Train For Morehead This Morning. A train will leave this morning for Morehead at 9 o'clobk, and return late in the afternoon. This will give an opportunity to everybody to spend Sunday at the seashore and take an invigorating salt, both in addition to enjoying the cool ocean breezes. The Atlantic Hotel with its good fare and its many pleasant nooks is always an attractive place to our people, and all who can, should endeavor, this hot weather, to get one day of comfortable rest, and be better prepared to assume the duties of the following week. This will probably be the last Sunday train this season, and should be well patronized.

Jos. A. Paris returned from a visit to Tarboro last Thursday.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Henry Fields is again quité sick.

Mrs. S. E. Hodges is visiting her son Dr. Hodges, in our place. It is said that quite a number of per sons are now at Seven Springs. Hot and dry. Crops are in many places suffering for rain.

An appeal was taken in the case Daniel Glissen at Wayne court.

Willis Reid made a short visit here last Tuesday. He returned to Tarboro Thursday.

The people in our community are having a great deal of sickness. Many William Wooten and wife, of Greene county, have been visiting relatives and friends in our town this week. The cotton crop is said to be materially injured by want of rain in Buckles-We hope that it is not so much so as reported. The office of Dr. Hodges was entered last Sunday or Sunday night and robbed of a book, and it may be of other articles. His instruments were scattered promiscuously. Frank Tilghman, colored, was cap tured by Deputy Sheriff George W. Warters last Wednesday and lodged in jail, to await a hearing at the next term of Superior Court. The biggest chub fish, or the biggest fish story we have heard of this season was the one hung by Dempsey Wood while "bobbing" in Bear creek a few days ago. His companion, Junius Sut-ton, declared his mouth to be large enough to take in his hat. This was told by Dempsey himself.

The fall session of the schools in our town will begin about the first of next month. We hear that the prospects for an increased number of pupils are good. Rev. Mr. Morgan, of the Institute, is working faithfully and receiving much encouragement, while everything indi-cates that Davis' School will be much larger than ever before.

A large quantity of blue fish were brought up from the cape on the Favonia last Wednesday for Mr. G. N. Ives.

Morehead City, we regret to learn has been quite unwell for sometime past, having had a stroke of paralysis.

Mr. Cicero Styron returned to More-head City on Monday last from Win-ston. He says the chances for a poor man are equally as good here as in that part of the State. He thinks his brother will return soon.

The sloope Nellie May, Capt. Sam Howland, lost her rudder at sea during a squall last week, but was fortunate enough to get into Oregon Inlet, though in a leaking condition. We have not heard the particulars.

On Wednesday last, the crew em-ployed by Mr. G. N. Ives at Cape Look out captured twenty-two cowfish or blackfish, some of which were twenty-five feet long. They will make a large amount of oil and scrap. This is a greater number than we have known caught before at one time.

Mr. Delamar Wells, who resides near the "open grounds" at the head of North river, has corn which is fourteen feet high from the ground to the top of the tassel and it is nine feet and a half from the ground to the ear, and this by actual measurement. We give this as a morsel for those to chew who think these lands not pay for the drainage. If we live to see those lands improved and cultivated, we shall see Carteret one of the wealthwe shall see Carteret one of the wealth-iest counties in the State.

Old uncle Jack Gailer, being a well known colored man of the neighborhood, arose this morning in apparent good health, and after breakfast a while was discovered to be dead. On investigation it was discovered that he fell backwards from his stool while mending his pants.

Mr. J. N. Mason sent this week to Mr. Geo. Allen of New Berne a forty pound melon, which though ten pounds smaller than Mr. Laughton's we pronounce good for a Harlowe melon, as we do not boast of having a melon district.

The schooners Mabel, Marietta and Emily have taken, within the last week, from the mill of Messrs. Bell & Son about 25,000 feet of lumber to different parts of Carteret county, and still men are waiting. This indicates that our Carteret people mean business.

We venture to suggest that it is be cause the people have recognized in his life and sufferings a hero and a patriot, and that he is enshrined in their affections as the great North Carolina martyr. True manhood had in him a magnificent exemplar-whilst pure woman-hood felt that he was ever ready to dare. and if need be, die in ite defense.

As an editor he was the tribune of the people. In their behalf and in be-half of constitutional liberty and personal independence he was frank, fearless and faithful.

He submitted his proud neck to the foot of no master, and bore the troubles which at one time encompassed him like the waters of the ocean an outlying boulder, with a steadfastness and cour age which almost brought tears of ad-miration from those best acquainted with his manifold trials.

The clouds which lowered over him so long seemed to be breaking away, and the near future was beaming with promise and public appreciation, when his Father in Heaven saw fit to bring his career to an end.

The spontaneous action of the com-munity in which he lived has resulted in the appointment of the undersigned monument to perpetuate his memory.

From all who honor manly devotion to duty—unswerving rectitude of purpose-heroic martyrdom-scorn truckling obsequiousness and faithful-ness in the discharge of public trust, we ask co-operation in attaining the object of our appointment.
