May.

The Roll of Honor will appear tomorrow.
R. B. Nixon, dealer in shoes, has made an assignment to O. H. Guion, Esq.

Minister Jarvis visited our graded school yesterday and was well pleased. The children, however, could not prevail upon him to preach a sermon.

About this time last year the board of city councilmen advertised for all debts created by said board, to be presented before the expiration of the year. Would it not be well for the present board to do likewise? They should at least give vouchers for services rendered during the last month, whether they have the money or not.

Gov. Jarvis, accompanied by several of the trustees and citizens, visited the graded schools yesterday, and examined all the grades. They express themselves as very highly pleased with all they saw. The management, curriculum and efficiency of the school, they think, perfect, or as nearly so as is possible. No school in the State can make a better show for the year's work. The order and general discipline of the school were commented on as very superior. The school buildings and grounds, for utility and beauty, cannot be surpassed anywhere; and, in fact the people of New Berne may congratulate themselves, and thank the trustees and teachers, that they have a school that has no superior in North Carolina.

Sale of a Steamer.

The steamer Carolina, of the Red line, was sold yesterday by Watson & Street, auctioneers, at the foot of Craven street. Mr. U. S. Mace was the purchaser, at $3,100.

Correction.

In the statement of $25 pledges to the Memorial Association published yesterday, we were in error as to the number, there being four instead of three, as stated, the name of Dr. J. B. Hughes having been inadvertently omitted.

Personal.

Lieut. M. F. Prouty and wife, of Chicago, and Mr. W. H. Prouty, of Spencer, Mass., who have been spending a number of days in the city, have returned North. They were guest of the "New Central" while here and were much pleased with their visit. Both these gentlemen were at New Berne during the late war.

Cemetery Depredations.

In Wednesday's issue we published a communication in which complaint was made of depredations committed on private lots in Cedar Grove Cemetery. Since then we learn that the sexton of the cemetery finds much difficulty in protecting these lots because of the fact that parties owning them permit others to take flowers from their lots. When the sexton accosts any one for plucking flowers from a private lot he is told that they have permission. There should be concerted effort on the part of the chairman of the cemetery committee, the sexton and the owners of private lots to protect the cemetery from these marauders. On our last visit to the cemetery we found its general condition good, and we hope that the sexton will renew his efforts to protect the private lots from the depredations complained of.

The Confederate State Fund.

The receipts yesterday were quite encouraging, and especially so, as the larger amounts were remembrances of former citizens now in distant parts. In yesterday's report the total receipts should have been $3.50 more than stated, and we correct it this morning. The receipts yesterday were:

Capt. S. B. Waters, $1.00; D. S. Caraway, Plymouth, $2.00; a little girl, 25c.; Prof. E. G. Daves, Baltimore, $4.00; Graham Daves de Rosset, 25c.; Mrs. E. B. Cox, 50c.; Miss E. J. Hall, $1.00; little Hannah and Geo. Attmore, $1.00; Mrs. Jas. W. Catmer, Baltimore, $5.00.
Previously reported.....$113.81
Undistributed Wednesday..... 3 50
Received yesterday..... 15 00
Total.....$132.31

DIED.

At his residence, in this city, at 8:15 p. m., April 30th, Mr. F. S. Duffy.
Funeral notice will be given tomorrow.

The District Court.

Court convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, when the case of U. S. vs. MacG. Holliday of Pitt county, for failing to attend as registrar with the registration book at Pactolus precinct in an election held for member of Congress in the special election in the 2d Congressional district in 1883. Messrs. Louis C. Latham and A. L. Blow of Greenville, and Simmons & Manly of this city, appeared for the defendant, and district attorney Robinson and assistant Bagley for the Government. The evidence showed that the registration book of the precinct had been stolen from the defendant while attending at the polling place for the purpose of registering voters a few days before the election. At the conclusion of the testimony for the defendant the Government agreed to a verdict of not guilty.

