

LOCAL NEWS.

Funeral Notice. The funeral of Joseph H. Flanner, late of Paris, France, will take place from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Mary E. Mayhew this morning at 10 o'clock.

BUSINESS LOCALS.

Mr. Dillingham informs her friends and former patrons that her ice cream rooms are now open for the season. A liberal discount made on orders by the gallon.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A first-class Soda Fountain. K. R. JONES.

FOR RENT.—The large store, S. E. corner South Front and Middle streets, lately occupied by Mr. Wabab. Apply to CHARLES DUFFY, JR.

Tomorrow in Memorial Day. Eureka Lodge No. 7, L. O. O. F., meets to-morrow night.

Thos. Gates & Co. makes a proposition in this issue "to the city trade."

Mrs. Dillingham has given us substantial proof that the ice-cream from her parlor is first class.

We are indebted to Mr. J. L. Rhem for a nice present of asparagus, for which he has our thanks.

Mr. L. H. Cutler is making quite an improvement in the sidewalk in front of his dwelling on the corner of Pollock and Hancock streets.

Rev. C. A. Jenkins is attending the Southern Baptist Convention at Augusta, Georgia, and there will be no services at the Middle street Baptist Church to-day.

Messrs. Moore & Brady had more eyes at the factory yesterday than they could get hands to open. Pea picking time is at hand, and there is no time now for loafers.

The remains of Mr. Joseph H. Flanner arrived by the train last night, from Paris, and will be interred in Cedar Grove Cemetery, this morning at 10 o'clock, from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Mayhew, on Middle street.

The Confederate statue was put in position yesterday by Mr. J. K. Willis and will be unveiled to-morrow evening. The JOURNAL's appeals for money to help defray the cost of $133.91, this amount was sent in by over two hundred contributors in two weeks and has been paid over to the Ladies' Memorial Association, which we hope is sufficient to relieve it of all indebtedness.

The Shenandoah will take out a large shipment of peas, to-day. The fields near the city were dotted with hands all day yesterday and the carts and wagons were hauling down to the Old Dominion wharf until well after dark. It is a commendable thing in this line to make this extra trip which has given our truckers an opportunity to push forward their peas, turnips, asparagus, etc.

Capt. Hamilton C. Graham, who is to deliver the address before the Memorial Association on Monday, arrived Friday night and the headquarters of Major John Hughes. The Captain has been absent for several years, but meets a goodly number of his schoolmates, who are delighted to shake his hand again and welcome him to the scenes of his boyhood.

Church Services To-day. M. E. Church—Services by Rev. G. W. Neal, at 11 a. m. Public cordially invited. Seals free.

Presbyterian Church—Services by the Pastor, Rev. L. C. Vasa, at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. Subject of morning discourse, "Profession and Practice." Sabbath School at 9 a. m. The public are invited to attend.

Christ Church—W. W. Shields, Rector. 8 a. m., Holy Communion; 11 a. m., Morning Prayer; 7 p. m., Sunday School; 8 p. m., Burial Office. The public are invited to attend the services of this Church.

The Truckers. A beautiful sight, it is to drive out on any road leading to New Berne and view the vast fields of growing potatoes, turnips, cabbage, beans, asparagus, etc. The most extensive of these on the Front road is the farm of Mr. J. L. Rhem. He cultivates everything that is grown on a truck farm, and his prospects this year are the brightest since 1853. He gives his personal attention to the details of the farm in all the times on the go, securing the powers of a steam engine for endurance and push. All the farms along this road are looking healthy and vigorous, and large numbers of hands, like an immense flock of black birds, could be seen in every field.

DEAR SIR:—I took a policy in the Mutual Trust Fund Life Association of New York in Feb. 1884, and I am so well pleased with it that I have this day applied for an increase of my insurance. Respectfully, H. W. SMALLWOOD.

If you have a bad cold, a sore throat or a fever, call on my wife, Mrs. J. M. DUFFY, at 10 o'clock.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of Joseph H. Flanner, late of Paris, France, will take place from the residence of his sister, Mrs. Mary E. Mayhew this morning at 10 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.

Schooner Arrives.

The Cherubin, Capt. Nelson, from Philadelphia, with a cargo of brick for L. H. Cutler.

The Ella R. Hill, Capt. Hill, from Norfolk with coal.

Great Seal of the Province of Carolina.

There was a slight error in the description of the Great Seal of the Lords Proprietors of Carolina in our issue of the 9th instant. The "supporters" are Indians as stated. It should have been added, however, that one of them—the dexter supporter—is a woman. In her right arm she holds an infant and at her knee stands a little boy holding a spear.

Personals.

John S. Long, Esq., left yesterday morning for Wilmington, where he delivers the Memorial address tomorrow.

The familiar countenance of Ralph Gray greeted us yesterday on the Old Dominion wharf. He has recently returned from college.

