St. John the Baptist day.

Elm City Camp No. 28, Fraternal Legion, meets tonight.

Local Branch No. 95, Order of the Iron Hand, meets tonight.

Mr. Geo. E. Pittman, formerly of this city, is now located in Raleigh.

The steamer Goldboro arrived yesterday evening. Her former Captain, Jones, was aboard and was greeted by many friends.

Morning Star Lodge No. 23, colored masons of James City, will have a public installation of officers and parade today, in that place.

The Raleigh Observer says that "Wake Forest College has a street railroad, the first in the State." Mistake! Wilmington, N. C., had a street railroad a dozen years ago.

The stockholders meeting at Morehead City this week will probably be the liveliest in the history of the road. From present indications a large crowd will be present, many of whom will remain to spend the summer.

Judge Phillips was in a dual position yesterday. At first, he was the mountain and required Mahomet (the lawyers) to go to him at Morehead; he subsequently reversed the position by making the latter the mountain and agreeing to come to them.

Valuable Mill Destroyed.

The paper mill of Mr. Thos. Moore, near Snow Hill, Greene county, was undamaged and almost totally destroyed last Sunday evening, inflicting a loss of between three and five thousand dollars.

The Injunction Cases.

Through some misunderstanding Judge Phillips did not return from Morehead City yesterday morning to hear the injunction cases. He will be up this morning and the hearing will be held at Stanley Hall.

One to Morehead.

Among the passengers for Morehead City last night were Messrs. L. Harvey, A. Mitchell, J. F. Parrott, J. C. Keane, Mr. J. F. Mewborne and family, Mr. J. A. Frigidin and family, all of Kinston, and others from points beyond.

Attractions at Morehead.

The latest improved bathing costumes will be in use for those who would revel in the surf; the finest sailing boats and yachts ever before there; the best table, the best music, the finest dancing pavilion on the coast, and the richest ball room, etc., are some of the attractions at the Atlantic House, Morehead City, for the season just opened.

Ready for the Crowd.

There will be a rush at Morehead this week. The railroad meeting will open the ball and whether the company should go for lease or no lease, a great many business men and weary ladies will take a respite from some duties and go down to the sea. Messrs. Roney & Kennedy are ready for the crowd and will give the best of attention to their guests, however numerous.

Ready to Go.

Governor Scales has appointed the following Directors for the A. & N. C. Railroad for the ensuing year: Col. Paul Patton and W. C. Stronach, of Raleigh; Dr. W. H. Cobb, of Goldsboro; Jno. F. Wooten, Esq., and Mr. Demsey Wood, of Lenoir; Washington Bryan, Esq., and Mr. C. E. Foy, of Craven; and A. H. Chadwick, of Carteret; T. B. Wainack, of Chatham, is appointed State proxy. Subject to correction when the list is formally announced.

Resignation of State Proxy.

It is learned that F. M. Simmons, Esq., tendered his resignation as State Proxy in the A. & N. C. R. R. Company to Gov. Scales yesterday. Mr. Simmons appears in behalf of the Company in the proceedings now pending before Judge Phillips, and while we see nothing in that circumstance to conflict with his position as State Proxy, yet we suppose he deemed it his proper course to pursue. He has held this position for a number of years and has devoted earnest and faithful attention to the interest committed to his charge through many busy sessions of the court. His resignation was met with a hearty approval of all interested parties.

Gone Over to the Enemy.

"I see you have gone over to the enemy."

"Who is the enemy?"

"Well, the Governor seems to be the enemy of this section now, if reports are true."

Such was the conversation between one of our prominent business men and the editor of the JOURNAL yesterday. But when this gentleman was asked to show when, where and in what respect the JOURNAL had "gone over to the enemy," he broke down and gave it up. It seems to be difficult for some people to understand how a newspaper can mark out a course of its own and not belong to some of the many factions that always exist in every community where public honors and patronage are to be distributed. Touching the railroad question in this community, there are different factions with different views; one would not consent to a lease of the road under any circumstances; another would do anything to get the ins out and get the outs in; another would lease to anybody at almost any price to get it out of politics; and still another stands ready to do whatever the Governor wants done, no matter what that is.

