurality of more than one thousand either way. The Democrats claim the State by 1,434 and no mistake about it. Indiana gives a majority for Cleveland of 5,000. The Philadelphia Times says there is no longer any doubt in the popular mind of the honest election of Cleveland and Hendricks and that honest Republicans concede it.

The Albany Evening Journal (Republican) says: "There seems to be no longer a doubt that Gov. Cleveland has been elected President. A careful verification of the results assure Gov. Cleveland a plurality of over 1,000 in New York and this is enough to elect him." Further dispatches received here corroborate all claimed by the Democrats and leaves no doubt as to Cleveland's election. The Republicans are slow in giving up, but there is evidence of weakening.

The Third Crop.
Mr. S. Bangert sent us on yesterday two good size pears, nearly matured, from a tree on his place, which are a portion of the third crop for this year. We thought it a little extra to make two crops in one year on the same land in this section, but when a tree makes and matures three crops of pears in one season we think it going a "little beyond the beyond."

He Will Be President.

We hear that some of the leading Republicans are offering to bet that if Governor Cleveland is elected he will not take his seat. We remember that this same thing was started in 1876 when it was announced that Tilden had been elected. It is begun now for the purpose of manufacturing public sentiment in favor of Blaine. The thing will not work successfully this time. Which one of the candidates have received a majority of the electoral votes, after the official count, will be seated if he lives till the 4th of March. That an intelligent Republican should entertain the idea for a moment that the man elected President shall not take his seat, is the best evidence in the world that the party has been in power too long. If Blaine has fairly received a majority or plurality of the votes cast in New York, no matter how small, if it is only one vote, he is entitled to the electoral vote of that State. On the other hand if Cleveland has received a majority or plurality by only one or more votes he is entitled to the electoral vote, and will receive it. Cleveland will be President if he is elected.

Troubles of the Negroes.

A respectable and well-informed citizen of this city informs us that there is great uneasiness among the negroes about the election of Grover Cleveland to the Presidency of the United States. For a long time after the war the Republican leaders kept them in the party lines by telling them that the Democrats would, if they ever got into power, put them back into slavery. We thought that this old scare crowd had exhausted itself long ago, but it seems that some of them still believe it and are much troubled about it. Now we have some subscribers among the colored people who read the JOURNAL regularly who ought to know better than to believe any such stuff. They ought to tell their less informed friends that such a thing is impossible; that the Democrats could not put them into slavery if they would, and that they would not if they could. There are also some colored men in this city intelligent enough to know that the Democratic party in North Carolina has done more for their advancement since they were freed than the Republican party did while it was in power in this State.

Perhaps some of our Democratic friends are to blame for the state of mind which some of these deluded people have been led to. Knowing the threat that the Republicans always held over the negro, they have used it as a joke to frighten many of them, but since they are taking it as a serious matter it ought to be stopped. The negro will enjoy his rights before the law just as much with a Democratic President as they have with a Republican President.

Cowhided.
There was an old-fashioned cowhiding on Middle street yesterday which rather eclipsed the election excitement for the day. E. R. Dudley had been to Geo. Allen & Co's store and procured a good tough little cowhide and accompanied by John Randolph, went in search of one Charles Richardson. They found him on Middle street, near Mr. W. S. Phillips' harness shop, when Dudley drew his cowhide and began to throw it on vigorously. W. G. Brinson, Esq., being near by commanded the peace and was obeyed. Dudley and Randolph appeared before him in the evening on the charge of an assault and battery when they were fined one penny and cost. The provocation—an attempt to slander the daughters of the defendants—was considered by the court, hence the light punishment.

