FOR SALE.—NO. 8 IRON SAFE. Good as new.
 K. R. JONES.

The third session of the graded school will close on the 5th of June.

The weather for the past few days has been a thousand dollars per day for the truckers.

The steamer Elm City took out a good freight for Hyde and intermediate points last night.

The Shenandoah carried out a good cargo of radishes, eggs, potatoes, etc., yesterday evening.

Several boat loads of sweet potatoes in market yesterday. They sell for forty cents per bushel by the cargo.

"Hard Times" discharges many obligations, but the Confederate soldier had harder times while defending Southern firesides.

The walls of L. H. Cutler's two brick stores on the burnt district are going up, and ground has been broken for T. A. Green's.

Two cases of fast driving have recently been disposed of by the Mayor. Two dollars and cost is the price of excessive indulgence in the luxury of driving on our fine shelled street.

It is encouraging to see the children sending in contributions for the Confederate Statue. They have been told of the deeds of the brave soldiers, and they want a monument to perpetuate them.

The Shenandoah and Elm City came yesterday morning during an intense fog. When the fog lifted it was a beautiful picture to see the ships break upon sight as suddenly as the scenery of an immense stage when the curtain rises.

The JOURNAL has always responded when called upon to aid in any good work for the city. It has undertaken now to raise one hundred dollars for the Confederate statue. We ask every man, woman and child to aid us in this work.

Over five hundred young men from New Berne and vicinity responded promptly to the call of their State in 1861. Many of them never returned alive. They did their duty like men. Shall we forget them? Contribute a small sum to the Statue fund.

The statue will be an ornament to the cemetery far in excess of anything that has yet been placed there. Its position at the head of the avenue as you pass in from the main entrance will be the most commanding and will appeal to the better feelings of all who see it, for long years after those who placed it there shall have passed away. Let every one of us feel that we had a hand in the matter.

Rev. Bishop Wood, of A. M. E. Zion Connection, arrived in the city yesterday by the Shenandoah, and will preach at St. Andrew's chapel at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The public are invited. Bishop Hood presided over the Philadelphia and Baltimore Conference, which met a short time ago in the latter city, and the body visited President Cleveland, who received them very cordially. The Bishop's address before the Conference has been highly praised by the press.

Change of Schedule.
 The steamer Trent will make but one trip a week to Trenton and intermediate points hereafter. She will leave New Berne on Wednesday and return on Thursday. The corrected schedule will appear to-morrow.

United They Stand.
 The Tar Heel Fire Company received their engine yesterday, and the pressure was so great that another company forming went in with them and are now one company. The combination is desirable and proper, for the American Jacks are still alive and in good plite to put out fires or sprinkle the sidewalks, and when they get their machine on wheels, will give the new company all the competition they will want.

Personal.
 Mrs. W. A. Hearne left on the Shenandoah yesterday evening on a visit to her sister in Washington City.
 Mrs. W. E. Guion left on the Shenandoah yesterday evening for Portsmouth, Va., on a visit to friends.
 Capt. Russell Glover left for Washington City yesterday evening per Shenandoah.
 B. F. Mayhew, Esq., of Bayboro, is in the city.
 Mrs. Mary McK. Nash has returned from Florida.

A Liberal Donation.
 The graded school library has received an addition of thirty-two volumes of nice books. Prof. E. G. Daves, of Baltimore, the donor. This in itself is a liberal donation, but when it is remembered that it is the second from the Professor it speaks loudly, both of his liberality and kind remembrance of the home of his childhood, and we trust may stimulate others to do likewise.

The Festival Last Night.
 The festival last night in aid of Miss Kate Carraway, one of the sufferers by the late fire, was a success. The hall was elegantly arranged, and the tables groaning under the burden of good things.

The music by the Cornet Band was delightful, and best of all was one part of the entertainment which we could enjoy at our desk quite as well as if present in the hall.

Of the results financially, we are not advised, but have no doubt they were gratifying to the ladies whose benevolent inclinations led them to take this method of lightening the burdens of misfortune.

A Good Publication.
 The Manufacturers' Record, of Baltimore, Md., is a weekly paper, whose efforts are directed to the advancement of the Southern States. It aims to set forth their wonderful resources, and the facilities they possess for almost every branch of manufacture, and to point out the localities best suited for various industries. It seeks to draw attention to the enormous sources of wealth the South has in her almost limitless supplies of coal, iron ore, timber, etc., and it labors to promote the further development of these natural resources, and the establishment of kindred and consequent industries. It is a live, active, vigorous journal, conceded to be the foremost exponent of the South's industrial interests, and one of the leading papers of its kind in the country.

A Just Decision.
 I sued G, the publisher of a paper, for publishing an advertisement: "Wanted, J. B. Johnson to pay for this paper and for card in paper." The defendant cut the item concerning the plaintiff out of the paper, pasted it on a postal card, and sent it through the postoffice to a young lady in Minneapolis, to whom plaintiff was engaged to be married. It was alleged that defendant meant, by the publication, that the plaintiff was an absconding debtor and a dishonest person, not entitled to the confidence and respect of the community. In the suit G was victorious. The Supreme Court of Minnesota held that "The publication of a fact, unless accompanied with malicious intent, was within the province of any publisher or business house. If wider publicity were given to dead boats, there would be less of them."