The JOURNAL has not identified itself entirely with any of these factions, but has endeavored to urge such a disposition of the property as would enhance the value of its stock. We had great faith in the scheme to extend the road to the C. F. & Y. V., but when this proposition was brought forward, or was about to be brought forward, in the General Assembly it was found that the Governor was opposed to any legislation in regard to the A. & N. C. Road, and the matter was dropped.

In regard to leasing we hardly think anyone who has read it can mistake the JOURNAL's position on that. Lease, if a good proposition is offered, and to judge of a good proposition the stockholders must know the condition of the road and what it is earning. We have not been wedded to any particular corporation, but to the one that will pay the most money, and give best guarantees of ability and willingness to develop the country along the line of the road, and further, we have contended that the stockholders are the proper ones to judge of the advisability of accepting or rejecting any proposition and not the Governor. When the news came from Raleigh that the Governor was formulating a policy for the Atlantic & N. C. Railroad, the JOURNAL took the ground that if this news was true the Governor had assumed a power not warranted by law, and that he was invoking unnecessary responsibility in seeking to control the affairs of a railroad where he is only required by law, as a member of the board of infernal improvements, to appoint directors and a proxy for the State.

The JOURNAL still holds to these views. It has not gone to the enemy nor, anywhere else.

Personal.

Rev. Mr. Shields, who has been absent for a few days on missionary duties, has returned.

Mr. Mills of Richards was in town yesterday. He says cotton is not looking well in his section.

J. M. Francke, Esq., of Richland, called to see us Tuesday. He reports cotton as small but looking tolerably well. We are sorry to hear from him that our old friend Cad Koonce is in the grass, but Mr. Francke thinks he will have scratched out by the time he (Francke) returns.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Ipeck returned on the Elm City from a visit to Hyde.

W. P. Burrus and family left last night on the Elm City for a visit to Hyde county.

T. B. Womack, Esq., of Pittsboro, Hon. Jos. J. Davis of Lenoir, C. S. Wooten, Esq., of La Grange, Mr. Jno. C. Wooten of Lenoir, R. O. Barton, Jr., of Halifax, W. T. Cahoon and C. H. Fowler of Stonewall, and Wm. Cleve of Vanceboro, arrived last night and are registered at the Gaston House.

A Musical Picnic.

Miss Fannie Holland, with her class of music scholars, took an "out for the day" at Fowler's grounds over Neuse river yesterday. There was quite a number of their friends along and the day was "just splendid." Not even sunshine enough to kink the cheeks of the rosy lassies or tan the hands of charming damsels while playing croquet or strolling on the sand beach.

Although rain seemed to threaten, yet there was only threatening, and that don't wet. The enjoyment of all was near perfection, and the chilly laden baskets were all that were turned away empty. Distinctions and comparisons on such occasions are invidious; but that is not why we say it was an exceedingly lovely gathering, but because it was so, and two of the JOURNAL force bear witness to the fact.

At about 8 o'clock the whole were safely landed on this side of the river and went merrily to their homes in highest glee, and a day of grand enjoyment was the unanimous verdict.

THE JEWELS ON THE RAILROAD.

It was a busy day with the Panel yesterday. The question of the injunction was reported to be set for hearing at Stanley Hall, and the members had donned clean collars, long cuffs and every fifth one had procured a five cent cut of good chewing tobacco, in case the arguments should be lengthy.

By 8.30 a respectable number were in line between the corner of South Front and the foot of Craven street, and by ten o'clock the crowd was what may be termed "an eager one, not to say enthusiastic, for the coming forensic display."

"I'll tell you what'll be done," was given out with emphasis and "prophets" were numerous enough to have cheered the heart of Elijah in his darkest days.

THE CRASH.

Came when it was announced that the Judge was at Morehead and the case would be heard there.

Thirty-six miles by foot or two dollars by rail was an issue new and formidable. What was to be done? One idea was advanced merely to be combated by another. Theory after theory was upset by another theory. Discussion ran high and the crowd ran lower. "Wash Bryan has outgeneraled them all," said one. "How so?" said another. "Why, he will be President and all the rest will be left out." Here a discussion arose as to at what date any rumor had gained credence that Washington Bryan would be the next President of the Atlantic Road. On this there was a wide difference of opinion. Some said three weeks, some three months, while others were in doubt as to whether it was in ante-bellum, ante-election or ante-deluvian times that it first came to their knowledge.

