BUSINESS LOCALS.

A fine lot of N. C. Hams, from Onslow county, just received.
ALEX. MILLER.

M. H. SULTAN has opened his stock of goods in the store recently occupied by Asa Jones. m27f

A large lot of Business Cards just received at this office.

Cold rain yesterday.

The egg market stiffened up a little yesterday.

Mr. Geo. Bishop's mill is cutting lumber for pea boxes.

Mr. A. Miller found a man from Onslow county yesterday with ninety hams.

The Shenandoah made regular trip, on yesterday bringing in and carrying out a fair freight.

The second lot of radishes for this season were shipped on the Shenandoah yesterday by Mr. T. A. Green.

Auction sale to-day at the corner of Broad and Middle streets of store house and furniture by D. N. Kilburn, assignee.

A fine lot of Onslow and Jones county hams in the city yesterday were captured by Capt. K. R. Jones. All sizes, from 8 pounds up to 25.

Our attorneys who attended court at Trenton have returned, but some of them will be off again on Monday attending Onslow court.

Mr. H. B. Duffy reserves space for an advertisement which will appear in a few days. He is receiving goods by every steamer and is too busy to write 'em up just now.

Mr. W. E. Patterson has secured the Bateman House and is fitting it up for a hotel. The "buss" will be put on again Monday and will be at the depot on the arrival of trains.

John S. Long, Esq., has accepted the invitation of the ladies of Oakdale Memorial Association of Wilmington and will deliver the address on the 10th of May. He is the man to do the thing up nicely.

A matrimonial cyclone passed over Raleigh Wednesday taking off two of the fair young ladies of that city, Misses Tucker and Heck. The former was married to Dr. Harris, of Atlanta, Ga., and the latter to Mr. Cowper, of Raleigh. They are daughters of Maj. R. S. Tucker and Col. J. M. Heck, both prominent gentlemen of that city.

Mr. Chauncey Meekins, of Roanoke Island, is dead. The Elizabeth City Economist says: "Perhaps no man in North Carolina not in public service was better known to the prominent men of the State, or more respected for his intelligence, his information and his sterling character and manly qualities. He was truly one of Nature's noblemen."

Communion Services.
We are requested by Rev. A. D. Betts of Trenton to announce services at Hopewell, Jones county, on the 4th Saturday and Sunday in this month, at which time the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be administered. At 4 p. m. on the same Sunday preaching will be at Maysville school house.

Japanese Fair.
The M. E. Church Working Society is making extensive preparations for a Japanese Fair to be held at Stanly Hall on next Thursday and Friday nights. The costumes will be many, varied and interesting; refreshments in abundance will be served, and altogether it will be a grand affair. Our friends in the country will take notice and be on hand. See advertisement.

Come This Way.
We copy the following item from the Register, a paper published at Troy, Pa.: "The indications are many that the tide of emigration will be toward the South within a short time. There is an empire in that direction of undeveloped resources and agricultural wealth. North Carolina seems to be the objective point of people from this vicinity, and is pronounced by numbers of our best business men to offer rare opportunities to Northern capital and enterprise. The Old North State has some of the finest forests in the world, and an abundance of good land."

In the same issue of the Register we see a notice from John F. Satterlee announcing special rates, to those who wish to visit this section, from Baltimore to New Berne. We hope that many of the Pennsylvanians will take advantage of the cheap rates offered and visit New Berne this spring in the midst of the trucking season. There is, indeed, an empire of undeveloped resources in this section, and we extend a hearty welcome to all who desire to hasten their lots with us.

Personal.
Rev. F. B. Andrews, special agent for the Valley Mutual Life Association, is in the city, and will take pleasure in writing policies for any one wishing to insure their lives.

Miss Lizzie Hunter, who has been in the city for sometime with her Aunt, Mrs. Mayhew, left for home in Mecklenburg county yesterday.

Travis E. Hooker, Esq., and Mr. J. J. Edwards, of Greene county, were in the city yesterday.

Capt. Swift Galloway.

