March.

Eggs dropped to 18c. yesterday.

The dock at the fish wharf is being repaired.

Dail Bros. advertise a fine lot of hay for sale.

The last day of February was the prettiest.

Several carts were in with cotton yesterday.

Washington City will be the center of attraction this week.

The Legislature has only fourteen more pay days to work.

Lewis Washington, the house mover, is in the city and has put some of the old houses on wheels.

Duffy & Ives have determined to close out their stock. See notices elsewhere for extremely low prices.

Several boats arrived at the market dock yesterday evening bringing oysters, potatoes, turnips, cabbage, poultry, etc.

We are indebted to Robert Hancock, Jr., for a copy of Sargent's maps which accompany his report on the forest trees of North America.

The schooner Mary S., Jim Berry, from Juniper Bay, and the Havana, E. H. Spencer, from Engelhard, arrived yesterday evening with corn, oats and beef cattle.

Shad were plentiful in the market yesterday. The hucksters make a strong effort to keep up fancy prices but a few more days' run like yesterday and the price will come down.

George Credle, Esq., left yesterday morning for Washington City. His baggage consisted of a large valise, the contents of which he said were an old pair of trousers and one hundred and fifty petitions.

Bro. London, of the Chatham Record, thinks the arrangement of the judicial districts as reported by the committee is about the best that can be made. He has not examined the map lately. There are several counties lying between Craven and Halifax.

The dogs and sheep have had another scrimmage before the Legislature and the dogs won as usual. The bill to tax dogs and promote sheep husbandry was indefinitely postponed by the House. That House ought to hear a lecture from Dossey Battle.

The Democratic Executive Committee of Craven county held a meeting at Chairman Wood's office for the purpose of memorializing the General Assembly in regard to the judicial districts. If the members of the Assembly are determined to do right, there is no need for this meeting.

We direct attention to the notice of a meeting relative to hotels. The great need of such establishments is acknowledged by all. We hope to see good buildings erected on suitable sites, a number of which we have in our city, so that Northern tourists may be induced to visit our city; for we feel convinced that if they would come and we could give them suitable accommodations, they would stay with us and spend their money. Give our present hotel-keepers suitable buildings, well located, and they would show what they can do. New Berne, with its great natural attractions, would become a sanatorium, a rendezvous for refugees from the adversity of Northern winters. These now pass us by, because we cannot give them such accommodations as they demand. We must bait our hook to suit the fancy of the fish we desire to catch.

Postponed.
Owing to the fact that many of our firemen wish to attend the inauguration of President Cleveland, the annual firemen's parade has been again postponed until March 10th.

Personal.
Mrs. R. A. Edwards of Philadelphia is in the city visiting her mother, Mrs. R. F. Lehman.

Messrs. H. W. Wahab and Geo. Credle, two of Hyde county's prominent farmers, left for the inauguration yesterday morning.

Death of a Prominent Man in Wilmington.

The Star has the following notice in the issue of the 27th:

Mr. Edward Kidder was a member of the Chamber of Commerce from its earliest formation before the late war, continuing in uninterrupted connection with the same to his death.

A meeting of the Chamber will be held this day, at 12 noon, at the rooms of the Produce Exchange, which have been appropriately draped in mourning, to pay a suitable tribute to his departed worth and make arrangements to attend his funeral in a body.

Bill Passed.

The bill to allow the city of New Berne to issue bonds for the indebtedness and for certain improvements has passed both Houses of the General Assembly and is now a law. It was amended in the Senate so as to make the coupons receivable in payment of taxes, and also to prohibit the issue of the bonds unless they can be placed at their face value. We presume there will be no trouble in exchanging the bonds for the present indebtedness, but whether or not money can be obtained on those for city improvements is yet to be ascertained.

Notice!!!

A meeting of strangers and sojourners will be held at the CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, on the 20th inst., at 7 a. m., to take into consideration the propriety and feasibility of erecting one or more hotels in the city of New Berne. Speeches are expected from Messrs. Leland, Delmonico and Laurent. Plans and specifications will be submitted by Mr. Maxwell, architect of the court house; and Prof. Bossert will exhibit a scheme by which the stockholders, without the payment of any money, will receive a large yearly dividend. A full attendance is requested and the citizens are cordially invited.

