IN AND ABOUT HOTELS

W. H. Barnum, of Connecticut, was registered at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last night, but he left on an early train for Connecticut, "I haven't time to talk politics," he said.

Mr. Barnum smiled coldly. "No, it's all idle gossip," he said, and hurried away.

John M. Langston, ex-Minister to Hayti, arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel on Saturday night. He is here to meet Mrs. Salomon, the wife of the President of Hayti, ten days ago in the steamship Normandy.

Said Mr. Langston: "Hayti is a country capable of great developments. The climate is perfect and the soil is rich. There is a very friendly feeling there for the United States, and our trade with Hayti has doubled within the last few years. It is important that this friendly feeling should continue."