At a meeting of the members of the Bar in attendance on the spring term, 1885, of the Superior court of Pitt county, held in the court house on Saturday the 29th day of March, the last day of the term,—being present: Messrs. E. C. Yellowley, H. A. Gilliam, W. B. Rodman, J. E. Moore, L. C. Latham, Germain Bernard, J. J. Martin, Harry Skinner, I. A. Sugg, A. M. Moore, Andrew Joyner, F. G. James, L. V. Morrill, G. W. Johnston, C. M. Bernard, J. H. Tucker, J. D. Murphy, G. B. King, Egnj. Sharpe, Hugh F. Murray, A. L. Blow and J. H. Johnson, Andrew Joyner, A. M. Moore and I. A. Sugg were appointed a committee to draw up resolutions expressive of the regret of the Bar and the people of Pitt county at the approaching removal of Swift Galloway, Solicitor, from the Third Judicial district.

The committee made the following report which was unanimously adopted and ordered by the Judge to be entered upon the record:

Resolved, That we sincerely regret that the new arrangement of the Judicial districts calls to another field of official duty our esteemed friend and brother, Capt. Swift Galloway, of Wayne. That his learning in the law, his unswerving integrity, his conspicuous fairness, his unequalled courtesy in and out of court to his brethren and the public have secured for him a warm place in the love and confidence of all, and we ask leave to say this much of and to so faithful and efficient a public servant and so genial and worthy a friend.

John Kins.

Where is John Kins? We have not seen the good old soul for some time. His familiar face and outstretched hand, with his "gim me sumpin, please, to git sumpin to eat;" and his "thank ye," and jerky "how is ye" and "how is all," all this it is really unpleasant to miss every day. Some nickels in our pocket are now restless with his name thereon. For John is sick. Poor old fellow! He is an institution in New Berne. What would the city be without John? Would an old citizen returning recognize it? Who indeed is old enough to remember when John was not? An utterly helpless cripple from infancy; scarcely able to talk so far as to be understood, yet possessing considerable sense, he has always been dealt with kindly by our citizens. He has been both moral and respectable. Resting or sunning himself on the frequented sidewalks and doorsteps, with his knotted stick in his crooked hands and his bent limbs drawn together, while not a repulsive object, he has been one for genuine sympathy.

And now the poor old fellow is sick and suffering. His open room is dreary in the extreme. He mourns that he cannot get down town and to church. He says "he wants a piece of apple pie or potato-pudding; and he wants some money. He has nothing." We ought not to forget him. His last days should be comfortable.

Many of our kind citizens have for years given him a small monthly sum. Was there ever a collector more prompt than John? If so, who? He considered these sums as legal debts. Had he not his rent to pay? and did not his stomach call for food; for bacon and apple pie?

Let no debtor forget the old, worn hulk in his sickness, suffering, solitude and age. Flat on his back he thinks of you all, and wants his dues. We will be glad to receive any sums the chairtable will kindly give John, and will guarantee that they will be properly used.

Debtors to the front, to-day, and often. "He that giveth to the poor lengtheth to the Lord."

A Correction.

NEW BERNE, April 10, 1885.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—We notice article in local column of your paper of this date, saying that we have commenced driving piling at Union Point under the skillful superintendence of Mr. Gaston Manly. We desire to say such is not the case so far as the article refers to Mr. Manly. We have commenced our improvements at Union Point under the personal and practical supervision of ex-Mayor Thomas S. Howard, who is doing the work very satisfactory to us. Mr. Manly is in our employment, but not as superintendent.

A Great Day for Hyde County.

LAKE LANDING, HYDE CO.,
April 1, 1885.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Last night at 12 o'clock the whole of Mattamuskeet and even into the region on the North side of the Lake, known as Fairfield, was aroused by the shrill sound of the whistle of the steamer Margie, Capt. Alpheus Styron, of Washington, who was then in the canal with his steamer and very close to the Lake. Capt. Styron was anxious to proceed across the Lake to Fairfield with his steamer and take a load of corn for Tarboro and would have done so, had not his way been barred by the steam dredge, New Berne must look to her laurels. Where is the Neuse Transportation Co.? Will our merchants in New Berne sit still, and let Washington swoop up the trade of Fairfield? Is the crop on the North side of the Lake, another season, to be moved into the waters of Pamlico Sound by steamers from Washington or from New Berne?

