HUMPHREY & HOWARD.

WANTED AT ONCE—By a Country Newspaper, a Man or Boy who understands setting type. Apply to the Pamlico Enterprise, Stonewall, N. C. 201f

Last day of October.
Lewis Washington has started Col. Jordan's store up Craven street.

The city authorities are patching the shelled streets with new oyster shells.

A great many farmers were in the city yesterday with cotton. The price is low but they find goods low in proportion.

Mr. A. D. Rawls of Baird's creek, Pamlico county, called to see us yesterday. He reports the best crop he has had in four years.

Jones Superior Court convenes Monday. Wm. McDaniel, Esq., gives notice in this issue that he will have conveyance at Core creek station for those who wish to attend.

The long reign of peace and quiet was broken in the police court yesterday by the appearance of a case of drunk and disorderly. He furnished two dollars for the city treasury, paid the cost and departed.

Rev. C. B. W. Gordon, col., will preach at Andrew Chapel on Sunday morning on the subject, Intercession for Transgressors. He invites everybody, both white and colored, to hear him.

Sam. K. Eaton, Esq., has returned from the Northern markets, where he has been for the last month selecting a stock of jewelry, and says he has succeeded admirably in getting what he wanted for.

Mr. Timothy Keeler tendered his resignation yesterday as U. S. Deputy Marshal. Mr. R. C. Kehoe has been acting in that capacity during the present term of the court and makes a very efficient deputy.

Edw. Hill, col., brought to the city yesterday two turkeys grown on Mosely creek, in this county, that weighed nine pounds. Sylvester Mackey, a colored merchant near the railroad depot, weighed them and the Rev. Hill told him he had one alone that weighed eight pounds.

Dan Kelly, "The iron-jawed man of the South," knows what to do with a horse's foot. No matter what sort of a horse it is, Dan Kelly can control him more completely than ever John Kelly controlled Tammany Hall; and when he takes a horse's foot in his lap and tinkers on it with his hammer, you may rest assured your horse is in a condition for traveling.

Miss Clara Louise Kellogg.
This eminent prima donna has consented to give a limited number of entertainments in this section of America, and will appear at New Bern about the 10th or 12th of December next if a sufficient number of seats can be sold in advance. A subscription list has been placed at Meadow's and Hancock's drug stores, and one will be placed at Kinston and other points on the Atlantic road. Miss Kellogg is pronounced the greatest songstress in America, and the best available talent has been secured to accompany her.

The price of seats will range from one to two dollars.

Preparations for Sunday.
"The practice up there" said a witness in the District Court yesterday while being examined in a case of retailing liquor without license, the defendant being from Wilson county, "is to have the bottles filled on Saturday night for Sunday; and when the crowd meets on Sunday they just ask one another behind the house to take a drink." But the witness, who was introduced by the Government, couldn't remember whether the defendant treated him on a certain occasion of whether he treated the defendant. The District Attorney thought this story showed rather too much intimacy between the defendant and the Government's witness, so he consented to take a verdict of not guilty.

Personal.
Miss Leah Jones is returned from an extended visit to relatives at Kenansville.

The Orphan Class.
The Orphan Class, consisting of four boys and eight girls, under the care of Miss Burwell, arrived on Thursday night and were greeted with a crowded house at the Theatre last night every available seat being taken. The entertainment was heartily enjoyed by the audience and the children acquitted themselves handsomely. During an intermission in the entertainment Grand Master Busbee appeared on the stage, thanked the people for their generous support of the Asylum, explained the work it is doing and urged them to continue to uphold it in its great and good work.

United States District Court.
Court convened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock when W. W. Clark, Esq., argued to the jury for the Government, the case of U. S. vs. John S. Manix and James H. Robinson for conspiracy to defraud the Government. The jury, after being out a short time returned a verdict of not guilty.

This case excited more interest than any other tried at this term of the court, and the attorneys engaged in it acquitted themselves well. Mr. Simmons, in conducting the case for the defense, both in bringing out the testimony, and presenting it to the jury, showed marked ability, legal acumen and argumentative powers. Mr. Clark, in a full two hours speech, presented the case for the government in its strongest light. His argument was exhaustive and pointed. He thoroughly discussed every point and presented it with great force; so well did he perform his duty for the Government that Mr. Robinson can congratulate himself upon a verdict from twelve intelligent men—the jury was an exceptionally good one—after a most rigid and vigorous prosecution.

Court took a recess until 3 o'clock when the following cases were disposed of:
U. S. vs. Jones H. Young, embezzlement postoffice fund. Moore and Clarke for the defendant; Attorney Busbee for the Government. The defendant put in a plea of insanity. Attorney Busbee did not think it would hold water; the jury agreed with him and brought in a verdict of guilty.

