Sheriff Hahn paid in his State taxes at the National Bank yesterday amounting to $2,457.15.

David Speight calls attention to the fact that he keeps the best oysters that come to market.

The criminal docket of the Superior Court of this county will probably be exhausted to-day.

The South Front street railroad was being removed yesterday, and all was quiet along the line.

Mr. J. W. Stewart has arranged stables at the Central hotel lot and is ready to furnish conveyance to the traveling public.

"The Reunited Union" is to be the title of an article by Henry Waterson, in the January number of the North American Review.

The steamer Goldboro arrived yesterday morning with a cargo of general merchandise and left for Norfolk last night with a full cargo of cotton.

As will be seen by the proceedings published elsewhere, a special term of the Superior Court of this county, for the trial of civil cases, is asked for.

Solicitor Collins says there are more sneak thieves in this city than any town in his district. We have called the attention of the authorities time again to the necessity of a work house, but they are not yet convinced.

Superintendent Coakley is putting the wharf and machinery at the canning factory in order. He expects to begin work next Monday and will push the work of packing as fast as the oystermen will supply him.

Messrs. W. S. Phillips, Tobe Lane and E. M. Pavie returned from a big deer hunt in the neighborhood of Brice's Creek yesterday evening, bringing back a fine buck and a doe as the fruits of their labor and good marksmanship.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday when the remaining constables who had not completed their bonds came forward with sufficient sureties and they were sworn in. Moses Bryan was reappointed undertaker without bond, so he no longer dreads Cleveland's election. Hancock Bros. were awarded the contract for furnishing the jail and poor house with medical supplies for the ensuing year.

Branson's Almanac.

We have received a copy of Branson's North Carolina almanac for 1885, and find it full of important information for all classes. It contains the names of the next General Assembly, with a few exceptions, and the representative of Craven is among the exceptions. We notice several papers in giving the names of Representatives-elect from each county have a — after Craven county. This means that they don't know who is elected from this county. So we respectfully inform all our brethren of the press and the world at large that the name of Craven county's recently elected representative is John E. Hussey, Sheriff Hahn's present deputy, and, literally speaking, he is a "black" Republican. The almanac is a valuable book of reference, however, even if our representative's name is omitted.

Personal.

We were pleased to meet in our sanctuary yesterday, the Rev. George Joyner, Disciple, who had returned from Kinston, where he preached on last Sunday. Mr. Joyner has been actively engaged in the work of an evangelist on the Pantego district, Beaufort county, for the last three years. He was universally beloved by his flock for his sterling qualities as a minister in whom there is no guile. We congratulate our Kinston friends on securing the services, for the ensuing year, of such a talented minister of the Gospel.

Rev. H. O. Bowen will remove to Kinston next year and edit a Kinston department of the Watch Tower. This will be advantageous to those churches in the adjoining counties and give them a medium of direct communication.
Rev. Dr. Burkhead and Phil. Holland, Jr., returned from the Conference last night.

Superior Court.

Court convened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning when the argument in the case of State vs. Wm. Bryan, for larceny, was resumed. M. DeW. Stevenson, Esq., made a strong argument for the defence. He was followed by Wm. Whitford, Esq., for the State, who found everything calm and serene after the storm made by Mr. Stevenson, just as it was before, except the guilt of the defendant had been swept away. Verdict, not guilty.

State vs. M. Hahn, sheriff, and Norris Green, escape of prisoners from county jail. H. R. Bryan, Esq., for the State. Green & Stevenson for Hahn, Moore & Clarke for Green. The defendants come into court and say they are unwilling to contend further with the State and agree to a judgment to pay the cost. Whereupon it was adjudged by the court that the defendants pay the cost of this action.

In the case of State vs. S. J. Taylor for violating city ordinance; which was appealed from the Mayor's Court and found guilty in the Superior Court, he was adjudged to pay the fine imposed by the Mayor, and the cost in the Superior Court.

The civil docket was taken up and the following cases disposed of:
Ann Maria Caraway vs. D. T. Caraway; action for divorce. Judgment for plaintiff.

Jacob Moore vs. Charity Moore; action for divorce. Judgment for plaintiff.

