Preaching at the Theatre tonight by Rev. Mr. Bowman, Adventist.

The schooner Metra, that put into Beaufort a few days ago, has completed her repairs and will sail today for Philadelphia.

Mr. Jonathan Havens, during the last summer months, has shaped a most beautiful yacht model. He is a born ship builder, and had this talent been cultivated would have been one of the foremost of the times.

There were six cases before His Honor, Mayor Meadows, yesterday. Two for disorderly conduct and four for drunk and disorderly. They were asked to pay the cost and contribute two dollars each to the city treasury, which modest request they all, save one, complied with. He preferred a lodging in Craven street hotel.

Rev. Mr. Bull brings us a two prong twig of a tree which grows in his yard.
One prong, which is about eighteen inches long, contains twenty-five pods, resembling young cotton bolls, about the size of hickory nuts. The other prong, about the same length has no bolls but large leaves and blooms.
Will some one call and tell us what it is?

Personal.
Mr. C. E. Foy has returned from New York. He and Mr. J. J. Wolfenden constituted the committee on part of the Cotton Exchange to visit the headquarters of the Clyde and Old Dominion line of steamers and endeavor to secure better freight rates for New Berne. Their visit, we hope, has not been in vain.

Mrs. Virginia Harrison has returned from a trip to Boston and Chicago, where she has been on a visit to daughter and son.

Rev. J. C. Price, the famous colored organist, accompanied by Daney of the Barbours Sentinel, was in the city yesterday in the interest of Zion Wesleyan College at Salisbury.

Miss Matt Ransom left yesterday for Morganton.

Justice Brinson was engaged yesterday in the preliminary hearing of the cases of State against Jake Bell and Henry Slade, colored, for the larceny of a pair of shoes from the store of Taylor and Smith, and James Reed, colored, for the larceny of coal from Mrs. E. B.
Ellis. They were sent to jail in default of bail in the sum of one hundred dollars each for their appearance at the next term of the Superior Court. These arrests were made by our police force who are ever on the alert for all offenders of the city ordinance and violations of the laws of the State.

Adventist Doctrine.

Elder P. G. Bowman, Adventist, preached in the Theatre on Sunday to an audience of about seventy-five.
The subject of his discourse was, "If a man die, should he live again." From his sermon we could ascertain his position with certainty upon but two points.
First, there is no such thing as an immortal spirit in men that takes its flight to heaven when he dies but when a man dies all of him is dead and remains dead until the resurrection; second, eternal torment is not taught in the Bible; is not taught by God, and is wholly unscriptural.

He announced his intention to devote the remainder of his life to preaching against this doctrine of eternal torment.
He speaks like a man of fair intelligence and of considerable general information. As to the manner in which he handled the subject of his discourse we leave that to Rev. R. E. Hearne of the Free Will Baptist who was present and gave him strict attention.

He will discourse again tonight at the Theatre beginning at 8 o'clock.

D. R. Walker on Money and Other Matters.

The general impression in this section has been all the summer, that the tobacco region was flush with money, judging from the large brands and high price frequently reported in the papers published in that region. "D. R.
Walker" throws a little light on the subject and tells us that we are in the midst of the money section. Hear him:

Money is in a low state of health just now in North Carolina and it takes considerable pirouetting around to haul in the dues. The money for old crops has expired. The money for new crops we fear has been expended. At New Berne, however, we found the money market easier than at Winston, Durham or Greensboro. We speak advisedly, because we are a dealer in money and a cultivator of finances. New Berne, just now, therefore, is delightful to a money agriculturist. Fresh mackerel are abundant in the New Berne market and are among the many delicacies now enjoyed at the Gaston House. The harmonic, musical twang of the fish boy singing through the streets "here you are; nice, fresh, mackerel, only five cents," excites the responsive echo of "I will arise and go to" breakfast, set to long metre music.

The cotton exchange is brushing up for the coming crop of cotton. An offer has been made by the exchange to the city fathers to lease the dock at the foot of Craven street for twenty years for the purpose of erecting a commodious free wharf; free to all except lumber, coal, etc. A Norfolk firm will soon erect a large warehouse for guano in New Berne. The Atlantic road we are informed, is hauling large trains freighted with general merchandise for all points in the State. President Bryan informed your correspondent that he is rebuilding all the bridges and relaying the road with new cross-ties, and is paying cash for everything, also paying off the floating debt rapidly; is ready to change the gauge when the general change takes place next spring to 4 feet 8 1/2; will begin in December to lay steel rails. Arrangements for transfer of freight have been consummated. The earnings of the road are satisfactory and increasing.

At Kinston, Capt. White, of the Neuse River Navigation Company, informed us that Gen. Ransom had confided the upper and lower system of jetties.