U. S. vs. John Galloway, retailing without license, Moore & Clarke and D. L. Ward for defendant, Attorneys Busbee & Bagley for the Government. Verdict: Not guilty.

U. S. vs. Henry Felton, retailing without license. D. L. Ward for defendant, Attorneys Busbee and Bagley for the Government. Upon the examination of the Government's witnesses Attorney Busbee said he would not ask for a verdict of guilty. Verdict of not guilty was entered.

The jurors were discharged for the term and court adjourned to 10 o'clock this morning.

Kinston Items.

No killing frost yet.
New river oysters have begun to come.

It is horrible to think of the number of bachelors and widowers that reside in Kinston.

Question for students of N. C. History: How long was North Carolina an independent State?

Is Kinston finished? We see that our carpenters and masons have plenty of time on their hands.

Our ex-countyman, Mr. Frank Barrett, reports himself as doing well in his new home at Waco, Texas.

There is a revival going on in the Knights of Honor here. Some new members are being gathered in.

We are very glad to see Postmaster Barrett out again, after being "under the weather" a few days from chills.

Mr. Henry Archbell now has Sheriff Sutton's incubator and will compete with the hens in the hatching business.

A chapter of orphans from the Oxford Orphan Asylum gave an entertainment at Loftin's Opera House on Wednesday night.

CLIPPINGS.

The crop of raisins grown in California has increased from 1,000 boxes nineteen years ago to 400,000 the present season. The hot-water cure retains its popularity in Hartford, where the Times of that city states it is more taken than any other remedy.

Dirty streets, unclean water, neglected sewers, and anti-vaccination ideas are said to be the causes of the visitation of small-pox in Montreal.

The application of the white of an egg to a snake bite wound saved the life of a little girl in St. John's county, Fla. She was bitten twice on the foot by a ground rattlesnake.

Old Uncle Peter, who died in Clarke county, Ga., the other day, had lived with one family for sixty-one years. Although emancipated, he lived with his old master until the latter's death.

In Colusa county, Cal., about a year ago a youth shot himself because a young woman refused his offer of marriage. The girl said he was a fool, but the boy recovered. The other day the girl committed suicide because the same boy refused to marry her.

A St. Louis drug company recently received a package of aloes tied up in a monkey skin. A writer in a Western paper thinks this method of packing rather rough on the monkeys, for it takes thirty or more of the little fellows to furnish wrappings for a single hundredweight of the drug.

A locomotive driver who can point to forty years of uninterrupted service without a single accident is not a man to be met with every day. Such a one is a Saxon engine driver of the name of Henze, who has just gone into retirement. During his forty years of railway riding, Henze has travelled a distance of 253,347 geographical miles, or 1,900,102 kilometres—in other words, a distance equal to forty-seven journeys round the earth.

A dozen years ago an Antwerp tailor bought for a franc a dirty little picture which had belonged to an old doctor then recently deceased. The tailor hung the picture upon the wall, but did not think it worth the cost of cleaning, and nobody found it very attractive. A little while ago, however, an artist happened to see it, and induced the owner to lend it to him to clean. No sooner was the first coat of dirt removed than there was seen in one of the corners the signature, "Pietro Paulo Rubens, 1614."

The picture represents Christ blessing the world, and is said to be in excellent preservation. The tailor has already received several good offers for his picture, but he is waiting until a rich American comes along.

It was not long ago that the doctors discovered the existence of muscular disease, due to the excessive strain of bicycle riding; and now they have given the name of tennis elbow to a painful ailment which is sufficiently explained by its title. While playing, intense pain is suddenly felt in the right elbow, the arm drops to the side, and take or service is impossible for periods varying from six weeks to six months. Such cases, if now appears, are very frequent. One sufferer ascribes it to rheumatism, and another found he had fractured a small bone. The former tried rheumatic medicine and the latter poultices, and both got well; but the majority of the patients find that rest is the best remedy, and, indeed, the only remedy.

A Scotch cobbler, described briefly as a notorious offender, has passed his life in a certain village without being convicted. The other day a Forfar magistrate sentenced him to a fine of half a crown or twenty-four hours' imprisonment. If he chose the latter he would be taken to the jail at Perth. "Then I'll go to Perth," he said. "I have business in the town, at any rate." An official conveyed him by train to Perth, but when the prisoner reached the jail he said that he would now pay the fine. The Governor found that he would have to take it. "And now," said the cobbler, "I want my fare home." The Governor demurred, made inquiries, and discovered that there was no alternative; the prisoner must be sent at the public expense to the place he had been brought from.

