Last day of November.

Congress convenes to-morrow.

County commissioners meet to-morrow, at which time the county officers renew their bonds.

The question agitating the public on South Front street now is, "Shall we keep the railroad?"

Taylor & Smith have moved to the new brick store built on the site occupied by S. H. Scott before the fire.

B. A. Bell, our Middle street jeweler, leaves to-day on the Shenandoah. That means many beautiful and desirable articles for Holiday presents.

The lawyers and doctors obeyed the command given in the JOURNAL on Thursday morning and joined the procession that night. Notably among them were Hon. C. C. Clark and Dr. J. B. Hughes.

We are informed that we were unobscured on Thursday night not to have noticed Mr. Henry Ippock's aide-de-camp, Capt. Anson Wallace, who discharged the duties of that position with great acceptability and in a handsome red cap.

We were pleased to meet in our sanctum on Thanksgiving day those popular insurance agents of Kinston, Messrs. Bryant and Lafayette McCullen. We are under obligations to Bryant for aid in fixing an appropriate transparency for the celebration.

The freights are accumulating on the Old Dominion wharf until the Shenandoah is compelled to make an extra trip to clear the way. This line always proves equal to the emergency in the rapid transit of freights. The Shenandoah will be in this morning to take out a cargo of cotton, and will be here on her regular trip Tuesday.

During the parade on Thursday night large portraits of Cleveland and Hendricks were displayed in front of the JOURNAL office, and we mention this fact simply to thank our friend, Thomas J. Latham, of Norfolk, who sent us the portraits, and who still feels a great interest in his former home and desires to see her succeed in anything she undertakes.

We were pleased to see the 5th Ward out in such good force on Thursday night. Under the direction of Capt. Sam. Walters and Mr. John Collins, it was the best organized ward in the procession. They were not only in the parade in force but were at the polls on the day of election and did their duty as true Democrats and patriots. All honor to the 5th Ward.

In writing up the illuminations of the city on Thursday night there were several houses omitted which we intended to mention specially but were unintentionally omitted. Among these were the houses of J. K. Willis, A. H. Holton, Miss Lizzie Lane, L. H. Cutler, Nelson Whitford, F. W. Hancock, J. W. Smallwood, J. F. Ives, and some others whom we cannot at this writing recall. These were all handsomely illuminated, in fact the whole city was ablaze with enthusiasm, every man doing his best to make the affair a grand success, all of which was accomplished.

An Exception.

Our old friend, Cad Koonce, of Onslow, was with us on Thursday at the jollification. He says it was undoubtedly the grandest thing of the kind in the State except the one had at Richards headed by Lafayette Francks and John Brock with himself as chief marshal.

Church Services To-Day.

Christ Church—V. W. Shields, Rector. 1st Sunday in Advent—St. Andrews Day. Holy Communion at 8 a. m. Other services at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sunday School at 4 p. m. The public are always invited to attend the services of this Church.

Baptist Church.—Services at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. conducted by Rev. A. D. Cohen. Seats free and the public cordially invited to attend.

A New Crop.

Mr. J. L. Hill, of Vanceboro, brought to our office on Friday a bushel of gopher peas, which are now at the store of Geo. Allen & Co., which he says is as good for hogs as the field pea, peanuts, chufus or anything else that a hog eats. It fruits in the ground, has a flavor similar to that of the field pea, a hull something like the ground pea, and one hundred bushels can be made on an acre of ordinary land. He got the seed from Florida, paying fifty cents for twenty-two pods. A bushel of them in the hull we think would be equal to a half bushel of cover in fattening pork.

Superior Court.

One week has been spent on the criminal docket and still there are several jail cases yet to be disposed of.

The most important case yet tried was that of State vs. John Corbin, indicted for arson, which came up yesterday. The defendant was charged with setting fire to the gin house of Mr. Cicero Green a few weeks ago, which destroyed the building and several bales of cotton, inflicting a heavy loss upon Mr. Green. Geo. H. White appeared for the defendant, Moore & Clarke for the State.

The evidence was almost entirely circumstantial. Mr. Moore argued the case for the State, and, though just recovering his health, which has been impaired for sometime, he made a strong argument, and once or twice gave evidence of the return of the old fire which always characterized his speeches. Verdict, guilty; sentence, seven years at hard labor in the penitentiary.

