BUSINESS LOCALS.

100 barrels Rock Lime just received.
GEO. ALLEN & Co.

Was your printed stationery burned during the late fire? If it was, you can have it supplied at the JOURNAL office on short notice and at low rates.

Dr. JAS. F. LONG has located in the Cooper building, next to the Brinson building and opposite Mr. H. R. Bryan's office, on South Front. 14 6t

The JOURNAL office is in receipt of a handsome lot of Envelopes. Call round if you are in need of any and have them printed nicely.

The bond question is receiving attention now.

"The fish have all gone radical," said a dealer yesterday.

New Berne Lodge, No. 443, Knights of Honor, meets to-night.

The schooner Annie Wahob is on Howard's ship railway for repairs.

The fire rubbish has been cleaned off of the sidewalk on Middle street.

The cabbage crop is almost a complete failure with the New Berne truckers this season.

The fish dealers complain of the poor run of shad, and in fact of the scarcity of fish generally.

The insurance agents say the wood awnings in front of the brick buildings must go—or, we suppose, the insurance companies will go.

L. H. Cutler now holds forth at the 'Old Fellows' building, nearly opposite the old stand, with his fire stock, which he wants to get rid of.

It is now ascertained that the pea crop is not damaged by the late cold snap. Radishes have been slightly damaged on light land.

Maj. Dennison has repaired the damages to his turpentine distillery by fire recently, and is distilling turpentine again when it comes to market.

Two cases of disorderly conduct before the Mayor yesterday. They were required to pay the cost, and contribute five dollars each to the street funds.

Mr. O. Marks is in the Northern markets, and every steamer brings large boxes of goods, which are being opened at his store. He will be on in a few days, and tell the people all about it through the columns of the JOURNAL.

Personal.

J. C. Herring is in the city looking after his brick machinery. He will begin operations shortly.

R. G. Mallett, of Riverdale, was in the city yesterday, and reported the pea crop all right in his neighborhood.

Market For Owl Heads.

We have been shown a breast-pin made of an owl's head. However odd it may sound, yet it is true that an owl's head may be converted into a jewel. The one shown us was sent from Bayboro—that is, the owl's head—and the work of transforming it into a useful ornament was done by Mrs. M. D. Morgan, of this city. What is it that human ingenuity cannot accomplish?

Assignments.

Smith & Credle, hardware dealers, have assigned to Dr. Wm. Pell Ballance. The heavy loss sustained by the late fire drives the firm to take this step for the benefit of their creditors.

Samuel Hudson, general merchant, of Pollockville, has assigned to C. E. Foy of this city.

Samuel J. Hudson, general merchant, of Pollockville, has assigned to Dr. N. H. Street.

Apprehended and Killed.

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon a JOURNAL reporter was attracted by a small crowd of people on Middle street, near Federal alley, and upon investigation found that City Marshal Harget, with his aid C. A. Nine, had apprehended the notorious R. O. Dent, and his brother, who had been committing depredations recently, to the terror of the people in that locality; these parties have been guilty of burglariously entering various houses and purloining articles of groceries, and destroying household goods, etc.

Upon the appearance of the Marshal the culprits took refuge under a pile of lumber in front of a burnt building, the former summoned a number of bystanders who stationed themselves so as to prevent their escape, while the Marshal's aid went under the lumber to make the arrest; they refused, however, to surrender, and it became necessary to use force in their capture, but fearing injury from these desperate characters the aid was compelled to insert his teeth, and the result: two dead rats, which was "bully for the terrier."

Register.

Those who wish to have a voice in the matter of bonding the city debt must see that their names are on the registration book. We republish the list of registrars and inspectors and the places at which the election is to be held:

1st Ward—At W. G. Brinson's office.
J. U. Smith, registrar; James Lewis and Dr. H. G. Bates, inspectors.

2d Ward—At City Clerk's late office.
R. D. Hancock, registrar; Edward Gerock and D. N. Kilburn, inspectors.

3d Ward—At Pavia's shop. E. J. Matthews, registrar; W. R. Guion and James Manwell, inspectors.

4th Ward—At Lane's shop. H. B. Lane, registrar; F. G. Simmons and Isaac Richardson, inspectors.

