PUBLIC ROADS.

DOSSEY BATTLE has two hobbies which he is, through the Southerner, vigorously shoving under the eyes of the members of the General Assembly.

The JOURNAL, in its youth, bronched the subject of public roads and took the ground that the present plan of working them was a system of involuntary servitude forbidden by the Constitution.

The JOURNAL, in its youth, bronched the subject of public roads and took the ground that the present plan of working them was a system of involuntary servitude forbidden by the Constitution.

Mr. Bason—Bill to amend section 1882, of the Code, relative to malicious injury to personal property.

Mr. Connor—Bill repealing section 1245, of the Code, and requiring the registration of deeds.

Mr. Chadbourne (by request)—Bill preventing the running at large of live stock in New Hanover county.

Mr. Gallin—Bill amending section 3736 of the Code, relative to the salary of the auditor, increasing it in accordance with recommendations of the Governor in his message.

Mr. Thompson—Bill repealing section 3424 of the Code, relative to fish in White Oak and New rivers.

Mr. Thomas—Bill providing for the better keeping in repair of the public roads in the State.

Mr. Troy—Bill to secure the right of appeal to the people of the State.

Mr. Todd—Bill amending the constitution of the State Judiciary.

The president announced the following committees:

Salaries and fees: Messrs. Bason, Sherrill, Graham, Connor, Poole, Rountree and Chadbourne.

Deal, Dumb and Blind Institutions: Messrs. Thompson, Mason, Twitty, Troy, Sherrill, Kennedy and Chadbourne.

Insurance: Messrs. Winston, Todd, Perry, Scott, Alexander, Horne and White.

Corporations: Messrs. Cowan, Todd, Troy, Guder, Lewis, Scott and Swain.

Privileges and Elections: Messrs. Gatling, Todd, Graham, Horne, Parker, Holeman and Taylor.

Propositions and Grievances: Messrs. Robbins, Todd, Parker, Dotson, Leak, Winston and Thomas.

The bill to repeal section 3424 of the Code, relative to fishing in certain waters in Onslow county, was taken up and put upon its readings.

Mr. Poole desired its reference to the proper committee. Mr. Williams took the same view. Mr. Hill said he saw no objection to passing the bill.

Mr. Bond said he represented the district in which are the great fishing interests of the State. He feared that the adoption of this bill would become a precedent for hasty legislation on this subject.

Mr. Gatling said there were two reasons why he favored it; one being that it was a purely local matter, and the other that the people regarded the right of fishing as being as broad and deep as the ocean itself, and that they disliked restrictions in any shape.

Mr. Poole thought the matter should be referred to the committee on fish interests.

Mr. Simmons favored the passage of the bill considering it a local matter.

Mr. Bond thought that it was not a local matter, but that matters relative to the fish interests would be among the most important which would come before the body this session.

Mr. Mason said he fully agreed with Mr. Bond in his regard for the fishing interest, and that he with him appreciated its importance, but that he called to his mind necessarily go in marketing his produce. The strain on both is something terrible and not at all conducive to durability—in struggling out of holes and in the mud.

SHOULD READ
BRADSTREET'S
A Weekly Journal of Trade, Finance, and Public Economy.

Sixteen Pages every Saturday. Oftentimes Twenty Pages. Sometimes Twenty-four Pages.
FIVE DOLLARS A YEAR.

The foremost purpose of BRADSTREET'S is to be of practical service to business men. Its special trade and industrial reports; its weekly epitomes of bankruptcies throughout the United States and Canada, and the summaries of assets and liabilities, are alone worth the subscription price. Its synopses of recent legal decisions are exceedingly valuable. As convenient transactions, in the wider sense, are coming to be more and more complicated on a statistical basis, the information contained in its summaries is of the first importance both to producers and middlemen.

The trade and agricultural situation throughout the United States and Canada is reported by telegraph to Bradstreet's up to the hour of publication.
