Last day of April.
Grand millinery opening to-day at Mrs. M. D. Dewey's.

At the 4th ward Republican primary meeting last night J. Mumford was nominated for councilman.

P. M. Pearsall, Esq., of Trenton, was sworn in and admitted to practice in the District Court yesterday.

The registration books are now open. The Registrar of the 2nd Ward will be found at the former City Clerk's office.

The ladies of the Memorial Association are requested to meet this, Thursday, afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Daves, to decide several matters of importance.

Scherwin & Ash come to the front again in this issue with a new advertisement. They now occupy the brick store next to Humphrey & Howard and have an elegant display of clothing and furnishing goods.

It seems that our facilities for obtaining brick are soon to be as good as at any place in the State. We learn from parties visiting Peacock & Herring's brick yard near this place that they are rapidly turning out brick of an excellent quality and shape. Furthermore, it will be remembered that these gentlemen's brick were considered the best on exhibition at the Raleigh exposition last fall, and their brick are now on exhibition at the World's Fair in New Orleans.

The Graded School.
Yesterday we had the pleasure of visiting the Graded School in company with Capt. W. S. Byrd, County Superintendent of Lenoir county. The Captain is a graduate of Trinity College of the class of 1860, and has been engaged in teaching since the close of the war. He is earnest in his praise of our school and the new building, and thinks the people of New Berne ought to feel proud of it. We appreciate this compliment, coming as it does, from an outsider who is fully competent to judge.

Delegates Elected.
At a meeting of the vestry of Christ's Church, New Berne, held on the 27th inst., the following named gentlemen were elected delegates and alternates to the second annual convention of the Diocese of East Carolina, which will (D. V.) meet in St. Mary's Church, Kingston, on Wednesday, the 13th day of May, 1885:
Delegates—Maj. Jno. Hughes, Messrs. H. R. Bryan, G. H. Roberts and W. H. Oliver.
Alternates—Hon. Jno. S. Long, Mr. Jno. Dunn, Dr. Jas. B. Hughes and Gen. R. Ransom.

Personal.
John H. Small, Esq., of the Washington Gazette, called to see us yesterday. He is making a capital paper for Washington and richly deserves the success he is reaping.
Mr. J. F. Parrott was in the city yesterday looking as young as a graded school boy.
Mr. P. M. Pearsall, of Trenton, is in attendance upon the United States court.

Dr. W. H. Barker returned last night from an extended tour through the tobacco region.
Capt. E. R. Page and Sheriff Koonce of Trenton, are in the city.
Mrs. J. P. Brogden and Mrs. Dr. Scarborough, of Trenton, are in the city visiting friends.

The Insurance Law and the Treasurer.
The following circular letter has been sent by State Treasurer D. W. Bain to the clerk of the superior court of each county: "I enclose a copy of the insurance law of North Carolina, as amended by act of the General Assembly, ratified 6th day of March, 1885.

"Referring especially to the provision in section 1, relating to the withdrawal from the State treasury of the deposits of fire insurance companies, I respectfully request you to inform me if there is any outstanding loss, incurred by any fire insurance company before the 4th day of March, 1885, for which an action is pending or judgment has been obtained. In case of any such loss or losses you will please give the name of each claimant, date of each action or judgment, and amount."

If there are any parties in New Berne who have sustained a loss by fire prior to March 4th, 1885, who have not received their insurance, they had better report the fact to the Clerk of our Superior Court that he may give the information desired to the State Treasurer.

The Confederate Statue Fund.

There was a rush of contributors yesterday and the statue is now free. The following are the contributors:

The Confederate Statue Free.

Just a week ago to-day we made the first appeal for one hundred dollars to aid the ladies of the Memorial Association to finish paying for the statue for the Confederate monument in the cemetery. This Association was organized about eighteen years ago and the members thereof have contributed regularly in quarterly dues for the purpose of placing a fitting tribute in Cedar Grove Cemetery to the memory of the true men of New Berne and this section who so nobly responded to the call of their native State in her hour of distress. In addition to these quarterly contributions, they have from time to time received donations from many of our citizens, and held festivals and fairs the proceeds of which were applied to the object in view until the foundation and base of the monument were completed. In this unfinished state it has remained for several years. Last fall they determined to make an effort to have it completed by the annual memorial services this spring. So they appealed to the public for contributions, in response to which they received pledges of $25 each from Gen. Robert Ransom, Maj. John Hughes and Mr. Geo. Allen. With these pledges they still lacked about one hundred dollars having money enough to pay for the statue, which was ordered by Mr. J. K. Willis. It arrived here about a week ago and the JOURNAL at once opened a list for voluntary contributions in small or large amounts, and we are glad to say that our most hopeful expectations have not only been met but exceeded.