Ella Selby, col., a young girl who has just served a term of two years in the penitentiary, was put upon trial for larceny, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty. She was given two years more, and can now start with the era of reform and return a better girl.

Court adjourned till 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Our Rice Market.

The Washington Gazette says: Rice in bulk sold in this market yesterday at $1.02 per bushel; in and including sacks $1.05. The New Berne JOURNAL will kindly note this.

Pretty good price provided there is no "typographical error," but no better than it has brought in New Berne. Certainly we are glad to note the price of rice in a market convenient to a large number of our readers, therefore we copy the above item from the Gazette as requested. We would not have our farmer readers in Beaufort county, and we have a large number there, to bring their rice to New Berne when they can sell it for just as much in Washington which is much nearer them, neither would we fool them into carrying it there by telling them that it is the "leading market in the State." Rice sold in this market for $1.05 yesterday, but the Gazette will not make a note of this fact.

Personal.

Phil. Holland, jr., is attending the M. E. Conference at Wilmington.

Washington Bryan, Esq., left for Raleigh yesterday morning.

Seven Springs Items.

Cleveland is elected, sic transit gloria ecclesis, hallelujah.

The rain has come and old mother earth has washed once again.

Mr. P. H. Spence will shortly move into our town. We welcome all such good citizens to our midst.

The wandering Arab has folded his tent and departed, though he was not allowed to do so quietly, for his dear bosom friend(?) who formerly took him into a sacred nearness and folded him like a hen doth her chickens under his wing interposed a serious objection and charged said Arab for standing room of said tent. "Pharaoh hardened his heart and would not let Israel go."

While Goldboro was on fire on Sunday evening the ashes from the destruction were seen to fall in our streets. A piece of charred paper was seen to fall in a man's yard with the writing and printing plainly distinguishable. It was from the hardware store of Jones & Yelverton, and was thoroughly burnt but had not fallen in pieces.

There will be a regular meeting of the Excelsior Hose Company Monday night. By order of Foreman.

S. W. Hancock, Sec'y.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 28.—The State canvassing board to-day decided in the Lemus-Brand contest that, from the testimony given before it, Brand, Democrat, was not entitled to the certificate of election. The board referred the matter to Gov. Hamilton for final decision in the case next month.

Graded School Fleet.

One of the most attractive of the railroad floats that was in the ever-to-be-remembered glorification Thursday night was the one which contained the thirty-eight young Misses who had been selected from the Newbern Graded School to represent the States of the Union. These little Misses, beautifully dressed were assembled at the school building and at the appointed time marched to the depot. Their very souls seemed inspired with enthusiasm and their little feet kept time with their impatience, so anxious were they to ascend to the places designated for them. At length everything was ready and Miss Lucy Taylor, representing the Empire State, was assigned the post of honor. On her broad sash in large letters of gold was inscribed New York. The balance of the Democratic States were then represented as follows:

Miss Theresa Fulford, Alabama. Miss Jennie Burrus, Arkansas. Miss Bessie Rideout, Connecticut. Miss Etta Nunn, Delaware. Miss Nettie Pavie, Florida. Miss Mattie Wood, Georgia. Miss Sophie Jones, Indiana. Miss Sadie Whitford, Kentucky. Miss Minnie Bynum, Louisiana. Miss Nannie Street, Maryland. Miss Minnie Wade, Missouri. Miss Annie Willis, Mississippi. Miss Addie LaRogue, New Jersey. Miss Mary Lucas, North Carolina. Miss Emma Hanks, South Carolina. Miss Chattie Credle, Tennessee. Miss Ada Burrus, Texas. Miss Kate Bryan, Virginia. Miss Maud Quick, West Virginia.

