The Board of City Council convenes to-night.

The County Commissioners were in session yesterday and adjourned until to-day.

The steamer Goldboro arrived yesterday morning with a cargo of general merchandise.

Schwerin & Ash are offering their stock at cost. Read their advertisement in this issue.

Auction sale to-day by Watson & Street at the store of Reel Bros., on South Front street. See "ad."

The skating rink opened last night at the Weinstein building, under the auspices of the Olympian Club. Lots of fun and good exercise.

Mr. Charles Toler of this county was at the Old Dominion wharf on Monday with two barrels of Scuppernong wine, which he ships to his son in Montgomery, Alabama.

S. W. Latham, Esq., saw a flock of fourteen bald eagles flying westwardly a few days ago. A friend suggests that they were bound for Raleigh to look after the carcasses of the defeated office seekers who will gather there upon the assembling of the Legislature.

Our public schools are opening, and our efficient Superintendent is determined to pass none but good and competent teachers. Our country schools need more money in order to keep them open four months in the year. There is a decided improvement in the class of teachers, and money is the only thing lacking to make the schools what they should be.

The oyster packing establishment started up again yesterday. Twelve boats were unloaded and between two hundred and fifty and three hundred hands were engaged in shucking. During the cold snap hands could not be procured to shuck, and it was rather too rough for the oystermen. While the market has been pretty well supplied for home consumption, but few have been offered at the factory. The few warm days last week gave the oystermen an opportunity to get out and load up, and if the weather continues favorable they will probably keep the canning factory going.

Pic Eating.

Our Swansboro correspondent gives an account of the "annual pic eating match" at that town on Tuesday night last. This must be an original game with the ancient town of Swansboro. Our "devil" suggests that there would be more fun in seeing a boy eat a boiled mallet with his hands tied behind him.

Another Vessel Ashore.

Mr. T. A. Henry, collector of customs at this port, received information last night that the barkentine Ephraim Williams, of New York, from Savannah, Ga., bound to Providence, R. I., lumber laden, went ashore on Hatteras shoals, north of the Cape on the evening of the 21st of December. Vessel and cargo a total loss. Crew saved by Life Saving Service.

Evangelical Alliance.

Union services will be held to-night in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, on Neuse street, at 7 o'clock. Subject for prayer and consideration: Humiliation and Confession.—On account of national sins and the increase of lawlessness; the non-recognition of God's judgments in public calamities; unfaithfulness to God and his truth; for personal transgressions; the growth of infidelity and superstition; desecration of the Lord's Day; with prayer that the Holy Spirit may convince of sin and lead men to repentance.

All are cordially invited to attend these meetings, and especially the young people.

Personal.

Hon. A. S. Seymour, Phil. Holland, Jr., Washington Bryan, Esq., and Representative I. B. Watson, of Hyde, left for Raleigh yesterday morning.

A. H. Chadwick, the Representative from Carteret, was in the city yesterday and leaves for Raleigh to-day.

Mr. J. J. Wolfenden is off to Greenville on a business trip.

Eminent Manly, Esq., accompanied by Messrs. F. M. Simmons, O. H. Gibson, J. H. Hackburn, Basil Manly, Capt. Matt. Manly, Misses Sadie and Maria Manly, and other friends, left yesterday morning for Richmond, where he is to be united by the holy bonds of matrimony this evening to Miss Emily Townes Buford. "May the blessings of Heaven rest upon them."

A. M. Baker requests us to give notice that he will sell no more goods on credit to any one. He sells very cheap but must have the cash.

The Theatre To-night.

The Standard Dramatic Co. will appear at the Theatre to-night in "My Partner." This Company has been here before and our people know something of its merits. It is highly complimented by the press everywhere; and we copy a few notices to show our readers something of the character of the play, and give them an idea of what they may expect at the Theatre to-night:

The New York Herald says: "My Partner is one of the best and most thrilling American dramas ever produced. It embodies pathos, comedy and music in one harmonious whole, and none of the characters are overdrawn."