5th Ward—At E. G. Hill's office. E. B. Hackburn, registrar; Leinster Duffy and Robt. Mosely, inspectors.

Kinston Items.

No candidates for Aldermen yet.
No corn planted yet in this section.
"D. R. Walker" was in town Tuesday, looking healthy.
"Winter lingers in the lap of spring"—all except the spring.
Another snow on Sunday night; this time, three-quarters of an inch deep.
A tramp was arrested in town Saturday night. A door key was found in his pocket.
Jacob Langston, said to have been the oldest citizen in Lenoir county, died last week, aged about 100 years.
Rev. C. H. Wiley, of Winston, lectured on Monday night, in the Methodist Church. Subject: The Bible Cause.
Married, at the residence of Mr. George Webb, in Kinston, on Monday, the 23d inst., Mr. Lem Mewborne and Mrs. Augustus Mosely.
The Mayor of our town gives permission to citizens to shoot birds within the corporate limits, during snowy weather. In consequence of this, many hundreds of robins have been knocked into "pies."
Bob Strong, perhaps, has done most execution among the birds.
The Y. M. C. A. has rented the Knights of Honor Lodge room, in which to hold their business and devotional meetings. The regular business meetings are held on alternate Monday nights, and the devotional meetings in one of the churches at 4 p. m., Sundays.

North Carolina Day at the New Orleans Exposition.

The R. & D. R. R. has reduced the rate of fare from the following points to New Orleans and return. Tickets will be sold only March 29, 30 and 31, the limit being three days in each direction, tickets to be good fifteen days after date of sale: From Asheville, $21.75; Statesville, $21.75; Goldsboro, $25.00; Raleigh, $25.00; Greensboro, $33.30; Salisbury, $21.75; Charlotte, $20.50. Tickets read by Charlotte, Montgomery and Mobile, and by Charlotte, Atlanta and Birmingham, to New Orleans.—News and Observer.

News from Washington.

WASHINGTON, March 24.—The President sent the following nominations to the Senate today: Henry L. Muldrow, of Mississippi, to be assistant secretary of the interior; Wm. A. J. Sparks, of Illinois, commissioner of the general land office; Daniel McConville, of Ohio, to be auditor of the treasury for the postoffice department.

The meeting of the cabinet to-day was attended by all the members except the attorney-general, who was engaged at the supreme court. Secretaries Manning and Whitney remained in consultation with the President for sometime after the other members had departed. It is understood that the session was devoted to the consideration of appointments to be made before the adjournment of the Senate.

A committee, consisting of Joseph Packard and Wm. Winchester, representing the civil service reform association of Maryland, waited on the secretary of the treasury to-day and presented him with a copy of the resolutions recently adopted by that association, protesting against the appointment of Eugene Higgins as chief of the appointment division of the treasury department. The secretary promised to give the matter due consideration.

Edwin J. Keighly, third auditor of the treasury, to-day tendered his resignation to the President, to take effect April 1st. It is expected that the office will be filled in a few days. Judge Keighly is a native of Indiana and was appointed to his present office by President Hayes in March, 1879. He is an active politician and took part in the last Presidential campaign in the interest of the Republican ticket. He resigned at the request of Secretary Manning.

Senate—The Senate reassembled to-day at noon and the vice-president laid before it several communications and memorials relating to matters in the Western States and Territories. At 12:10 the Senate went into secret session, for the purpose, it is supposed, of considering the Weil and La Abra treaty with Mexico.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.
WASHINGTON, D. C., March, 1885.
P. H. PELLETIER, Eq.

DEAR SIR—Yours of 7th received. Some of the best and most reliable business men here say that the directors of the NATIONAL LIFE and MATURITY ASSOCIATION, of Washington, D. C., are good, substantial and reliable, and financially safe. They think the association sound and not a fraud.

Yours truly,
T. G. SKINNER.

CLIPPINGS.

Boston has a drunkard who has been sentenced to the House of Industry 100 times for drunkenness. The last sentence was imposed about a week ago.