It is a popular error held by some people who are wanting an excuse for not paying their debts that it is against the law to dunn a man on a postal card. The law prohibits a man writing on a postal card anything that is slanderous. A notice of a debt that is due from one man to another, with a request to pay, is no violation of the law, and it is only dead beats who offer such an excuse for not paying their honest debts.

The Confederate Statue Fund.
 Yesterday was a good day for the Statue. The appeals of the JOURNAL in its behalf caused its readers to recall the hardships endured by their brothers, fathers, sons, husbands, neighbors and friends, and they knew that these fought for a principle—the right of local self-government—which still lives. Some of the old soldiers thought of the many hard-fought battles through which they had passed, and in which was left some dear friend or relative cold and lifeless. The "King Bee" at the postoffice recounted some of the daring deeds of the privateer Tallahassee, one of whose crew he was which, and was moved to make a liberal donation. There were thirty-four contributors and the amount about equal to that received on the first and second days:

- Impenuniosity, .25; Green, Foy & Co., $3.00; Mrs. John Dunn, .50; Guion Dunn, .25; Mrs. M. O. Windley, .50; Durand Hassell, of the privateer Tallahassee, $1.00; Dr. G. L. Shackelford, $1.00; Miss F. Taylor, $1.00; F. Ulrich, $1.00; J. A. Richardson, $1.00; L. S. Wood, .50; Mrs. J. N. Whitford, $1.00; Johnnie H. Whitford, .25; Miss Annie C. Whitford, .25; Miss Laura E. Whitford, .25; Miss Tente Higgins, .25. From the Shenandoah: Capt. Southgate, $1.00; Eugene Potter, Purser, $1.00; Engineer S. T. Hand, jr., $1.00; Capt. E. B. Roberts, Agent, $1.00; Mrs. Wm. Hill, .25; Willie Hill, .25; Peter Hill, .25; Harry Hill, .25; A. M. Baker, $1.00; Wm. Dunn, $1.00; "Don't-put-my-name," $1.00; S. H. Lane, .50; Prof. Price Thomas, .50; J. W. Hill, .25; Emma and George Henderson, $2.00; Mrs. E. B. Ellis, $1.00; Miss Emma Katie Jones, $1.00.

Capt. Swift Galloway.
 JACKSONVILLE, N. C., April 17, '85.

At a meeting of the resident and practicing attorneys at the bar, and assembled citizens of Onslow county, to adopt resolutions endorsing and in commendation of Capt. Swift Galloway, whose official career as solicitor of the State has just terminated by the last Act of the last General Assembly:

Richard W. Nixon, Esq., was called to the chair, and T. E. Gilman was elected secretary.

Messrs. Clement Manly, S. W. Isler and Wm. E. Clarke were appointed committee on resolutions.

Messrs. M. DeW. Stevenson and F. M. Simmons were appointed a committee to wait upon Capt. Galloway and request his attendance at the meeting.

Committee on resolutions reported the following:

WHEREAS, The attorneys at the bar residing and practising in the county of Onslow, and the assembled citizens of same county, feeling our full appreciation of the ample services and honorable and able efforts of Swift Galloway, solicitor for the State, and regretting that by the recent act of the Legislature his departure from us;

Resolved, That we recognize in Capt. Galloway an honorable and able officer, diligent and intelligent in his labors for the State, courteous in the discharge of his duties, and we take this occasion to express our kind feeling and high estimation of his character and ability, and our sincere regret that he should be called to other fields of service.

Adopted.

His Honor J. C. L. Gudger, Messrs. S. W. Isler, M. DeW. Stevenson, R. W. Nixon, F. M. Simmons, Clement Manly, Wm. E. Clarke and T. E. Gilman, attorneys, and Mr. A. C. Huggins, clerk of the court, spoke in high terms of Capt. Galloway's many excellent qualities, both as a man and an officer.

Capt. Galloway, being called upon, responded very cordially, expressing his lively appreciation of the meeting.

Motion by A. C. Huggins, Esq., that a copy of the above resolutions be certified to His Honor Judge Gudger, with request that he order the same spread upon the minutes of the court; another copy to Capt. Galloway; and the proceedings in full be sent to the New Berne Journal, Raleigh News and Observer, Goldston Messenger and Wilmington Star for publication. Adopted.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

R. W. NIXON, Chairman,
 T. E. GILMAN, Sec'y.

The Normal School.
 The Board of Directors of the Wilson Normal School held a meeting Tuesday evening and elected John E. Woodard Chairman, and Joseph Daniels Secretary and Treasurer. Prof. E. C. Branson was elected Superintendent. The date for opening the school has not been fixed upon. The school will be held this year in the graded school building. We congratulate the teachers who will attend the Normal on the election of Prof. Branson. He is not only a practical, efficient and successful teacher, but a fine speaker and organizer. He will make the school a great success.—Wilson Advance.