The Chattanooga Times says: "My Partner, as played by the Standard Dramatic Co., was one of the theatrical successes of the season. From the rising of the curtain until the close, the audience was almost spell-bound. Every part was well sustained, and the play is natural and not overdrawn."

The Knoxville Tribune says: "No play has caught on this season like 'My Partner,' a drama of California life. In it you see the 'partners' so different and yet so true to each other. The Chinaman, with his smile so child-like and bland, the politician, the erring but true woman, and its peculiar incidental music; all going to make a most attractive bill. It was well played and very enjoyable."

A Useful Man.

Elder Henry Cunningham, of Trent township, Lenoir county, is a minister of the Free Will Baptist Church, has the pastoral care of several churches, which he attends with promptness and cultivates his farm too. The items we publish below show what a useful man he is in his community.

DEEP RUN ITEMS.

Married, on the 18th of December, at Mrs. Susan Grady's, in Trent township, Lenoir county, by Elder H. Cunningham, Mr. Blackledge Harper to Miss Puss Grady.

Married, on the 18th of December, at 4 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. James Davis, in Woodington township, by Elder H. Cunningham, Mr. John R. Gray, jr., to Miss Emma Reece.

Married, on 23d of December, at the residence of Isaac Stroud, in Trent township, by Elder H. Cunningham, Mr. Elbert Turner to Miss Susan Stroud.

Married, on 24th of December, at Mr. L. T. Daughety's, in Sand Hill township, by Elder H. Cunningham, Mr. Richard Doyey to Miss Mary E. Daughety.

Died, on December 2d, with congestion of the brain, Rachel White, daughter of John and Sallie White, aged 4 years. Funeral by Elder Cunningham.

Died, on December 5, Mrs. Mary Blizard, in the 80th year of her age. Funeral sermon by Rev. Cunningham.

Died, on December 13, with consumption, Mrs. Rhody Grant. Funeral services by Elder H. Cunningham.

Died, on December 14th, Mr. Lutson Stroud's little son, twenty months old. Funeral sermon by Rev. Henry Cunningham.

The Ill-Fated Stranger.

The case of the ill-fated stranger, the finding of whose body on the west side of the river was mentioned in our last, formed the general topic of conversation yesterday. During the forenoon Coroner Jacobs summoned a jury, composed of Elijah Lane, Thomas G. Pickett, Monroe Byrd, John D. Steljes, George F. Tilley and T. H. Betts, who viewed the body and heard such evidence as came before them, which agreed substantially with the account in yesterday's Star. The name on the bank book was L. B. Wicklaw. The verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death by committing suicide with a knife.

It is evident from all the facts and circumstances that the deceased was laboring under the effects of mental aberration at the time he took his life, and it is probable that he had been drinking to excess, as those who noticed him say he was very nervous. The ferrymen say they remember bringing him from the west to the east side of the river on one occasion, but that they never carried him over from this side. His effects, consisting of a gold watch and chain, a large heavy gold ring, a pair of gold sleeve buttons, a pair of gloves, two small combs, a small pocket mirror, a shoe button and key attached to a charm, and a fine overcoat, are in the possession of Coroner Jacobs.

The following telegrams were received yesterday:

SOUTH BEND, IND., Jan. 2, 12:15 P. M. David Jacobs, Coroner:

L. B. Waiklaw's relatives at Mishawaka, Ind., will instruct you. We have notified them.

SOUTH BEND NATIONAL BANK.

MISHAWAKA, IND., Jan. 2, 12:20 P. M. David Jacobs, Coroner:

Send description of L. B. Waiklaw, found dead, and how killed.

J. Z. WILKLAU.

The body was transferred to this side of the river yesterday afternoon, and subsequently interred in Oakdale Cemetery.

Late yesterday evening, after the interment, the following telegram was received by Coroner Jacobs:

MISHAWAKA, IND., Jan. 2, 1884.

To David Jacobs, Coroner:

Send remains here, in black cloth covered casket—cost forty dollars—by express, via American Express from Cincinnati. Send watch chain, ring, pocket-book, knife and contents of pockets in a package by express to me. He had a buff colored valise, overcoat and an extra suit of clothes. If found send.