A Milford, Mass., shoemaker has just made a pair of shoes for a young woman named Fanny Mills, of Sandusky. They are numbered 29, are eighteen inches long, and seven inches wide at the ball of the foot.

A rich citizen of Lemberg, noted for his gallantry, died recently and left by his will 1,500 florins to the handsomest woman in the town. The will says that the judges of the fair contestants must ignore the question of morality in rendering their decision.

Florida oranges are being exported from Boston to Liverpool in large quantities. A lot of 100 boxes, which were shipped some three weeks ago, arrived in good condition, and were sold at satisfactory prices, although they came in competition with the Mediterranean oranges, which are sold in England at low prices.

A flea, one-sixteenth of an inch in length, can jump a distance of twenty inches. This is 320 times its length. The common gray rabbit jumps about nine feet clear on the level ground. In proportion to length a horse, to jump as far as a rabbit, would have to clear 64 feet at a jump. There is no quadruped that has such powerful muscles in his quarters as the rabbit, and none excel him in the muscles of his join and back.

A Skye terrier, owned by a gentleman from Baltimore, proved one day recently that it could feel ashamed of a dishonest act. The master had always treated the terrier well—in fact, it had never been punished. On the day in question the gentleman was at his table. The little Skye saw a cutlet near the edge of the board, and yielded to the temptation to steal the meat. The cutlet was slyly seized and taken under the sofa. The gentleman pretended not to see the act of theft. But the conscience of the little terrier soon got the better of its hunger. It brought the cutlet back, laid it at the feet of its master, hung its head in shame, and slunk away.

Not long ago one of Barnum's elephants was found to be in danger of losing its sense of sight. A surgeon who had been called to examine the huge animal declared that if the elephant could be induced to submit to an operation the eye could be saved. Accordingly the poor animal was tied down, and some caustic fluid was dropped into one of his eyes. He roared with pain, for the treatment was severe. On the following day the eye that had been treated was much better, but the surgeon thought he was going to have a terrible time in operating on the other eye. Fancy his surprise to find that as soon as the great beast heard his voice he stretched himself on the ground and peacefully submitted to the painful ordeal. The elephant had simply recognized the skill and friendly purpose of his benefactor.

The object that attracts most attention from strangers in the neighborhood of the town of Butte, Colorado, is a team of tame deer. These pets were caught when very young, in the hunting grounds called the Big Meadows. Their captor was an Indian, named Buckhorn, a guide and trapper of the Digger tribe. Indeed, Buckhorn is a man of authority among his people, being the head chief of the Diggers in the vicinity of the Big Meadows. He owns a drove of ponies, but prefers to ride behind his deer. The animals are quite docile. They have large antlers, and as they hold their heads high, the team, when hitched to a buckboard wagon, present a very imposing appearance. The harness does not contain a buckle or clasp; it is made of buckskin from halter to hame strings. The deer are fleet of foot, of course, and it is the boast of Chief Buckhorn that they can outrun any other team.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 23.—The President to-day sent to the Senate the following nominations: Envoys extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary of the United States: Edwin J. Phelps, of Vermont, to Great Britain; Robert M. McLane, of Maryland, to France; George H. Pendleton, of Ohio, to Germany; Henry R. Jackson, of Georgia, to Mexico; Maebenas E. Benton, of Missouri, United States attorney for the western district of Missouri.

GENERAL NEWS.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 24.—Judge Gresham in the United States circuit court this morning granted a writ of error in the case of Mackin and Gallagher, who were convicted of election frauds. They were admitted to bail in the sum of $50,000 each. In reviewing the case Judge Gresham said he considered the questions raised sufficiently grave to warrant him in granting a writ of error; his ruling, however, was not to be taken to mean that he would overrule the findings of the district court on the final hearing.

BALTIMORE, Md., March 24.—A letter from southwest Virginia to the Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore, speaking of the alleged large emigration of well-to-do people from that section, states that the report is not correct. The emigration, the letter states, is principally from the mountainous counties of western North Carolina, where there is little hope of early railroad connections. Of those going from Virginia very few are land-owners or even a prosperous portion of their communities, most of them being discontented, many of a roving disposition and many who are barely able to buy their tickets.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 23.—Mrs. E. B. Crocker, sister-in-law of Charles Crocker, President of the Southern Pacific Railway, has informed the Art Association that she will deed an art gallery and her valuable collection of paintings to the city provided the people raise a fund of $100,000 in four months for the maintenance of the gallery. The required amount will be quickly subscribed. Mrs. Crocker's gift is valued at half a million dollars.

