Superior Court tomorrow.

Eureka Lodge No. 7, I. O. O. F., meets to-morrow night.

The steamer Goldsboro arrived from Baltimore yesterday morning with a cargo of freights.

Our special reporter, in writing up Cinderella on Friday night, inadvertently omitted one of the most interesting characters, Allie Powell, who, as Prince, was second only to Cinderella.

Our special reporter has not reported on the M. E. Sunday-school picnic. In the absence of the report we will state that all who attended enjoyed themselves very much, notwithstanding the frequent showers during the day. Our Methodist friends know exactly how to get up such things and make them enjoyable for old folks and children too.

F. M. Simmons, Esq., delivers the alumni address at Trinity College. He has been busily engaged in the spring courts and will be almost up to the time of the commencement exercises. But we predict he will prove equal to the occasion, though he follows so close on the eloquent Ransom who delivers the literary address.

Order of Sale.

Judge Seymour, at chambers yesterday, issued an order for the sale of the fish-oil and scrap factory of Green & Hendrix in Hatterasville, Carteret county, Jno. D. Davis, Receiver.

Female Institute.

Our thanks to Miss Carrie W. Rhoads and Mary L. Allen for an invitation to the closing exercises of Pence Institute at Raleigh. The annual sermon before the graduating class will be delivered at the First Presbyterian Church Sunday, May 31st, by Rev. John L. Watkins, D. D. Commencement exercises Monday, June 1st at 8 p. m.; Annual Concert, Tuesday, June 2nd, 8 p. m. Among the list of full graduates we are pleased to see the name of Miss Carrie Rhoads.

Strawberry crop.

The strawberry crop has been a very good one this season, and we hope the producers have realized good profits. A few days ago we mentioned some very fine ones raised by Mr. A. J. Yeoman. Saturday Mr. Daniel Lane brought in one hundred and forty quarts, and a basket sent the Journal office were a little bit the finest yet. Mr. Lane thinks he can pick from his bed any day a basketful that will average an ounce each. He brings in a fresh supply every morning and keeps them on sale at Mr. A. Miller's.

Next Saturday Night.

Mr. Chas. Melville, business manager of the Bijou Opera Co., was in the city yesterday, paying bills for an entertainment at the Theatre in this city next Saturday night, when the company will appear in "Mascoot." This is the only first-class company that has visited New Berne for some time, and some of our citizens have complained of what they think an injustice done to New Berne on the part of the Railroad Company by not offering inducements in the way of traveling rates for those coming to New Berne, but will run special trains at exceedingly low rates to carry our theatre-going people to Goldsboro to spend their money. We do not know whether or not there is any ground for the complaint.

Church Services For Next Week.

Baptist Church.—Rev. C. A. Jenkins, pastor. Services at 11 a. m. and 4 p. m. Sunday School at 3 p. m. Seats free and the public always cordially invited to attend.

Christ Church.—V. W. Shields, Rector. White Sunday.—Services at 11 a. m. Holy Communion—and at 6 p. m. Sunday School at 3 p. m. The public are always invited to attend the services of this church.

M. E. Church.—Services at Central Church today as follows: Prayer at 9 a. m. preaching at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Burkhead. Sunday School at 4 p. m. All cordially invited.

Presbyterian Church.—Services in the Presbyterian Church today by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Burkhead, at 11 a. m. and 5 p. m. Sabbath School at 9 a. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Beaufort and Norfolk Steam Lines.

The following dispatch to the Baltimore Sun of Friday possesses an interest to some of the readers of the JOURNAL: "CHESTERBORO, Md., May 21.—The property of the Enterprise Transportation Company, of Kent and Queen Anne's counties was sold here at Sheriff's sale today. The property consisted (in part) of the steam propeller Enterprise, of 142 tons burthen, which cost some $84,000 three years ago when she was built. J. Frank Black (President of Delaware River Transportation Company) bought the Enterprise, &c."

