BUSINESS LOCALS.

A large lot of Business Cards just received at this office.

M. H. SULTAN has opened his stock of goods in the store recently occupied by Asa Jones.

1,000 old papers for sale at the JOURNAL Office.

The old police station is being torn down.

The carpenters have resumed work on the court house tower.

April starts out well for truck and other products of the farm.

Cosmopolitan Council No. 211, American Legion of Honor, meets to-night.

One case of disorderly conduct before the Mayor yesterday. He was fined $5 and cost.

Auction sale to-day at the foot of Craven street of kaint, by Watson & Street at 11 o'clock.

Mr. Thomas Williams was taking steps yesterday to add to the convenience of his customers in their visits to his place of business.

Mr. Jas. W. Moore, following the example of some of his near neighbors, has fitted up a handsome office in one of the brick stores on the old market house site. Ed. Berry has been in there with his paint brush.

The Ladies of the Baptist Church Aid Society will have a dime party at the residence of Mrs. S. A. Churchill on Friday evening, April 3d. Ice cream, cake, etc., will be served, and as it is for a worthy object we hope it will be liberally patronized.

President Cleveland has nominated Henry G. Pearson to be postmaster of New York City. This is the first appointment, so far as we have heard, made outside the Democratic party. A. J. Boyd was nominated for collector of 5th district. He was a law partner of Congressman Reid.

Sappata Tolu is the name of a chewing gum kept by Mrs. Susan Stanly. It is neatly wrapped and is far better than tobacco, especially to one not used to the weed. A friend says the only objection to this gum is it creates an appetite, a thing that he already has too much of for the quantity of his rations.

An interesting trial was that before Justice Watson yesterday. A party of gentlemen had employed a fiddler and they danced to the music but had not paid the bill. This was an action to force the payment and the fiddler got judgment for the amount claimed. No one will deny that the Justice was right. He that dances must pay the fiddler.

Services at Christ Church To-Day.
Holy Thursday—Prayers at 9:30 a. m. and 12 m. Holy Communion at 8 p. m. The public are always invited to attend the services of this church.

Personal.
Mr. B. L. Perry, of Wilmington, Underwriter's agent, is the city.

Fred Perry, the popular keeper of the late New Berne House, at Morehead City, has returned to New Berns and can be found at the Gaston House.

C. R. Thomas, jr., Esq., of Beaufort, was in the city yesterday on his return from Greensboro.

A warning.
Mr. F. Ulrich has torn away the old wooden shelter in front of his store on Middle street and has put in its stead a beautiful canvas awning. Ed. Berry has been afraid of it with his paint brush, and everybody acquainted with his work knows what this means. Mr. Ulrich has set a good example, which we hope will be followed by others in that vicinity.

Bar Association.
The members of the New Berne Bar assembled at the office of Simmons & Manly on Tuesday evening and formed an Association, with Hon. C. C. Clark as President and W. E. Clarke, Esq., Secretary. A committee, consisting of five members, was appointed to prepare by-laws and rules for the government of the Association, said committee to report at the next meeting.

Holy Thursday.
To-day is known in the Episcopal Churches as Holy Thursday, it being the day immediately preceding the day on which our Saviour was crucified. It was on Thursday night our Saviour sat the Last Supper with his disciples, in commemoration of which event communion services are held in the Episcopal churches. The services on this occasion are the most solemn and impressive of all the church services.

All Fools.

The April fools yesterday were numerous, but when men of noted temperance proclivities go armed with a bottle of water wrapped in paper, and ask you very confidentially to try a specimen of Scuppernon wine, it would be a May fool who would not take "just a few drops," and be sure to say he "was not in the habit of taking anything."

And when a beautiful article of sugar is labeled only 4 cts. a pound, what prudent housekeeper would pass by without tasting it, and run the risk of being called an "old fool" for not buying while it was going so?

Rough Passage.

The schooner Gertrude T. Browning, Capt. Jones, which arrived here last Saturday from Philadelphia, reports a rough passage. Capt. Jones says the 18th, 19th and 20th of March was the roughest weather he has ever experienced in his thirty years of sea-faring life. After being blown across the Gulf Stream and on nearing the coast again, the vessel encountered another terrific gale from the N. N. W., which made her leak badly and was on her beams end for some time. The Captain was forced to keep her before the wind and sea to free her of water which had increased three feet in the hold.

