The schooner Wm. Tice, Capt. Hagens, is in port with a cargo of ice for Watson & Daniels.

Any one failing to hear "Mascot" tonight will miss a rare treat. Procure tickets early.

The rainy weather has retarded the picking of beans and digging Irish potatoes. Oh for a few days of sunshine!

We are sorry to hear of the sickness of our townsman, R. M. Gates, Esq., who has been confined to his bed for some days.

To-day is a National holiday. The Postoffice will be opened for the transaction of business only between 9 and 10 o'clock, a. m.

The case of Randall Nelson, charged with burglary, has been set for trial on Monday. A special venire of one hundred was ordered.

The Board of Trustees, at a regular meeting held yesterday evening, passed resolutions for the protection of the fence around the Academy Green. They propose to inflict severe punishment on all who draw through, or swing to the wire, both in and out of school.

A New Industry.
Mr. B. O. E. Edge is making preparation for planting an ice machine which is expected to arrive shortly. He proposes to manufacture ice and tells elsewhere what he will do with it.

Personal.
Rev. G. W. Sanderlin passed through the city yesterday on his way home to prepare for the Commencement at Wake Forest where he will deliver the address before the Alumni.

Rev. J. A. Edwards and lady, of Philadelphia, are in the city visiting Mrs. Lehman.

Rev. J. T. Wallis was in the city yesterday on his way to Hyde county. We are sorry we were not in when he called.

We publish today a communication from Major Daves in reference to the Society of the Cincinnati, in which he gives some interesting history of this honorable organization.

The Major is working up information in regard to the old membership and we hope Bro. Ashe, of the News and Observer, and Father Creecy, of the Economist, and other members of the press will give him the aid of their columns by publishing this article in which there is important inquiries.

Olivette by the Bijou Opera Co.
"Olivette," which was presented last night at the opera house, was largely attended and vociferously applauded. The performance was divided into three acts, and was more enjoyed than on the night before, if we are to judge by the manner in which it was received. Miss Carrie Tutein as Olivette won from her audience many recalls and was most deserving of them. She acted her part with ease and grace, and in the character she impersonated she had ample opportunity to show that she possessed no little talent. -Wm. Star.

Memorial Day.
Today, May 30th, is set apart as Federal decoration day, when the graves of Union soldiers are strewn with flowers. Resolutions suitable to the occasion will be conducted at the National cemetery, commencing at 4 o'clock p. m. All officers and soldiers of the army and navy, and citizens generally are invited to attend.

Rev. Edward Ball will deliver the address, and the programme of ceremonies will be announced at the cemetery.

The beautiful custom of decorating the soldiers' graves is annually conducted throughout the various States of the Union, under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic.

Major W. A. Palmer, representing that organization, will act as grand marshal.

SUPERIOR COURT.

ANOTHER BURGLARY CASE.

Trial of Jerry Joyner.

The Superior Court convened yesterday morning when the case of State vs. Randall Nelson and Jerry Joyner, both colored men, for burglary, was taken up. These men stood charged with burglariously and feloniously breaking into the store of Wm. Colligan, jr., in the city of New Berne on the night of the 8th of February and stealing certain goods and chattels and money, and a second count in the bill charged them with burglariously stealing and carrying away the said goods and money.

Messrs. C. C. Clark, W. W. Clark and O. H. Gulton appeared as counsel for Randall Nelson, Green & Stevenson for Jerry Joyner. Against these stalwarts of the New Berne Bar, Solicitor Collins stood alone for the State.

When the case was called, Jerry Joyner, through his counsel, filed an affidavit asking for a severance of the causes. This was granted by the court and the solicitor put on trial.

JERRY JOYNER.

A special venire of one hundred and fifty "good and lawful men" had been ordered, and from these the following jurors were selected and empaneled:

M. P. Holly, col., A. L. Bynum, H. H. Simmons, col., M. H. Sultan, William Barnum, col., Richard Green, col., J. W. Smallwood, B. W. Morris, col., Eugene Tucker, W. B. Boyd, W. W. Williams, col., C. E. Palmer, col.

The examination of witnesses for the State was next in order, but it has such bearing on the case of Randall Nelson, which is set for Monday, we deem it imprudent to publish.

At the close of the evidence for the defendant the Solicitor entered a nolle prosequi on the first count of the bill of indictment and asked for a verdict on the second count.