Capt. Frank S. Baker, Secretary of the Delaware River Company, was the General Manager of the Norfolk and Beaufort Line, when the steamer Norwood was sunk on that route at Harbor Island bar in February, and he writes that they bought the Enterprise to take the place of the Norwood. They first bought the steamer in March, intending to send her immediately down, but there was some objection to the sale on the part of one of the stockholders, and it was necessary to get another order of court and re-sell. The papers state that the matter is now satisfactorily settled. Capt. Baker writes his agents that "the boat is about two years old, smart, a large carrier, and has good passenger accommodations."

The Carteret people say that such a line is necessary for them, that the Norwood was of great benefit, cheapened their freights, and enabled them to put in the Northern markets some products at a profit they never realized before, or found such good demand for in their home market. Our neighbor of the Telephone has made a calculation from the books of his local merchants during which the Norwood was on the line, and ascertains that the saving in freights to the Beaufort merchants, alone, was at the rate of $6,500 a year; himself saving on his weekly bundle of paper at the rate of $12.00 per annum.

The Carteret people will now be able to reach New Berne, in small boats, through the canal, and if they must have a Norfolk line direct, they will then have a choice of markets by two convenient water routes and also the railroad. While we don't like to see trade diverted from New Berne, as we know the Norfolk line did and will divert it, we don't blame the people for seeking the best transportation facilities and the most of them; and all we can say to our merchants is, strive all the harder to control the trade of our surrounding sections.

But there is one piece of advice we would like to offer our Beaufort friends—they may profit by the experience of New Berne—and that is to try and get a controlling interest in their steam lines. Our people have made a great mistake in not identifying the business interests of New Berne with the ownership and management of the Northern lines here, and their mistake will have cost them probably more than the cost of all the steamers running North from New Berne.

Personal.

Dr. F. A. Whitaker, of Jones county, called to see us yesterday. He wants a mail route established from Core creek on the A. & N. C. Railroad, to some point in his neighborhood. It would give mail facilities to a great many people who live from six to ten miles from any office.

Ex-Sheriff Jno. D. Davis, of Carteret, was in the city yesterday.

Washington Bryan, Esq., has returned from Raleigh. We are pleased to learn from him that Mrs. Bryan's health is much improved.

Wm. B. Lane, Esq., was in town yesterday with cotton. He reports that the frequent rains are interfering with the chopping out of cotton.

Capt. M. F. Green, of Beaufort, one of the successful pioneers in fat-back fishing and compressing, and a large operator in Carteret, was in the city yesterday. Through some legal entanglements with his northern partners his works are at present idle, which is a calamity to a large number of the fishing and working people of Carteret, but Capt. Green will, we trust, be moving ahead in a short time. He is not of the sort to stand still. The people of Carteret know how to appreciate Capt. Green, and no man who has come among them is more popular. We learn that the catch of menhaden or fat-backs has been large this spring, and that the Messrs. Dey, another large establishment, have had more fish than they could handle. This industry is worth many thousands of dollars to the working people and to the business of Carteret county.

More Beaufort.
Mr. Day brought us in a fine specimen of beans from Mr. Alf Baker's patch yesterday, but he had hardly left our sanctum before Willis Boyd walked in with a handful large enough for the dinner pot. He takes the cake on beans and will take beans for dinner today. Now let the bean growers begin the propagating operation.

Trinity College.

The closing exercises of the spring term of Trinity College will begin on June 1st with examinations to June 5th. On the 4th at 8 p. m., there will be declamations of Preparatory class; on the 5th at 8 p. m., last Society meetings; on the 6th at 8 p. m., declamations of Freshman class; on the 7th at 11 a. m., sermon before the Theological class by Rev. P. J. Carraway; on the 8th at 8 p. m., declamations of Sophomore class; on the 9th at 8 p. m., speaking Junior class; on the 10th at 9 a. m., meeting of Board of Trustees; at 11 a. m., annual sermon by Dr. E. A. Young, at 3 p. m., literary address by Senator M. W. Ransom; and at 8 p. m. the Alumni address by F. M. Simmons, Esq.; on the 11th at 10 a. m., Commencement exercises, and 8 p. m. Promenade party.