U. S. vs. Joseph N. Rogers for passing counterfeit money was next called. Geo. H. Brown, Esq., of Washington, and Green & Stevenson appeared for the defendant. The District Attorney and assistant for the Government. Defendant agreed to a verdict of guilty in three cases.

U. S. vs. A. L. Wiggins, removing spirits without having been stamped. Moore & Clarke for the defendant. Verdict, guilty.

U. S. vs. F. P. Harper, retailing liquor without license. Moore & Clarke for the defendant. Verdict, not guilty.

U. S. vs. A. L. Wiggins, selling tobacco without license. Moore & Clarke for the defendant. Verdict, guilty.

U. S. vs. A. L. Wiggins, retailing liquor without license; Moore & Clarke for the defendant. Verdict, ———

U. S. vs. Jones H. Young, embezzlement of postoffice funds. Moore & Clarke for the defendant. Verdict, guilty.
Court adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning.

The Reception at Capt. Wahab's.

At the reception Wednesday night among the other good things was a serenade by the Silver Cornet Band, which played some splendid airs in the best style.

At the table toasts were proposed, drunk and responded to.

The first by Mr. Clem. Manly to Governor Jarvis; responded to by Maj. L. C. Lathan.

The second by the same to Minister Jarvis; response from F. M. Simmons, Esq.

The third to North Carolina and Brazil; to which Minister Jarvis responded in person, submitting his remarks in happy style, which abounded with sentiments of the highest patriotism.

The Judiciary of [North Carolina was responded to by Judge Seymour in brief remarks but of highly appreciated character. The Judge alluded to his first acquaintance with Minister Jarvis as dating back to the Legislature of 1868, when they met in that body on opposite sides, politically, of course, but still were friends and he said that friendship had not only continued, but increased from that time to this.

After this the Minister withdrew from the table to the front parlor, and the ceremonies became less formal and toasts were offered and (of course drunk) responded to by several gentlemen in happy style, manner and sentiment; in fact the bar became charge de Affairs; and the affairs were pretty well charged.

The evening was pleasantly spent, and but one sentiment prevailed in the crowd, and that was a prosperous journey to the Minister, a safe and happy return to his own beloved State when his term of service shall have ended in the high position to which he has been commissioned by the Government.
Capt. Wahab was unbounded in attentions, and his genial manners were brought to their tension to make each and every caller feel at ease and enjoy the pleasant occasion.

To the Voters of First Ward.

Some of my opponents, sleeplessly industrious and ever faithful in their inventions, are now rolling under their frothy tongues their last and pitiful little canard, that if elected I will favor the displacement of the present Engineer of Sibley Engine, having made promises to vote for Mr. Edward Lewis for that place. I wish to state that the report is wholly groundless; that I have made no pledges and am moving on to victory free and unfettered.
R. P. WILLIAMS.

In confirmation of the above report in regard to myself, I desire to state that Mr. R. P. Williams has made no proffers to me of his favor, influence or vote for fire engineer or any other position, and furthermore I do not wish any place whatever.
EDWARD LEWIS.

NEW BERNE, N. C., April 8, 1885.
DR. C. D. RICE, MANAGER
SOUTHERN DISPENSARY,
Raleigh, N. C.

DEAR SIR:—I took a policy in the Mutual Trust Fund Life Association of New York in Feb. 1884, and I am so well pleased with it that I have this day applied for an increase of my insurance. Respectfully,
SAM'L W. SMALLWOOD.

The Proper Thing.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—I have clipped the following from a Western paper, and as it so much better expresses my own views on this important subject than I could do it myself, I beg that you give it to your readers with my hearty endorsement.
Very respectfully,
AN OLD READER.

ED. N. Y. WORLD:—Will you please settle this question? We will abide by your decision: My brother says it is proper for a lady to take a gentleman's arm while walking, but I think a gentleman should take a lady's arm. Which is correct? Please answer in your next paper and oblige
ROSEBUD.
Harrisville, N. C., Nov. 13.
[It is the duty of a gentleman escorting a lady always to offer his arm, especially at night. A gentleman never takes a lady's arm. Etiquette does not now require a lady to take a gentleman's arm when promading in the day time.—Ed. World.]