Around the shoulder of each hung a sash on which was inscribed the name of the State represented. The above young Misses represented the States which had caused the election of Cleveland and Hendricks which had sent a thrill of pleasure over the people of this country. Then came Pennsylvania, represented by Miss Mattie Williams. Proud indeed should this young Miss have felt in honoring the Democrats of Pennsylvania when she remembers that Samuel J. Randall ever faithful and ever a true friend of the people of the South, is one of them. Then came Ohio, represented by Miss Edith Haskins. Thrice happy should she have been when in honoring Ohio, she pays a tribute of respect to Allen G. Thurman, "the noblest Roman of them all." California was represented by Miss Nora Huddleston, who should also remember that in honoring California, she also honors Gen. Rosecrans, who has always been faithful to the Democratic cause. Illinois was represented by Miss Mary McSorley. When we remember the brilliant services of Carter Harrison we will with one accord exclaim, we honor ourselves in honoring the Democrats of Illinois. Wisconsin was represented by Miss Daisy Swert. In honoring Wisconsin we honor the home of Mr. Vilas, the President of the Convention which nominated Cleveland.

Maine was represented by Miss Sadie Suydam; New Hampshire by Miss Julia Cutbert; Vermont by Miss Sallie Kinsey; Massachusetts by Miss Maria Cox; Rhode Island by Miss Faith Brook; Michigan by Miss Lillian Green; Kansas by Miss Stella Roberts; Nebraska by Miss Lula Ewel; Iowa by Miss Alice Crabtree; Colorado by Miss Mary Gaskill; Oregon by Miss Annie Davis; Nevada by Miss Mary Gooding; Minnesota by Miss Annie Lane. Each of whom should remember that in honoring the State they represent, they honor a little band of Democrats in each of them who have fought as boldly and as nobly as any of us, and who in their defeat, are more than deserving of the honors we award to them.

Beautifully did this float pass up and down the streets of Newbern and callous indeed was the heart of any one who did not feel proud of the little flock there collected. Happy indeed must have been these children for every feature of their countenance bespoke a heart full to overflowing with pleasure. During the Harrison Presidential campaign a beautifully modelled ship, full rigged, with every spar, every block, every sail, every strand of rope as perfect as on an ocean ship, was built in Newbern. She was manned by a crew of young lads dressed in full sailor's uniforms and was hauled by a team of horses from Newbern to Raleigh. The pleasing impression made at that time of this ship is still green in the memory of many.

We think that in after years we will look back with equal pride on this display of the children of the Newbern Graded School, and although the ship will then be forgotten, the beautiful float and the bright faces of the thirty-eight little girls will be remembered.

Something New Again.

Taylor & Smith, formerly next to Ice House, have moved over to the old stand formerly occupied by S. H. Scott, in their new and elegant Brick Store, where they are laying in and enlarging their stock of Groceries, Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, etc., and the purest of Wines and Liquors for medicinal purposes; and would be pleased to have their friends and customers call and examine their stock. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Respectfully,
TAYLOR & SMITH,
dwit West side Middle street.

NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Charles T. Goodwin, of the firm of Goodwin & Co., cracker manufacturers, of Front street, New York, left his house about 2:30 this morning in a distracted state of mind, uttering horrible cries. He was pursued unobscuredly by his wife. His mangled body was found about 6 o'clock this morning near a railroad track, with his head and right arm cut off, the side of one hip severed and the heart and entrails torn out. He was about 62 years old, and leaves a widow, three adult and two young children. The second failure of his firm is supposed to have affected his mind.

La Grange Items.

We are having another "sprinkle." These little showers do great good when the earth is dry.

Our townsman, D. C. Murchison, left for the M. P. Conference in session at Liberty, Randolph county, Thursday morning.

W. M. Murchison, whose return from Florida we noted a few days ago, left for his native county, Chatham, Thursday morning.

Rev. Mr. Carpenter left here Wednesday, and Mrs. Carpenter Friday morning for the M. E. Conference now in session at Wilmington.

Mr. Shepard has pitched his tent in our town and is taking the pretties for the beautiful. Do ugly people ever want their pictures taken?

Last week we announced that Miss Addie M. Kirkpatrick might take the veil and become a Nun, and now it is rumored that Miss Addie N. Kirkpatrick may take the veil and go to Joyner.

A private telegram here this Friday morning announced the death of Mr. G. W. Barnes, father-in-law of our townsman E. W. Bizzell, Esq. The death occurred at Mr. Barnes' residence in Wilson county, Friday morning.

The item in last week's JOURNAL to the effect that two teamsters in Haywood Dail's employ being shot turnout to be without foundation in fact. We heard the story in our place and the matter was spoken of as if there was no doubt; hence our itemizing it. People will lie.

