FOR RENT.—The large store, S. E. corner South Front and Middle streets, now occupied by Mr. Wahab. Apply to CHARLES DUFFY, JR.

J. B. Brown is having the front of his barber shop improved.

A. M. Baker was getting in new goods yesterday. The continual rush demands continual orders to replenish stock.

The "Tar Heel"—juvenile fire company were on Monday trying their new engine again. They threw a stream seventy feet.

Remember that the contributions for the Confederate Statue are entirely voluntary. Don't wait for a personal appeal, but send your mite along.

Ex-Mayor Howard sends us an Irish potato the largest of the season. With such weather as we are having now, they will do for the table in a few days.

Members of the New Berne Board of Trade and members of the Cotton Exchange are requested to meet at their rooms this evening at 8:30. A full attendance desired.

The best matured peas yet sent in was from the garden of Mrs. Davenport, colored, yesterday. They are fully matured, though the pods are short, containing only four peas.

The ladies of the Memorial Association have been regular contributors for eighteen years to the monument. It is about to be completed and it must not be left in debt. A few more dollars will suffice. Don't wait to see what the ladies of the Association are going to give; for they have been giving many years. Send in the dimes and quarters at once.

We call the attention of the proper authorities to a communication this issue in regard to depositions committed in Cedar Grove Cemetery. Many of our people spend considerable time and money in keeping their lots in order, which adds much to the appearance of the cemetery, and certainly there should be a little extra effort on the part of the authorities to protect the places so dear to our people from marauders. We hope the matter will receive prompt attention.

The First Strawberry.
Master Tommie Carraway brings in the first strawberry of the season. He says he thinks he has beaten the berry growers of this section and knows he has beaten the Cat birds which have been watching the bed for the first appearance of a ripe berry.

The Vane Up.
The vane was placed over the court house yesterday and adds greatly to the finish of the spire. It moves with much ease and grace, indicating the direction of the wind with great accuracy. When the clock is in position a long-needed convenience will be within sight and hearing of many. An illuminated face, so that the time of night may be seen, will be almost a luxury.

The District Court.
The United States District court convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, Judge Seymour presiding; District Attorney W. S. O'B. Robinson and Assistant Willis Bagley representing the government. An excellent jury is in attendance from whom W. F. Rountree, Esq., was selected foreman of the grand jury. His Honor's charge was short but to the point, covering the law on all cases likely to come before the grand jury at this term. Besides the local bar there are in attendance Messrs. Louis Latham and A. L. Blow, of Greenville; Geo. H. Brown, of Washington; B. F. Mayhew and W. T. Cabot, of Bayboro; Daniel E. Ferry, of Kinston, and Thos. Gilman, of Onslow. The following cases were disposed of:

U. S. vs. Jno. S. Manix; continued for the Government on account of the absence of an important witness. The defendant was ready for trial.

U. S. vs. Joel Whitfield; retailing liquor without paying special tax. Guilty.

U. S. vs. E. B. Credle, Louis Goodwin and W. J. Mayo; failing to make election returns and to open the polls at an election precinct in Pamlico county in the election of 1882. Messrs. Geo. H. Brown, Louis C. Latham, A. L. Blow, W. T. Cabot and B. F. Mayhew appeared for the defendants. Two witnesses were examined when the Government opened its case and court adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning.

The Confederate Statue Fund.

The day was a fair one with the Statue fund, and as the time for unveiling approaches, the necessary amount to have it done without an encumbrance of debt is gradually working up by continued contributions. The people have about determined that when the beautiful piece of marble first kisses the sun that it shall be absolutely free. To do this let the contributions come right in, large or small. In the announcement yesterday morning the names of Hackburn Bros., who sent in $2.00, Miss Emma Jordan, who paid 50 cents, and Thomas McCarthy, 50 cents, were omitted by the printer, though the sums paid were included in the total receipts reported.