ANNAPOLIS, Feb. 25.—A dozen Naval Academy cadets, who committed a breach of discipline by going skating without permission, were to-day put under arrest on board the prison ship Santee, with all their privileges taken away. Their imprisonment will last a month.

THE NEW ORLEANS EXPOSITION.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 22, 1885.

Our conversation, the rest of the evening, as you may well imagine, was principally about Siam and the Siamese. Tom Clarke says their delegation numbers twenty or thirty; that our dapper friend and three or four others seem to be commissioners and consequently men of leisure, while the others were daily engaged in inspecting and studying machinery and agricultural implements and in attending to their exhibit, which is extensive and very interesting. Our commerce with that country is important. We send them machinery, firearms, cutlery, agricultural implements, and cotton goods; and receive in exchange, tin, gums such as gum-arabic and the pigment gamboge, ivory, and spices such as nutmeg, allspice, cinnamon, cloves, and black pepper, which last grows on a vine like our bramble; a large number of rare and valuable woods such as red dye-woods, the sweet-scented eaglewood, sandalwood, rosewood, ironwood, ebony, and also gutta-percha, which is the inspissated sap of the taban tree. They have a tree which being tapped, as we do our sugar maple, yields several gallons of oil each. They also export large quantities of rice, tobacco, indigo, and sugar and molasses, the last mostly produced by Scotch immigrants who run almost all of their large sugar plantations. Coal, and petroleum springs, which seem inexhaustible, abound. Siam is the southernmost portion of Asia; with the exception of the peninsula of Malacca, whose great shipping port, Singapore, is to India what New York is to the United States. Siam lies between the Sea of China on the east, and the Bay of Bengal on the west, and consequently is most conveniently situated for commerce. Lying between the parallels of 4° North, and 27° North, it is mostly within the torrid zone; but the heat is tempered by the proximity of the ocean. Here we find the due admixture of heat and moisture to stimulate vegetation to the utmost; and the flora of Siam, we may well conceive, is equal to Eden. The balmy breezes are fragrance-laden, and the voyager, far out at sea, is refreshed by the odorous air.

Siam is about eight times as large as North Carolina, being 1,200 miles long and 350 miles wide. The population is estimated at ten millions. Bangkok, the capital, contains 400,000 inhabitants. The people resemble the Chinese, but they have a richer color, and are more vigorous and energetic; which characteristic is attributed to a large infusion of Cambodian blood. The Cambodians more nearly approach the Caucasians than any of the colored races. The Siamese are a gentle, peaceable, industrious and honest nation.

The present King of Siam is a man of considerable culture and advanced ideas, which have been improved by travel. He had for governess an English lady, Mrs. Leonowens, who resided at the court of Siam about eight years, and educated the King's children. Mrs. Mary Bayard Clarke met this lady frequently, a few years since, in Chicago, and received from her many interesting narratives of her stay in Muang Tahi (the kingdom of the free) as the Siamese delight to style their country.

I imagine that our friend is attracted to North Carolinians by the fact that the famous Siamese twins made our State their home, after seeing most of the world, and died there in the year 1874. This singular lusus nature was two young men, about the size of our friend, and resembling him in color, as well as I recollect. They were bound together by a grisly, flexible band, extending from the lower part of the breast-bone of each, about four inches long and an inch and a half in thickness, and it was supposed that their life was joint, but from the inspection I made of them I did not think so. They were named Chang and Eng. They married in Wilkes county, N. C., two sisters, and raised a large family who live there now. One of them survived the other several hours, and then died, most probably of fright.

But alas for Siam! "though every prospect pleases, man alone is vile." In heathenish blindness they worship the white elephant, or adhere to the tenets of Buddhism, which teaches that there is no being superior to man, that death is annihilation, or, if there is an immortal soul, it is liable to metempsychosis or transmigration. And of this persuasion is one-third of the human race, while only one twenty-sixth are nominal Christians.