Mr. Stevenson argued the case for the defendant in a speech of about three-quarters of an hour, in which he haudled the evidence with marked ability, making it very clear that anybody else but Jerry Joyner entered Wm. Colligan's store on the night of the 8th of February. Solicitor Collins followed with a brief speech in which he impressed the jury with the importance of discarding all isms, cisms, religion and politics and try the case on the evidence.

His Honor reviewed the evidence in his charge and the jury returned a verdict not guilty after being out only a short time. When the verdict was announced, there was an attempt to make some demonstration of approval on the part of the crowd present, but it was promptly suppressed by Judge Graves.

University Commencement.

Thursday, June 4, is annually the big day of Commencement week, but this year Wednesday 3d will rival it. The grand Memorial Hall will be dedicated the first thing on Wednesday, Hon. Paul C. Cameron, for the building committee, presenting it to the Board of Trustees, and Governor Soles, Chairman of the Board, receiving it. Odes will be sung by the students, and instrumental music furnished by the celebrated Kennick's brass band of Richmond, Va. The next in order will be the annual address by Hon. James W. Reid, one of the most eloquent orators in the State. In the afternoon the distinguished divine, Bishop Wilson, of Baltimore, will deliver the sermon before the Graduating Class.

Mr. Cameron and Governor Soles are capital speakers and on the whole the exercises will be of surpassing interest.

An excursion train has been secured from Raleigh going and returning at convenient hours on that day, giving the citizens of Raleigh, Cary, Morrisville, Durham, etc., opportunity of seeing the grandest college hall in the Union and hearing the excellent address and sermon.

Firemen's Exemption.

During the selection of a jury yesterday from a special venire, the exemption from jury duty of members of our fire companies was brought up by the introduction of a certificate of seven years' service as fireman, which, under a special act, grants exemption to persons holding such certificate as well as to those who are now active firemen.

His Honor spoke of the act as an unfortunate one, as it necessarily took out of the jury boxes some of our very best citizens, who should for that reason be desirable ones to do jury duty, and that at a time when complaints are made that good jurors are difficult to obtain.

In the main Judge Graves is correct, and many people agree with him; but he and others look only at this side of the question. It is very important that we have also a good fire department, and every one knows that our firemen do a vast amount of work much more disagreeable than serving as jurors, and reader a most efficient service without pay or any compensation except this slight consideration of exemption from jury duty and poll tax. The latter in itself nothing, because the members pay as dues to their respective companies a sum greater than the tax remitted by the act.

That it has had a wholesome effect in keeping up these organizations so much needed in our community, there can be but little doubt, and that their existence is a necessity no one can deny; therefore when both sides of the question are examined it seems to us that the asking of this slight exemption was not improper in the firemen, nor was it unwelcome in the legislature to grant it. While it is true that we do lose valuable jurors by it, we enjoy the benefits of an excellent fire department, which can only be drawn from the town, while we can rely upon the country to furnish us the few scores of good men necessary to fill the vacated seats provided the sheriff can be induced to get out of town to get at least a portion of special venires.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Pekin, May 26.—The French copy of the treaty of peace between China and France has been agreed to. Nothing now remains to be done to conclude the entire work of the convention but the more compilation of the Chinese copy of the treaty, which will soon be finished.

Rome, May 26.—The Pope yesterday had a 24 hours' conference with the Irish Bishops. The strictest secrecy was enjoined as to what took place. It is supposed, however, that the Pope spoke strongly and plainly to the Bishops in regard to their animosity to England.

Ottawa, Ont., May 26.—The Minister of Agriculture denies that there has been any arrival of cholera-infected vessels in the River St. Lawrence within the past few days, as has been reported. A short time ago the steamship Scotland arrived at Gros Ile, where she was quarantined, a case of small-pox having been discovered on the voyage, which was landed at Sydney. This, he believes, gave rise to the report which was started some days ago and circulated, he thinks, with a view to injuring the St. Lawrence ports.

Rome, May 26.—The Technical Committee of the International Sanitary Conference has unanimously approved the French delegate's motion in favor of inviting countries interested to construct model ports and provide for vigorous inspection of vessels from infected places.

Alexandria, May 26.—The guards, which were stopped here on the 20th instant while en route from Suakin to England, have been landed and will go into quarters, pending further orders.

Douglas, May 26.—The British and Egyptian troops have left Merawi in boats for the Lower Nile.