Snatched from the Grave.
Mrs. Helen Pharis, No. 331 Dayton St., Ill., is now in her sixty-eighth year and states that she has suffered with Consumption for about ten years, was treated by nine physicians, all of them pronouncing her case hopeless. She had given up all hopes of ever recovering. Seven bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption completely cured her. Doubting ones, please drop her a postal and satisfy yourselves. Sold by all druggists everywhere.

NEWS BY MAIL.

EMPEROR WILLIAM'S RELIGIOUS FAITH.
BERLIN, Oct. 27.—Emperor William yesterday visited the cathedral chapel to inspect the new altar picture, the "Adoration of the Magi." Court Chaplain Kogel related to the Emperor the history of the picture, and Count von Arnim, President of the Synod, thanked his Majesty for his continued favors. The Emperor, replying, congratulated Chaplain Kogel upon his devotion to well doing. Continuing, he said: "In these my latter days, I call heaven to witness that I have always considered religion the only foundation on which depends everything. It is the highest possession of my people."

DEPRESSION IN THE CLYDE SHIPBUILDING TRADE.
GLASGOW, Oct. 25.—The shipbuilding trade on the Clyde is greatly depressed, over 70 per cent. of the workmen being unemployed. Soup kitchens have been opened to relieve the sufferings of the poor.

EXPERIENCES WITH IMPORTED LABOR.
RANDOLPH, N. Y., Oct. 27.—Under promise of work on the Jamestown railroad, eighty Hungarians on the water works struck today and demanded their wages. Time-keeper Bloom, refusing to settle, was attacked, and fled for his life. The police were called and quelled the riot. The men will return to work.

TO BE SHOT FOR MURDER.
MUSCOGEE, I. T., Oct. 27.—The death warrant of Anderson Burres has been signed and delivered to Sheriff Hare of Lehigh, who will see that he is shot on Friday, Nov. 6, at Pushmataha Court House, Cherokee Nation. Burres murdered his wife.

MINISTER CURRY ENTERTAINED.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 27.—Mr. Curry, the newly appointed Minister to Spain, and his wife were entertained at dinner to-night by his predecessor, Gen. John W. Foster. Among the other guests were Secretary Bayard, Chief Justice Waite, and the Spanish Minister.

SUDDEN DEATH OF GEN. GEORGE B. McCLELLAN FROM NEURALGIA OF THE HEART.
NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 29.—Gen. George B. McClellan died suddenly shortly after midnight last night, from neuralgia of the heart. He returned home about six weeks ago from his trip West, with his family and had been under the care of a physician for about two weeks. Nothing serious was expected until yesterday, when he became worse. He died suddenly by his family, at St. Cloud, Orange Mountain, where he had lived for about twenty years. Invitations had been issued for a reception this evening.

Gen. McClellan's summer home, erected after the war, was on the summit of Orange Mountain, next to that of his father-in-law, Gen. Marcy. The whole community was shocked by the news of his death. Flags are flying at half-mast, and the Grand Army Post has called a meeting to express their sorrow and offer a body guard for the remains. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made. Gen. McClellan was an elder in the Presbyterian church.

THE CASTING OF THE 54-TON GUN A FAILURE.
BOSTON, Oct. 29.—The casting of the 54-ton gun at the South Boston Iron works was a failure. The men upon stripping the mould from the gun found that owing to unequal cooling, caused by the core having given away on one side during the process of casting, it cracked open, destroying the gun, which will have to be recast. The core arbor will either be repaired or a new one made.

A $60,000 BLAZE IN HARTFORD, CONN.
HARTFORD, Oct. 29.—Fire was discovered about 4:20 this morning in the saloon of Patrick Mayer, at New Hartford, and spread rapidly until eight buildings were destroyed. The loss will be between $50,000 and $60,000, and is only partially covered by insurance.

CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—Fire in the Dale House at Hatton, Ill., caused a slight damage to the hotel, but the stock of books in the basement, among which were the entire city records, was destroyed.

Sold at fifty cents a bottle by all druggists.

Frightful Catarrh.
PIECES OF BONE.
For four years I have been afflicted with a very troublesome catarrh of the head. So terrible is its nature been that when I blew my nose small pieces of bone would frequently come out of my mouth and nose. The discharge was very copious, and at times exceedingly offensive. My blood became so impure that my general health was greatly impaired, with poor appetite and worse digestion.

Numerous medicines were used without relief, until I began the use of B. B. B., and three bottles acted almost like magic. Since their use not a symptom has returned, and I feel in every way quite restored to health. I am an old citizen of Atlanta, and refer to almost any one living on Butler street, and more particularly to Dr. L. M. Gilliam, who knows of my case.

Mrs. ELIZABETH KNOTT.
For sale wholesale and retail by R. N. Duffy. Cash to accompany the order.
