The Young Mens' Christian Associa tion of this city is progressing finely. New recruits are received at every meeting, numbering now nearly sixty megbers in all. The Association has rented the Bishop building, which will be their headquarters as soon as it completed. Song books have been secured, and in future there will be no lack of music. The meetings heretofore have been held in the Methodist Church and the lecture room of the Presbyterian Church, for the use of which the Association is under obligations.

An Old New Berneau Dead.

By letter we receive intelligence of the death of Mr. Marcus Cicero Stanly, which occurred at his home at Gramercy Park, New York, on the 9th instant, of heart disease.

Mr. Stanly was one of the old time New, Berneans and belonged to that noted family of which all North Carolinians have heard. He took a deep interest in the home of his childhood and was a constant reader of the Jour-NAL.

To his bereaved wife and afflicted relatives we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

A Pleasant Steambont Ride.

By invitation, a number of ladies and gentlemen enjoyed yesterday afternoon pleasant run down the river on the the excursion steamer Trent, as far as Fort Ellis, stopping at Graywood on the down trip. Here the manufacture of wooden dishes was seen by many for The Midnight and Quickstep nines, the first time, while the immense build-composed of colored bays of this city, ing in course of construction for the manufacture of pulp was seen for the tors. The magnesia kiln was the wonder of all and at once decided to be another lighthouse because of its solid allotted duty. Leaving here the steamer headed down the river, tation to accompany them, but felt com- home stretch was taken and all arpelled on account of pressing work to rived refreshed and invigorated by the decline. We wish them a pleasant trip delightful atmosphere and beautiful scenery. There was a universal feeling of thanks to Capt. Dave Roberts for the A. W. We are glad to note the removal from the court house square of the internals of the jail.

Prof. Thos. R. Rouse, of La Grange, will continue to be one of the instructors in Kinston College. We saw a good natured young Kinstonian, last week, taking out twelve children in one buggy for an evening We need rain now. All our neighbors around have had refreshing showparched. Our cemetery is receiving the careful attention of the curator, Rev. Israel Harding; and under his direction order is springing from chaos and beauty is taking the place of deformity.

Col. Adam Davis is pushing forward his large new buildings for his military school at La Grange. He has been for some years rather cramped for room, but this will not be so hereafter.

Mr. William A. Phillips died at the residence of Mr. John R. Phillips on July 6th, in the twenty-third year of his age, of consumption. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. A. J. Hires, pastor of the Baptist church. The remains were taken to the family burial ground for interment. When no fun can be had in Tucahoe you may know that there is a dry spell in Kinston. That portion of our town is absolutely quiet now, from "early morn till dewey eve." In fact, all along the line of Queen street, only an occasional dray can be seen creeping along. And it is only when Capt. White's steamer blows the signal for opening the draw of the iron bridge hat our drayman shows signs of life. Then the drowsy horse is whipped awake and there is a rush for the wharf. Even the park is left deserted; only "here and there a traveller." The opening of the schools and the opening of the cotton bolls will change all thisand our little city will awaken into new life and energy. In the meanwhile, we sit and broil, wipe the perspiration from our brows and try another game at checkers in the hot back room.

McLean, from Wilmington; Miss Louise Senn, from Columbia, S. C., and several others. Come on, we will amuse you and give you good fare, as you see by the ad. of Dennis House.

We took a trip on White Oak last week to see the people and the crope; went away up above George Smith's, in the pocosin; saw George up to his eyes, almost, in mud and water setting out potatoes. He said he had too much rain but that didn't bother him, as he had the best farm on the river. All the crops looked well, considering the rain at that time. Saw Esq. Caleb H.; he was puffing and blowing chopping his cotton, but took time to stop and go to ers within a week, but we are being the house and smoke, saying he was very glad some one had come so he could have an excuse to rest. Took dinner with friend Frank Bell, went to see Rev. Jobe Smith, Mrs. Wright Smith, and she showed us some of the largest cabbage we have seen this season.

> All quiet in town now. The 4th of July has passed off very quietly and pleasantly, with one little exception on Saturday night, and that was caused by a little too much bad "red eye," but no damage done. After the May-Pole dance the boat race came off. Five boats entered; distance 8 miles; result as follows: Canoes, Gull, Capt. Heady, and Fanny, Capt. Jones, sharples, Bettie, Capt. Bloodgood, Yellow Dwarf, Capt. Littleton, and Dauntless, Capt. Willis, all started from wharf at 1:20 p. m. Wind stiff from southwest. All made good time, but the Gull came in first by 104 minutes, making the distance in 14 hours; the Bettie next 10+ minutes be-hind Gull, Yellow Dwarf 1+ minutes behind Bettie, Funny 5 seconds behind Yellow Dwarf, and Dauntless last a few seconds behind all, but she made a bad start in the beginning. The Gull had the advantage as she was longer and heavier than all by considerable. No allowances were made as to size or length. At night the closing exhibition and play were well rendered by the S. D. Club. Dramatic sharade "Rose Thorne" and laughable farce "Haunted Hotel" were played to a large audience complimentary to a greater part. The principal characters were Misses Minnie Ward and Rosa Moore, in "Rose Thorne," and H. S. Mallett, J. A. Pitt-Thorne. man and G. Ward, in "Haunted Hotel, Mallett as - Mrs. Hambone, made the darkies ashamed, as he could play darkie too well for them.

Old Violins.

One of the principal reasons why old violins are so superior to modern ones lies in the fact that the secret of the old varnishes is lost. The fact that the old gum-amber, obtained from the interior of Africa, and the transparent dragon's blood the chief ingredients of the old varnish, are no longer procurable may is coming with a turtle story that beats the catfish.

Mr. W. A. Harvey is building an addition to one of his houses on South Main street.

Willacochae.

Is the name of a flourishing village in Coffee county, Georgia, on the kine of the Brunswick and Albany railroad.

Mr. D. E. Gaskin, a well known citizen of that village, writes under date of December 22d:

Soon after my marriage, about four years ago, my wife was stricken with some trouble beculiar to her sex, which broke down her general health. In this condition she was soon after attacked with Inflammatory Rheumatism of such a severe type that it made her a cripple. She was reduced in flesh to sixty five pounds, and came very near losing her life. She was attended by three good physicians who treated her with some benefit, but the swelling in her joints nover left her. Last summer the Rheumatism returned in a still more severe and painful form which seemed to defy the skill of all the doctors. She would almost go fractic with pain, and would lie and scream all day. A friend of mine, who is an engineer on the Brunswick & Albany Railroad, suggested that I should use Swift's Specific (S. S. S.), which I did. After she had taken one small bottle she was up and able to walk ever the house, and after taking the six small bottle she is now able to do any kind of house work; the swelling has gone, all the pain has left her, and she is in better health than she ever was. The treatment before using the Swift's Specific cost me between $350 to $400, and aix bottles of S. S. S. cost me six dollars.