Our correspondent does not seem to be aware of the fact that the Elm City has been making a trip once a week to Wysocking Bay, Hyde county, for about one year. She has not made a trip for the last three or four weeks it is true, but it is because of an accident that the managers of the line could not prevent. She will, we presume, resume her regular trips as soon as the damages are repaired. The boat has been gradually working up freights in that section of the county which will improve with the opening of the canal. But there is one difficulty about steamboating to points in Hyde county that any boat will meet, whether it be Capt. Styron with the Margie or Jay Gould with the yacht Atlanta, and that is there are yet a large number of sail boats in that section and the farmers have more or less interest in them and for this reason will give them the carrying of their corn. This can only be changed by the steamers offering advantages that the sail boats can not, and then only after they have established a permanent line.

As for our merchants "sitting still" while Washington merchants "swoop up the trade of Fairfield," we can not answer. We presume they will be about their business. Certain it is they will not arm themselves and offer battle to the merchants of our sister town. If New Berne has better facilities for handling corn and can, on this account, pay better prices, it will be to the interest of the farmers of Hyde county to send their corn here; per contra, if Washington has better facilities and will offer better prices the farmers will find it out.

New Berne has been threatened once before by the Margie. About a year ago she threatened to take all of the Onslow trade from both Wilmington and New Berne. The company then in charge of her published a flaming schedule in the JOURNAL, for which they never paid us a cent, and the people around Swansboro and Jacksonville were started in a similar manner. To those at Fairfield and Mattamuskeet Lake by her whistle.

The Mayoralty of Kinston.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—As the time is near at hand when the people of Kinston will be called upon to decide who shall be their next mayor, it would be well for them to look well to their interests before making up their minds as to who shall preside over and manage the affairs of the town for the next twelve months.

In the administration of the present incumbent we find everything to commend him for re-election. The town has prospered in every essential. Our schools have become more useful as well as ornamental; the growth of the town has been remarkable and without a parallel in the State; the good order maintained upon the streets was never better; the streets are in better condition than was ever before known; the fire department is well and efficiently managed; the finances of the town have been well and faithfully handled—not a cent misapplied or squandered; the town taxes are remarkably low; the sanitary condition of the town at the present time never had its equal; and without further enumeration we beg to say that every thing pertaining to the interest of the town has been faithfully and admirably taken care of by our present efficient and model mayor, Col. Geo. C. Moses.

In addition to the above, Col. Moses is a man of good property, large experience, big brains, kind-hearted, gentle but firm in all things, with quick and deep penetration of thought, always to be found at the right time and in the right place, and with all the most popular man in Eastern North Carolina, Gov. Vance only excepted.

Now let us go forward and re-elect this great and good man, our model mayor, and not only cover ourselves, but the town with immortal glory.

STILL SPEAKING FOR WAR.

Mr. Gladstone, However, Expects a Peaceful Settlement—Russia's Preparations.

LONDON, April 7.—The Daily Telegraph says that 8,000 British reinforcements will be sent to India, most of them from Egypt.

Mr. Gladstone, replying to a memorial from members of the House of Commons in favor of submitting to arbitration the difficulties between England and Russia, says he sees no reason to doubt a peaceful settlement of pending troubles by ordinary diplomatic measures.

Earl Granville has forwarded a despatch to Sir Edward Thornton, the British Ambassador at St. Petersburg, refusing to accede to the request of M. de Giers, the Russian Foreign Minister to extend the line of the debatable zone on the disputed Russo-Afghan frontier to the Parapamisus Mountains.

Earl Granville insists that the Lesser line be the farthest limit, and urges an early meeting of the joint boundary commission. It is expected that Russia will yield these points, but it is thought to be certain that the boundary commission will disagree.

There was a slight renewal of the war feeling on the Stock Exchange to-day, owing to reports from St. Petersburg that Gen. Obrutcheff, the Chief of Staff of the Russian Army, had obtained the Czar's consent to the acceleration of the preparations for war.

A despatch from India says the permanent railway to Quetta cannot be completed for two years. The orders issued are for a temporary line through Bolan Pass. Plans have been completed for the transportation of two battalions daily to Rindii, the present terminus of the Quetta Railway.

Another military review in the presence of the Ameer was held to-day, on a still grander scale than that of yesterday.