Beaufort's Watermelon Farmer and Sharpie Builder.
The Rev. Maj. N. M. Journey, of Beaufort, N. C., is building a large and handsome sharpie for his use during the troling season at Morehead City. He is troubled about selecting an appropriate name, and it is thought that she will not bear the name of any of the fairer sex, but his mind may change in this particular. A friend suggests that if he concludes to name her after his girl, that a bond should be required of the girl for the "faithful performance," &c.

Last year Bro. Journey was reported as having the first watermelons of the season, but they turned out to be citrons. He expects to have the first watermelons this season and no mistake, as he "sowed good seed" and thinks that he will not sow any more "wild oats" or citrons. The ladies seeing this may not all expect to sail in the new sharpie, for it is said that his heart is not as tender towards them as it used to be. World suggest that he name the sharpie "The Whale," as he is reporting the catching of whales at Beaufort.

Let It Be a Memorial Clock.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—Let the clock be placed in the tower of the court house, by all means. It is required as a convenience if not a necessity; but let us make it a MEMORIAL CLOCK. Let it be placed there by the voluntary offerings of our people as a memorial to one of North Carolina's most honored sons. One who has adorned her bench by his wisdom and legal accomplishments, has graced her legislative halls with his prudence and sagacity, elevated her citizenship by a private life of unspotted purity and given to her people the worthy example of an humble Christian walk.

Let it be a memorial to one who has been a member of her Supreme court, has presided over her tribunals in every one of the original counties in her borders, and in the serene evening of an unusual age, laid down the official cares of Chief Magistrate of this city as the Master's call to the higher courts above. Let it be placed there in loving remembrance of the just judge, the wise legislator, the worthy Mayor, the honorable citizen, the humble Christian, the late MATTHIAS E. MANLY, of New Berne.

The Entertainment.

EDITOR JOURNAL:—The court scene from "The Merchant of Venice" was given on Friday night most effectively by the Ninth Grade under the tuition of Prof. Ellis. Wm. Hollister represented "The Duke," T. Daniels "Antonio," J. Thomas "Bassanio," and Leon Richardson "Gratiano," with Wm. Hill as "Attendant." The feature of the whole, however, was the acting of the parts of "Shylock" by R. Burkhead, and "Portia" by Miss M. Stimpson, who was well sustained by Miss H. Dail as "Nerissa." The enunciation of these young actors was clear and distinct, showing that they had been well trained in their parts. The audience evinced their appreciation by the strict attention and perfect quiet which prevailed through the whole scene. "Shylock" was admirably gotten up and acted the part very well, while Portia sent a "giggle" through the audience by the sarcastic dryness with which she remarked that "Gratiano's" wife would doubtless feel flattered by his willingness to give her up to save "Antonio." The management avoided the rock on which amateur performances are often wrecked, and brought the entertainment to a close before the audience became weary; they have decided to give something else on next Friday night which will we hope prove as acceptable as this first effort. C.

Kinston Items.

Miss Lizzie Lewis, of Goldsboro, spent two days in Kinston last week, visiting her uncle, Dr. R. H. Lewis.

We return our thanks to two fair representatives of Kinston at Greensboro Female College, Misses Ida Mescham and Cap. Grainger, for a very handsomely engraved invitation to attend the Commencement exercises at that institution. It is always very pleasant for an old teacher to receive tokens of remembrance from his former pupils.

The steel cells in the jail are rapidly approaching completion. They will be more than "ball strong and jay tight." The safety, health and comfort of prisoners will all be secured by the new cells. The locks are of very ingenious construction and all-powerful. A little boy of ten years of age can easily manage them from the outside. A large open space surrounds the tier of rooms, so that free and complete ventilation is secured.

La Grange Items.

Growing weather. It is having a marked effect on all crops, and the grass.

Bryan McCullen of Kinston was in our place for two or three days this week, visiting his son, Rev. A. McCullen.

Drs. Hadley and Kirkpatrick, of our place, attended the State Medical Convention at Durham this week. They report the attendance as very large.

The series of religious meetings at the M. E. Church here continue. Rev. Mr. Jones of Kinston station preached Tuesday night and Wednesday night. No accessions up to this time.

We hear that Isaiah Measley is in almost a dying condition at his home on the plantation of Dr. Hadley. The disease is consumption, and it is not expected that he can survive more than a few days.