She arrived here with two men sick and the Captain's feet and legs much swollen by salt water and exposure. Her cargo of kaint was damaged very much; the damage to the vessel is very slight.

Memorial Day.

The Memorial Association of this city have completed arrangements for the observance of the Tenth of May.

Capt. Hamilton C. Graham, of Alabama, a native of New Berne, will deliver the address. The association having adopted the plan of the Raleigh association will have the life and services of some North Carolina soldier selected for the subject in the future. On this occasion the distinguished son of our State, James Johnson Pettigrew, has been chosen for the subject and will in itself be of deep interest to all who appreciate genuine gallantry and unquestioned chivalry. Rev. C. A. Jenkins will act as Chaplain, and Capt. E. M. Duguid as Chief Marshal.

The Association hopes to have the monument at the mausoleum completed by that day, and if so the additional services of unveiling and dedication will take place.

The treasury is in need of funds to complete the designs of the faithful band of ladies who have so earnestly contended for the perpetuation of the memories of our dead heroes, and it does seem that the present time—just as the era of a complete reconciliation is dawning upon us—would be a most fitting one for a generous public to come forward and place the needed amount at their command.

A Progressive Industry.

Mr. J. A. Meadows' mill is one of the flourishing enterprises of the city. He has four large rocks running continually, grinding corn, wheat and mixed feed for stock. His facilities for handling the grain in the mill, both before and after it is ground, are modern and almost perfect. The corn is thrown into a hopper, passes through a screen which takes out all the defective grains and the chaff, and finally comes out nice, white bolted meal. About fifty yards from the mill is a large warehouse for storing grain. Over thirty thousand bushels can be stored here at one time. Boats can lay alongside and discharge their cargoes, the grain being taken to the second and third floors by elevators, and when ready to be sacked can be drawn from either floor into the sack on the lower floor. The elevators are run by a small engine, which is supplied with steam by means of a pipe which connects with the large engine and boiler in the mill.

The next improvement Mr. Meadows has in contemplation is to provide a way for taking the corn from the warehouse to the mill by steam without sacking, and then his arrangements will be complete. The wharf at the south end of this, fronting Trent river, has been covered over and is used for storing fertilizers; it is capable of storing over two hundred tons.

North of the mill is another large warehouse for storing hay, bran and other feed. Over seven hundred bales of fine timothy hay are now stored there. Feed in almost any shape or quantity can be obtained at this mill, and the meal and flour turned out here is of a superior quality.

Carry down your broken glass and crockery and have them cemented together by Dr. Scott. Also send and get fresh parched peanuts for 6 cts. per quart at Scott's, on South Front street between Hancock and Middle streets, Newbern, N. C. Look for cement and paint sign at the door. Try a bottle of Scott's Liniment and Blood Tonic for Rheumatism, etc. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Twenty Years Ago.

On the 2d day of April, 1865, the lines around Petersburg were broken and the retreat to Appomatox began. It is sad to note how the actors of that day are passing away. The two most prominent names, LEE and GRANT, household words in their respective sections, and indeed in all the civilized world, will from present indications be both soon numbered with the great army which has passed over the river and are resting under the shade of the trees. The former has long ago been gathered to his fathers, and just now public interest is intensely directed to the condition of the latter, as disease is environing the citadel of life and the final surrender seems to be near at hand. In the grave all fallacies cease and all distinctions are done away, and with them the blue nor the gray has any distinctive significance. But it is with us who still live that the great improvement of sentiment in reference to the struggle of twenty years ago is of the most gratifying character.

To see the men who figured on either side in that period now assembling around the council board of the nation on a perfect basis of reconciliation, while the foreign missions are committed to men upon their merits and superior qualifications, without regard to their previous service in a domestic controversy or political views of a sectional question, is a scene of sufficient gratification to make the most of us, if we had no other reason for doing so, rejoice to think that we are alive.

Kinston Items.

Miss Minnie Bryan, of New Berne, is visiting relatives here.

Mr. William Phillips has sold out his bar to his former clerk, and has opened a beef market in the old Math. Harvey store, next door to Archbell's bakery.

Adjutant Taylor, of the JOURNAL Staff, spent Saturday and Sunday in town. He is a good officer and attends strictly to business. He seems to be in "good keeping"—looking sleek and pleasant.

