CLEVELAND ELECTED!!

The official count by the county canvassers has been completed at last, and the country may now be at ease. Much anxiety has been felt since it was announced that the official count would have to determine the result, but the telegrams given below will settle the matter. Now prepare for the celebration.

ALBANY, Nov. 14, 10 P. M.
To Thomas Gates and Clement Manly, New Berne, N. C.:
New York county half finished. Others completed. Majority probably eleven hundred.

JAMES F. TRACY.

ALBANY, Nov. 15th, 1884, 4 P. M.
To THOS. GATES AND CLEMENT MANLY, New Berne, N. C.
Official: The county canvassers have finished. Cleveland's majority is eleven hundred and fifty.

JAS. F. TRACY.

A little rain at last.
Thursday night, the 27th, is the time. Rev. M. Y. McDuffie will preach at the Baptist Church to-day.

The steamer Goldsbury left for Norfolk yesterday evening with a full cargo of cotton.

The count in New York is completed and Cleveland has eleven hundred and fifty plurality.

Moses Bryan is the first office holder to become alarmed at Cleveland's election. He is county undertaker.

"Z." in response to "Rosser" hits the nail on the head in regard to the revenue cutter. Let us have a vessel that will be of substantial service when needed.

The City Council was in session on Friday night. We intended to give the proceedings this morning, but the Clerk was too busy receiving taxes yesterday to give them to us.

Mr. Gracie, of Beach Grove, says he is an unlucky man. Four years ago he bet on Hancock and lost. This year he bet on Blaine and lost. But he says he is glad to forfeit even a $10.00 hat for the sake of Cleveland's election.

Ed. Merritt, col., was lodged at the station house last night for being drunk and disorderly. He claims to be a preacher, and says he came from the direction of Wilmington. We think he is on the road that leads to the penitentiary.

Craven county will be well represented at the Goldsboro Fair. Freeman Egnal will take up his fine colt "Buxton," just four years old; John C. Whitty will make a fine display of agricultural implements, and it is said that Joel Kinsey, Esq., will take up a drove of seven fine colts. This shows how much our people are interested in fairs. Why not have one for Craven and the adjoining counties?

Church Services To-Day.
M. E. Church, South—Services will be held in the Theatre at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 8 p. m. Public cordially invited to attend.
Christ Church—V. W. Shields, Rector. 9:30 Sunday after Trinity. Holy Communion at 8 a. m. Other services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday school at 4 p. m. The public are always invited to attend the services of this church.
Presbyterian Church—Services by the Pastor, Rev. L. C. Vass, at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. Sabbath school 9:15 a. m. A welcome to all.
Baptist Church—Services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. Sunday school at 3 p. m. The public cordially invited.

To any body who has disease of throat or lungs, we will send proof that Piso's Cure for Consumption has cured the same complaints in other cases. Address, H. B. HAZARD, Warren, Pa.

The Celebration.

A meeting was held yesterday morning consisting of a delegation from the Cleveland and Scales Club, Messrs. R. D. Hancock, Clement Manly, H. R. Bryan, Wm. G. Brinson, and the Democratic Ex. Committee, at which Hon. E. H. Meadows presided, for the purpose of considering the propriety of making some public demonstration in honor of the election of Grover Cleveland President of the United States, and Alfred M. Scales Governor of North Carolina. The meeting resulted in the formation of three committees consisting of the following named citizens of New Berne who will perfect arrangements for a general public demonstration consisting of processions, speaking, fireworks, etc.

COMMITTEE ON ARRANGEMENTS:—Col. John D. Whitford, A. W. Wood, R. D. Hancock, Matt. Manly, Jas. A. Bryan, Hardy B. Lane, Thos. A. Green, Henry R. Bryan, Wm. G. Brinson.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE:—Gen. R. D. Hancock, Washington Bryan, Jas. W. Moore, Ferdinand Ulrich, Wm. S. Phillips, E. B. Hackburn, Wm. Colligan, jr., Henry S. Nunn.

COMMITTEE ON INVITATION:—Messrs. M. DeW. Stevenson, E. H. Meadows, Clement Manly, Philomen Holland, jr., George Slover, Chas. C. Clark, John McSorley, John Collins.

Meetings of the committees will be held Monday.

The night of the 29th November (Thanksgiving Day) was determined upon for the glorification.

A Warning to the Boys.