Gen. Ransom hopes how to have three feet of water the year round to Kinston.
Steamboats are not doing much at present on account of low water, though flat-bottomed boats are running to Kinston. All the steamers of this line have been thoroughly overhauled.

George B. Galen—Resolutions of Respect.

NEW BERNE, N. C., Sept. 12, 1885.
To the Board of Directors of the National Bank of New Berne:

GENTLEMEN—It is my painful duty to announce to you the sad fact that on Thursday last, the 10th inst., George B.
Galen, a member of this Board, died on the railroad train at Salisbury, in this State, while en route for his home from the mountains. His death was the result of rapid pulmonary consumption, and was not unexpected by his family and friends, who have, for sometime, been greatly solicitous about his health.

I, therefore, as an evidence of our deep regret for his death and our appreciation of his merits, offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That by the death of George B. Galen, a Director of this Bank, a vacancy has been made in our Board which will be difficult to supply.

Resolved, That his course as a Director was always marked by a high appreciation of the duties of the position, never swerving from his sense of obligation; never influenced by personal motives, but, always doing what he conscientiously believed to be right, and for the best interest of the institution.

Resolved, That in his death, the business community has lost a member whose intelligence, upright and enterprising, made him an ornament and a shining example.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the family of the deceased, with a sincere expression of our deep sympathy; that they be spread upon the minutes on a page specially dedicated to that purpose, and that they be published in the daily papers.

Very respectfully,
JOHN HUGHES, Pres't.

The above resolutions were unanimously adopted at a meeting of the Board of Directors, held at the banking house of the National Bank of New Berne on the 12th day of September, 1885.

Grand United Order of the Legion of Honor.

The colored young men of New Berne, realizing the self-evident fact that unity perpetuates power, assembled themselves together for the purpose of organizing a religious society under the above signature, for the purpose of feeling more deeply each others interests, and to help those who try to help themselves in everything pertaining to their material, moral and religious welfare.

The officers elected were as follows:
I. Harris, Jr., M. E. C.; A. W. Walker, Jr., M. E. R.; W. H. Dwyer, N. R.; L. R. Randolph, N. B.; M. P. Holley, N. D.; M. W. Chapman, H. P.; W. H.
Barton, A. P.; Sam'l Candwick, P. L.; E. Bowens, N. G.; J. W. Wetherington, S. C.; J. C. Bryant, S. C.; James Green,
T. J. G. Shilton, M.

KELLEY TENDERS HIS RESIGNATION.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 12.—Mr. A.
M. Kelley was at the department of state today. He has tendered his resignation as minister to Austria, and his resignation has been accepted.

Kinston Items.

Our wharves look lively now with quantities of turpentine and spirit barrels, and cotton bales.

John McKee opened a butcher's stall in the Math. Harvey building, next to Archibald's, on Saturday.

Dr. J. T. Walsh, since his return from his eastern preaching tour, has been very sick but is now better.

The flowers in the park are now very beautiful, but few go to see them. The park has lost none of its attractions.

Prof. E. M. Goodwin paid us a short visit last week. He gained many friends here last year as superintendent of the graded school.

Between thirty and forty bales of new cotton have been sold here since the season opened. Fourteen bales were sold on Thursday.

F. C. Loops has opened a hardware establishment in one of the Prigden block of stores. His goods are coming in by every train.

Mr. F. C. Loops has returned, after quite an extended tour in the north and northwest. He says they are still making beer in Milwaukee.

Rev. George Joyner, who has been very dangerously ill from typhoid fever for some time past, is now slightly improved in condition; and his many friends will be glad to know this.

Mr. J. B. Babbitt, who had been confined to his room for many months, and who unexpectedly appeared on the streets last week, has become insane.
He was carried to the Insane Asylum at Raleigh Friday.

There was a match game of baseball here on Friday, between two colored clubs, the Kinston and the Snow Hill.
Kinston scored 44, Snow Hill 30. The clubs formed a line, after the game, and marched down Queen street, headed by the Level City band and followed by a line of drays. This same club beat Snow Hill on its own ground some time ago.

Bell's Ferry Items.

Sickness has somewhat abated.
Our town is very orderly now with Dr. Woods as mayor and Uncle Frank Bell chief of police.

Miss Lizzie Gaskins is visiting friends in your city. Miss May Woods is visiting friends in Kinston.

Cotton opening, but very little has been brought to market. Corn and rice crops are injured by the dry weather in August.

Mr. Guy Pope of La Grange—but since his arrival his parents have moved to your city—has connected himself with Geo. B. McCotter.

The paint brush has been at work making things look new. The store of Geo. B. McCotter has been under the skillful hand of John Portis.