Here a discussion arose as to the propriety of any one's hanging around court houses as mere lookers and listeners or following up injunction cases out of mere idle curiosity and an emphatic condemnation on the part of the Panel was made a matter of record.

The Panel will be at Morehead in force and may take part in the meeting if split sticks can be voted.

La Grange Items.

R. L. Uzzell is here from Chapel Hill. Jefferson Davis is at home from Trinity College.

Miss Stanton of Wilson is visiting at H. E. Dillon's.

Much sickness in the country, chiefly among children.

Alpheus Fields is home from the Virginia University.

Misses A. E. Peacock and Laura Wood are at Black Mountain.

Miss Bridgers of Goldsboro is visiting at Dr. Kirkpatrick's.

Mrs. B. F. Nunn of Kinston is visiting Dr. Hadley's family.

Miss Carrie Carpenter spent several days in town last week.

A small child of Walter Mewborne's died in Greene county last week.

Miss Sam Hodges, from your city, is here visiting H. M. McDonald's family.

Miss Nannie Kirkpatrick of Orange county is visiting Dr. Hadley's family.

Rev. Mr. McCullen preached here last Sunday, and Mr. Hoyt of New York lectured at night.

The merchants complain of dull times. In the fall short crops will be the complaint.

Misses May Woods, Charity Dawson and Fannie Gardner of Pitt left for their homes last week.

G. W. Mewborne of Lenoir Institute made a short visit to Black Mountain, and returned last week.

We are sorry to hear that John D. Walters, near our place, is quite sick. We hope a speedy recovery.

We learn that the youngest child of N. G. Sutton, of this township, died last Sunday of disease of the bowels.

William T. Reid left here Monday morning for his home in Tarboro, after a few days visit to his father, W. B. Reid, Esq.

Miss Brown of Tarboro, and Miss Timberlake of Raleigh, who have been visiting Miss Erle Rouse, near our town, returned home Saturday.

Work on Col. Davis's school building is going on as fast as the circumstances will permit. The building, when complete, will be an ornament to our town.

Several cases of flux, or bilious dysentery, are reported among small children by our practicing physicians. The disease is very severe and proves fatal in some cases.

Daniel Isler, a colored man who went to Florida about one year ago, returned to this place a week or so ago. Daniel says he has enough of Florida, and that North Carolina is the best State in the world.

Crops are improving, and the grass at one time so troublesome, is being matted. Cotton is late, but looking well. W. H. Hardee has a very fine field near our town, and we hear of some equally as large or larger at Mr. Noah Rouse's, Shado L. Wooten's and C. S. Wooten's, with our old stand-by, Bucklesberry, to hear from. The wheat crop is being harvested, or cut, and is believed to be short at least one-third. The corn crop, which is hardly ever mentioned, is doing very well. Upon the whole, we see no good reason to complain. The spring was cold and wet, and the planting was late, but crops are, so far as we are able to see or learn from others, doing very well. Rice culture is getting to be quite a business in this section, and is doing first-rate. A largely increased acreage has been put in this year, and the farmers are very well pleased with its appearance. We hope to see an abundant harvest, of ingathering, of all crops. The condition of our people require it.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF.

A devastating cyclone struck Kansas and Missouri on Monday and did an immense amount of damage to property. The storm was accompanied by hail, rain and lightning—one man killed. Emil Hager, Hungarian, 60 years old for companion in arms, suicided in Memphis. Despondency from non-employment the cause.

Representative Morrison will introduce a new tariff bill next Congress. It is now said that the Austrian Government refused to receive Mr. Keily as one minister.

An insect called the "dumb locust" is ravaging Southwest Virginia.

A strike of English nail makers is threatened.

New York cotton futures closed weak; a slight decline from Saturday.

Two men at Thomas' store, Va., quarreled about seeing a girl home, and one cut the other fellow's throat. Killed him.

King Alfonso, of Spain, determined to visit the cholera infected districts; with a view to prevent him his Ministers resigned, and a riotous mob made a savage demonstration against the latter; troops were called out who fired upon the mob, and they were stoned in turn. The King finally reconsidered his determination, and the Ministers have been re-instated.

A Chicago girl only twenty-two years old has confessed to the murder of her father, mother and sister by poison and attempts on several others. She says she don't know how she got into it.