J. Z. WILKLAU.
Agt. Am. Ex. Co.

Swansboro Items.

Elijah Sewell and family have moved in our town from Carteret county.

Dr. Blount and wife have gone on a visit to their old home and friends up the country for a short time.

Lieut. Darling, of the U. S. Service, and crew, are here surveying Bogue sound. They say the sound will be dredged out.

Mr. W. D. Harget has just returned from a trip to New York, where his wife has been for some time past, on a visit to her mother.

E. B. Harget is building a large store at Mr. G. W. Smith's place, (Smithville) where he expects to enlarge his already extensive business.

The community around are mourning the death of R. H. Jones, Esq. A good man has been called away from our midst, never to return.

Mr. Harry Mallette will commence a school here soon. He is a gentleman of ability, and we think he will succeed. He teaches music and dancing also.

The schooner Gold Leaf, Capt. Mattocks, is in port; so is the schooner Packet, Capt. Bloodgood. The former is bound for New Berne, with naval stores and cotton.

Capt. Heady went hunting on the Banks Saturday and among his many spoils, such as ducks, geese, herons, birds, etc., he brought in five large raccoons, the largest and fattest we ever saw.

Dr. Mallette and son, with a large crowd, visited the Banks this week; his second trip; was well pleased at the way we roast oysters on the Banks, but better pleased at the taste of them, from the way he and Harry put 'em out of sight.

M. Russell has just launched a fine flat for Mr. G. W. Smith. New in looks, though not entirely new. Russell can make anything look new in the way of a piece of wood work if he tries. He is a No. 1 ship, as well as house, builder.

Everything frozed up; the fish were added considerably and were caught by the thousands this week. Cpts. W. W. Dennis and A. W. Moore caught about 20,000 mullets a day or two ago, and Cpts. Joe Moore and M. Russell caught about 10,000; some times they sell very cheap.

Two young men representing themselves as sons of Mr. Geo. Weeks, liquor dealers of New York, were in town a few days ago. They said their father had broke, and they, not feeling disposed to go to work in that city, came South for employment. Billy and Charley were the names they gave, and were on their way to Wilmington, N. C.

Christmas and New Years fun about over with, but we had our share while going. On Tuesday night we had a grand party and pie-eating match among the young men and boys. Luther Taylor, about 18 years old, won the prize for fast eating; Ham Dennis second best. Luther ate his pie in 44 minutes. There were ten knights entered, all with hands tied behind them, pies placed on a low bench in the room, applicants on their knees. A funny sight after the finish; some with eyes and nose full of potatoe pie. Saturday night another dance, in which all enjoyed themselves till midnight. Present were ourselves first, of course; Dr. A. F. Mallette and son Harry, Mr. D. J. Sanders, and several other gents from the country, besides the pretty ladies. And Dave Ward, you should have seen him; he was more than lively; he said Santa Clause had brought him a baby boy; a real live baby; a 12 pounder; and no humbug; and it was so, and Dave is happy again.

HE DIDN'T CATCH ON.

In the days of old a young fellow stuttered and stammered and lay awake at nights, thinking how he should pop the question. We are quicker in this age, and I know one or two couples who never really mentioned it. They took it for granted that it was to be, and found themselves making an engagement to be married very much as if it had been an appointment to go to the theater.

"Div ye ken whit they're sayin'?" asks the blushing Scotch lassie of her backward wooer.

"No; whit is it?"

"They're sayin' we're gaun to be married."

"Are they? We'll cheat them," answers the laddie, and the blushes pale in the Caledonian cheeks.—San Francisco Chronicle.

An Editor's Experience.

After trying numerous remedies for Rheumatism, but without permanent relief, I was advised to use S. S. S., which had given permanent relief to others suffering from rheumatism. After taking half a dozen bottles I found that the disease was entirely driven out of my system, and a permanent cure secured. This was over a year ago, and since then, even during the most severe weather, with sudden changes, I have never suffered a return of the old attacks which disabled me from editorial work.

It is very seldom, indeed, that I recommend anything to the public in this manner, but I feel it due to your valuable preparation, that has given me such long desired and much needed relief, to state these facts thus publicly. I am sure that but for your Specific, I should have been laid aside from journalistic work, as the severest attack was in my right arm and hand.