CLIPPINGS.

A bony-fide affair—the herring.

Sour mash—hitting a dude with a lemon.

On-kneesy is the culprit begging for pardon.

Is it proper to call the habitues of billiard saloons cue-rye-us fellows?

An exchange says: There is no record of any barber having been sent up for being light-fingered.

The increase of the production of lager beer and the disappearance of cigar stumps on the street is a singular coincidence.

If the bill to refund the direct war tax levied in 1862 should become a law, the twenty-eight States now united in securing the passage of such a bill would recover about $20,000,000.

The Popolo Romano lately printed the following advertisement in English: "A Roman gentleman wishes to marry English, American, or German lady. Very serious affair. Apply W. W."

Henry Sigourney, of a well-known Boston family, has married one of the coryphees in the ballet of a Boston theatre. Mr. Sigourney is about 30 years old, and has an income of nearly $80,000 a year.

The following notice appears in a Georgia paper: "I wish to inform the people that I will close out my bar by the last of April, and now is the time to have your jugs filled to use for snake bites. Come at once. A good lot of whiskey on hand."

A zealous Christian woman in Lowell has left her husband's bed and board because he will not be converted. She has reached the "perfect state," and is so outraged that her husband, otherwise an exemplary man, will not come to her way of thinking that she will no longer live with him.

An exchange says: The love that can wrestle with the smell of onions on the lips of beauty is a love of lasting strength and undying fragrance. And this suggests the question, "Why, when your best girl will persist in eating one of the odoriferous bulbs she always selects one strong enough to draw an ox-team across three counties."

It was rather startling to read the other day of the death of Henry Kirke White's brother, inasmuch as Byron's "unhappy White" seems to belong so entirely to the long past. Kirke White died a victim to overpressure at the hands of certain Blimbers of his time, who urged him on to competition at Cambridge, when he was physically incapable of the requisite effort.

About a year ago an English gentleman, travelling in Germany, came across an officer employed in superintending some details of military railroad transport. He had been a Captain during the Franco-German war, and had allowed his company to be surprised. After being imprisoned for eighteen months he was placed in the military railroad transport service, and told that he was never to receive promotion. Being surprised by an enemy is the one unpardonable sin for the Germans.

Sometime since, printed for private circulation only, there appeared in Berlin a little volume of poems addressed by Carl Alexander von Bismarck, grandfather of Prince Bismarck, to his wife, Christian Charlotte. But as everything Bismarckian at this moment finds great favor in Germany, the demand quickly outran the limits of the edition. The little volume is now being reprinted for general circulation.

"An ideally pure water," said Prof. Willis G. Tucker, in an address before the Albany Institute, the other night, "should be clear, colorless, tasteless, and odorless, though little such exists in nature, and these properties are not necessarily proof of purity. Water may be as clear as crystal, and yet carry typhoid fever from a hamlet on one side of a mountain to dwellers on the other, as in the celebrated case at Lausanne, Switzerland."

Sir Peter Lumsden, who has waited in by no means comfortable quarters near Herat through the dreary winter for his Russian colleague. Lessar, until remonstrances for his non-appearance could no longer be delayed, is well qualified by ability and experience for his present position. Born in 1829, and entering the Bengal army in 1849, he has continued since then to see active service in India. He has served on the northwestern frontier in numerous expeditions, on a political Commission in Afghanistan, in central Indian military operations in 1858, and in all the army grades upward.

The Latest War News.
 LONDON, April 23.—The Standard in an editorial says: "Englishmen need not fear that war with Russia will involve them with other powers. If Russia defeated England, an awful moment would arrive for Germany. Therefore we may confidently assume that Prince Bismarck is not averse to war between England and Russia, because he wants Russia weakened. We may dismiss all misgivings that Germany or her allies will oppose England. And France, for well known reasons, will be a quiet spectator. The sympathy, possibly the indirect assistance of Italy to England, is assured. It will be our fault if Turkey throws a difficulty in our way. Wise, bold action will secure both Turkey and Prussia. The Czar must ponder upon these things."

The Times editorially says: "The position of the Afghan question remains precisely the same as on the day of the receipt of the news of the battle at Penjdeh. The only thing clear is the necessity of hurrying the preparations for war and of active diplomacy to secure allies."

ST. PETERSBURG, April 23.—Every one is speaking of war as inevitable. The question is narrowing more and more to a purely military dispute.

 EDITOR JOURNAL:—Understanding that I am being willfully and persistently misrepresented to stockholders whose proxies I hold, it gives me pleasure to say that I shall cordially and zealously support Governor Seales in carrying out the policy of the State in regard to the Atlantic Road, which policy, I take it for granted, will be made public at the proper time and place.

Kidney Complaint.
 For over six years I have been a terrible sufferer from a troublesome kidney complaint, for the relief of which I have spent over $250 without benefit; the most noted so-called remedies proving failures. The use of one single bottle of B. B. B. has been marvelous, giving more relief than all other treatment combined. It is a quick cure, while others, if they cure at all, are in the distant future.