The following came in yesterday:
C. K. Hancock, 50c.; H. G. Tull, $1.00; Mrs. Sarah Holton, 50c.; Misses Bessie, Carrie and Nita Holton and James Holton, 25c. each; Misses Emma and Mamie Wolfenden, 25c. each; Samuel Wilson Morgan and Mary Bayard Morgan, a son and daughter of a Confederate soldier, 10c. each, Col. W. J. Clarke, 25c.; J. W. Shepard, of Co. H, 97th Reg., 50c.; M. H. Sultan $1.00, Mrs. Orpha Shanklin $1.00, Mrs. Wm. Lorch $1.00, City Marshal, J. M. Hargett, $1.00, C. T. Willis of Goldsboro $1.00, Ed Whitman $1.00, Timothy Keeler 50c., B. F. Mayhew 50c., R. G. Mallett $1.00, Unknown $1.00.
Previously reported.....$73.26
Received yesterday.....14.45

Total.....$87.71

A Large Rockfish.
Mr. Levi Pipkin had at the market yesterday a rockfish weighing 5 1/2 pounds.

The Memorial Services.
The 10th of May falling on Sunday, the Ladies' Memorial Association have determined upon Monday, the 11th, as the time for having the annual memorial services. The oration will be delivered by Capt. Graham, of Alabama, upon the life and services of General Pettigrew, which is an attraction greater than usual. And in addition to that the unveiling of the monument with the superb statue adorning it, the crowning act of the unflinching efforts of woman's devotion at the shrine of patriotism, places this day's services well ahead of any of the many solemnly pleasant ones that have gone before it. Wherefore we extend an earnest invitation to all of our country readers to come and join in the throng that will gather around the Confederate Mausoleum on Monday afternoon, May the 11th.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—We wish to enquire who are the special custodians of our cemetery, and to whom we must go with our complaints of the outrages committed there, for we have grave cause for complaint of desecration of our lots and graves by some ghouls in human form. Flowers are stolen, shrubbery broken, lots trampled and plants pulled up by the roots. In short, nothing is sacred from these ruthless bands. Is there no protection for us from such depredations? Cannot and will not the "City Fathers" come to our rescue and help us to protect the resting places of our precious dead? If there is no law on the statute book let one be enacted which will make it a punishable offense to pull a single flower, or even so much as a leaf, except by permission of the owners of private lots or the proper cemetery authorities. Time was, in the good old days when Mr. Miller was chairman of this committee, that such acts of lawlessness were not permitted, and we think that for this, if there were not other good and sufficient reasons, he should be re-elected.

Perhaps if some one with proper authority would see that the sexton spent more of his time in the cemetery, and was vested with power to arrest such offenders, it might have a wholesome effect, as they would hardly dare to commit these depredations and thefts with the fear of detection before their eyes.

Hoping this "word to the wise" may reach the proper channel through whom we may be protected from a repetition of these outrages, I am,
Respectfully,
ONE OF THE SUFFERERS.
Newbern, April 28, 1885.

The Latest War News.
LONDON, April 27.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg to Reuter's telegram company says: "War between Russia and England is now regarded as inevitable. The Czar leaves to-day for Moscow; and from that historic city he will issue his manifesto or declaration of war, if such an extreme measure should become necessary."

LONDON, April 27—2 P. M.—Russian securities have declined to 86.

It is asserted that the British government is in possession of information which proves beyond a doubt that Prince Bismarck has been urging Turkey to side with Russia in the event of a war between England and Russia.

2:30 P. M.—Russian securities have further declined to 85; Egyptian unified bonds have also fallen, and are quoted at 61.

Rumors from St. Petersburg of a fresh conflict between the Russians and Afghans are causing great uneasiness in London and on the continent, the news of the Penjdeh battle having been preceded by a similar rumor. It is generally believed also that Russia keeps back news. News that the Czar is going to Moscow is considered ominous, as a similar visit immediately preceded the Russo-Turkish war. The press comments on the public feeling in all European capitals are more despondent.

Kinston Items.

Thermometer 86° in the shade. The time is nearly out. Register! Court adjourned on Friday. Civil cases not reached.

The iron fence for Caswell monument has been ordered. By the way, it would be a good idea to place seats in the courthouse.

The annual May-day holiday for the students of Kinston College will be on next Friday.