I turn from this dismal subject to give you an account of our dinner at Laurent's, although my letter is already too long. When we arrived, Monsieur L., a small Frenchman about fifty years of age, who spoke English with a strong accent, met us, and greeted Tom Clarke, whom he knew, effusively. Then he called out, Voila Annette! voila Elise! and two fine, rosy-cheeked, merry French girls, neatly dressed and wearing pretty, white aprons, came running to him. They conducted us into a beautiful, well-lighted dining-room, and we sat down to a table well furnished with plate and covered with a snowy-white table-cloth. Then they brought five small wine glasses filled with cognac, which Mons. L. insisted on our drinking with him for better acquaintance. The liquor was excellent, and I felt it tingle in the ends of my toes. To Tom, being acquainted and speaking French, was entrusted the ordering of the menu. He took the bill of fare and read bouillon de poisson (fish soup); then cotelette de veau (veal cutlet); then grenouille fricasse (fried frogs); when he got there Tom Matthews exclaimed, "Stop there, Tom, no green owls for me; nothing would induce me to eat one. I know they have no lions to boil; and if they had they would not poison them; but I have seen lots of those green owls in the fruit stores, and God forgive me, if ever I eat one." He had seen green parquets which are quite common. We had no little laugh when Matthews' mistake was explained. We found the bouillon very good, and it was quite a cheap dish, costing only fifteen cents a plate. It is made of fish-heads—shad and rock, and vegetables. We had the articles named, potommes de terre en robe (Irish potatoes with the skins on), a salad, fruits, and an excellent cup of coffee; and wound up with a bottle of pale sherry and a cigar, and the cost to each of us was only one dollar. At one of our restaurants it would have been three times as much. I went to bed about twelve o'clock, and slept so soundly that I did not dream of Siam, and green owls, or the pretty French girls.

Truly yours,
ACKLER (Phoja).

Carteret County Items.

[From Telephone.]

Clams have, for a week or two past, brought 40 cents per bushel, and we have heard of one man who makes from two to four dollars per day catching them.

We apprehend many of our farmers will be pushed for time this spring, as the cold weather has prevented them from doing anything so far, except cut wood and keep the fire going.

A large dredge boat was towed up to the anchorage in the harbor, on Saturday last, by the steam tug Spring Garden. She will be taken to Savannah, Ga., to be employed in harbor improvement by the Government.

Several notices have appeared on the bulletin board during the past week, of firms in town who have dissolved co-partnership. We believe the business will continue in each and every instance, by some one of the several firms.

We learn that the contract for carrying the mail between Beaufort and Morehead City was awarded to a non-resident of the State, who, knowing nothing of the trouble and peril attending the faithful delivery on either side, took the contract for about one-fourth of the amount the work is really worth.

A sale of property at public auction took place in Beaufort on Monday last. The water lot in front of the Ocean View hotel, and house and lot adjoining that property on the east, lately occupied by Mr. Pritchard, were disposed of, Mr. W. F. Dill becoming the purchaser of both. This gives him an opportunity to enlarge and improve his hotel and make it doubly attractive.

The Farming Interest.

We suggested to our Legislators some weeks ago the propriety of doing something for North Carolina's great agricultural industry, in order to arrest the tide of emigration from the farm to the town shop. We supposed that offering premiums for crop products would have a direct influence in producing the effect. Some of our brethren of the Press say it would be unconstitutional. If so it would be fatal, and without examination, we doubt. But our suggestion was merely to call the attention of our legislators to the necessity of some legislative action that would be of immediate practical effect.—Elizabeth City Economist.

A Stock Law for New Hanover.

Many of the counties are having a stock law passed for their benefit. New Hanover is interested in this law. We do not doubt in the least that a decided majority of the fence builders and land owners favor such a law. We believe that if an election was held restricting the right of ballot to fence builders that the no-fence law would be carried overwhelmingly. Why should not the wishes of those interested be consulted? Why should men who do not own a foot of land and who do not have the expense and trouble of building fences have a voice in a matter of so much importance to others. If the Legislature would give heed to what the Star says it would pass the stock-law bill now before it. This bill authorizes a stock law when a majority of the fence-builders shall petition to the county commissioners for such a law. Why is not that fair? What just man will say nay?—Wm. Star.