Court adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning.

Rough and Ready.

T. H. Mallison, Esq., has handed us a paper with the above title which was published at Washington, N. C., in 1848. We find at its masthead the following:

THE PEOPLE'S TICKET.
For President,
GEN. ZACHARY TAYLOR,
of Louisiana.
For Vice-President,
HON. MILLARD FILLMORE, of New York.

It was a campaign document, published in the interest of the Whig candidates by Charles H. Mastin. The issue before us contains nothing but campaign matter, among which is an account of a banner raising at Tranter's Creek, on which occasion Henry I. Toole, Esq., who was a Democratic elector in the district in 1844, made a speech in which he declared Taylor and Fillmore to be sound on the slavery question. He was followed by A. J. Warren and James Joiner, who made great speeches.

It is announced, under the head of "Election News" that "Johnson, Whig, is elected Governor of Pennsylvania by about 235 votes," and that "Ford, Whig, is elected Governor of Ohio by a very small majority, from 100 to 200," and that "both these States are certain for Gen. Taylor."

There is also in this same issue of "Rough and Ready" a parody on the quarrel of Brutus and Cassius, the scene being laid in Tammany Hall where enter Lewis Cass and Martin Van Buren, but it is so faded that it is hardly readable.

From what we can glean from this sheet there must have been some hot campaigning in those days as we have now.

Special Term of Superior Court.

Upon suggestion of the Hon. C. C. Clark, a meeting of the Bar was called at 12 o'clock to take steps as to a continuance of the cases upon the civil issue docket. After adjournment of the court the Bar assembled and the meeting organized by an election of George Green, Esq., chairman and O. H. Guion secretary.

Preliminary remarks appropriate to the occasion were made by Messrs. C. C. Clark, F. M. Simmons, C. R. Thomas and W. J. Clarke, presenting the fact that the criminal calendar could not be exhausted before the end of the present week and that a special term for the trial of the civil causes would be necessary.

Hon. C. C. Clark then drew up and presented the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:
Resolved, That the Bar adopt the following course to be pursued with the civil issue docket subject to the approval of His Honor Judge Gudger:

1. That a special term for the trial of civil cases only be held early in February, 1885, to continue two weeks.
2. That the civil issue docket, so far as jury trials are concerned, be continued, except cases in which there is no contest and that both sides wish to try.
3. That Friday shall be devoted to motions.

Upon the adoption of the above resolutions the meeting adjourned.
GEO. GREEN, ESQ., Pres't.

O. H. GUION, Sec'y.
December 3, 1884.
The resolutions were submitted to Judge Gudger who approved them and appointed the following gentlemen as a committee to fix a calendar for the special term: M. DeW. Stevenson, W. W. Clark, W. E. Clarke, F. M. Simmons and O. H. Guion.

How often do we hear of the sudden fatal termination of a case of croup, when a young life might have been saved by the prompt use of Ayrer's Cherry Pectoral! Be wise in time, and keep a bottle of it on hand, ready for its use.

City Council Proceedings.

NEW BERNE, N. C., Dec. 3d, 1884.
The Board met in regular session this evening, Mayor Meadows in the chair. All the members present.

The Mayor stated that the Trustees of the New Berne Academy were willing to lease to the city the property now used by the New Berne Engine Company, for the term of two years at ten dollars per month.

The Building Committee reported having granted permission to Messrs. Moore & Brady to enlarge their canning factory.

Mr. J. W. Stewart made complaint against certain persons hiring out horses without paying the Livery License Tax. Referred to Tax Collector.

A committee from the Atlantic Fire Engine Company appeared and asked the Board to purchase a hose carriage for their company, stating that the one now used was worn out and of no service, and that the Sissy Company would sell one to the city on two years time at six per cent interest. On motion, the matter was referred to the Fire Department Committee with power to act, after communicating with the Button and other Fire Engine Companies and getting their best terms, by the following vote: Ayes, Gates, Hackburn, Wood, Street, Simpson, Crawford and Styron, (7); Noes, Gray, (1).