STATE NEWS.

Gleaned from our Exchanges.

Carteret Telephone.

Several parties have arrived here from the North to spend a portion of the winter. By this means they escape the rigors of their climate and enjoy the sports of the huntsman to the fullest extent.—Mr. John Lewis, on Tuesday last, killed, at one shot, 25 red head raft ducks.—Mrs. Polly Moyer, an aged resident of Beaufort, died on Saturday morning last quite suddenly. She was buried on the following day.

Franklin Times: A friend tells us that Mr. Jim Davis is the champion rabbit hunter of Franklin county. He, with several others, killed at two hunts 50 "Mollies." By the end of the season, it is supposed that he will have murdered thousands.—Mr. Orren Evans, son of Mr. Matthew Evans and aged about 22 years, dropped dead, while manning, one day last week. He was in the prime of life, and apparently a very healthy man.

Wilson Advance.

Mr. Silas Lucas killed a hog last Friday weighing 510 pounds.—The bells were tolled at 12 o'clock Wednesday night. Some of our best citizens thought the town was on fire.—We saw the other day a piece of Washington monument with Mr. Vernon, the home of Washington, painted on it. It was a novelty. Another curiosity was a shoe made out of currency redeemed at the United States Treasury. The currency was originally worth $3,000.

Asheville Advance.

Yesterday morning Sheriff Rich received from the Governor an unconditional pardon for Jasin Cunningham who has been in jail under a four months sentence since the last term of the Superior Court.—Yesterday morning an old colored woman by the name of Nerve Miller, aged about 53 years, living in that locality known as "Blue Rain," dropped dead in her house. Upon inquiry we found the deceased was in apparent good health engaged in conversation around the fireside, when she suddenly fell over and expired.

Statesville Landmark.

From September 1, 1884, the beginning of the cotton year, to January 1, 1885, receipts of cotton at this place amounted to 1,955 bales.—On Christmas day Burt Rector, who lined alone with a son in Miller's township, Alexander county, went off and got a jug of whiskey, and that night his neighbors discovered his dwelling in flames. The first on the scene got there just as it was falling in, and for sometime it was supposed that Rector had perished in the fire, but presently he was found behind the chimney, having crawled out of the fire, and lived long enough to tell where his whiskey was hid. Death ensued in about two hours. The unhappy man had lain down in front of the fire-place, and his clothing catching fire fired the building. His son was from home at the time.

Tarboro Southerner.

The cotton crop of this county will not be less than thirty-five thousand bales. Careful estimates from every section of the county show that the average yield per acre was considerably in excess of 3 bales.—Our merchants say that the people of the county are in a better condition than they have been at any time since the war. Mr. O. C. Farrar says that the indebtedness of the people has been greatly reduced, that not only have the accounts made for the year just closed been paid but that old accounts are settled with flattering promptness. There is, he says, not only more money remaining in the hands of the farmers but they have made more corn fodder, grasses and small grain than in very many years. Trade for the ensuing year will, in his opinion be good, but there will be but little extravagance.

Sweet Gum and Mullein.

The sweet gum, as gathered from a tree of the same name, growing along the small streams in the Southern States, contains a stimulating expectorant principle that loosens the phlegm producing the early morning cough, and stimulates the child to throw off the false membrane in croup and whooping cough. When combined with the healing mucilaginous principle in TAYLOR'S CHEROKEE REMEDY OF SWEET GUM AND MULLEIN, the finest known remedy for Coughs, Croup, Whooping Cough and Consumption; and so palatable, any child is pleased to take it. Ask your druggist for it. Send two-cent stamp for Taylor's Riddle Book, which is not only for the amusement of the little ones who will gather around your knee to hear the puzzling questions, but containing information for the health and welfare of every home.

WALTER A. TAYLOR, Atlanta, Ga.

To any body who has disease of throat or lungs, we will send proof that Pisco's Cure for Consumption has cured the same complaints in other cases. Address, E. T. HAZELTINE, Warren, Pa.