Another long despatch from Earl Dufferin, Viceroy of India, was received to-day at the Foreign Office. It was sent from Rawal Pindi, and is considered very important, in view of the presence of Ameer Abdurrahman at that point, and the cordial relations that have been established between him and the Viceroy. Lord Dufferin earnestly urges the Government to beware of Russian duplicity, and exposes certain intrigues which have been in progress for months past in the Ameer's court at Cabul. Many Russian officers who have visited Cabul, during the past year have been hospitably entertained by the Ameer and by officers of his military household. It was ascertained some time ago that the visitors were repaying their host's hospitality by prying into the secrets of the Afghan Government and sending their discoveries to St. Petersburg. The visitors were in fact spies, although they attempted no disguise as to their names or rank. The Ameer affected great cordiality toward the Russian officers, and finally led them into a trap. He allowed them access to copies of his correspondence with Lord Ripon, who was then Viceroy of India, but not until he had manufactured a bogus set of despatches intended to show that a quarrel was imminent between Afghanistan and India. This correspondence was duly transmitted to St. Petersburg, and it has formed the basis of Russia's negotiations with Afghanistan ever since.

Lord Dufferin says, further, that similar intrigues have been practised by Russian agents at Cabul very recently, and even since the Ameer's departure for Rawal Pindi. The Ameer, however, is now convinced that England is his best friend, and Lord Dufferin expresses confidence in his loyalty.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 7.—The Russian Government is making active preparations to put the great naval and military station of Cronstadt in a state of complete defence. The harbor has already been protected by the sinking of hundreds of torpedoes in the ship channel. The Twentieth Division of infantry has been ordered to be in readiness to leave Vladikavkas. A regiment of the Pereh Cossack brigade has started for the Trans-Caspian territory. Large forces of infantry and cavalry are echeloned near Askabad.

Later—The War Begun.

LONDON, April 9—11 A. M.—General Komaroff, the Russian commander, attacked the fortified portions of the Afghans on Kuskul river, March 30. The Afghan force, numbering 4,000 men, with eight cannon, was defeated. Their loss was 500 men killed and wounded. All the artillery, two standards, the entire camp equipment and all the provisions were captured. The Russians lost one officer killed and three subalterns wounded, besides ten soldiers killed and twenty-nine wounded.

1:30 p. m.—There has been a fall in the stock market this morning in consequence of the receipt of intelligence of the Russian attack on the Afghans at Kuskul river. Consols for money and account, which closed yesterday at 97 1/8, have fallen to 95. Russian securities have also fallen 6 points from the prices prevailing at the close of the market yesterday.

LONDON, April 9.—There is great excitement on the London stock exchange, amounting to almost a panic over the news of the fight in Afghanistan, which is regarded as equivalent to a declaration of war. Foreign funds are demoralized; Russians are quoted at 8 1/2, 4 p. m.—The cabinet council is now sitting and the result of its determinations is awaited with great anxiety.

England will at once demand of Russia an explanation of the Russian conduct in the foreign battle upon the Afghans. This demand will, it is understood, be coupled with the demand for the withdrawal of the Russian forces to the north of Sarakhs.

LONDON, April 9.—St. Petersburg merchants have telegraphed their agents at Paris not to consign goods for them via the Baltic sea in English vessels.

Parliament reassembled to-day, after the Easter recess. In the House of Commons Mr. Gladstone confirmed the intelligence of the battle between the Russians and Afghans, and said: "From the information which the government has received of the fight the Russians are apparently guilty of an unjustifiable attack on the Afghans. England has demanded from Russia full explanations in regard to the affair." In conclusion, he said that the government had received no information corroborative of the report that the Russians had occupied Peshawar.

There is great agitation this evening in all the government departments. It is stated that 13,000 reinforcements will be at once sent to India. The first army reserve will probably be called out immediately. The Earl of Dufferin, at Rawal Pindi, today was informed by telegraph what had occurred at Peshawar. He at once told Abdurrahman, Ameer of Afghanistan, and native Indian chiefs, who are in attendance at the councils. The native chiefs unanimously recommended the immediate throwing of troops into Afghanistan. His recommendation has been placed before the home government in London.