We have seen intimations in the papers that the very improper and latter-day custom that prevails in some places, of men taking familiarly the arms of females, has found its way into some sections in the South. Can this be true? Are there any well-bred ladies who would allow such indecent familiarity? The Charleston Observer some two years ago commented sharply on this tolerable vulgarity.—Wilmington Star.

Senior Speaking.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., April 23, 1885.
EDITOR JOURNAL:—Senior speaking took place here on April 23 at 10 o'clock a. m. in Memorial Hall. The Durham band made music for the occasion. The speakers generally discussed live topics. Before the speaking began Dr. Battle rose and expressed some anxiety as to the experiment that was about to be made with the acoustics of Memorial Hall. They proved to be satisfactory though.

Mr. L. N. Ingram lectured Saturday night on "Australia's Native Race." Mr. Ingram lived as an editor four years in Australia and has had the means of knowing the natives well.
Work is progressing rapidly on the gymnasium. There is no doubt it will be ready by commencement.

Kinston Items.

Three picnics this week.
Dullness reigns on Queen street.

Early vegetables are in the Kinston market.

Mr. Pulaski Cowper, adjuster of the N. C. Home Insurance Co., is in town adjusting claims for losses in the recent fire.

Riverside park continues to receive more improvements daily. The new rustic seats add greatly to comfort and appearance.
Mr. Rayner has added greatly to the handsome appearance of his residence by a few judicious arrangements of dormer windows.

The youngest child of Mrs. Mary Taylor, a little boy of two years of age, died at the residence of Mrs. James W. Harper in Kinston on Monday.
Mr. T. C. Joyner has a writing school every night except Saturday and Sunday, at the Graded School building. Good chance for bad chirographers.

The house on the northwest corner of North and Queen sts., familiarly known a few years ago as "Last Chance," is being refitted internally for use as a store. Kinston is thus turning its attention to internal improvements.

Five or six of our town fishermen went off on Monday's steamer to Village creek, that paradise of anglers. They will return Wednesday, perhaps, loaded with the spoils of war, the trophies of the rod and line.

The interior of the county jail is being taken out, to give place for the new steel cells. It is a tough job; but the chairman of the county commissioners, Mr. Jas. A. Pridgen, is giving it his personal attention, and it will be done well.

The Latest War News.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 29.—The Novoe Vremya, acting it is believed under imperial inspiration, has attracted attention by publishing an article with a startling head-line: "On the Eve of War." This article says: "Russia, in the event of war, will settle matters with England in India and not in Afghanistan alone."

A dispatch from St. Petersburg, dated yesterday, states that it is believed there that the full text of the British proposal concerning the suggested mixed tribunal to examine into and report on the discrepancies between the reports of Gen. Komaroff and Sir Peter Lumsden concerning the battle of Panjdeh did not reach St. Petersburg until yesterday and that therefore no Russian reply had been yet sent to London.

BOMBAY, INDIA, April 29.—A special dispatch from Tirpud dated April 18 says that the Russians occupy Ak Tepe, and are actively at work making a military road from Panjdeh to Herat.

BERLIN, April 29.—The National Zeitung says that Germany remains neutral in the present crisis in the relations of England and Russia, adding that no request has been received for mediation. The National Zeitung also denies that the Czar wrote the Emperor of Germany that the chances for peace had diminished.

"Well, how did you like the sermon, to-day?"
"The sermon?"
"Yes; you were at church, weren't you?"
"Why, yes; certainly."
"Then you can tell how you liked the sermon, I suppose? You heard it, didn't you?"
"Heard it? Certainly not. I belong to the choir."—Boston Courier.

North Carolina Teachers' Assembly.