We acknowledge, with thanks, an invitation to the commencement exercises of Trinity College, from our friend Jeff. Davis of this place. Of course it is not expected that we can attend, but it is pleasant to know that one is remembered by friends.

Our town authorities are having draining tiles placed in a ditch across the lot of Col. Davis. The Col's school is one of the solid improvements of our town, and the authorities realizing this fact are lending a helping hand in improving his property.

We learn that Captain Davis has employed a gentleman from Philadelphia to superintend the erection of his new school building, and that he was in town a day or so ago looking after the matter. By the way, we have neglected to notice Capt. Davis' promotion, he having been commissioned as Colonel by Governor Soales.

A rare occurrence is to see a colored individual offering N. C. hams for sale, yet we saw one sold in our place last Friday by a colored woman. This of itself amounts to but little, and still it proves that if this race used the proper care and industry, they might become sellers instead of buyers of meat. The circumstances of the producer of this meat are no better than that of others, only so far as he makes it.

About one dozen of our city gents went on a fishing spree last Tuesday, the point of destination being Hardy's seine on Neuse. The day's work panned out three shad, known as gizzards, one horse-fish and one gar. The dinner consisted of three pounds raw meat, one can potted ham, one box radishes, one pound soda crackers, forty biscuits, corn bread, onions (raw), parsley (raw), several bottles of beer, an unknown quantity of "red liquor," and eleven wet, hungry men. With such quantity and variety as this, certainly some one got enough. We are indebted to "Tammam's" chief for the above facts and figures.

The Atlanta Constitution.

In a long article relating to the B. B. B. of that city, says: "The Blood Balm Company started one year ago with $125.00, but to-day the business cannot be bought for $50,000! The demand and the satisfaction given is said to be without a parallel, as its action is pronounced wonderful."

We are glad to announce that our druggery days always secured a supply, and we hope our readers will supply themselves at once. It is said to be the only speedy and permanent blood poison remedy offered, giving entire satisfaction in all cases before one bottle has been used. For Blood Diseases, Kidney Troubles, Scrofula, Catarrh, old Ulcers and Skin Diseases, try one bottle of B. B. B. For sale in Newbern by R. N. Duffy.

To any body who has a sign of throat or lungs, we will send proof that Piso's Cure for Consumption has cured the same (complaints in other cases). Address: R. T. HAZLETON, 221 N. 3rd St., Warren, Pa.

Beware of Mercury and Potash.

Mercury is more destructive to human health and life than war, pestilence and famine combined. So said a distinguished writer many years ago, and it is as true today as then. The poor victim of Blood Disease is drugged with Mercury to cure the malady, and then dosed with Iodides to cure him of the Mercurial Poisoning; but instead of any relief, the first breaks down his general health and makes him a cripple, and the other ruins his digestive organs. Mercury and Potash are dangerous even when administered by directions and under the eye of a good physician, and when put up in nostrums, often by incompetent persons, are apt to produce evil consequences. Be careful of these poisonous mixtures or you may regret it. Swift's Specific is entirely a vegetable preparation, and should not be confounded with the various imitations, non secret humbugs, "Succus Alterans," etc., all of which either contain Mercury and Potash, or are composed of old remedies which have long since been discarded as of no value in the treatment of Blood Diseases, and none of them contain a single article which enters into the composition of Swift's Specific. There is only one Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) and there is nothing in the world like it. Be sure to get the genuine.

Inflammatory Rheumatism.

I have been afflicted for nearly four years with the severest form of inflammatory rheumatism. For a large portion of the time was confined to bed, and suffered the most excruciating pain, my legs badly swollen. My case was thought incurable by the physicians, and I have often hoped that death would ensue and relieve me of pain. Last month I secured, at the suggestion of a friend, one dozen bottles of Swift's Specific, and after using about six bottles I am entirely free from pain, the first time in nearly fourteen years. My joints are becoming more supple and the swelling gone. I am ready to answer any inquiries as to the facts in the case. G. W. ST. CLAIR, Cabot, Ark., April 19, '84. Treatment on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. The Swift Specific Co., Drawer 3, Atlanta, Ga. For sale in New Berne at HANCOCK BROS.