Singapore, May 26.—The people of Kawang are opposed to being transferred to the control of the British Borneo Company and are fighting against the new authority. Two Europeans and a number of natives have already been killed.

Winnipeg, May 27.—A dispatch from Battleford says that Chief Poundmaker has surrendered unconditionally to Gen. Middleton, who reached Battleford Sunday. Poundmaker and thirty braves are prisoners, and will have to await the action of the government. They also brought in 310 stands of arms.

Can't Continue It.

Washington, May 28.—There was a full attendance at the Cabinet meeting today, including Secretary Lamar, who has partially recovered from a recent attack of sickness. The question of authorizing a continuance of the World's Exposition at New Orleans was again considered, and the result is shown in a telegram sent by the President to Senator Gibson, later in the day, of which the following is a copy: "The question of reopening the Exposition has been considered by the Cabinet, and they are unanimously of the opinion that there is no warrant of law for it, and that it would be inexpedient on other grounds."

A chief of division, and several clerks of twelve hundred and fourteen hundred dollar grades in the Pension Office, were today discharged upon charges of "offensive partisanship."

Marine Disaster.

New York, May 28.—The steamship City of Rome, which arrived here today, reports that on May 25th, at 4:30 p. m., during a dense fog, she collided with and sank the French fishing barque George John, which was lying at anchor. She rescued two of the crew, but the remaining twenty-two were lost.

"There's many a man who hears my voice who will find the gates of mercy closed on him because he didn't start in time, but if you get up and go now you will find them wide open. I once knew a young lady who heard a sermon in which the minister emphasized the fact that it might be that some in the congregation would never have another opportunity to accept God. When the sermon was over she and her escort went out and commenced to talk. She took his arm; he didn't take her, mind you."

THE GIRL WHO WOULD NOT MARRY.

I wish I had about five minutes on that. It don't argue that a girl is not virtuous when you see some fellow holding her arm, but I do tell you that the "spider leg" is not virtuous.

"He that thinketh on these things is already unclean in heart." I would lock my daughter up in a closet for six months if I saw her let some fellow catch her by the arm, and walk off in that way.

The girl is most always virtuous, but the boy—I wouldn't trust him as far as I could throw him.

"Young lady, I love your character and virtue, but in the name of God, make these boys keep their hands to themselves (applause). Tell the young man that he must never put his hand on your person. Tell him this, tell him this. [Applause].

This young lady who went out of church with the young man really did not have another chance to accept God, for she died the next day at 1 o'clock.

Thank God, we can surrender to God and quit our sins. My friend, I want to say that one sin, like one leak in a boat, will sink your boat of life before you reach the other shore.

In the last place, conversion is an eternal giving up of sin. You must feel that you will forever stick to the good, true and noble.

Taking Care of the Body.

The Christian Index, the leading organ of the Baptist Church in the South, published in Atlanta, Ga., in its issue of Dec. 4, 1884, has the following editorial:

Too many people seem to think that a religious newspaper should be confined to the discussion of moral and religious subjects only, forgetting that religion has to do both with the bodies and souls of men. "Prove all things, hold fast that which is good," has as much to do with the practical side of life as it has with the moral side. Our readers will bear testimony that in all questions discussed in the Index, the practical has been duly set forth. In this paragraph, therefore, we only seek to present an article worthy of commendation. After subjecting it to the above test we have tried Swift's Specific and found it good—good as a blood purifier, good as a health tonic. In this opinion we are sustained by some of the best men of the church. Rev. Jesse H. Campbell, the Nestor of the Baptist denomination in Georgia, says: "It is my deliberate judgment that Swift's Specific is the greatest blood purifier ever discovered. Its effects are wonderful, and I consider them almost miraculous. There is no medicine comparable to it. Dr. H. C. Hornady, one of the best known ministers in our church, says: 'Swift's Specific is one of the best blood purifiers in existence.'"

These brethren speak advisedly. But few preparations can bring forward such endorsements. The Index desires only to endorse these statements. We have witnessed the beneficial effects of this medicine, not only in our own households, but in several other cases where seemingly all other remedies had failed. It is purely a vegetable compound, scientifically prepared, and perfectly harmless in its composition. It renews the blood and builds up broken down systems—gives tone and vigor to the constitution, as well as restores the bloom of health to the suffering. Therefore, we do not deem it inconsistent with the duties of a religious journal to say this much in its behalf.