The "Chautauqua" held at Waynesville last summer was the first educational gathering of the kind ever seen in the South. Since that time many of our sister States have organized similar meetings, but North Carolina teachers wear the laurels as leaders of this great educational movement.

Every county superintendent in the State who desires to advance the educational interests of his county ought, by all means, to attend the Assembly, as new and practical ideas will be there developed and discussed which will be of very great interest and importance to them and their work.

Have you secured your "certificate of membership" from the Treasurer? Do not delay this important thing until you are almost ready to take the train, as you will need the certificate in purchasing the Assembly ticket at your railroad station. The Treasurer's address is R. S. Arrowood, Concord, N. C.

The excellent "Teachers' Bureau" will be a most valuable feature of the Assembly. This department will be organized at the beginning of the session and will assist all teachers who may desire situations, and it will aid school officers and committees in obtaining good teachers. Any person needing a teacher for the fall term should address an application to "Teachers' Bureau, Black Mountain, N. C.," stating qualifications desired and salary to be paid, also any other matters of importance, and the application will have prompt and careful attention. Teachers who want schools should give their names to the Bureau at an early day, so that they may be properly entered and classified. State your qualifications as fully as possible, also how much experience you have had in teaching, and mention the religious denomination with which you may be connected.

How we shall enjoy the pleasant "hand-shaking" with our "Chautauqua friends" of last summer! The coming session of the Assembly will seem but the delightful reunion of a great family of sympathetic and congenial co-laborers, and as we again listen to the enthusiastic and encouraging words of Reinhart, Wright, Smith, McIver, Branson, Arrowood, Faucett, Starnes, Morrison, Anderson, Gilliam, Williams, Weatherly, Frazier, Cobb, Misses Woodward, Goodloe, Pescud, Marshall and hosts of others, it will almost appear that this session is but a continuation of last summer's enjoyable meeting after but a short recess. And how we shall rejoice in the many pleasant new acquaintances to be formed with fellow-teachers throughout the State and educational leaders from abroad! If North Carolina does not advance several steps in educational work during the next year the blame will certainly not rest with her teachers.

The following rates of fare have been made for the Assembly tickets for the round trip: New Bern $11.00; Kinston $9.20; LaGrange $9.80; Goldsboro $9.20; Wilson $10.65; Magnolia $11.35; Rocky Mount $11.65; Enfield $12.75; Tarboro $12.85; Wilmington $12.50; Raleigh $8.50; Durham $8.25; Chapel Hill $8.50; Greensboro $8.00; Salisbury $6.30; High Point $7.75; Henderson $10.75; Wake Forest $9.70; Charlotte $8.00; Concord $7.75. The tickets will be on sale June 8th and 10th, and you cannot go on any other days at the special rate. The session will begin at Black Mountain on the 11th of June at 10 o'clock. Tickets are good for forty-five days from day of sale, and will permit the holder to return on any train and stop over at any points desired. The limit of the ticket is sufficient for you to attend at any of the normal schools, and the entire railroad fare will then, in many cases, be less than simply a ticket to the normal without the trip to the Assembly. Have your baggage checked through to Black Mountain from the point where you take the train. There will be no change of cars at Salisbury. Persons wanting a sleeper should write at once to E. G. Harrell, Secretary, at Raleigh, in order that it may be secured in advance.—North Carolina Teacher.

Mr. A. P. W., of Hampton, Ga., has recently emerged from one of the most remarkable cases of Blood Poison on record. His body and limbs had no less than four hundred small ulcers—his bones tormented him with pains—his appetite failed—his kidneys presented frightful symptoms—and all doctors and 100 bottles of the most popular Blood Poison remedy failed to give him any relief. He secured B. B. B., the concentrated quick cure, and five bottles healed the ulcers, relieved all pain, cured his kidneys, restored his appetite, and made him a healthy and happy man. Any one can secure his full name and correspond with him.
Mary Chapman, of Atlanta, gained 44 pounds of flesh while using five bottles of B. B. B., and was cured of a wonderful case of scrofula of the neck.
