Efforts are being made to secure a Elm City. The people in the Lake Landing section are anxious for it and we hope our citizens here will aid in the effort to get it!

Bannel Campen, of Pamlico county, tellsius that the curlew bug is not so bad in his section as last year. A gretty fair stand of corn has been obtained in his neighborhood, but cotton continues to die out on account of the gool weather.

It so happened that three members of our City Council were in Washington, N. C. on Thursday. One in the interest two in their own interest, which seemed to run so completely in the same direction that each wished the other away.

The bulk of the pea crop has gone forward, and the farmers are now busily engaged in clearing off the vines and putting in cotton. We have not yet ascertained what measure of success has attended the crop of this season, but feel safe in saying that none have lost while many have made a handsome profit.

The Elm City arrived from Hyde county yesterday morning, bringing Dr. Barker, Messrs. F. M. Simmons and M. DeW. Stevenson, J. V. Williams, U. S. Mace and C. C. Taylor; a good cargo of clence, law, brokerage, drugs and journalism. The last named gentleman

> [ADVERTISEMENT.] NEW YORK, May 19, 1885. EDITOR JOURNAL!-In your issue of the 8th inst. is published what purports to be a report of the Cedar Grove Cemetery Committee, in which certain statements are made respecting myself as Trustee of the Elizabeth Gooding Fund.

May I ask a portion of your space simply to state the facts? In January last I wrote a letter, of which the fol-lowing is a copy, to Mr. A. W. Wood, the Chairman of the Cemetery Commit

NEW YORK, Jan. 14, 1885.

A. W. Wood, Esq., Chairman Com., ctc., New Berne, N. C. DRAR SIB-As you probably are aware my father-in-law, the late Edward R. Stanly, under the power given him by the will of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Gooding, appointed me to succeed him as Trustee of the fund for the benefit of the Cedar Grove Cemetery. As such the best manner of expending a portion of the fund, so as to carry out the intentions of Mrs. Gooding, but in view of the Cemetery Committee. As that suit which I did. After she had taken one since I first became Trustee, to expend the six bottles of S. S. S. cost me six you any suggestions you may have to offer as to the best way of spending some of the money. I have in my hands several hundred dollars in cash and bonds to the amount of $3,900, (viz.: Carolina State) and if the money could be expended to advantage, it might be nanagement of the Lynchburg Fire advisable to dispose of some of the bends. As the matter of the administration of the trust is by the will, so me, that my discretion should be exercised in some form now for the benefit No. 1-a handsome brick structure of the cemetery without waiting for the litigation to end.