As will be seen by reference to the fund report this morning, the one hundred dollars has been contributed and something over, but as the amount first asked for was limited to one hundred dollars of our own estimate, and chiefly because it was the most that we thought we could reasonably expect to raise, we will continue to receive as heretofore up to Saturday evening of this week. We are induced to do so because we have learned that more is actually needed to meet the demands on the Association, and further because we know that there are many of our citizens who wish to contribute who have not yet done so.

To all such we now say, hand in whatever amounts you feel disposed to give, and it will be properly disposed of by the noble Association, which has, with such undaunted courage, contributed for a suitable memorial to the brave men whose ashes repose beneath the monument now about to be completed.

Governor Jarvis in the City.

Governor Jarvis held a reception last night at the residence of Capt. H. W. Wahab, whose guest he is, and there was a real jam of his friends and admirers present to shake the hand of their favorite Governor and wish boundless blessings on him and his in the journey they are soon to take and during their stay abroad.

The Board of Trade and Cotton and Grain Exchange were each represented by a large delegation of members, while the Bar was well represented by both resident and non-resident members who were in attendance on the District Court.

The District Court.

Court convened at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, when the case of U. S. vs. E. B. Credle, Lewis Goodwin and Wiley J. Mayo for refusing to open the polls and hold an election at Rose Bay precinct, Pamlico county, for the election in November, 1882, was resumed. The Register of Deeds of Pamlico was introduced to prove that the above gentlemen were appointed judges of the election to be held at that time by the county commissioners. Here the testimony closed for the Government. The defendants introduced no evidence. Geo. H. Brown, Esq., of counsel, asked that the jury be instructed that there was no evidence that these gentlemen had been notified of their appointment as registrar and judges of election. A long discussion here followed as to whether the defendants were officers of election before they had been sworn, and whether or not they had accepted the appointments as registrar and judges. The arguments were made by Geo. H. Brown, Esq., for the defendants and Willis Bagley, Esq., for the Government. His Honor held that they were officers before being sworn in, as the law required them to perform certain duties on Saturday before the election while they were required to be sworn on the day of election. The question as to their acceptance was submitted to the jury. Mr. Bagley argued the case for the Government, Mr. Caho for the defendants. Verdict, not guilty.

U. S. vs. Samuel Howard, illicit distilling; verdict, guilty. Judgment suspended on payment of cost.
Court adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning.

Music.

EDITOR JOURNAL.—It has been frequently remarked that the JOURNAL reporter is totally incapable of allowing anything of interest in our city to pass unnoticed; but he certainly missed a rich and rare treat by not attending the Musicales given by Miss Hattie Harrison on last Monday evening.
The pieces selected were by those most popular and standard composers, Sydney Smith, Weber, Gottschalk, Chopin, Gustave Lange, Czibulka, Mendelssohn, Blake, Suppe and Kube; they were most brilliantly and delicately executed by her pupils, who, I hesitate not to say, compare most favorably with those of many professors whom I have heard in larger cities.
Their style of interpretation and execution is a sufficient comment on the ability of Miss Harrison as a teacher.
These Musicales are given monthly, and it is to be regretted that so few of the patrons attend. If more interest were manifested by parents, it would tend greatly to increase the ambition and aspiration of the pupils.

The Latest War News.

ANOTHER BATTLE REPORTED.
LONDON, April 28.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Daily News says: "I am informed on good authority of another engagement on the Afghan frontier. Of 1,700 Russians who engaged the Afghans nearly all were killed."
News of another battle (though it is yet unconfirmed) has been received. The Times says that the rumor is probably the first oozing out of news which has been officially suppressed.
At present only the Independence Belge and Daily News have received reports of the battle. It is presumed that a body of Russians followed a body of retreating Afghans while scouting in the country for the purpose of collecting information, and perhaps pushed on to Chame Nebade, thus coming into contact with the Afghan troops on the direct route to Herat; or a similar movement may have been made from Zulfiar or Akrobat. At present there is nothing to show where the conflict occurred.

LONDON, April 28.—A declaration of war is not expected to follow directly upon the rupture of diplomatic relations. Baron de Stael and Sir Edward Thornton would be recalled and Russia would then probably order Gen. Komaroff to advance on Herat, England meanwhile occupying Quetta and Candahar. The fact that a Russian transport which passed through the Suez canal and then was ordered back, is still waiting at the entrance of the Suez canal, causes some anxiety.

