LOCAL NEWS.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

C. A. HART—At cost.
F. ULRICH—Removal.
WATSON & STREET—At auction.
W. M. WATSON—Meeting.
Journal Minutaire Almanac.
Sun rises, 6:48 | Length of day, Sun sets, 4:47 | 19 hours, 59 minutes.
Moon sets at 12:35 a. m.
C. A. Hart, Agt., offers hardware, etc., at cost.
Mr. Jos. Schwerwin has a lot of beautiful badges for the celebration.
Read F. Ulrich's new adv. He is at T. A. Green's old stand, rushing things.
Post are being collected on the Academy Green for the building of a neat fence.
Considerable rice in market yesterday.
The best article brought 97½ cents per bushel in bulk.
Court will convene at 9 o'clock this morning, when the civil docket will be called and a committee appointed to fix a calendar.
Cotton market a little on the boom yesterday. The highest price obtained was for a lot of 28 bales sold by Mr. P.
A. Koonce, of Stella, N. C., at 9.90.
E. E. Tucker, editor of the Banner, requests us to state that his paper was not issued last week on account of unavoidable circumstances, but it will appear next week.
Mr. R. A. Russell, of Cobton, brings us some pears, the fall crop of a tree that has been bearing for over forty years. He started with something else for us, sent by the madam, but his appetite got the better of him and he could only tell us how nice it was. We will excuse him for this time as long as he made such a gallant fight for the Legislature during the recent canvass.

Laying Corner Stone.
Golden Link Lodge, No. 1634, G.U.O., Odd Fellows, colored, will lay the corner stone of their new building near the depot on Thursday, Nov. 27th, at 2½ o'clock p. m. Festival at night.

Juror and Witness Tickets.
We learn that the county commissioners have passed an order that no witness nor juror ticket shall be paid by the county unless the party to whom the same is issued shall have paid his taxes. We mention this fact that parties trading for such tickets may be on their guard.

The Old Fashion.
The case of Charles Russell, may it please your Honor," said Charles' attorney in the Superior Court yesterday, "we wish to submit if the Solicitor will agree to suspend judgment." "What is he indicted for?" inquired His Honor.
"Only a little fight," replied the attorney, "no deadly weapons were used."
"Was it an old fashioned fight?" asked His Honor; "yes, a regular fist and skull." "Ah, well, let judgment be suspended upon payment of cost." The old fashion is, to say the least, the cheapest.

Superior Court.
Court assembled at 10 o'clock. The criminal docket was taken up and after calling a number of cases in which either the defendants or the witnesses, or both, were absent, the solicitor at last found one which was ready for trial.
The following cases were disposed of:
State vs. Thos. Carter, A. and B., called and failed; judgment nisi.
State vs. John Buck and A. M. Mc-Cafferty, called and failed; judgment nisi; capias instanter.
State vs. Alex. Wiggins, F. and A., submits; judgment suspended on payment of cost.
State vs. Iseal Merritt, injury to real estate, submits; judgment suspended on payment of cost.
State vs. Caesar Bryant, killing stock;
nisi.
State vs. Charles Russell, A. and B., submits; judgment suspended on payment of cost.
State vs. W. H. Thompson, affray, jury empaneled; Solicitor Collins for the State; Geo. H. White for the defendant. Verdict, not guilty.
State vs. Isaac Anderson, injury to property, called and failed; judgment nisi.
State vs. Cyrus Westbrook, Alonzo Westbrook, Cyrus Westbrook, jr., and Luke Russell, A. and B. Jury empaneled.
Solicitor Collins for the State; Hessons & Manly and C. O. Clark for Russell, Moore & Clarke for the West-brooks. Verdict not given at the time of going to press.

The Graded School.
There is no institution in New Berne in which, perhaps, our citizens are more vitally interested than the Graded School; and we may say there is every reason for us to be proud of the success which has attended it so far, and the far greater and more brilliant success it is achieving to-day. In its inception and infancy the school had to labor against almost insurmountable difficulties, in the newness of its methods, which were alike strange to both pupils and teachers; in the prejudices of the people; in the lack of suitable schoolrooms, and the proper appliances, and grading and disciplining of pupils consequent thereto; and in the "thousand and other inconveniences and seemingly insurmountable difficulties which necessarily attended the school in its beginning and which are known and can be properly appreciated only by those who have had to face and overcome them.
If, from these causes there have been doubts of the final success of the enterprise, or if there have been sporadic cases of dissatisfaction arising from these same causes, the reasons for these have passed away forever, and it only needs that our citizens visit and examine the school, as we have done, and their doubts and prejudices will be matters of the past.
To the Board of Trustees of the New Berne Academy, the people of New Berne owe a debt of gratitude which they can never repay, for what has been done for the institution. Nothing but a zealous determination to brave all obstacles and make for New Berne and New Berne's sons and daughters a school of which the future generations of the "Athens of North Carolina" might be proud, could have placed in our city such a monument to learning as our "Academy" with its beautiful grounds, and the school as it is to-day, both unsurpassed by any school in the State.
The new building is a monument to New Berne in more ways than one. It is the prettiest building in the city, and one of which any city might well be proud.
With its eight large school rooms perfectly lighted, perfectly heated and ventilated, large and roomy and containing all the most improved appliances for comfort, health and convenience which school rooms can have—with its library and office, which are indeed a model of skill in architecture; its hundreds of square yards of perfect blackboard; its cloak-rooms and closets; and its large sliding doors, so arranged that any two adjoining rooms can be thrown together, forming a large hall,—this building stands as a monument—a proud and glorious monument—to the Trustees of the New Berne Academy, and the people of New Berne.
But that which pleases us even more than this is the magnificent success of the school, which is as much assured to-day as the election of Cleveland and Hendricks. We ask the citizens of New Berne to visit the school and judge for themselves. They will be well paid for their time. They will come away happy and pleased with themselves, New Berne, their children, and the world generally.
Next week we will visit the school again and perhaps give some of the details of its work, especially in the higher grades.

