Craven county will have an Agricultural and Mechanical Fair next fall.

John Dunn's store begins to remind one of Christmas. Santa Claus will be there in force this year.

Governor Scales has appointed Jas. A. track. Bryan, Esq., to represent the 2d Congressional district in the Harbor Imwe hope Mr. Bryan will attend.

The best thing the JOURNAL can think of now for this section is the holding of an Agricultural and Mechanical Fair at New Berne next fall. We will endeavor to point out the advantages of such an exhibit in future issues and direct our efforts to make it a success.

Miss Connie Curtis came down from her yome at Old Fort, last week to enter the Graded School, and has been assigned to the seventh grade. There are quite a number of young ladies from a distance entering the High School, and we are convinced they can find no better school anywhere; while the tuition is merely nominal.

The New Berne Graded School has enrolled twenty-nine new students during the last month. There are three things that commend this school to parents in this section: the healthfulness of New Berne, cheap board and tuition and, the best of all, the thorough and efficient work being done by the teachers. There is room for one hundred more children. Let them come.

One of the incidents worthy of note in the city yesterday was that of L. J. Taylor walking down Craven street with a stick of candy on his shoulder. It was a portion of a huge stick made at his factory on Wednesday at the Frog Pond, which was ten feet long and 24 Ninth Grade 95.9 inches in diameter. Mr. Taylor tells us Tenth Grade 95.4 that his establishment is taxed to its utmost to supply the demands for his Personal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bryan are on a visit to New York. Mayor A. J. Loftin of Kinston is in the city. Mr. W. F. Stanly, a prominent cotton buyer and merchant of Kinston, was in

Prof. Straker on the Republican Policy South.

By invitation of Algernon S. Sullivan, Coroner Messemer, Crosby, Henry Bergh, Stephen Herritt, and others, Prof. D. A. Straker Dean of Allen Uuiversity and Professor of Common Law in that institution at Columbia, S. C., lectured on Wednesday evening on Chairman Derrick, introducing the at the fair of Neuilly drew fashionable speaker, remarked that somebody had women night after night to a dingy ated that the Professor was to URVA the "bloody shirt" during his lecture. That wasn't so, because there was no garment of that hue to wave, either North or South. Of course there were certain imaginative minds that have clung to the shirt, but it pleased them and didn't hurt anybody else, so it was

Prof. Straker spoke of the vast improvements in commercial and indus-trial pursuits in the South during the last twelve years, and said this about the reconstruction period:

"While the native whites were burning schools houses and persecuting Northern teachers—the best friends the South has ever had—Republican politi-cal demagogues were using the negro as a tool and fomenting political strife and hatred between the races."

der Democratic rules is not to be compared with that under the carpet-bag regime. Now all that the colored people, both North and South, -need is to practise diligent economy, and I firmly believe that in the next century the negro, like the once despised Jew, will be a factor in the financial and commercial world. The Republican party was a usurpation on the South and undermined itself when it dallied with the ty, crime of 1876. It was weak when great strength was required."

Prof. Straker said he didn't want to about the regenerated South-but he couldn't but think that the recent utterances of John Sherman were unworthy of him. Of course, John Sherman and of him. Of course, John Sherman and other big Republican leaders were wide awake to the fact that the colored people now believe that they have been fed on shavings long enough. Not that they wanted office, in the understood sense of that word, but they had expected and felt entitled to some evidence of gratitude for the fidelity with which they had clung to the party. Now, all that they wanted was a new party in the South—a party of education and advancement, which will teach the negro to vote ligitaligently, and for his best interests.—N. Y. Sun.

> The two English ladies recently captured by Greek brigands, and released on a ransom of $2,500, have returned to their home in West Kensington, thoroughly cured of sentimental traveling on the plains of Marathon. Their ad-yentures bear a curious resemblance in many points to those of the two fair compatriots, Mrs. Simons and her daughter, as related so amusingly by Edmond About. It appears that the realization is complete, even to the fraternization of Greek gendarmes with the banditti, a spectacle of which the captives were actual witnesses.

DE LESSEPS ON THE PANAMA CANAL. Paris, Nov. 2.-M. de Lesseps, in a etter to a stockholder of the Panama Canal Company, justifying a further call of 125 francs per share, says that he is going to Panama in January to inaugurate the final period of the work on the canal. He refers to his application to the French Government for permission to issue new bonds, and repeats his prophecy that the Panama Canal, al-though it will cost double what the Suez Canal cost, will earn three times the earnings of the latter canal.
