My legs and feet were greatly swollen, so that I could not walk. About one year ago I was induced to try Swift's Specific, which soon removed the trouble in my limbs, and my rheumatism is now entirely gone, and my Cancer is steadily improving, being better now than at any time within two years. This medicine has done me more good than anything else I have taken, and I feel that I am on the road to a speedy cure." Undoubtedly Swift's Specific is the best blood purifier in the world.

JOHN S. MORROW, Florence, Ala., Sept. 23, '84. I have had a cancer on my face for many years. I have tried a great many remedies, but without relief. I almost gave up hope of ever being cured. CAPTIVATED THE PRESIDENT.

Miss B. Buck, a young lady of Front Royal, Va., recently wrote to Grover Cleveland, asking a silk necktie for a crazy quilt, to be made and sold for the benefit of the poor.

My dear Mr. Cleveland, I know it's a shame to bother you now, but I'm not to blame. At least not what Jack is the one who first put me up to the thing I have done. He told me last night if I'd make for the Fair a crazy-quilt and put its square of something that Cleveland had worn he would buy it.

And then, when I marry dear Jack, it is plain I'll own both the quilt and momenta again. Now, dear Mr. Cleveland, I beg you just to send me a necktie, or handkerchief say—just a fragment of something you've worn to lend to my handiwork dignity due?

And then, may the Fates most kindly help you to piece out the patch-work you've taken in hand. And make of each section in all our great land a square that will blend in color and tone with those that surround, and so, one by one The National crazy-quilt, CHAZY NO MORE Grow into a memory we all know better. And still something BETTER I wish. May you win Some true, earnest woman who, through thick and thin, Will follow your fortunes as I'll follow Jack's and, not a furler further your patience to tax. I will close, just adding this to say, if your own Secretary be out of the way, too much engaged my petition to read because it is so simple. Just tell him to heed This admonition—it never is wise! The day of small things to neglect or despise. In some of our periods, in years not far off, We women may have legal right to a vote. And then if he wished to be President—he might even be the aid of 'em poor little me. "Verbum est in the cue. Adieu, may you be As happy as good, prays your friend, ALICE C.

LONDON, June 9.—A despatch from Cairo says: "Some excitement has been caused here among the English officials and residents by a Coptic merchant from Khartoum who says he witnessed the capture of Khartoum, and that immediately after the massacre of the garrison the Mahdi demanded the head of Gen. Gordon for a trophy, but his warriors produced the head of the Austrian Consul, Mr. Hansal. When the mistake was discovered a second search was made for Gen. Gordon, but the Mahdi's followers were unable to find any trace of the hero of Khartoum. They found several other Europeans, but no documents were found on their clothes to show that either of them was Gen. Gordon. The Copt says that it is possible that Gen. Gordon, seeing that all was lost, may have escaped south."