With the buzz of the saw at F. M.
Pittman & Son's, and the ring of the hammer at Frank Bell's shop, we are led to believe that our town is on the boom.

Meers, Baldree, Skinner and Lovick have just finished a neat little flat to traverse the waters of noble old Con-tance, which would aid the steamers, when water is too low for them, in taking off cotton, rice, etc.

We want a daily mail from Kinston to Greenville by way of Bell's Ferry, Johnson's Mill and Coxville, and with the aid of Congressman Skinner and the JOURNAL we hope to secure it. I may tell you hear from me again on this subject.

Our town is on the list of live places.
Several houses have recently been erected; Mr. Jacob McCotter has just finished his handsome residence; Mr.
Moses Spivey's boarding-house is near completion, which when finished will be a very neat job.

The sick in our town are improving.
Frank and Alva Pittman, who have been quite sick, are convalescing. Bob Baldree is still confined to his room from a severe bilious attack. Geo. B.
McCotter has been for a few days at his home nursing a sty on the eye.

Dissatisfied with Silver Coin.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A prominent Treasury official said today that Congress would have to take some steps to settle the silver question next winter, for already the people had demonstrated their detestation for this specie. He said that another bill that was absolutely necessary was one for the recoinage of fractional silver. To support his views he cited an instance which had recently occurred where a gentleman sent four silver quarters to the Philadelphia mint for redemption, and although he did not perceive any difference in the coins the mint officials informed him that he could get but 75 cents, as that was the bullion value of the four pieces of money.

From the same official it was learned that there is a movement looking to a disposal of surplus one-dollar and two-dollar bills of Canada in the United States, which had, previous to the silver agitation, depreciated to 85 cents. Now, however, they are received as par with the standard silver dollars of this country, and a great deal of this paper money is in circulation. Already attempts have been detected by the Secretary of the Treasury Department to counterfeit these Canadian bills, and for this reason people are warned to be careful how they handle Canadian paper money. For the information of the public it is stated that the genuine one-dollar notes of Canada, contain a well-executed vignette, as a counterfeit of the Princess Louise, and the $2 note a vignette of the Marquis of Lorne. Each denomination is numbered in the upper right and left hand corners, and the general color of the note is white. The backs are green, similar to United States Treasury notes, and in the centre is the Canadian coat-of-arms, surrounded by the inscription, "Victoria Dei Gratia Britannia Regina."

NEWS BY MAIL.

NO RACE YET.
Sandy Hook, N. J., Sept. 12.—9:30 A. M.—Neither the Puritan nor the Genesta has passed out yet. The weather is hazy with a six-mile breeze from the north, and a smooth sea. The Signal Service Office predicts for today very light, generally southerly winds.
9:40 A. M.—The Puritan is now in coming down the bay.

10 A. M.—The Puritan is passing out in two. The Genesta is immediately astern under sail.

The judges boat has taken the Genesta in tow, while the tug Scandinavian has taken the Puritan. All are moving out towards the lightship. As the Genesta neared the Hook, the little sloop Vixen, that walked away from the Midge last year, drew up under her main sail, jib and gaff-top sail.

The Genesta carried her main sail and jib.
The Vixen leaped, the Genesta's stern and then stepped along in a safety fast-ion until she had left the Genesta astern.
The Genesta then set her club top sail, but kept astern of the little flyer.

11:10 A. M.—Both yachts are becalmed off Scotland lightship. There is no sign of starting. The wind is very light and southeasterly.

12:30 P. M.—The Puritan and Genesta are still becalmed off Scotland lightship.

12:55 P. M.—The yachts are still off Scotland lightship becalmed. The present indications are that the race will not come off, as there is not wind enough to fill their sails.

2:35 P. M.—The race is off for today.

DEATH OF EMORY A. STORRS.
CHICAGO, September 12.—A telegram was received at the law office of Emory A. Storrs this morning announcing the death of that well-known advocate at Ottawa, Ill., last night of paralysis of the heart. It was known that Mr. Storrs was sick, but his complaint was not considered serious until yesterday noon, when his wife was telegraphed for, and promptly went to him. He was arguing a case before the Supreme Court when stricken with his fatal sickness.

A DISTILLERY BURNED.
FRESNO, Cal., Sept. 12.—The winery and distillery of the Fresno vineyard company property of Lachman, Jacob & Co., and others, of San Francisco, were destroyed by fire yesterday. A large quantity of wine was lost. The total loss is $120,000, partially insured.