Mr. A. P. W., of Hampton, Ga., has recently emerged from one of the most remarkable cases of Blood Poison on record. His body and limbs had no less than four hundred small ulcers—his bones tormented him with pains—his appetite failed—his kidneys presented frightful symptoms—and all doctors and 100 bottles of the most popular Blood Poison remedy failed to give him any relief. He secured B. B. B., the concentrated quick cure, and five bottles healed the ulcers, relieved all pain, cured his kidneys, restored his appetite, and made him a healthy and happy man. Any one can secure his full name and correspond with him.
Mary Chapman, of Atlanta, gained 44 pounds of flesh while using five bottles of B. B. B., and was cured of a wonderful case of scrofula of the neck.

DR. C. D. RICE, MANAGER
SOUTHERN DEPT.,
RALEIGH, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—I took a policy in the Mutual Trust Fund Life Association of New York in Feb. 1884, and am so well pleased with it that I have this day applied for an increase of my insurance.
Respectfully,
SAM'L W. SMALLWOOD.

CLIPPINGS.

It only costs $3 to dress a family in Porto Rico for a whole year. It is expended mostly in hats.—[Texas Siftings].
All the members of a Chicago baseball club have had the fever and ague. They call themselves the qui-9.—[Whitehall Times].
Nothing tries the patience of a physician so much as the pay-shants of his patients.—[Whitehall Times].
Physicians laugh at the faith cure.—Ex. Of course they do. A doctor can charge a man for two grains of quinine and a cent's worth of powdered sugar more than he could for a whole barrel of faith.—[Evansville Argus].
"Will you have spring bottoms to these trousers?" said the city tailor as he took his country customer's measure.
"Well, I rather guess not," was the reply. "Spring has got so far along you may as well make summer bottoms to 'em."—[Boston Bulletin].

No living man can tell a girl baby from a boy baby, and yet if he makes a mistake the mother can never forgive him.—[Philadelphia Call].
"What is it makes a spring?" queries a poet. We always supposed that the cake-taker in this line was the flea.—[Burlington Free Press].
You never ought to bring a cigar by its scent. Many of them bring 5 cents.—[Boston Times].
Truth crushed to earth will rise again, but nobody ever tries to crush a gas meter. Probably it is because there is no truth in it.—[Fall River Advance].
President Cleveland is passionately fond of flowers. This shows that he is as good as he is great.

You can always tell a room kept by a bachelor—the windows look kind of frosted like.—[Kentucky State Journal].
In England the country doctor is sometimes called the "Village Pill." If he is a doctor he finds it very hard to get any woman to take him.—[Lowell Citizen].
The dude will not be able to conceal himself inside of his collar this season, as it is to be made narrow.—[Boston Post].

Colonel Lamont is ill and has been ordered to take a rest. He wishes that the untiring office-seekers would follow his physician's advice and retire permanently.
Dude—Doctor, I wish you would do something for me. I've such a horrid pain in my head.
Doctor—I congratulate you.
Dude—Congratulate me—why?
Doctor—That there is something in it, Snap.

Abdul Rahman is sharper than the last syllable of his front name signifies, although he is a blunt speaker.
A. Haller Gross, the recently appointed Consul to Greece, is suffering from a bilious attack. Too much grease often causes biliousness.

"If you knock that chip off my shoulder," says the British Lion to the Russian Bear, "I'll!"
"Why, I—I—I'll just put another one on. So, there, now!"

The suggestive sub-title of a new book is, "Who Should Pay the Doctor?" The executor, or in cases of intestacy, the administrator. A rudimentary knowledge of law would have saved this author the necessity of writing.—[Buffalo Express].

Scientists claim that cigarette-smoking leads to idiocy. We do not know how true this is, but are satisfied that idiocy leads to cigarette-smoking.—[Texas Siftings].

There is said to have been discovered a kind of tobacco which, if smoked or chewed, will make a man forget that he owes a dollar in the world. We have several friends who smoke it.—[Boston Post].

"The Zuni Indians," we are told, "have smoked cigarettes for 700 years." We have seen portraits of Zuni Indians, and they looked as if the originals might be about seven hundred years old. But just imagine how old they would have been if they had never touched the health-destroying "cigarette!"—[Norristown Herald].

To any body who has disease of throat or lungs, we will send proof that Piso's Cure for Consumption has cured the same complaints in other cases. Address,