The fish supply is now abundant. Mr. Lewis Cox sends up by each steamer a choice lot of fresh fish of every kind from fresh water.

The meetings at the Methodist church have resulted in great good to the town of Kinston. At least thirty persons have professed conversion.

Lenoir Co. Teachers' Association will meet in the chapel of Dr. Lewis' school building on Saturday, May 2. Dr. J. A. Pollock is the orator.

In cleaning up the park last week, one of the work hands drove a rake through the back of a sleeping rabbit. That man had a good supper.

The seventeen-year locusts have come promptly to time. They can be heard in Kinston now every morning and late in the afternoon and night.

The heat is driving our citizens to Archbell's, where pure frozen cream can be had at rates lower than ever before. We know this from experience.

There will be an important meeting of Lenoir Lodge No. 471, K. of H., on Tuesday night the 28th inst. All members are earnestly requested to be present.

Mr. L. J. Hill showed us on Friday a rare curiosity in the shape of a brilliantly colored duck seated on its nest. Let all go and take a look and guess of what is made. It is a wonderful freak of nature.

The Disciples Sunday-school will have their picnic at Smithfield, in Johnson county, by rail on 1st May. The Baptist Sunday-school will go by steamer to Boston Old Field on same day. The can't-get-aways will take their May-day pleasure in Riverside park.

Mr. J. A. Pridgen and lady reached home from their New Orleans trip on Thursday night. Mr. P. says he is not surprised that New Orleans is the favorite resort of yellow fever, as the drainage almost impossible. Mr. P. reports the Exposition as very fine.

There will be a musical concert and charades at Loftin's opera house on Friday night, May 8th, for the benefit of Riverside park. The citizens of Kinston will have an opportunity of hearing most excellent music, and at the same time of contributing to a most praiseworthy and patriotic object.

Jones County Items.

The bridge at Trenton needs some attention. I notice some holes in it.

The spring session of the Trenton High School will close May 25th. N. J. Rouse will deliver the address.

I have seen three stalks of corn over knee high from the ground this year, but it was growing on a rotten stump.

Farmers are busy planting cotton, several of whom have finished. The acreage is larger this year than it was last.

The river force is a short distance below the bridge at Trenton dragging out and deepening the channel; said to be doing some very good work.

Several of our old men say when you hear the whipporwills you need have no fears of cold weather injuring your crops. I have heard them over ten days ago.

The fishermen around Trenton are happy now; fish hooks and fish bait are in demand every day now. The enquiry among them is "will the fish bite to-day?"

Died, at his home near Trenton, Jones county, Dr. William Haskins, aged about 65 years. Dr. Haskins was at Trenton on Saturday last in his usual health. I am informed that he died with an apoplectic fit, having had two attacks of them during the last year.

Some farmers have curious ideas about preparing and cultivating land. I see one of our farmers in Trenton township has cut and gathered all his corn stalks and thrown them over the fence along the edge of the public road. I certainly should have let them rot on the land or else piled them and burned them and scattered the ashes.

Trenton, during court week, had a visit from a colored Voodoo doctor who sold lots of physic to the ignorant; besides he disposed of several luck charms, claiming that the possessor would succeed in all undertakings. A white gentleman from the country who is a firm believer in these charms, finding them very cheap, purchased one, paying the sable doctor 25 cents for it; took it home and kept it wrapped up very carefully until a few evenings since; he concluded that he would just carry it to town and astonish everybody with his good luck. After his arrival, he just stood spoiling for a chance to win something. In a few minutes some one proposed a treat. Our hero proposed to "let's chuck the dice and see who should treat." The crowd agreed and our luck man was the winner twice in succession. This thoroughly convinced him that the little stone which he purchased from the charm pedler, though not larger than a grain of coffee, had a tremendous magic power. By this time our country gentleman's tongue began to get limbered, and he told the crowd the cause of all his good luck, and if any doubted it he would test it by throwing with them again. The crowd were ready for the test, and our hero came out badly worsted; his luck charm had become exhausted of its magic power in his two first throws and was badly beaten every time afterwards. I don't suppose that his faith in his luck charm is sufficiently strong now to induce him to risk a five for a lottery ticket.