Senator Sherman Still Talking.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Sept. 10.—John Sherman arrived here this afternoon and spoke in the skating rink. In an interview he said: "I think Gov.
Hoadly will be compelled either to admit the suppression of the colored vote and adopt the Democratic argument of justification or deny the truth of what his Democratic friends in the South freely admit. He cannot do the former, because of his own abolition record, and I should be well pleased to have him attempt the latter. The question has nothing to do with war issues. It is a living question. Shall one white man in Mississippi wield twice or three times the influence in national affairs wielded by a white man in Ohio? When men tell me that it is impolitic to call attention to such monstrous unfairness, and that to open such rank injustice is to risk party defeat, I answer by saying if the Republican party has no longer the courage to defend the right and insist upon justice and equality of all sections of the Union it ought to be defeated. I would rather be permanently retired from public life than seem by silence to consent to the suppression of the colored vote in the South, and the injustice resulting therefrom to all parts of the country. The Northern people are not fully awake to the importance of this issue. I deem it a patriotic duty to arouse the public conscience on a question of such vital and far-reaching importance, and I shall not be deterred from so doing by considerations of mere policy."

Senator Sherman spoke of a letter received from J. S. Morrill, of Vermont, calling attention to a tariff bill which Congressman A. S. Hewitt, of New York, is preparing. This bill will provide for the entire abolition of all duties on so-called raw materials, such as wool, hemp, flax and scrap-iron, the latter including old rails. Mr. Morrill says that Mr. Hewitt's bill is to have the support and backing of Mr. Cleveland and his administration.

Cleveland Turns the Other Cheek.

It was a very curious paradox that the men who were the foremost in opposing the present administration are the ones who are permitted to hold office. The idea of civil service may be good, but the majority of men who are kept in office are of the Republican party—men who by word, act and pen did all they could to defeat the party in power—are kept in office, with large salaries, and are asked to contribute to the success of the Republican party. A circular has been sent around to each office-holder, and it would be well, if it could be ascertained, how much each office-holder paid to defeat the party that is in power. It is a very hard policy to furnish an enemy with a weapon to cut your own throat with. The Democratic Administration should have Democratic officers or none at all.

Rheumatism.

Although a practitioner of near twenty years, my mother influenced me to procure B. B. B. for her. She had been confined to her bed several months with Rheumatism, which had stubbornly resisted all the usual remedies. Within twenty-four hours after commencing B.
B. B. I observed marked relief. She has just commenced her third bottle, and is nearly as active as ever, and has been in the front yard with "rake in hand," cleaning up. Her improvement is truly wonderful and immensely gratifying. C. H. MONTGOMERY, M. D.

Riding Like the Wind.

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 10.—The great bicycle meet was largely attended today, fully five thousand people being present.
The utmost enthusiasm prevailed, and when Weber, of England, finished his great feat of riding 30 miles 638 yards in one hour the people went fairly wild and cheered for many minutes. It is the greatest record ever made by an amateur. Weber, the American, finished second and rode 20 miles 160 yards in the sixty minutes. The race was the ten mile record contest, which Weber won. Then continuing he rode the great race against time and gained a victory. Ten miles were done in 28m.
44 2/5s., fifteen miles in 43m. 36s., and twenty miles in 58m. 55 1/5s. The one-mile safety bicycle race was won by Howell in 2m 56s., with Woodside second.

Cripp rode a tricycle to beat the mile record. He succeeded by four and two-fifths seconds, his time being 1m. 53 4/5s.
The five-mile tandem bicycle race was won by Farnival and Cripp, with English and Lambert second. Time, 16m.
49 4/5s.

A three-mile race for professionals was won by Howells, with Woods second and James third; time, 8m. 45s. A three-mile tricycle race was won by Farnival in 9m. 37s.; Cripps was second.
A five-mile handicap for professionals was won by Woods, with Howell second. Both started from scratch; time, 14m. 34 1/5s. Woods made one mile in 2m. 29s., two miles in 5m. 29s., which is the best time in the world, and four miles in 11m. 32 2/5s. The performance makes new American records. Howell's record of three miles in 5m. 20s. is the best.

Englehardt won a mile safety race in 2m. 54s., and Rowe won a three-mile race in 8. 30s.

His Idea of a Yacht.

"I've hired a splendid yacht and will be delighted to take you chaps with me to see the race," said a prosperous, lively merchant to several friends in the Produce Exchange.

"What's her name?" they asked.
"I've forgotten," said he.
"Is she steam?"
"No."
"Sloop or schooner?"

"Really, I can't say; but those things are of no importance. I told my shipping man to hire a good-sized, safe yacht, with crew, for me, and send on board three boxes of champagne, three dozen claret, 300 Reina Victorias, 500 Turkish cigarettes, two dozen boxes sardines, two barrels best bread and crackers, three fine boiled hams, 500 picked oysters, a fine Sultan cheese and—"

"Here, hold up!" chorused the invited group. "We'll go; she's a safe boat, without question."