Personal.
Clement Manly, Esq., is attending the Circuit Court at Raleigh.
Judge Seymour is holding court at Raleigh this week.
Chas. R. Thomas, jr., of Beaufort, is attending court.
Mr. E. B. Hargett, of Silverdale, Onslow, is in the city and will be at the corner of South Front and Middle streets this morning with a fine lot of turkeys.
Mr. Frank Jarman, of Jones county, is in the city with a fine lot of Thanksgiving turkeys.
Capt. J. S. Lane, of Stonewall, called to see us yesterday on his way from the Goldboro Fair. He, and many others complain of the railroad management in getting the crowd from the city to the Fair grounds.
James A. Bryan, Esq., and family returned from New York last night.

March in the Procession.
We give to-day the programme for the procession to-morrow night. It is admirable if carried out, and it can be executed successfully if every Democrat will be on hand promptly and take his place in the procession and not on the sidewalks as a mere looker on.
Badges.
With portraits of Cleveland and Hendricks for the Celebration to-morrow night at
JOS. SCHWERWIN'S. It Go down to Humphrey & Howard's this morning and buy your Thanksgiving turkey dressed.

La Grange Items.
Cotton selling Monday at 9¢ for the best.
C. C. Taylor, traveling agent for the JOURNAL, was in town last Saturday.
We had a refreshing shower Sunday.
Nothing like a season, but enough to do much good.
Miss Mollie Hall of Pender county is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. M. McDonald, in our village.
Dr. Hadley has purchased a pair of "dapple cream ponies." Those needing his professional services will be served at shortest notice possible.
Miss Lela Patrick, Miss Nannie Friz-zle and Miss Fannie Coward, all of Greene county, were in the city last week visiting Major Pope's family.
We saw last Saturday seven bales of cotton on a four mule team. The load was a heavy one, and the manner in which the wagon was loaded was a hoihey.
W. M. Murchison, formerly of our town, but for the last two or three years a resident of Florida, arrived here last Saturday. We are sorry to see Mr. M. in so bad health.
One of the most difficult things for any one to do successfully, is to please one part of the world and deceive the other. And yet we see men undertaking this impossibility.
Rev. Mr. Hiers preached in the Baptist church here Sunday. No service Sunday night. He will preach at Hickory Grove on the fourth Sunday in December, at 3 o'clock, p. m.
We notice a number of commercial travellers, familiarly known as "Drummers," in our town almost daily.
What inducement they receive or encouragement they get we are not informed.
Rev. J. D. Carpenter, P. C., this circuit, will leave for his State Conference this week. Mr. Carpenter and his estimable lady have endeared themselves to people of the circuit, and we hope they will be returned to this field again.
A report is in town to-day, Monday, that two colored teamsters in the employ of Haywood Dall of Snow Hill, were shot from their wagons last Saturday night and one of them instantly killed. The shooting is said to have taken place not far from "Bection Old Field" and the cause, as we learn, was jealousy or robbery.

Kinston Items.
New discoveries of phosphate beds are being made in our county.
Mr. George Rountree, of Richmond, Va., is visiting relatives in Kinston.
Kinston merchants unanimously agree that trade is dull. And it must be so when that prince of salesman, Mr.
Charles Burt, cannot do a good day's work.
We had three funerals last week: On Thursday that of Mr. Geo. Kornegey's infant son; on Friday, that of Mrs. John O'Connor, on Saturday, that of Mrs.
Thomas Williams.
Upwards of 4,000 bales of cotton have been sold in Kinston this season. Receipts for Saturday last, 300 bales. Following prices were obtained on that day: middling, 9¢; low middling, 9¢.
Mr. Thos. D. Lindsey has moved into "Tuckahoe" and is getting to be an adept in hauling carts and finding out their contents. These Tuckahoe merchants are among the "livest" traders in Kinston.
Mr. Burwell Canady's elegant store is nearly completed. Mr. J. T. Presson, the carpenter, has done some beautiful work about the front door and windows.
This store is, perhaps, the best built house in town.
We spent a short time with the cotton weighers on Saturday, and were much interested and pleased at the rapid, business-like way in which they performed their arduous labors. They are both capital officers. We refer to Major Barrett and Mr. Geo. Kilpatrick.
KINSTON MARKET—Western bacon, 11c.; N. C. hams, 12c.; N. C. sides, 10c.; beef, 10c.; N. C. lard, 15c.; eggs, 15c.; chickens, 25c.; N. C. butter, 25c.; N. C. rice, 85c. per bushel; sweet potatoes, 50c.; Irish potatoes, $1.00; meal 90c.