Mrs. Stella Williams, of Clinton, is in the city visiting friends.

Proceedings of the Convention at Augusta, Ga.

AUGUSTA, GA., May 7.—The Baptist Convention was called to order here today by Vice President Reuben Jones, of Virginia. Reports of the Vice-Presidents were received and reports on Foreign Missions were referred to select committees. A resolution to consolidate home and foreign mission boards was introduced, but was ruled out of order. It will again be introduced. An address on ministerial education was delivered by Dr. Manly, of Kentucky. The Convention was addressed by two delegates from Mexico—Messrs. Forke Rodriguez and J. Martinez, who spoke in the Mexican tongue with an interpreter. Religious exercises, conducted by Vice-Presidents Redding and Reas, of Texas, are in progress.

Dr. J. W. Jones, of Va., offered a resolution referring the question of the eligibility of women to sit in the Convention to a committee of one from each State. The resolution was adopted. On invitation, Dr. B. Manly, of Ky., addressed the Convention on "Ministerial Education." He offered a resolution expressing the sense of the Convention that earnest prayer should be made for more laborers to be sent into the harvest. He had not come, he said, to ask for money, but for men to work and qualify themselves for higher work; men called of God, who will devote themselves to work; men who have trust in themselves. This is the great need of the Church, and we should not neglect the opportunity in our reach. Our Master requires us to pray to the Lord of Heaven and to send forth more laborers. Men may make themselves presidents and other high officials, but true ministers of the gospel get their appointments from Heaven. Prayer offered by us, implies our readiness to seek out those whom God has appointed to do His work, and help them to prepare for it, and to support those who are engaged in it. A seminary has been established to help those whom the churches have presented as in their opinion called to their work. The speaker related a number of interesting reminiscences illustrating the utility of preparing men thoroughly for work in God's ministry. Dr. Manly's resolution was adopted.

Rev. Eeden Andrews, President of Baylor University, Texas, conducted the special order for half hour's religious exercises.

By special invitation Rev. Reuben Jones, of Virginia, delivered an eloquent address about the "Borderland between Earth and Heaven."

Rev. T. C. Steele, of Mississippi, who was present at the meeting at Providence, R. I., related incidents of that meeting, from which Southern members withdrew to organize the Southern Baptist Convention in Augusta in 1845. Brethren present then were asked to stand up, and fifteen rose in their places. They were Dr. P. H. Bell, Georgia; Reuben Jones, Virginia; J. S. Bledsoe, Texas; S. B. Deaham, E. Watson, Jonathan Miller, S. F. Gessner, T. E. Smith and J. A. Lawton, South Carolina; E. R. Corwell, Georgia; J. L. Burrows, Virginia; W. H. McInnes, and S. G. Hillery, Georgia; and C. P. Irvin and Henry Talbert, South Carolina.

Hon. Wm. Burchell, President of the American Baptist Publication Society, made a practical address on Mission Work, and advocated the co-operation of women in the world.

Dr. Bitting, Secretary of the same Society, made a stirring address upon "Bible Work."

The afternoon session was taken up with a discussion of Foreign Missions. The committee to which the question of the future work of the Foreign Board was referred, reported, counselling renewed efforts and expansion of the work.

The committee to which the Treasurer's report was referred, reported that it was duly audited and found correct, and considering the stringency of the past year, quite gratifying.

There were other speakers on the subject of Foreign Missions, but the feature of the exercises was an address by Dr. T. D. Powell, missionary to Mexico, and addressed to our native Mexican people, and addressed to the converts that were attending a convention in this country at their own expense. They are good speakers and addressed the Convention in their native tongue, Missionary

NECROPOLIS.

(CITY OF THE DEAD.)

An Ode for Decoration Day, May 10th, 1885.

Respectfully inscribed to the patriotic sons of North Carolina, who, at the call of their native State, forsook their homes and firesides to face the dangers of the battle-field, and endure the toils of the march, and the exposure and hardships of the camp.

By Wm. J. CLARK, Colonel 24th Reg't N. C. Troops.

Bring flowers to decorate the graves. Where CAROLINA laid her bravest; "With all their country's wishes blest" The martyred heroes calmly rest. They bravely fought, they nobly fell, And Fame, through coming years, shall tell.

Their noble deeds, their daring high, Their stern resolve "to do, or die." CAROLINA, bowed in dust and tears, Worn by the woes of weary years, TIME holds in sacred trust for thee A proud and lofty destiny.

With daughters pure, and fair, and true, And sons as brave as sword or draw, While Truth and Justice rule the land, Thy pillars evermore shall stand.

Bear high the column's lofty head Above the patriotic dead, Far-sounding, let the funeral bell Ring, solemnly, the soldier's knell. Bring flowers, the choicest in the land, And scatter them with lavish hand, No offering can you bring today, No noble on these tombs to lay.