Col. J. D. Whitford, President of the A. & N. C. Railroad, appeared and after showing his plans, in regard to placing the track down South Front street, made some remarks, showing that the road would materially benefit the city and asked for a committee from the Board to look into the matter.

On motion of Councilman Gates, a committee of three was appointed and Col. Whitford requested to have the track already laid taken up. The Mayor appointed Councilmen Gray, Wood and Crawford. On motion, the Mayor was added to the committee.

A petition was read, from several citizens (property owners and residents) along the line of the proposed track, protesting against the city allowing the road to be continued.

On motion of Councilman Gates the following resolution was passed:

Resolved, That the committee appointed to meet with Col. Whitford be instructed to invite the property holders along the line of the proposed railway to meet with them in conference concerning this matter.

Mr. Geo. Allen notified the Board that the interest on the judgment debt was due, and wanted to know if any arrangements had been made for meeting the same.

On motion of Councilman Gray, the matter was referred to a committee of three and the Mayor, with instructions to consult with the citizens and with them formulate some plan for liquidating the present city indebtedness. The Mayor appointed the following as the committee: Councilmen Gray, Street, and Hackburn.

A petition from Mr. H. J. Lovick was read, asking permission to erect a tin awning in front of his store at the foot of Middle street.

Referred to the Building Committee with power to act.

The Marshal's report showed seven arrests and costs and fines collected amounting to $26.

The regular monthly bills were allowed, minutes read and the Board adjourned.

JOHN H. BELL,
City Clerk.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—Will you just be so kind as to keep pegging away at this Civil Court business until some good is accomplished? As one who feels the injustice which has been done him, I would respectfully urge those in whose hands the remedy lies to apply it at once.

It is only the dishonest in all communities that fear the execution of a just law, therefore those who strive to act uprightly should be protected.

Dec. 3rd, 1884. G.
The special term has been agreed upon by the Bar and recommended by the Judge; now let all be ready for trial.—[ED. JOURNAL.]

Sweet Gum and Mullein.

The sweet gum, as gathered from a tree of the same name, growing along the small streams in the Southern States, contains a stimulating expectorant principle that loosens the phlegm producing the early morning cough, and stimulates the child to throw off the false membrane in croup and whooping cough. When combined with the healing mucilaginous principle in the mullein plant of the old fields, presents in TAYLOR'S CHERRY REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN, the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough and Consumption; and so palatable, any child is pleased to take it. Ask your druggist for it. Send two-cent stamp for Taylor's Little Book, which is not only for the amusement of the little ones who will gather around your knee to hear the puzzling questions, but containing information for the health and welfare of every home.

LITERARY GOSSIP.

A HISTORY OF THE FOUR GEORGES. By Justin McCarthy, author of "A History of Our Own Times." Vol. I, 12mo, cloth, $1.25. Harper & Brothers.

Thackeray's lectures on "The Four Georges," like the half-dozen natives on the shell before dinner, whetted the literary appetite for the history of this important period, which is fully satisfied by the feast of good things to be laid before the reader by the author of "A History of Our Own Times," the first course of which is given in this volume of about three hundred pages, which covers the whole reign of George the First, and enters on the beginning of that of George the Second. This period is a most important one in the history of constitutional government; it was the turning point between the rule of the king and that of the people under monarchical forms. Mr. McCarthy tells the story of constitutional liberty and shows how it steadily broadened, from precedent to precedent, in spite of the many efforts to arrest its course, by kings and their ministers.

The work will be completed in four volumes, of which the first only is as yet published. The author is so well known that comments on the interesting manner in which he tells his story would be superfluous; it is sufficient to say, as the editor of Harper's Weekly does, that he has realized Macaulay's wish and given us "a history which disputes with the last novel the interest of the reader."

MEMOIRS OF A MAN OF THE WORLD. Fifty Years of London Life. By Edmund Yates, author of "Black Sheep," etc. With portrait; 12mo, cloth, $1.75. Harper & Brothers, New York.