PARIS, March 22.—The total loss sustained by the French at Kelung between the 4th and 6th inst. was 193 killed and wounded.

PITTSBURG, March 23.—The striking miners at the Scotchman mines were notified this morning to leave the company's houses by to-morrow morning. If they do not leave peacefully they will be ejected by force. The miners, who have made provision for this emergency, seem to be entirely satisfied with the situation of affairs. The strike remains unchanged.

PANAMA, March 21, via Galveston.—The Governor of Panama is reorganizing and strengthening the police force. The excitement here has calmed down and business has resumed its usual aspect. It is understood that some arrangement will be reached whereby further fighting will be prevented. Gen. Aizpura is still encamped outside the city. Colon remains in the hands of the rebels.

Intelligence from the interior of Columbia is favorable to the Government, which reports great victories at Socoro, Jerico and Cartagena on the 8th, 11th and 23d of February. Gen. Villa is besieged at Cartagena by the rebel forces. He has protested against the action of Her Majesty's steamer Canada, and continues to fire on boats of that vessel, accusing them of aiding and abetting the rebels and converting the Englishman into a rebel blockader.

LA LIBERTAD, San Salvador, March 24.—President Barrios is advancing on San Salvador with 15,000 men.

The Soudan and Bible History.

The Jewish World devotes three columns of its pages to the Soudan, the wild and desolate region which has lately come into such prominence. We are reminded that the Soudan is a Bible land. The Jews, in the time of their bondage, worked at the quarries at Syene, the modern Assouan of the first Nile cataract. The Soudan, it is claimed, is the Kusu of the ancient Hebrew times, the Ethiopia of the ordinary Bible translation. The Jews and the Soudanese were old time enemies. More than five and twenty centuries ago the streets of Jerusalem rang beneath the tread of the wild tribes from the "Southern country;" and if there be, as is not improbable, a Jew among the twenty thousand troops who will shortly cross swords with the Arabs of the Soudan, he may boast that 2,500 years ago his ancestors under Asa, King of Judah, chased the dark-skinned hordes, pell-mell, from the land they had invaded, under Zerah, the Kushite, or Ethiopian.

Taking Care of the Body.

The Christian Index, the leading organ of the Baptist Church in the South, published in Atlanta, Ga., in its issue of Dec. 4, 1884, has the following editorial:

Too many people seem to think that a religious newspaper should be confined to the discussion of moral and religious subjects only, forgetting that religion has to do both with the bodies and souls of men. "Prove all things, hold fast that which is good," has as much to do with the practical side of life as it has with the moral side. Our readers will bear testimony that in all questions discussed in the Index, the practical has been duly set forth. In this paragraph, therefore, we only seek to present an article worthy of commendation. After subjecting it to the above test we have tried Swift's Specific and found it good—good as a blood purifier, good as a health tonic. In this opinion we are sustained by some of the best men of the church. Rev. Jesse H. Campbell, the Nestor of the Baptist denomination in Georgia, says: "It is my deliberate judgment that Swift's Specific is the grandest blood purifier ever discovered. Its effects are wonderful, and I consider them almost miraculous. There is no medicine comparable to it." Dr. H. C. Hornady, one of the best known ministers in our church, says: "Swift's Specific is one of the best blood purifiers in existence."

These brethren speak advisedly. But few preparations can bring forward such endorsements. The Index desires only to endorse these statements. We have witnessed the beneficial effects of this medicine, not only in our own households, but in several other cases where seemingly other remedies had failed. It is purely a vegetable compound, scientifically prepared, and perfectly harmless in its composition. It renews the blood and builds up broken down systems—gives tone and vigor to the constitution, as well as restores the bloom of health to the suffering. Therefore, we do not deem it inconsistent with the duties of a religious journal to say this much in its behalf.