The boys in the city are in the habit of jumping up on a passing dray or cart for a short ride. This practice, besides annoying the driver, is dangerous, as was very forcibly illustrated yesterday. A colored boy was driving down Craven street with a bale of cotton on a tumbling cart. Numa Nunn and Robert Jones, two sprightly boys, took a notion to hop up behind the cart and take a ride. Well, they hopped. Up went the body of the cart and the boy; out came Numa and Robert and the bale of cotton. Numa escapes but Robert's foot is caught under the bale of cotton and his ankle bone is broken, while the driver goes over the cotton to the ground, jumps up dumfounded and bewildered at the situation.

Resolutions Adopted by the Cleveland and Scales Club.

At a regular meeting of the Cleveland and Scales Club on Friday night, H. R. Bryan, Esq., offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That this Club has heard with great satisfaction and unbounded pleasure of the triumphant election of Grover Cleveland as President of this Great Republic, and Alfred M. Scales as Governor of North Carolina, and that we tender to the people of Craven county, as well as the country at large, our heartiest congratulations, that in the triumph of the Democratic party the end at least of corruption, trickery and fraud is in sight.

Resolved, That the effort upon the part of the defeated candidate for the Presidency, assisted by the wicked and corrupt partisans that surround him, to set aside the verdict of the American people against him at the ballot box, and repeat the "great fraud" of 1876, meets with our most indignant condemnation, and that we call upon all good citizens, regardless of party, to frown down this attempt to Mexicanize our institutions, and destroy the confidence of the people in constitutional freedom.

Resolved further, That in the election of Mr. Cleveland as President, and General Scales as Governor, we recognize the dawn of a brighter day for our State and particularly for our county; and we assure all good citizens, regardless of race, color or previous condition, that the laws will be faithfully, justly and impartially administered, and every man, however humble he may be, will be protected in his constitutional rights of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Mr. Bryan supported the resolutions in a short, forcible and timely speech.

M. DeW. Stevenson, Esq., seconded the resolutions in a few happy remarks, after which they were unanimously adopted with great enthusiasm.

Clement Manly, Esq., moved that the Corresponding Secretary have copies of the resolutions neatly framed and sent to Grover Cleveland and Alfred M. Scales, and that they be spread upon the minutes of the Club and published in the New Berne Journal.

The motion was unanimously adopted.

Personal.

Washington Bryan, Esq., left for Raleigh yesterday morning.
Rev. C. A. Jenkins has returned from the Baptist State Convention.
Mr. G. W. Moore, of the firm of Moore & Brady, of Baltimore, left on the West bound train yesterday morning. He hopes to be able to begin the work of packing oysters here by the 1st of December.

Thomas J. Jarvis—The Cabinet.

Will North Carolina be represented in the Cabinet? That depends, as has been wisely said, on unanimity of sentiment and action, on the part of North Carolinians themselves. Let the sentiment be expressed.

When I cast my eyes, Mr. Editor, over the State, from the seashore to the mountains, and behold the wondrous change that has been wrought, by the rapid and unceasing development of North Carolina's varied and boundless resources, I have plenary evidence that a master-mind has planned and a dexterous hand has executed, in the chief position, from which great executive talent could exert its vitalizing influence on every source of wealth and prosperity, physical, political, financial. The West, with bounding joy, shakes hands with the East in an iron grip, while the East sends back her vociferous greetings, at the completion of the chain which will make East and West, one in sentiment, one in sympathy, one in interest. Increased light and knowledge are radiating their beneficent influence into every nook and corner of the State, and, with unwavering confidence in the present, and the brightest anticipations for the future, the whole people, with energy renewed and vigor intensified, are shaking the dew-drops from their garments, and beginning the march to unparalleled greatness and glory.

What say you, fellow-citizens of the Old North State?

Shall a great man receive a great reward? Shall Thomas J. Jarvis be remembered, or shall a best people prove ungrateful?
Let every North Carolinian speak out, not from mere personal preference only, but in honest and grateful appreciation of the constancy, fidelity, devotion, and eminent ability, of a faithful public servant.
C. C. C.
Newbern, Nov. 15, 1884.

La Grange Items.