This is a book of unmitigated gossip,—not scandal, but simon pure gossip,—some of it very amusing and some of it rather tiresome, but none of it likely to wound the persons gossiped about. Mr. Yates, like Trollope, was a post-office official, a literary man and a lecturer, and gives us reminiscences and anecdotes of fifty years of his life in its different phases. His father and mother were both professional actors, and the early years of his life were spent in intimate association with the staff of the Adelphi theatre, as seen in his mother's parlor, for he was never allowed to visit the theatre, though his father's house was a part of the Adelphi, communicating with the theatre by a door in the entrance hall. The pen sketches of the celebrities with which he came in contact are the best parts of the book; its greatest defect is its length; compressed into one-half its size it would be greatly improved.

SOME LITERARY RECOLLECTIONS. By James Payn, author of "A Beggar on Horseback." With steel portrait; 12mo, cloth, $1.00. Harper & Brothers, New York.

This is a charming book, and as much too short as Mr. Yates' is too long. It is, what it claims by its title to be, only some recollections, not an autobiography, and these recollections are principally of literary persons. Miss Mitford and Miss Martineau seem to divide the affection of the author, both adopted him into their hearts, and he seems to have had the freedom of Miss Martineau's house, and tells many anecdotes of her, some quite characteristic ones, for instance, of her being so pleased with the kindness of an artist, which she consulted for hearing, that she resolved to leave him her ears in her will. "She announced this intention in the presence of Mr. Shepherd (her physician), who, to my infinite amazement, observed, 'But, my dear madam, you can't do that; it will make your other legacy worthless.'" The fact was, in the interest of science, Miss Martineau had already left her head to the phrenological society. I asked the doctor how he came to know that. "Oh," he said, "she told me so herself. She has left ten pounds in her codicil to me for cutting it off."

Mr. Payn says he could never afterwards feel quite comfortable when playing cribbage with the testatrix and her doctor, adding, "but then I am neither a philosopher nor a man of science. As it happened the doctor died before his patient, who subsequently altered her intentions altogether."

Fire at Durham.

DURHAM, N. C., Dec. 2.
A fire broke out in the millinery store of Mrs. Mesley this evening about 5.45, caused by the explosion of a kerosene lamp. It was a frame building and burned very rapidly, and but for the two dead brick walls on either side the whole business part of the town would have been consumed. There was no further damage done.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 2.—After the adjournment of the Senate the Republican members held a brief caucus. Senator Manderson was selected for the chairmanship of the joint committee on printing, the chairmanship of which for years was filled by Senator Anthony.

The caucus committee of last session to consider "order of business" was reappointed.

At a meeting of the House committee on rivers and harbors to-day it was resolved to endeavor to have the bill providing for the appropriation for the improvement of rivers and harbors prepared so that it might be reported to the House of Representatives by January 15. The committee decided to make as far as practicable an appropriation of 25 per cent of the estimates made by the corps of army engineers and to limit if possible the aggregate to $8,000,000.

Purge out the lurking distemper that undermines health, and the constitutional vigor will return. Those who suffer from an enfeebled and disordered state of the system, should take Ayrer's Sarsaparilla to cleanse the blood, and restore vitality.

Important to Parents and Others, The Orphans' Home.

We have had a great improvement in the health of our children by the use of Swift's Specific. We had among the children some who had scrofula—notably one case in which it was UNMISTAKABLY HEREDITARY. We got some of Swift's Specific and gave it to this case, and in a short while it was cured sound and well. It was a bad case, I think, as I ever saw, and had been under excellent physicians with no permanent relief. We had been giving it to all the children as a health tonic. We have four children and one seamstress, who for years have suffered intensely every spring with erysipelas, and though they had been taking Swift's Specific only in small doses as a health tonic, they all, without exception, passed through this spring without a touch of the complaint.

A young lady of the institution, who has been with us for years, has been troubled with a most aggravated rash ever since she was a child. She tried all the known remedies that are prescribed for it with no benefit; but she has been cured by taking Swift's Specific, and has no return of the trouble.

It is such an excellent tonic, and keeps the blood so pure, that the system is less liable to contract disease. All of the teachers and children who are old enough to know, agree with me in believing it is the greatest medicine known. My faith in it is unbounded, and I and my assistants take great pleasure in recommending it to every one. I can at all times be found at the Home, and will take pleasure in seeing or corresponding with any one who is interested in the remedy.