Firemen's Notice for March, 1885.

At the sound of the fire alarm both steamers will proceed to the fire and go to work at once, without further orders. This order to take effect at 12 o'clock, midnight, February 28th, and continue during the month of March.

Delicate Women.

I have been using for a month or two in my household Swift's Specific, the greater portion of it having been consumed by the female portion of my family, and with the happiest results. It acted like a charm on my wife, who had been in bad health for a long time, and for whom I had paid hundreds of dollars for doctors and medicines. It began to build her up from the first dose. Another female member of my family took it up with equally satisfactory results. It is certainly the best tonic for delicate ladies that I have ever used, and I have tried them all. I have no doubt that want of exercise, close confinement in poorly ventilated houses, sewer gas poison and malarial poison often produce sickness among our wives, daughters and sisters, and I believe Swift's Specific is the remedy for all this sort of blood poisoning. I know many of the best families of this county are using it for this purpose, and I have never known or heard of any failure to give entire satisfaction. I have known the remedy a long time. I know it to be entirely vegetable, and the best tonic and alterative, especially for females.

F. L. JONES, J. P., Quitman, Ga.

General Debility.

For several years past my wife's health has been exceedingly feeble—general break down of the nervous system. She was greatly reduced in flesh. No remedy seemed to do her any good. In the spring of 1883 I induced her to try Swift's Specific. The first bottle gave her hope and twenty bottles produced wonderful results. She gained thirty pounds in flesh and it renovated her whole system. It is certainly the greatest tonic in the world.

FARMERS! PLANT LESS LAND, And Make More Cotton, BY BUYING FONVIELLE'S Selected Cotton Seed!

I have for sale Fifty Bushels DUNCAN'S Prolific Cotton Seed; Fifty Bushels JONES'S Seed, and One Hundred Bushels DICKSON'S Improved Seed. Each one of these Seed have their advantages.

The Duncan Seed is a Long Limbed Cotton, very prolific, and the largest balled cotton I have ever seen, and suits rich land or land well manured, and ought to be planted four to five feet between the rows and two feet on the row one stalk to the hill. If so planted it will make, beyond a doubt, more cotton than any cotton planted or ever was planted in the South.

The Jones Cotton has, also, long limbs, beginning to branch at or near the ground. Large, pointed bolls, holds the cotton in storms, yet not hard to pick out. Short jointed, which makes the bolls thick on stalk, and the earliest cotton I have ever planted. Last year it was all open and picked out by the 20th of October, and not a boll opened after. It is at least three weeks earlier than any cotton I ever was acquainted with.

The Dickson Cotton, all know what the pure, selected seed are. Suffice it to say they are all as good and as prolific as I have ever sold the seed of.

The Seed I offer for sale this year are all Selected Seed, and in every particular as the seed were, of which Capt. A. G. Mosley, Isham R. Faison, W. M. Hurst, Dr. Matthew Moore and D. J. Middleton of Duplin county, and L. W. Harget, Frank Thompson, A. J. Murrill, Solomon Gornto, W. H. Hurst and A. Hurst, jr., of Onslow county, said: These seed are the most PROLIFIC and the BEST cotton planted in our section of the State, and we unhesitatingly say, the seed raised and sold to us by Col. E. W. Fonvielle are the best we have ever planted or ever seen grow.

☞ If I can't sell the best I shall sell none.

PRICE OF SEED:

Duncan & Jones Seed—
Two bushels and under..... $3.00
Five bushels and over..... 1.50
Dickson Seed—
Two bushels and under..... 2.00

Those wishing to buy had best order at once. If the seed they order should be sold I will send their money back in registered letter.

Registered letters, with funds to pay for seed, at my risk only.

I will sack and mark, as I may be directed, and pay freight to Wilmington and have them shipped by railroad or express as I may be directed.