La Grange Items.

Dempey Wood is in Virginia looking for a team to suit.

Rev. Mr. Hiers preached here last Sunday his monthly appointment.

Work is constantly going on on our streets. First Monday in May is close at hand.

Rev. B. W. Nash was here last Saturday, and went to Hickory Grove on Sunday to preach.

A new organ has been placed in the Davis School building, to be used in connection with Divine worship to be held at that place.

We hardly think any place has the right to complain of dull times. We have visited Goldsboro and Kinston the present week, and find them comparatively dull with our place.

We are of opinion that the quantity of fertilizers sold here the present season is not so large as the last season. More kainit, probably, has come here and been sold, but of other fertilizers not so much.

Yesterday, Sunday and the day before had the appearance of rain. To-day it is clear and cool with no appearance of rain. It is now getting to be dry for cotton planting, and many of our best farmers are not yet through.

It is hard to account for differences of opinion in regard to the same measure by persons in the same place with identical interests. Probably the railroad and anti-railroad men of Goldsboro can solve the question.

Henry Fields says that he has been appointed to select and give a medal to the biggest liar in town, and after a thorough investigation has awarded the medal to Pic Croom. Henry says that if he had not been the judge the medal would have been his.

The services at the Baptist church here last Sunday and Sunday night were very interesting and instructive. Rev. Mr. Hiers, the pastor, has preached here for twelve months, and is a minister under whose care a church ought to prosper. We are glad to know that he is to serve the congregation for another year.

Allen Morris, charged with the stealing of John D. Walters' meat, and against whom there were two other indictments, one for burglary and one for perjury, has been acquitted of all the offences and returned here last Friday. That some one stole Walter's meat there is no doubt, but we suppose that the State failed to convince the jury that Morris was the man.

If a man repeatedly says hard things of another, accusing him of the most outrageous offences, and afterwards seeks counsel and aid from such, we take it that the accuser is a bad man, has forgotten the offence or made a false accusation. And yet there are such men, and of such we say, "O shame, where is thy blush."

Joe Cox, colored, assaulted and seriously wounded Mary Cox, his wife, and Fensis Sutton, both colored, last Thursday morning. The weapon used was a scymore limb and the place where the offence was committed was at Pine Bush in the Bucklesberry section of this township. Joe and his wife have been at "outs" for some time, and Thursday he came near breeding a funeral. Joe has left for parts unknown.

Stonewall Items.

The health of our community is rather hard on the business of the M. D.

You talk about hard times. An iron wedge could not be driven into it. Yet you say no such thing exists.

Jas. M. Lane has left us and is in Orange City, Fla., where he will be pleased to hear from all his friends.

Corn and cotton bids fair for a good stand. I have heard a good deal about curlew bugs, but have not yet seen any one who reports by ocular demonstration.

The schedule of the steamer Elm City is fully up to the wishes of its patrons in this section if it will only continue till time to ship potatoes. She was much missed while up for repairs.

The weather, the glorious weather we are and have been having for the last ten days, has knocked items out of socket, for no farmer can find them in his field to interest others when he has so much to do and so little to do with.

We have had to part with one of our young men, who has been with us for several years, i. e., Johnny Cowell, one of Mr. C. H. Fowler's preferred clerks, who has been transferred to Bayboro to take charge of Mr. S. H. Fowler's store, which C. H. Fowler is now the owner of. His place is supplied by Nat. Potter, a worthy young man.

"Dear Sir:—I take occasion to thank you for the prompt payment of Ten Thousand Dollars Insurance on the life of the late General Emerson Opdyke, on the morning after the acceptance by your company of the proofs of loss, and without compelling the widow to wait sixty or ninety days, as is usually done.

Your action confirms the high opinion I have had of the management of your company, which not only gives insurance at much less cost than upon the ordinary plan, but sees to it that actual insurance shall result from its policies.

I rejoice that I am among your policy-holders, and cordially wish your Company the success it so well deserves.