A colored woman, named Ellie Albritton, was burned to death on the plantation of Mr. Leon Albritton, on Thursday evening last. She was engaged in burning brush at the time, when her clothes took fire.

Mr. George Webb, of this place, presented to Kinston College museum on Saturday a monster oyster shell, taken from the waters of Trent river in Jones county. It measured twelve inches in length and six inches in width.

Col. J. N. Staples, of Greensboro, will deliver the annual address at the next commencement of Kinston College. His reputation as an orator is so well known in North Carolina that it is useless to say that visitors to the commencement will have a rare treat.

Died, near Kinston, on Friday, 27th March, Thomas Sanford, of New York, in the 53d year of his age. He was a brother of Geo. T. Sanford, a former resident of Kinston, and had come to this section eighteen months ago for the benefit of his health. He was a clever, pleasant gentleman and good mechanic.

The French Routed by the Chinese.
PARIS, March 29.—The Chinese forces gained a victory over the French at Langson on Friday. They carried the key of the position and the entrenchments. The French troops retreated beyond Dong-Song. They are falling back on the Longkoi. The French loss in men and guns is unknown. The Chinese, it is estimated, are 50,000 strong. They menace the French lines of communication with the South.

The following despatch has been received from Gen. Briere de l'Isle, dated Hanoi, March 28:

"I regret to announce that Gen. Negrier has been severely wounded and has been obliged to evacuate Langson. The Chinese, in three large columns, made an impetuous attack upon our positions before Kilua. Col. Herberinger, in the face of a superior number of the enemy, and exhausted of ammunition, was obliged to retreat to Dong-Song and Thauoi. I am massing forces on the Chu and Kep roads. If the enemy still increase I shall retire to Longkoi. Whatsoever happens, I hope to be able to defend the whole delta. Please send reinforcements as quickly as possible."

It is reported at Paris that Gen. Briere de l'Isle asks reinforcements to the number of 20,000 men. The French reverses have increased the political excitement in Paris. The narrow majority obtained by the government yesterday on the vote of confidence leads to the expectation that the Ministry will be defeated in the next Tonquin debate and will then resign. The Radical and Monarchist organs predict an early fall of Premier Ferry.

The Cabinet met at 8 o'clock this evening. Another meeting will be held at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Jefferson Davis.
CINCINNATI, March 31.—The Times-Star has the following dispatch from Biloxi, Miss.: Jefferson Davis is worse this morning. His condition is now regarded as serious. For several weeks he has been suffering from a return of rheumatism, complicated with the breaking out of his old wound received in Mexico thirty-eight years ago. His age is very much against his prospects of recovery.

Skin Diseases.
I have a little daughter seven years old, who for the last four years has been afflicted with a peculiar skin eruption on the face and one hand. I have tried seven or eight physicians, among them the best in California and in this province, but to no purpose. The child kept growing worse. Fortunately, I saw a statement in a St. Paul, Minn., paper of a cure of a disease similar to that of my child. It was affected by Swift's Specific. I secured six bottles and commenced giving it to my little girl. In less than one week this terrible disease, which had baffled all the known remedies within reach, began to disappear.

She has been taking it three months—is perfectly well, and her skin is as clear as wax.

What a Minister Says.
Extreme weakness and general debility, produced by exposure and overwork attendant upon my duties, were gradually developing into an utter prostration of my system. Adopting the suggestions of intimate friends, who had experienced relief in similar cases by taking Swift's Specific, I now find myself restored to a perfect condition of health and strength. Accept my fervent wishes for your continued prosperity in your well chosen and successful method for relieving those who suffer.

THE BEST BUILDING LIME IN THE WORLD.

The undersigned being satisfied that CARSON & SON'S CENTENNIAL MEDAL LIME is the best known in the world for building purposes, have accepted the sole Agency for New Berne, the line of the "A. & N. C. R. R." and the territory tributary thereto; and are prepared to furnish it to builders, consumers and the trade at prices far below what it has ever sold at before in this market, either by the car load at points east of Best's on the "A. & N. C. R. R." or in lots to suit at New Berne. Gen. Meigs and Professor Baird place this Lime above all others; and from its purity (being absolutely free of magnesia) and the extra large size of its barrels, it is warranted to go one-third further than any other, thus making it the best and cheapest Lime ever sold in this market. Special freight contracts enable us now to offer this Lime very low.