Claverius attorney has found a man by whom they propose to prove an alibi in this important case, and a motion for a new trial will be heard Friday.

Two sons of Mr. Turrittine at Chapel Hill ate some cherries and other fruits, laid down on the porch, were seized with convulsions, and died in a few minutes.

Thirty thousand people of the city of Murcia, Spain, have fled from the cholera.

It is reported that the Sultan of Morocco has claimed French protection.

Queen Victoria's private secretary was busy all day Monday in endeavoring to arrange matters between the Liberal and Conservative leaders.

Trouble anticipated with the Ute Indians, six of the latter being killed by white men.

The Grand Army of the Republic are in session at Portland, Me., and lots of liquors shipped there in anticipation of their wants has been seized by Prohibitionists. A dry time.

Kinston Items.

Miss Willie Boone of Goldsboro is visiting Mrs. J. G. Cox of this place.

Town exceedingly dull. The park is deserted by everything save mosquitoes.

The many friends of Mrs. T. C. Wooten were shocked to hear of her death last week, at Snow Hill.

And now the small boy proceedeth to the "seine beach," and taketh a swim unmindful of the "skeeters."

Baseball seems to hang fire since the trip by the boys to New Berne and their disappointment there last week.

Our town is infested with more mosquitoes and widowers to the square inch than any other place in the State.

The steamer Kinston was not able to come up Saturday on account of the low water, and so sent the Blanche in her stead.

Miss Fannie Wooten returned last week from Snow Hill, where she had been staying with her sister, Mrs. T. C. Wooten.

It is to be hoped that the citizens of Kinston and Lenoir county will observe the "glorious 4th" in a becoming manner, as her sister towns are preparing to do.

At a recent meeting of the graded school board, Prof. George A. Grimalley was appointed principal, and Mr. H. C. Bowen first assistant. The teachers in the other departments were retained in their respective positions.

Stonewall Items.

Mr. W. Whitehead of Greenville is down on a short trip.

Bayboro has added one more merchant to her list, R. L. Jones is the one.

John M. Weakley who was recently accidentally shot by Charley, his son, is about well.

Master Willie and his sister Alice Whitfield of Goldsboro, are in this place on a visit to their friends and relatives.

Congratulations to the patrons of the New Berne postoffice in the appointment of Matt. Manly. No man lives that I would prefer to him.

The wet weather sometime passed damaged the potato crop over half. Very few have good crops. The Elm City is carrying considerable quantities of coveys trip.

Malarial Poison.

The drouth in Southwest Georgia last spring dried up the wells, and we were compelled to use water from the creek on the plantation. The result was that all were troubled with chills and fever. I carried with me several bottles of Swift's Specific, and as long as I took it I had perfect health. As soon as I ceased taking it, I, like the rest, was afflicted with chills. When I resumed its use, I was all right again. We have used it in our family as an antidote for malaria poison for two or three years, and have never known it to fail in a single instance. W. C. FURLOW, Sumter Co., Ga., Sept. 11, 1884.

A Cripple Restored.

Some two years ago I received a boy (Lona White) into the Orphans' Home, near Macon, from Columbus. He was one of the poorest creatures I have ever seen—nothing but skin and bone—crippled and deformed by Scrofula, which had attended him from his birth. About eighteen months ago I commenced giving him Swift's Specific. After several bottles had been taken and no visible results to be seen, I began to despair, but continued the medicine. At last signs of improvement became apparent, and from that date to the present there has been constant improvement of both mind and body. He is now about fourteen years old, and is one of the brightest boys I have ever seen. I honestly believe that he will ultimately outgrow the effects of this loathsome disease under the influence of Swift's Specific. The two cases of erysipelas which were treated some two years ago with S. S. S. show no symptoms of return of the disease. L. B. PAYNE, Sup't. Orphans' Home, So. Ga. Conf. Macon, Ga., Nov. 1, 1884.

Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free.

Rheumatism.

Although a practitioner of near twenty years, my mother influenced me to procure B. B. B. for her. She had been confined to her bed several months with Rheumatism, which had stubbornly resisted the usual remedies. Within twenty-four hours after commencing B. B. B. I observed marked relief. She has just commenced her third bottle and is nearly as active as ever, and has been in the front yard with "rake in hand," cleaning up. Her improvement is truly wonderful and immensely gratifying.
