Every person who lists his property does it under oath, and the only effectual remedy we know of to prevent false swearing is for "Jog" to indict every man who chooses to perjure him-self for the purpose of cheating the gov-ernment out of a few dimes or dollars.

Election News.

A telegram from our former townsman, Thes. J. Latham, Esq., announces a great victory for the Democrats in Virginia, eyen Norfolk has gone Democratic by over three hundred and fifty majority. The old State is rejoicing in the downfall of Mahoneism and North Carolina sends greetings. The Whig, which has sided much in securing the Democratic victory by its bitter and extreme partisan attacks, can now afford to call him Governor Lee instead of F.lee.

A telegram from C. W. Rice at Richmond to Messrs. Watson & Street also nnounces that the State has gone Demoratio by over 20,000, and that Dupree, emocrat, had been elected to the Legisture from Prince Edward, a strong apublican county.

The following telegrams were received last night at 84 o'clock:

last night at 84 o'clock:

There has been no material change since has bulletins. Scattering reports still coming in show further small Democratic gains. Lee's election is now generally conceded by a majority of 17,000. Returns not get in will probably swell this majority over one or two thousand. The Democratic have a majority on joint ballot in both houses and thus controls the entire tate government. A special to the fute newspaper of Richmond says Genul Mahone concedes Lee's election. There is great rejoicing by the Democrate throughout the State.

Luck. One of our Onslow subscribers was he sold for the top price, and found the in the chair. way to the JOURNAL office where he his receipt, we asked:

"How is the cotton turning out this year in your neighborhood?"

"Well, it is generally pretty short." "What is the cause of the shortage; lack of work, manure, or unfavorable easons?"

"It is a little of all. There is not as much manuring as ought to be, but the wet weather in the spring, and the dry weather in August was bad on cotton. I will tell you one thing, however, it makes no difference with Ed Murrill whether he manures his land or not, or whether it is too wet or too dry; he is Two boat loads of Core sound oysters the luckiest man to make cotton I ever would make a good crop. Yes, sir, he is a lucky man to make cotton."

In our farm life we, like this gentleman, thought there was something in luck. We once had a neighbor who never appeared to be in a hurry, would go hunting when he felt like it, and that was quite often, yet he was always up with his work and made better crops than those who were in a strain from daybreak till dark and never had time to go hunting. We would like to hear from Bill Arp on "Luck."

We did not understand our friend to mean that Mr. Murrill had cotton this year which he neither cultivated nor manured.

Miss Louise Kellogg. The prospects for securing the visit of this celebrated songstress to New Berne are very good but not absolutely safe. A certain number of reserve seats must be taken before she will consent to honor New Berne with a visit. The management desires to ascertain the fact this morning when the board will be worth much, speaks thusly of Mis Kellogg and her attendants:

"Miss Louise Kellogg's Concert Company is composed of the following singers and musicians: Miss Pauline Montegriffo, contralto; Mr. Ross David, tenor; Mr. Francis H. Noyes, baritone; Miss Oillie Torbett, of Alabama, violiniste, and Mme. Julia Rive-King, pianist. She is herself the greatest of American singers and has no superior probably among living singers, except Patti and Neilson. and she was indeed very fine. ### Listing Taxes.

NEWBERN, Nov. 4, 1884. EDITOR JOURNAL:-In your issue of today I see you have devoted a large space in your paper to the subject of non-payment of poll tax by many of the citizens of Craven county, and complain against the chairman of the commissioners for not prosecuting those who fail to list their polls. We fully agree with you in forcing obedience to listing and paying poll taxes, and we also be-lieve that all laws should be executed by those whose duty it is to enforce

Now as you have taken so much pains to expose the delinquency of the poll tax payers, by furnishing statistical information bearing upon that subject, and urging the enforcement of the law, even, if necessary, to disfranchisement, we believe the state of the law, which have the subject of the law. lieve you can better serve the public by ing its shops, buildings, bridges, etc., which cost over $1,000,000, is valued only at $180,000, and is so valued not use the road is not worth more, but simply because it is "too poor to pay a heavier tax." Do the commiss of Craven value the property of the recple of Craven county according to their ability to pay, or according to its real value? We believe not. Now, Mr. JOURNAL, give this matter your atten-Jog. tion.

The crop of cotton is much shorter than anticipated on the lat of August; but the crop is not so short as the price and that is what gives a farmer the fles. This is rather heavy on the lawyers, and we hope they may let up a little and that Mr. Aman's nightmare may end in nothing real.

The President's Thanksgiving Proclamation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—The following is a text of the President's thanksgiving proclamation:

By the President of the United States of America-A Proclamation.

American people have always abundant cause to be thankful to Almighty God, whose watchful care and guiding hand have been manifested in every stage of their national life, guarding and protecting them in time of peril, and safely leading them in the hour of darkness and of danger. It is fitting and proper that a nation thus favored should on one day in every year, for that purpose especially appointed, publicly acknowledge the goodness of God, and return thanks to Him for all His gracious

Therefore, I, Grover Cleveland President of the United States of America, do hereby designate and set apart Thursday, the 26th day of November inst., as a day of public thanksgiving and prayer, and do invoke observance of the same by all the people of the land. On that day let all secular business be sus pended, and let the people assemble in their usual places of worship, and with tify their gratitude to the giver of every for our preservation as a united nation. and for our deliverance from the shock and danger of political convulsions: for the blessings of peace and for our safety and quiet while wars and rumors of wars have agitated and afflicted other nations of the earth; for our security against the scourge of pestilence, which in other lands has claimed its dead by thusands and filled streets with mourners; for the plenteous crops which re-ward the labor of the husbandman and increase our nation's wealth, and for the contentment throughout our borders which follows in the train of prosperity and abundance; and let there also be on the day thus set apart a reunion of fami hea, amotified and chastened by tender memories and associations; and let so-cial intercourse of friends with pleasant reminiscences renew the ties of affection and strengthen the bonds of kindly feeling; and let us by no means forget, while we give thanks and enjoy com-forts which have crowned our lives, that truly grateful hearts are inclined to deeds of charity, and that a kind and thoughtful remembrance of the poor will double the pleasures of our condition, and render our praise and thanks-giving more acceptable in the sight of he Lord. Done at the city of Washington this, the second day of November, one thou-sand eight hundred and eighty-five, and of the independences of the United States the one hundred and tenth.
