THE JOURNAL.

NEW BERNE, N. C., NOV. 1. 1885.

"MY FRIEND, MAJOR SCHURZ, The best authorities declare that it is highly presumptuous for a clerk, tradesman, artisan, or, indeed, for a person in any business or oc-cupation, to address his customers as friends and acquaintance simply because of the business relations existing between the two.

A shirt maker who disregarded this very good rule was placed in rather an embarasing situation New Berne Cotton Gin, through his lack of politeness and

Gen. S had some shirts made at a fashionable dress-makers, and the cutter, a few weeks later, met the general walking with a friend in Broadway.

The general remembered the face, but could not place him, and the cutter greeted him with,-

"Good-morning, general. How are you today?"

The general stopped, shook hands, and the cutter, perceiving that the general's mind needed re freshin, said, quietly,-

"Made your shirts!"
"Oh, I beg pardon," said the general, quickly, and turning to the gentleman with whom he was Ho B. Duffy, proprietor talking, said, "Colonel, allow me to introduce you to my friend, Major Schurz."

> WILLIMANSETT .- It was at the close of a very warm day in August, and the train on the Connecticut River Railroad was crowded with hot and tired picnickers. Every seat was occupied, and tired moth-their laps. A very fat and much worn out looking man stood in the centre of the aisle, fanning himself vigorously with the cover of a lauch bas

The train slacked up for a station and the brakeman put his head into the car, and shouted in the partly interrogated manner, peculiar to his class, "Wil a man-sett! Wil a man- DAN. KELLY & BRO.

"Yes!" roared the fat man; "he will, if he can find a seat! And stay there till he batches some

The passengers laughed, and as a passenger got out at Will mansett the fat man found a seat.

PESTHE USE

Wasting A Dollar When You May Save It?

To try to the utmost to deserve the public patronage and make it to every person's interest to deal with us, by keeping everything that they might want in our line always on hand, selling our Goods at a uniform and very close margin, treating all customers alike, and using every means in our power to win their confidence by square, honest dealing, is now and has always been our endeavor. This year we have carried an exceptionally large and varied stock, but this fall we have more than doubled all of our exertions heretofore to be the ACKNOWLEDGED LEADING DRY GOODS HOUSE of the city. We will not quote any prices, as it is impossible for us to keep our line of Bargains unbroken, and, consequently, our customers not appreciating the circumstances under which they are obtained, complained. So, to give no dissatisfaction in that line, we say simply, come early, and you may all get a share. You can get EVERYTHING IN THE DRY GOODS LINE at our establishment. To begin with

Our Stock of DRESS GOODS.

Which is always full, has been more than doubled this Fall in variety and styles, and our prices are reduced in proportion almost. We have a full line of Cashmeres in black and colors, Tricots, Gins, Bales, and pays $1.00 per bale of 500 lbs.

Henriettas, Myosotis, Drap D'Almas, Satin Berbers, Gilbert's Flannels, Ladies Cloths, Double Width Flannels, and in fact every variety of single and double width Dress Goods. We would call especial attention to our line of PLAID DRESS GOODS,
