Though such tobacco may serve a beneficial purpose, yet I would prefer to use the leaf before it has been manufactured. Again, the darker leaves being stronger are better than the light yellow leaves. Also leaves of the tobacco cut last year are better than these freshly cut in this season, as tobacco seems to gather atrength with age.

A bunch of these leaves thrown into a bowl of cold water will become moist and soft, so that the large stem in the centre may be taken out. Hot water will answer the purpose sooner than cold, but either will do.

When this has been done, not the control of the surgeon had pronounced the case hopeless, according to the published statement of a gentlaman, a cure was effected by the application of tobacco poultice to the atomach.

For cholera morbus, an application of tobacco to the stomach gives relief. A Senator teld me that when suffering from constipation most terribly he had two physicians with him for four days and nights, with no advantage from their remedies, and when the pain became so intolerable that he felt that he would not get through the night, remembering what I had told him about tobacco, he caused it to be applied to his side and back, and in half an hour he was relieved and immediately recovered.