It is dry and dusty, with no appearance of rain.
Cotton is coming in briskly and selling at 9.42 for the best. Sales for the week 135 bales against 121 corresponding week last year.
Business has revived. The election is over and all should drop politics and go to work. Politics are well enough in season, but after the election is over say no more of it.
Joseph Kinsey arrived here last Wednesday after an absence of two months. He is from Anniston, Ala., where he is engaged in business for the present. A more extended account of his new business place may be given hereafter.
G. L. Taylor has purchased and now has in operation on Mr. Noah Rouse's farm, a peanut picker. The machine is said to do good and effective work, but is too slow. We don't know if our farmers have met with success sufficient in this crop this year to engage in its cultivation next.

The Revenue Cutter.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—In your issue of Saturday your correspondent "H. Escor." states that the revenue cutter Stevens, now undergoing extensive repairs at Baltimore, has been condemned. This is an error, the repairs are expected to be completed in about one month from the present, when she will be ordered to return to duty in these waters.
The statement of your correspondent, however, affords an opportunity to open the discussion of the advisability of the Government building a vessel which shall be better adapted to the service required on this station.
We ought to have a light draft side-wheel steamer, staunch and seaworthy, to go outside the inlets of Hatteras and Ocracoke. Timely assistance rendered vessels on our coast and those driven ashore would save many of them from destruction.
We could cite instances where a cutter of this description would have saved thousands of dollars, by hauling wrecked vessels off the beach and towing others into a safe harbor.
With the present surplus in the National Treasury, we see no reason why Congress should not appropriate a sufficient sum for such an important and useful purpose, and we hope that when that honorable body shall have assembled early in December next that our representatives will give the matter their attention, and introduce a bill providing for an appropriation for that purpose.

Avoid the harsh, irritating, gripping compounds so often sold as purging medicines, and correct the irregularities of the bowels by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills, which are mild and gentle, yet thorough and searching, in their action.

What? a pipe of execrable stuff! What? a cigarette rolled out of drugged or deteriorated leaf! Bah! Get Blackwell's Durham Long Cut, for pipe or cigarette, and then you are sure of a pure, fragrant smoke.

As a purifier, Ayer's Sarsaparilla acts directly and promptly. A single bottle will prove its merits. Many thousands of people are yearly saved from dangerous fevers by the exercise of a little timely care in properly cleansing the system by the use of this remedy.

"Amusements and the Christian Life in the Primitive Church and in Our Day." By Rev. L. C. Vass.

This is a neat little book of about 90 pages. The author shows that worldly amusements in the Primitive ages of the church and in our day are inconsistent with the Christian life. In other words, the great principles of Christian life as set forth in the Bible and exhibited in the lives of sincere Christians in Primitive and in modern times antagonize worldly amusements, or such amusements as ungodly men and women delight in. Our author defines "Christian life" to be: "Consecration" to God; "productiveness," or good works; "self-denial," "obedience" to the will of God, and "loyalty to His Church." "A Christian world with Christless customs confronts God's church with her Christ-given laws." "Fashion opposes grace." It is the duty of every man to love God supremely and to love his neighbor as himself. These two commandments constitute the essence and sum of all the specific laws of God in reference to man's duty, contained in the Bible. Hence in order to justify the dance, the theater, the circus, the cock pit, horse races; see the advocates of such worldly amusements must prove that they are, in nature and influence, in beginning growth and results in exact harmony with the two great commandments on which "hang all the law and the prophets." This no man has done. These worldly amusements must be either right or wrong; either in harmony with the will of God or opposed to that will. They cannot occupy neutral ground. If they are right all Christians should patronize them. If they are wrong, no man can attend or patronize them without sin. Sin is sin, whether committed by an angel or by a devil. The Christian's life must be in harmony with the will of God. "He cannot serve God and Mammon." He is the "salt of the earth," "the light of the world," the "temple of the Holy Ghost." He is a "child of God;" and a "joint heir with Jesus Christ;" "God dwells in him" continually. Hence he cannot engage in any thing that is wrong and sinful, or that is of doubtful propriety. He must "shun all appearances of evil" and pray, "Lead me not into temptation." Think of the Apostles and Primitive Christians (if you can) at a circus, theatre, ball, horse-race, or other places of worldly amusements, roaring with laughter and throwing up their hats in applause at the performances of clowns, ring-masters, waltzers etc. Think of Methodists, Baptists, Presbyterians, Episcopalians and others, joining with the world in all such amusements! Does the Christian life harmonize with the "world, the flesh and the devil" in this way? If yes, then such a Christian life is a farce and a fraud. If no, then the Christian life antagonizes all these as it does the "world, the flesh and the devil." Get the book and read it.
