Enrman's Formula.

left, as an inheritance for his brother farmers, all the secrets of his success. E. T. Boykin, of Sampson. This formula is based upon true scientific investigation, and was practically tested by Mr. Furman for four years in succession. It is so simple that any farmer of ordinary intelligence can understand it; and its cheapness, as well as the fact that it is a perfect manure for cotton and corn, will commend it to every intelligent farmer. Now how many of the farmer readers of the Journal will try it the present year ?

Pay the Fiddier.

"He that dances must pay the fiddler," is the verdict adopted by common consent among people who demand that strict justice be meted out to all. The Democrats of this city had a glorious time over the election of Cleveland and Scales. 'The jubilee held here was second to none in the State. All hands joined in the demonstration, and all seemed to enjoy it hugely. But after the bills are footed up the committees pose that each member shall raise three dollars and hand in to the chairman of the finance committee by next Monday night, in order that the little debt incurred may be honorably discharged. We all danced, now let's pay the fiddier. The names of the committees are given elsewhere. Each one can raise his proportion by solicitations from his brother Democrats, or do what is still amount himself. The debt should be paid at once, and a little help from every Democrat would make it very light.

LONDON, December 31.—The Standard this morning publishes a dispatch from Madrid under the heading: "The Insolence of Germany." Referring to the less trouble, walk up and pay the whole failure of the protocol regarding the Sooloo Archipelago to receive signa-tures, it says: "There was a positive agreement on the part of three countries interested-Spain, England and Germany-to affix official signatures on Dec. 19. At the last moment, however," the dispatch continues. 'Count Von Salms Somenwalde, German plenipotentiary, in the usual recent high-handed style of German diplomats; produced the novel claims of Germany, showing a desire to infringe upon English and Spanish rights in Borneo, the Zooloo Islands. Germany he engages in mercantile business with has also given Spain to understand that she does not approve of the commercial concessions which Spain is making to England and the United States. Both Germany and France insist that their exports shall be admitted to the Spanish West Indies upon equal footing with exports from America. Spain is not disposed to yield to such snubbing. The probably correct theory as to how the disease originated there is now given by Dr. Purdy, of this city.

Last winter a passenger on an Erie Railway train broke out with the smallpox after the train had left Salamanca When the nature of the disease became known to the other passengers they hurridly deserted the car for another one. The car containing the man with the small-pox was placed on a siding when the train reached Hornelisville pier at Ludingtoh at 7 o'clock and quarantined. An old lady who yesterday morning. MADRID, Jan. 1 .- It is probable that King Affonso will visit Andalusia to personally inquire into the condition of the earthquake sufferers. Government delegates are visiting the scenes" ford relief to the sufferers. They found the roads knee deep in mud. Terrible gales have passed over the half-ruined villages. The delegates caused the bodies of those killed by the earthquake to be interred. Albunuelas presented an appalling sight; half of the town is completely ruined; the churches, the convent and the town hall were thrown to the ground. The inhabitants are gathered outside the town, where they are shivering around fires. Women and children are huddled together in carts and wagons. Sixty wounded persons are in a temporary hospital. One hundred and ninty-two corpses have been taken from the ruins, and active efforts are being made to receive the others. The mayor and several wealthy residents are among the victims. mayor's wife remained buried waist

Smyth, pay-master at Savannah, Ga., was a dispatch from the clerk at that office, which came to him yesterday, stating that Mr. Smyth drew $5,500 from the Merchant's National Bank of Savannah on Monday and had not been to the office but had been seen on Tuesday with his moustache shaved off riding in carriage on which was a new and cheap looking trunk, and that it was supposed he had left the city by the southern train and had gone to Florida. Gen. Rochester said that Col. Carey, of the paymaster general's office, has been directed to go to Savannah and to take charge of the office and papers there and will leave the city to-night for that purpose. He said also that about $5,000 was about the amount of government funds subject to Maj. Smith's draft more was subject to his draft in New York. He did not know whether

A Case without Hope.

Jno. R. Boker, of Macon, Ga., writes: 'In I878 I was attacked by the most ravenous sort of cancerous sores, that ate great holes into my flesh and spread rapidly over my body. I received the very best medical attention; was dosed with mercury and potash until I was so crippled with mercurial rheumatism that I could scarcely hobble about; my throat and mouth were badly ulcerated my hair began to fall out. So wrecked was my general health that I became a physical ruin and my life was a burden. For a long time I was bed-ridden, and my suffering was so intense that I prayed for death as a relief. I exhausted the whole catalogue of patent medicines, in each case following the directions religiously. Each in turn seemed to aggravate the malady, and none of them benefited me in any way. When life was apparently hopeless I com-menced taking S. S. S. To this Specific I owe my life. In ten days I commenced improving, and in a short time was perfectly well. My hair has grown out thick; my health and strength have returned; the ulcers in my throat and mouth are entirely cured; my appetite Specie has returned, and for the first time in years I enjoy my food. Every sore has disappeared from my body. I weigh as much as I ever did in my life, and am perfectly healthy in every way. The very germs of the cancerous affliction are destroyed. Not only is the terrible malady that was preving on my life, and which every one pronounced incurable. entirely cured, but I am also relieved of the bad effects of the mercury and potash mixtures that I was fed on for vears.