Since the morning of the election there has been but little business done here outside of politics. Our people were thoroughly aroused and went in to win, and won they have. Our county—so long Republican—has gloriously redeemed itself, and now we take our proper place among other Democratic counties of the State. The State is Democratic by an astonishing majority. The best information shows that Cleveland is President. All these results point in the same direction—that the people are tired of Republican rule and rascality. Enough has been done and said by some of the leaders of the Republican party, since the opening of the campaign just past, to damn the party and the leaders in the estimation of all good citizens. These doings and sayings have been noted by the people and will be remembered, and for this the defeated party has no one to blame but itself. Negro night meetings, efforts to array the races, attempts to register and vote convicts and other illegal voters, are some of the prominent means resorted to by the Republicans among us to carry the election. Insulting expressions against the Democrats and the Southern people have been indulged in, enough to cause every man in whose veins Southern blood flows to frown upon such an used it. We want it to be understood. Some good citizens have voted with the party, and I know some of them have opposed to these methods, and they have taken no part in or encouraged such conduct, and of such I am not writing. Only those who approved and helped. We are not disposed to exult over the downfall of those who are defeated, but must say to them that your party is the author of your misfortunes, and you must suffer the consequences. We now commit the county and National Government into the hands of the Democratic party, and have every reason to believe they will be administered in the interest of the people, and not in the interest of the party and office holders. The State government we leave where it has been for the past eight years, and of it we have seen enough to assure us that it is in good hands. Harrah for Lenoir county, North Carolina and the United States!

Memory.
A certain well known actress says that it is perfectly easy to learn a part in a well constructed play, but hard when the writer has done his work badly.

She has only to fix in her mind the idea and the train of associations in the thought of the playwright, and his words, in which the idea is clothed, are easily retained in the memory, almost mechanically.

How much the memory does depend upon the logical arrangement of thoughts was proved by the old, but always good, story of Foote's "Grand Panjandrum."

To one who boasted of his retentive memory, and his ability to repeat anything of moderate length after a single hearing, Foote rattled off this nonsense, which has ever since been regarded as one of the best examples ever invented of disconcerted and incoherent thought: "So he went into the garden to cut a cabbage leaf to make an apple pie. A great she-bear, coming up the hill, poked her head into the barber shop. 'What! no soap?' So he died, and she very imprudently married the barber; and there were present the Picaninies, the Toillies, and the Ganiillies, and the Grand Panjandrum himself, with the little round button at the top, and they all fell to playing at catch as catch can till the powder ran out of the heels of their boots."

PROF. S. B. NYE,
OPTICIAN OF NEW YORK,

Takes pleasure in informing the citizens of NEW BERNE that he has arrived here and takes Rooms at the GASTON HOUSE for a few days ONLY with a very large display of Optical Goods, and where he will be especially prepared to adapt and adjust his celebrated

to the eyes of those who are particularly anxious in preserving their sight; these lenses are manufactured on the most scientific principles, rendering the sight as clear as when in its full strength of youth. It is a common notion that spectacles should be resorted to only when the sight becomes so defective as not to be able to do without them. This is a great mistake, which must be combated; whenever there are unmistakable evidences of the need of them, they should be used; a neglect of this rule sometimes produces mischief which results in serious diseases if this course be persisted in.

WHEN SPECTACLES OUGHT FIRST TO BE USED:

1st.—When we are obliged to remove small objects to a considerable distance from the eye in order to see them distinctly.
2d.—If we find it necessary to get more light than formerly; as for instance, to place the light between the eye and the object.
3d.—If on looking attentively at a near object, it becomes confused and appears to have a kind of mist before it.
4th.—When the letters of a book run one into the other and hence appear double or triple.
5th.—If the eyes become fatigued by short exercises as to be obliged to close them frequently and relieve them by looking at different objects.
6th.—When black specks seem to be floating in the sight.

When any of above indications arise, all affection should be laid aside and a SKILLFUL OPTICIAN consulted. PROF. NYE is prepared to fit the most difficult cases; he takes special pains in producing Glasses for preserving the light designed for the use of persons suffering from weak eyes (Ophthalmia) &c., and particularly adapted for the use of those who work or read much under night by artificial light. His various kinds and styles of Glasses which he manufactures are worthy of attention:
Spectacles for far and near sighted; Cataract and Hunting Glasses, Eye Glasses of every possible shape and style; GOLD, SILVER, RUBBER, STEEL, SHELL, HORN, SKELETON and INVISIBLE FRAMES, BIFOCAL SPECTACLES, enabling persons to see both near and far; COQUILLES and COLORED PRISMATIC and CYLINDRICAL GLASSES; also OPERA, SPY and FIELD GLASSES, MICROSCOPES and MAGNIFYING GLASSES, &c., &c.

HUMAN ARTIFICIAL EYES inserted and made to order. Office Hours: 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Special calls within the city without extra charge.

Respectfully,
S. B. NYE.