Thanksgiving day was observed by some of our citizens Thursday. Prayer meeting at the Methodist Church at 11 o'clock was attended by a few of our citizens from town and country. The amount of the collection for benefit of the Orphan Asylum at Oxford we have not learned.

Thanksgiving day was holiday with both our schools. It is a little remarkable to see how little this National holiday is observed. We believe that if the people understood that it was a day of thanksgiving for the blessings of a kind Providence, that a better observance would be had. Few people who do not feel grateful for blessings and few can say that we are not a blessed nation.

The barn and stables of Mr. N. G. Sutton, living about three miles from this place, were burned Thursday night. The fire was discovered between 12 and 1 o'clock, and Mr. Sutton just had time to release his horses from the stables. About half of his corn and nearly all his wheat was consumed. Whether the burning was accidental or the work of an incendiary is not known. No insurance.

About fifty bales of cotton were sold here Thursday, the best bringing 9.771. Our market was kept within less than the freights and expenses of the Goldsboro, New Berne and Norfolk markets much of the time this season. When our buyers were paying 9.771 Thursday, the Norfolk quotations were 104. Sales for the week 163 bales. Corresponding week last year 200 bales.

Mr. S. I. Wooten delivered 1,500 bushels of rice here during the week at 971 cents per bushel. This is the largest quantity sold by any one farmer here this season. Mr. Wooten raised most of his crop on lands not suited to either corn or cotton. Rice culture is becoming quite an industry and paying crop among our farmers, and much of the waste land, unsuited to other crops, can be profitably used for this. Mr. Wooten says that he raised forty bushels to the acre on some land that would not have made corn stand high.

The Latest News.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 28.—A collision occurred early yesterday evening between the steamers Decatur H. Miller, of the Merchants & Miners' line, hence for Boston, and the William Lawrence, of the same line, coming from Savannah. There was a misunderstanding of signals, and the Decatur H. Miller was struck just in front of the fore-rigging and cut through below the water-line. She sank soon afterwards. There was no loss of life. The Baltimore vessels have iron hulls. The collision occurred about forty miles from this port.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Nov. 28.—The Home sewing machine company's works in this city were shut down Wednesday till January 1st, and about 300 hands will be thrown out of employment.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 28.—All the mills started up this morning. There is a decided good feeling among the manufacturers, caused by a stiffening in the price of print cloths. The mills will all run here next week, and the general opinion is that it will not be necessary to stop during the winter. The market is firm 33 1/2c, plus 1 percent for 64x64's, and very few manufacturers are selling at less than 31c. Sales this week will not be extraordinarily large on that account.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—Governor Cleveland has declined to attend the grand banquet at the Academy of Music which was tendered by a number of prominent Democratic citizens of this city.

ATLANTA, Nov. 28.—Hon. Samuel J. Randall and party arrived in this city at midnight last night to attend the State Democratic demonstration. At noon to-day the party were invited to seats on the floor of the House of Representatives, and that body adjourned in Mr. Randall's honor. On being presented to the legislature Mr. Randall said he would do violence to his head and heart if he did not acknowledge the compliment paid him. He took pleasure in congratulating the people of the country that they have thrown aside the expressions "Solid South" and "Solid North," and that the people of the whole country are now united in the cause of good government.

People, try it, and you will never do without it. nov28 1w

FIRST THIEF—"You're a lucky dog. I didn't expect to see you out so soon. So the jury didn't convict you?"

Second Thief—"No."

"And yet there you stood before them with the stolen money in your pocket. It's lucky they didn't search you."

"They did."

"They did? Then they didn't find it?"

"No. I didn't have it."

"Why, what had you done with it?"

"Paid it to my lawyer."

Sweet Gum and Mullein.

The sweet gum, as gathered from a tree of the same name, growing along the small streams in the Southern States, contains a stimulating expectorant principle that loosens the phlegm producing the early morning cough, and stimulates the child to throw off the false membrane in croup and whooping cough. When combined with the healing mucilaginous principle in the mullein plant of the old fields, presents in TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN, the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough and Consumption; and so palatable, any child is pleased to take it. Ask your druggist for it. Send two-cent stamp for Taylor's Riddle Book, which is not only for the amusement of the little ones who will gather around your knee to hear the puzzling questions, but containing information for the health and welfare of every home.
